Chapter 2

Voting Districts and Voting Stations

Voting district map

2. The fee to be paid for a copy of a map of a voting district in terms of section 63(5) is Fifty Rand (R50-00).

Postponement of voting at voting station

3. The postponement of voting at a voting station in terms of section 22 of the Act before the voting at that voting station has commenced, the reason being that it is not reasonably possible to conduct a free and fair election at that voting station on the proclaimed voting day, must be effected by way of a Commission decision which is published in the manner prescribed in section 22 (2)(c) of the Act and a copy of which is, if reasonably possible, prominently displayed at the voting station for the duration of the voting day.

Revote at voting station

4. A revote allowed at a voting station in terms of section 23 of the Act must be conducted in accordance with the same procedures that applied on the voting day.

List of voting stations

5. The fee to be paid for a copy of a list of voting stations in terms of section 64(6) of the Act is One Rand (R1-00) per page.

Chapter 3

Special Votes

Categories of persons

6. In this chapter the procedure for applying for special votes and the procedures for the casting and counting of special votes are prescribed as required by section 33(2) of the Act, in respect of persons who cannot vote at a voting station in the voting district in which they are registered as voters due to their-

- (a) physical infirmity or disability, or pregnancy;
- (b) absence from the Republic on Government service or membership of the household of the person so being absent;
- (c) absence from that voting district while serving as an officer in the election concerned;
- (d) being on duty as a member of the security services in connection with the election; or
- (e) temporary absence from the Republic for purposes of a holiday, a business trip, attendance of a tertiary institution or an educational visit or participation in an international sports event, if the person notifies the Commission within 15 days after the proclamation of the date of the election, of his or her intended absence from the Republic, his or her intention to vote, and the place where he or she will cast his or her vote.

Physical infirmity or disability or pregnancy inside voting district

7. (1) A person referred to in regulation 6(a) who wants to vote in the voting district where he or she is registered, may apply for a special vote –

- (i) by delivering or causing to be delivered to the municipal electoral officer of the voting district within whose area he or she is registered as a voter by not later than the relevant date or dates stated in the election timetable, a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1; or
- (ii) by delivering or causing such an application to be delivered to the presiding officer for the voting district in which he or she is registered as a voter, at the office of that officer which must be at or as near as possible to the voting station for that voting district, during the hours on the date or dates stated in the election timetable.

(2) An application received by a municipal electoral officer must be delivered to the presiding officer of the voting district in which the applicant is alleged to be registered as a voter, by no later than the date or dates contemplated in subregulation (1)(ii).

(3) The presiding officer, or a voting officer designated by him or her, must consider every application received and if he or she is satisfied that-

- (a) the applicant is registered as a voter in that voting district; and
- (b) cannot vote at that voting station due to physical infirmity or disability, or pregnancy, approve the application and if not, reject the application.

(4) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be notified of the rejection in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 2 and handed to the applicant in person or sent to an address within the voting district, specified in the application, by no later than two days before the voting day.

(5) If the application is approved, the applicant must be visited by at least two voting officers at an address within the voting district, specified in the application, on the date or dates stated in the election timetable, and-

- (a) on production of the applicant's identity document; and
- (b) if the voting officers are satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document, the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner prescribed in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper, marked on the back for that election.

(6) The applicant is allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name and identity number and the voting district number.

(7) The voting officers must take the marked envelope to the office of the presiding officer where-

- (a) the applicant's name on the voters' roll is marked with the letters SV to indicate that he or she has cast a special vote; and
- (b) the envelope is placed and securely kept in a sealed ballot box for special votes.

- (8) The presiding officer must keep a record of all such applications for special votes received in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3.

Physical infirmity or disability or pregnancy outside voting district

8. (1) An applicant referred to in regulation 6(a) who wants to vote in a voting district where he or she is not registered as a voter, may apply for a special vote by delivering or causing to be delivered to the municipal electoral officer of the municipality in which the voting district where the vote will be cast, is situated by not later than the relevant date or dates stated in the election timetable, a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1.

(2) A municipal electoral officer who receives such an application, must consider it and if he or she is satisfied that-

- (a) the applicant is registered as a voter; and
- (b) cannot vote at the voting station where he or she is registered as a voter or by special vote in the voting district where he or she is registered as a voter due to physical infirmity or disability, or pregnancy, approve the application and if not, reject it.

(3) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be notified of the rejection as soon as possible by the most convenient method available.

(4) If the application is approved, a copy of the application is transmitted to the presiding officer of the voting district where the applicant wants to vote.

