Short title and commencement

7. This Act shall be called the Extension of Terms of Office of Members of Certain Councils Act, 1997, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on 22 August 1997.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE EXTENSION OF
TERMS OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS OF CERTAIN COUNCILS BILL, 1997

During 1995 three transitional councils, namely—

- (a) the South African Interim Nursing Council;
- (b) the Interim Pharmacy Council of South Africa; and
- (c) the Interim National Medical and Dental Council of South Africa,

were established in terms of the Nursing Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No. 5 of 1995), the Pharmacy Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No. 6 of 1995), and the Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No. 18 of 1995), respectively.

One of the objects of these interim councils was to make recommendations to the Minister on the constitution of new councils, within a period not exceeding 24 months. Those recommendations were made.

The Nursing Amendment Act, 1997 (Act No. 19 of 1997), which was approved by Parliament in June 1997, provides for the constitution of a new council for the nursing profession. This Act has not yet been put into operation by proclamation by the President since the preparations for the election and appointment of the new council are still taking place. As it is unlikely that these preparations will be completed by 22 August 1997 (the date the South African Interim Nursing Council ceases to exist), it is proposed in this Bill that the terms of office of members of the Interim Council be extended.

Separate Amendment Bills which provide for the constitution of the new Pharmacy Council and Medical and Dental Council were introduced in Parliament during April 1997. The Minister of Health decided to withdraw the Pharmacy Amendment Bill and the Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Bill after public hearings were held by the Portfolio Committee on Health. The reason for the withdrawal was to consider all the submissions. However, in terms of the said Acts the interim councils will cease to exist on—

- (a) 11 October 1997 (in the case of the Interim Pharmacy Council of South Africa); and
- (b) 14 September 1997 (in the case of the Interim National Medical and Dental Council of South Africa).

As elections are still to be held before the said dates and since these Bills have not yet been passed by Parliament, it is proposed in this Bill that the terms of office of members of these councils also be extended.

In the opinion of the Department and the State Law Advisers this Bill should be dealt with in terms of section 76 of the Constitution.
