COPYRIGHT AMENDMENTAmendment of Definitions of section 1 of Act 98 of 1978

Section 1 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion after the definition of 'reproduction' of the following definition:

"'restricted act' means any act in respect of a work which falls within the scope of the exclusive rights comprised in the copyright in that work."

Amendment of section 9 of Act 98 of 1978

Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion of the following at the end thereof:

- "(c) without payment of a royalty for –
- (i) broadcasting the sound recording;
 - (ii) causing the sound recording to be transmitted in a diffusion service, unless that service transmits a lawful broadcast, including the sound recording, and is operated by the original broadcaster;
 - (iii) communicating the sound recording to the public;
provided that
 - (aa) the amount of the aforesaid royalty shall be determined by the Copyright Tribunal in terms of Chapter III in the absence of the owner of the copyright and the user of the sound recording reaching agreement on it;
 - (bb) any payment made by the user of the sound recording in terms of this paragraph shall be deemed to have discharged any obligation which that user might have to make any payment in respect of his use of a corresponding fixation of a performance in terms of section 5(b) of the performers Protection Act, 1967.
 - (cc) the person receiving payment of the royalty shall share such royalty with any performer whose performance is featured on the sound recording in question and who would have been entitled to receive a royalty in that regard in terms of section 5(b) of the Performers Protection Act, 1967, on a basis determined by the Copyright Tribunal in terms of Chapter III in the absence of the Parties reaching agreement on such basis.

Amendment of section 12 of Act 98 of 1978

Section 12(1) of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:

“12. General exceptions from protection of literary and musical works

- (1) Copyright shall not be infringed by doing a restricted act in respect of [any fair dealing with] a literary or musical work if doing such act is compatible with fair practice and is
- (a) for the purposes of research or private study by, or the personal or private use of, the person, being a natural Person, doing such act [using the work];
- (b) for the purposes of criticism or review of that work or of another work; or
- (c) for the purpose of reporting current events -
- (i) in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical; or
- (ii) by means of broadcasting or in a cinematography film;

Provided that, in the case of paragraphs (b) and (c)(i), the source shall be mentioned, as well as the name of the author if it appears on the work.”

Section 12 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion of a new section 12(14) after section 12(13):

- “(14) In deciding whether doing any act in relation to a work is compatible with fair Practice for Purposes of this section, the court shall take account of inter alia the following factors -
- (a) the Purpose and character of the act done;
- (b) the nature of the copyrighted work;
- (c) the amount and substantiality of the Portion of the work in relation to which the act is done;
- (d) the effect upon the Plaintiff’s Potential market;

- (e) whether the work can be obtained within a reasonable time at a normal commercial price.

Amendment of section 23 of Act 98 of 1978

Section 23(2) of the principal Act is amended by the insertion of paragraph (e) immediately following the existing paragraph (d);

- (e) possess or has under his or her control in the course of business.

Amendment of section 24 of Act 98 of 1978 .

Section 24(3) of the principal Act is amended as follows:

- “(3) Where in an action under this section an infringement of copyright is proved or admitted, and the court having regard, in addition to all other material consideration, to -
- (a) the flagrancy of the infringement; and
 - (b) any benefit shown to have accrued to the defendant by reason of the infringement,
- is of the view that justice and a sufficient deterrent against infringement of copyright will not have been achieved unless the defendant is ordered to make a suitable monetary payment [satisfied that effective relief would not otherwise be available] to the plaintiff, the court shall in assessing damages for the infringement have power to award such additional damages as the court may deem fit, which damages shall not exceed RIO 000.00 for each article to which the infringement relates.”

Amendment of section 26 of Act 98 of 1978

The following new subsections (13) and (14) are inserted after subsection (12) of the principal Act:

“(13) In any proceedings by virtue of this chapter relating to the alleged infringement of copyright in a work:

(a) copyright shall be Presumed to subsist in the work to which the action relates if the defendant does not put in issue the question whether copyright subsists therein, and

(b) where the subsistence of the copyright is proved or admitted, or is presumed in pursuance of the preceding paragraph, the person claimed to be the owner of the copyright shall be Presumed to be the owner of the copyright if the defendant or accused does not put in issue the question of his ownership thereof.

(14) For the purposes of subsection (13) a question shall not be deemed to have been put in issue unless the person seeking to challenge it asserts facts which serve to place doubt on the correctness of the relevant averments made by the plaintiff or the State.”