(5) The presiding officer causes the applicant to be visited by at least two voting officers, at an address within that voting district, specified in the application, on the date or dates stated in the election timetable, and-

- (a) on production of the applicant's identity document; and
- (b) if the voting officers are satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document,

the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner prescribed in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper, marked on the back for that election, for an election of the National Assembly, and one for an election of a provincial legislature only if the voting district in which he or she is registered as a voter falls within the same province as the voting station where he or she wants to vote.

(6) The applicant is allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name and identity number.

(7) The voting officer must take the marked envelope to the office of the presiding officer in whose area the vote was cast, where the envelope is placed and securely kept in a sealed ballot box for special votes

(8) The presiding officer referred to in subregulation (7) must immediately inform the presiding officer of the voting station where the applicant is registered on the voters' roll, either directly or via the municipal electoral officer of that area, that the applicant has cast a special vote and that presiding officer must mark his or her name on the voters' roll with the letters SV and the number of the voting district and municipality where the applicant has voted.

(9) Both presiding officers must keep a record of all special votes cast in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3.

Absence from Republic on Government Service

9. (1) A person referred to in regulation 6(b) may apply for a special vote by handing a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1 to a special voting officer at a South African embassy, high commission or consulate abroad during the hours on the date or dates stated in the election timetable.

(2) The special voting officer must in the presence of the applicant and another special voting officer consider the application and if he or she finds that -

- (a) the applicant is registered as a voter in a voting district in the Republic where the applicant's head office is situated as determined in terms of section 7(2) of the Act; and
- (b) cannot vote at a voting station in that voting district due to the applicant's absence from the Republic on Government service or membership of the household of the person so absent, approve the application and if not, reject the application.

(3) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be handed a notification of rejection in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 2.

(4) If the application is approved and -

- (a) the applicant produces an identity document to the special voting officer; and
- (b) the special voting officer is satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document, the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner prescribed in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper, marked on the back for that election.

(5) The applicant must be allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name, identity number and voting district number.

(6) The special voting officer in charge must as soon as the last applicant has voted, package and securely seal all the marked envelopes together with a record of all applications received in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3, as well as all the application forms, and send the package as promptly and securely as possible to the chief electoral officer who must in turn, distribute the sealed envelopes to the presiding officers of the voting districts to which they belong.

(7) The chief electoral officer must ensure that all envelopes and applications received before 12:00 on voting day are delivered to the respective presiding officers before the closing of the voting stations concerned on voting day and all envelopes and application forms received by the chief electoral officer after 12:00 on voting day must be listed and kept by him or her in safe custody and are not counted, except upon the order of a competent authority.

(8) Every presiding officer must keep a record of all applications and envelopes received from the chief electoral officer in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3 and must place the envelopes in a sealed ballot box for special votes after the applicant's name on the voter's roll has been marked with the letters SV to indicate that he or she has cast a special vote.

(9) The head of each South African embassy, high commission, or consulate abroad or an employee designated by him or her in writing, shall be a special voting officer.

Election officers and security services members

10. (1) A person referred to in regulation 6(c) or (d) may apply for a special vote by handing a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1, to the presiding officer for the voting district in which that person is registered as a voter, at the office of that officer which must be at or as near as possible to the voting station for that voting district, during the hours on the date or dates stated in the election timetable.

(2) The presiding officer or a voting officer, must consider every application received and if he or she is satisfied that:

- (a) the applicant is registered as a voter in that voting district; and
- (b) cannot vote at that voting station in that voting district due to the applicant's absence from the voting district while serving as an officer in the election, or while on duty as a member of the security services in connection with the election, approve the application and if not, reject the application.

(3) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be notified of the rejection in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 2.

(4) If the application is approved and,

- (a) the applicant produces an identity document to the presiding officer or voting officer; and
- (b) if the presiding officer or voting officer is satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document, the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner prescribed in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper marked on the back for that election.

(5) The applicant must be allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name and identity number.

(6) The envelope is placed and securely kept in a sealed ballot box for special votes, after the applicants name on the voters' roll has been marked with the letters SV to indicate that he or she has cast a special vote.

(7) The presiding officer must keep a record of all such applications for special votes in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3.

Temporary absence from the Republic

11 (1) Persons referred to in regulation 6(e) who wants to notify the Commission of their intended absence from the Republic, their intention to vote, and the place where they will cast their vote, which must be a place referred to in subregulation (3), must do so by delivering to the Chief Electoral Officer, whether by hand, by post or by facsimile, a notice in a form substantially similar to Appendix 10.

