Short title and commencement

19. This Act is called the Transport Appeal Tribunal Act, 1998, and will come into 25 operation on 1 April 1998.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE TRANSPORT APPEAL TRIBUNAL BILL, 1998

The Bill deals with the Transport Appeal Tribunal, whose sole function is the consideration and determination of appeals against the acts, directions or decisions of provincial permissions boards (intended to be established by the National Land Transport Bill) and the Regulatory Committee (intended to be established by the Cross-Border Road Transport Bill). Provincial permissions boards will consider applications for permission to conduct domestic passenger transport, whilst the Regulatory Committee will consider applications for permits authorizing cross-border passenger and freight road transport.

It is being proposed in the Bill that the members of the said Tribunal be appointed by the Minister of Transport, after consultation with the relevant Members of the Executive Councils, on the grounds of their knowledge of, or experience in, matters relating to the functions of the Tribunal.

The provisions of the Bill were first published for general comment as part of the National Land Transport Bill in the Gazette during December 1996.

Since public transport is included in Schedule 4 to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), the Department and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 76.
