ANNEXURE BSummary of the draft Bill

Clause 1 amends certain definitions of the National Education Policy Act, 1996. It amends the definitions of “Director-General” “education institution” and “Minister” to reflect the creation of the Department of Basic Education.

Clause 2 to 12 amends certain sections of the South African Schools Act, 1996.

Clause 2 amends Section 1 in the definitions of “loan” and “parent”. It further amends the definition of “Minister” to reflect the creation of the Department of Basic Education that will be responsible for the administration of this Act.

Clause 3 amends Section 5A by inserting a provision requiring consultation with the Minister of Finance before the Minister by regulation prescribes norms and standards for school infrastructure, school capacity and learning and teacher support material.

Clause 4 inserts Section 6B into the Act. It places an obligation on governing bodies to ensure that there is no unfair discrimination against official languages in schools.

Clause 5 amends Section 9 by inserting subsection 11 which provides for a suitable sanction to be imposed on a learner whose appeal against expulsion from a public school to the MEC is upheld.

Clause 6 amends Section 12 by inserting subsection 3A which distinguish between special schools for learners with barriers to learning and special schools which provide education with a specialized focus.

Clause 7 amends Section 16A by inserting further paragraphs that require the principal to-

- assist the governing body with the administration of school funds;
- take reasonable steps to prevent any financial maladministration;
- take part in any committee or delegation which deals with any matter that has financial implications for the school; and
- report any mismanagement or maladministration of financial matters to the governing body of the school and the Head of Department.

Clause 8 amends Section 19 by inserting provisions which provide for a recognised governing body association to provide training to governing body members of schools and the agreements and contents thereof intended to regulate such training.

Clause 9 inserts Section 33A which prohibits non-educational activities such as political and related activities during school time.

Clause 10 amends Section 36 by inserting provisions which enable the governing body to enter into a loan or overdraft agreement with the written approval of the MEC in concurrence with the MEC responsible for finance in the province.

Clause 11 amends Section 39 by inserting subsections which allow for –

- the determination of additional no fee schools by the MEC;
- the requirement that these schools have to be the next poorest schools, which were not declared as no fee schools in that province; and
- the conditions under which the MEC may exercise these powers.

Clause 12 amends Section 60 by determining that the state is liable for delictual or contractual damages or loss caused as a result of any act of omission in connection with any school activity conducted by a public school for which such a public school would have been liable.

Clause 13, 14 and 15 amend the Employment of Educators Act, 1998.

Clause 13 amends Section 1 in the definitions of “departmental office”; “Department of Education”; “Director-General”; “employer” and “Minister” to reflect the creation of the Department of Basic Education.

Clause 14 amends Section 2 by the deletion of the applicability of the provisions of this Act to adult basic education centres.

Clause 15 amends Section 3 by amending the references in this section to the department to that of the Department of Basic Education.

Clause 16 to 19 amends the South African Council for Educators Act, 2000.

Clause 16 amends Section 1 in the definition of “institution” to delete from it any reference to a further education and training institution or adult learning centre. It further amends the definition of “Minister” to reflect the creation of the Department of Basic Education that will be responsible for the administration of this Act.

Clause 17 amends Section 5 of the Act to allow for the council to conduct in-service training of educators at the request of an employer.

Clause 18 amends Section 19 by inserting an additional paragraph to provide for payments for services rendered to form part of the funds of the council.

Clause 19 inserts Section 25A into the Act to provide for payment by the employer for in-service training provided to educators.

Clause 20 amends certain definitions of the General and Further Education and Training Quality Assurance Act, 2001. It amends the definitions of “department of education”; “Director-General” and “Minister” to reflect the creation of the Department of Basic Education and the Department of Higher Education and Training and to indicate that both will be responsible for the implementation of this Act insofar as it relates to each one's functions.

Clause 21 provides for a savings clause in that to those functions identified in item 1.7 of the Schedule to Proclamation 44 of 1 July 2009 as specific functions assigned to the Minister of Higher Education and Training in relation to the FET Colleges and ABET Centres are not amended by this Act.

Clause 22 provides for the Short Title of the Act which is The Basic Education Laws Amendment Act, 2009.