(2) The physical address of the Chief Electoral Officer is Election House, 260 Walker Street, Sunnyside, Pretoria, the postal address is PO Box 7943, Pretoria, 0001 and the facsimile numbers are 012-428-5279 or 012-428-5566.

(3) The places where such a person can apply for and cast a special vote is at any South African embassy, high commission or consulate abroad or at the office of the presiding officer of the voting station where he or she is a registered voter.

(4) Upon the receipt of a notice referred to in subregulation (1) within fifteen days after the day of the proclamation of the election, the Chief Electoral Officer must ascertain whether the person is registered as a voter on the voters' roll certified for the election, and if the person is so registered the Chief Electoral Officer must –

- (a) notify the head of the embassy, high commission or consulate abroad where it has been indicated as the place where the person wants to vote, that that person may apply for a special vote, and if eligible to do so, cast a special vote at that mission; or
- (b) where the person has indicated that he or she wants to cast his or her vote at the office of the presiding officer of the voting station where he or she is registered as a voter, inform the presiding officer where he or she is so registered that the person may apply for a special vote and if eligible to do so, cast a special vote at that office.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer must ensure that the name of the applicant referred to in subregulation 4(a) is marked on the voters' roll to be used at the voting station where the applicant is registered with the letters SVF to indicate that the applicant will be allowed to apply for a special vote abroad.

Temporary absence from the Republic: Voting Abroad

12 (1) Persons referred to in subregulation 11(4)(a) who want to cast special votes outside the Republic, may apply for special votes by handing a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1, together with their passports, to a special voting officer at the South African embassy, high commission or consulate abroad indicated by them in their notice to the Chief Electoral Officer during the hours and on the date or dates stated in the election time-table.

(2) The special voting officer must in the presence of the applicant and another special voting officer consider the application and if the head of the embassy, high commission or consulate abroad has been informed by the Chief Electoral Officer that the applicant may apply for a special vote at that mission and if the special voting officer finds that the applicant cannot vote at a voting station in the voting district where he or she is registered due to his or her temporary absence from the Republic for the purposes of a holiday, business trip, attendance of a tertiary institution or an educational visit or participation in an international sports event, approve the application, and if not, reject it.

(3) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be handed a notification of rejection in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 2.

(4) If the application is approved and-

- (a) the applicant produces an identity document to the special voting officer, and
- (b) the special voting officer is satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document, the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner described in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper only for an election for the National Assembly, marked on the back for that election.

(5) The applicant must be allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name, identity number and voting district number.

(6) The special voting officer must, as soon as the last applicant has voted, package and securely seal all the marked envelopes together with a record of all applications received as well as all the application forms, and send the package as promptly and securely as possible to the Chief Electoral Officer.

(7) The Chief Electoral Officer must upon receipt of the packages, keep them in safe custody until the close of voting stations on the voting day of the election when the packages are opened in the presence of party agents being present, the written applications scrutinized in conjunction with the voters' roll and those votes which are accepted as regularly cast, counted and the results added to the results of the voting stations where the voters are registered.

(8) Votes and packages received after the close of voting stations on the voting day of the election, are listed and kept in safe custody but are not counted, except upon the order of a competent authority.

Temporary absence from the Republic: Voting in the Republic before proceeding abroad

13 (1) A person referred to in subregulation 11(4)(b) who wants to cast a special vote before proceeding abroad, may apply for a special vote by handing a written application in a form substantially similar to Appendix 1 together with his or her passport, to the presiding officer for the voting district in which he or she is registered as a voter, at the office of that officer during the hours on the date or dates stated in the election timetable.

(2) The presiding officer or a voting officer must in the presence of the applicant consider the application and if the presiding officer has been informed by the Chief Electoral Officer that the applicant may apply for a special vote at that office and if the presiding officer or voting officer finds that the applicant cannot vote at that voting station on the day of the election due to his or her absence from the Republic for the purposes of a holiday, business trip, attendance of a tertiary institution or an educational visit or participation in an international sporting event, approve the application, and if not, reject it.

(3) If the application is rejected, the applicant must be handed a notification of rejection in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 2.

(4) If the application is approved and-

- (a) the applicant produces an identity document to the presiding officer or voting officer; and

- (b) the presiding officer or voting officer is satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document, the applicant's identity document and hand is marked in the manner described in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a national and provincial ballot paper marked on the back for that election.

(5) The applicant must be allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant's name and identity number.

(6) The envelope is placed in a sealed ballot box for special votes, after the applicants name on the voters' roll has been marked with the letters SV to indicate that he or she has cast a special vote.