Amendment of section 27 of Act 98 of 1978

Section 27(1) of the principal Act is amendment by the insertion of paragraph (g) immediately following the existing paragraph (f):

(f) distributes for any other purposes to such an extent that the owner of the copyright is prejudicially affected[.];

(g) possess or has under his or her control in the course of business with a view to committing any act infringing the copyright.

articles which he knows or has reason to suspect are [to be] infringing copies of the work, shall be guilty of an offence.”

PERFORMERS' PROTECTION AMENDMENTAmendment of section 5 of Act 11 of 1967

Section 5 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:

- “5. Restrictions on use of performances
- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, no person shall [without the consent of the performer -]
- (a) without the consent of the performer
- (i) broadcast or communicate to the public [a] an unfixed performance of such performer, unless the performance used in the broadcast or the public communication is itself already a broadcast performance [or is made from a fixation of the performance or from a reproduction of such a fixation; or]
- [(b)] (ii) make a fixation of the unfixed performance of such performer; or
- [(c)] (iii) make a reproduction of a fixation of a performance of such performer –
- [(i)] (aa) if the original fixation, other than a fixation excluded by section 8 from the necessity for obtaining the consent of a performer, was itself made without his consent; or
- [(ii)] (bb) if the reproduction is made [from] for purposes other than those in respect of which such performer gave his consent to the making of the original fixation or of a reproduction thereof; or
- [(iii)] (cc) if the original fixation was made in accordance with the provisions of section 8, and the reproduction is made for purposes not covered by those provisions.
- (b) by means of directly or indirectly using a fixation of the performance published for commercial purposes, without payment of a royalty to the performer
- (i) broadcast the performance;
- (ii) cause the performance to be transmitted in a diffusion service unless such service transmits a lawful broadcast, including the performance, and is operated by the original broadcaster;
- (iii) cause any communication of the performance to the public;

provided that the amount of the aforesaid royalty shall be determined by the Copyright Tribunal established by the Copyright Act, 1978, in the absence of the performer and the user of the fixation reaching agreement on it.

- (4) In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, a performer's consent to the broadcasting of his performance shall be deemed to include his consent to the rebroadcasting of his performance, the fixation of his performance for broadcasting purposes, and the reproduction for broadcasting purposes of such fixation.
- (3) In the absence of any agreement to the contrary, where a performer has authorised the fixation of his Performance he shall be deemed to have granted to the person who makes the arrangements for making the fixation the exclusive right to exact payment of a royalty for performing the acts set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection [1] where such acts are performed by use of the fixation of his performance or a reproduction thereof, and shall be entitled to share in any payment made to such person or his successor in title for the performance of such acts in the manner agreed upon between the Parties, or in the absence of any such agreement, as determined by the Copyright Tribunal established by the Copyright Act, 1978: Provided that any payment made by a user of a fixation of a performance in terms of this section shall be deemed to have discharged any obligation of that user to pay a royalty to the owner of any copyright subsisting in that fixation, in terms of section 9 of the Copyright Act, 1978."

Amendment of section 8 of Act 11 of 1967

Section 8(3) of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution of the following:

- '(3) (a) A broadcaster may make by means of his or her own facilities a fixation of a performance and reproductions of such fixation without the consent required by section 5, provided that, unless otherwise stipulated -
- (i) the fixation [and the] or any reproduction[s] thereof is intended exclusively for lawful [are used solely in the] broadcasts of the broadcaster to which the performer has consented [made by the broadcaster];
 - (ii) the fixation and any [the] reproductions thereof, if they are not of an exceptional documentary character, are destroyed before the end of the period of six months commencing on the day on which the fixation was first made or such longer period as may be agreed to by the performer.

[; and]

[(iii) the broadcaster pays to the performer, whose performance is so used, in respect of each use of the fixation or of any reproduction thereof, an equitable remuneration, which, in the absence of agreement, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1965 (Act No 41 of 1965), or alternatively, at the option of the performer, by the Copyright Tribunal established by the Copyright Act, 1978 (Act No 98 of 1978).]

- (b) The fixation and the reproductions] thereof made under the provisions of@ [this] subsection may, on the grounds of their exceptional documentary character[,] be preserved in the archives of the broadcaster [Corporation] but shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, not be further used without the consent of the performer.