(7) The presiding officer must keep a record of all such applications for special votes in a form substantially similar to Appendix 3.

Counting of Special Votes

14. (1) During the course of voting day, the ballot box for special votes is opened and each marked envelope is scrutinised and compared with the marked voters roll, the applications for special votes and the records of applications for special votes.

(2) If no irregularity is detected that renders the special vote unacceptable, the marked envelope is opened, the unmarked envelope inside is removed and is placed unopened in the ordinary ballot box then in use in the voting station.

(3) Once that ballot box is opened for counting, the unmarked envelopes are opened, the ballot papers removed, mixed with the ballot papers from the ballot box and counted together.

Provisions of the Act and regulations thereunder

15. Whenever appropriate and within the context of the regulations in this Chapter, the provisions of the Act relating to voting, the counting of votes, party agents, observers, voting stations, voting materials, officers and their powers and duties, objections and appeals, prohibited conduct, enforcement and offences and penalties apply, unless clearly inconsistent with these regulations, to all special vote procedures.

Chapter 4

Voting

Closing and securing of ballot boxes before voting

16. (1) Immediately after all party agents present at the voting station have assured themselves that a ballot box is empty as required by section 37(a) of the Act, the presiding officer must seal that box by means of a seal designed and supplied to the presiding officer for that purpose and which bears a unique number.

(2) The closing and securing of a ballot box in terms of section 37(b) of the Act must be done by closing all openings, except for the opening through which the ballot papers must be deposited into the ballot box, and securing the openings tightly enough by means of a seal supplied to the presiding officer for that purpose, so that ballot papers cannot be inserted into or removed from the ballot box through those openings.

Voting where not registered

17. The sworn or affirmed statement referred to in section 24A(1)(b) of the Act must be in a form substantially similar to Appendix 4.

Marking of identity document and hand of voter

18. (1) The identity document of a voter must be marked in terms of section 38(5)(aA) of the Act by marking page 2 of the identity document, or the face of a temporary identity certificate, in the same manner than the back of a ballot paper is marked for that election in terms of section 38(5)(c) of the Act.

(2) A voter's hand must be marked in terms of section 38(5)(b) of the Act by drawing a short line on the voter's left thumb and left thumb nail with visible indelible ink.

(3) If the voter does not have a left thumb or thumb nail or if it is impractical due to injury, disease or any other cause to mark the left thumb and left thumb nail, any of the left hand fingers and nails must be so marked and, if for similar reasons a left hand finger and nail cannot be marked, a finger and nail of the right hand must be so marked.

(4) If for any of the reasons mentioned in subregulation (2), no finger and nail of a voter can be so marked, the presiding officer must record the voter's name, address, identity number and the reasons why the voter's hand could not be marked, on a list kept for that purpose.

(5) After the closing of voting at the voting station, the list is packaged and sealed, together with the other election material, delivered to the chief electoral officer and kept in safe custody until disposed of in terms of section 105 of the Act.

Objections concerning voting

19. (1) An agent or a voter wishing to object in terms of section 41(1), (2) or (3) of the Act -

- (a) to a voter being entitled to vote;
- (b) to a voter being refused a ballot paper; or
- (c) to any other conduct of an officer, an agent, or any other persons present at a voting station, must do so by handing to the presiding officer at the time of the occurrence a written objection in a form substantially similar to Appendix 5.

(2) The presiding officer must summarily investigate the factual circumstances underlying the objection, and may for this purpose also direct verbal enquiries to anyone that may be able to assist.

(3) The presiding officer must thereafter decide the objection, endorse his or her decision on the written objection and thereafter verbally inform the objector and any other parties involved in the objection of his or her decision.

Appeals concerning voting

20. A person wishing to appeal to the Commission in terms of section 41(6) of the Act against the decision of the presiding officer, must do so by way of a written notice, served on the Commission at its offices in Pretoria by not later than 21:00 on the second day after the voting day, indicating the section of the Act in terms of which the appeal is brought and giving full particulars of the parties involved, the conduct objected to, the decision of the presiding officer and the reasons for the appeal.

Sealing of full ballot boxes

21. The sealing of a full ballot box and the remaining ballot boxes after the last vote has been cast as required by section 42(1) of the Act, must be done by closing the opening of the ballot box through which the ballot papers were cast and sealing the opening with a seal supplied to the presiding officer for that purpose.

Chapter 5

Mobile Voting Stations: Voting Procedures

Use of mobile voting stations only

22. Where, in terms of section 64 of the Act, only a mobile voting station is established in a voting district, the following voting procedures are hereby prescribed in terms of section 44(1) of the Act:

- (a) The voting procedures set out in sections 35 to 43 of the Act must be applied, except as otherwise indicated hereunder, concerning the route, locations, stopping times and counting venue of a mobile voting station mentioned in sections 43(3) and 67(2) of the Act.
- (b) Voting at a mobile station must continue at that location until every voter has voted, who -
 - (i) is entitled to vote at that mobile voting station; and
 - (ii) had reported for voting at that mobile voting station before the published estimated time of stopping at that voting station had passed.
- (c) Relative to section 37 of the Act, the presiding officer of a mobile voting station must immediately before opening that mobile station for voting at the first location where it stopped, show agents present that each ballot box to be used is empty and close and secure each such ballot box in the presence of those agents in the same manner as prescribed in regulation 16.

Voting station and a mobile voting station

23. Where in terms of section 64 of the Act, a fixed voting station and a mobile voting station are established in a voting district, voting procedures prescribed in regulation 22, adjusted as follows, must be applied:

- (a) The mobile voting station is managed as if it were a satellite station of, and therefore an integral part of the voting station.
- (b) Relative to section 71 of the Act, the voting material necessary for the election at the mobile voting station, including a certified voters' roll for the voting district concerned, must be supplied by the chief electoral officer to the presiding officer of the voting station as an integral part of that voting station's material and that presiding officer in turn, must supply the presiding officer of the mobile voting station with the voting material necessary for the mobile voting station, and obtain from him or her a receipt.
- (c) Relative to section 43(2) of the Act, the presiding officer of the mobile voting station must deliver to the counting officer of the voting station the items mentioned in section 43(1) of the Act.
- (d) Relative to sections 46, 47 and 50 of the Act, the counting officer of the voting station must open all the ballot boxes used in that station and in the mobile voting station, mix the ballot papers from all the boxes and then proceed with the counting of the votes and the determination of the results of that count as the provisional results for that voting station.

Chapter 6

Counting of votes

Part 1: Counting of votes at voting station

Comparing of ballot papers with number issued

24. The comparing of the ballot papers for each election with the number of ballot papers issued in terms of section 47(2)(b) of the Act, must be done by counting all the ballot papers for each election and comparing the resulting total number with the total number of ballot papers issued at that voting station as reflected on the form completed by the presiding officer in terms of section 43(1)(a) of the Act.

Counting of votes

25. The counting of the votes cast in each election in terms of section 47(2)(c) of the Act must be done by way of the following sequential steps:

- (a) All the ballot papers must be scrutinised to ascertain whether any of them must be rejected for a reason mentioned in section 47(3) of the Act.
- (b) The rejected ballot papers, if any, are filed separately.
- (c) The remaining ballot papers for each election are sorted face up according to the party in whose favour the vote was cast.
- (d) The ballot papers for each party in each election are bound in packages of 10 and thereafter 10 packets of 10 are bound together with elastic bands.
- (e) The ballot papers for each party in each election are counted, the totals recorded and the result of each election thus determined.
- (f) If the counting officer orders a recount, the counting officer must determine and record the result afresh if there is a different result.

Objections and appeals concerning sorting of ballot papers

26. (1) An objection to the counting officer in terms of section 48(1) and (2) of the Act to any alleged irregularity in the sorting of ballot papers must be made in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 6 and it must be made before the counting officer has completed a form referred to in section 50(1) of the Act.

(2) The counting officer must summarily investigate the factual circumstances underlying the objection, and may for this purpose also direct enquiries to any person that may be able to assist.

(3) The counting officer must thereafter decide the objection, endorse his or her decision on the written objection and thereafter verbally inform the objector and other parties involved in the objection of his or her decision.

(4) A person wishing to appeal to the Commission against the decision of the counting officer in terms of section 48(3) of the Act, must do so by way of a written notice, served on the Commission at its offices in Pretoria by not later than 21:00 on the second day after the voting day, indicating the section of the Act in terms of which the appeal is brought and giving full particulars of the parties involved, the alleged irregularity objected to, the decision of the counting officer and the reasons for the appeal.

Objections and appeals concerning counting of votes and determination of provisional results

27. (1) An objection to the counting officer in terms of section 49(1) and (2) of the Act to an alleged inaccuracy in the counting of the votes or the determination of the result, must be made in writing on a form substantially similar to Appendix 7.

(2) The counting officer must summarily investigate the factual circumstances underlying the objection, and may for this purpose also direct verbal enquiries to any person that may be able to assist.

(3) The counting officer must decide the objection and decide whether to order a recount, endorse his or her decision on the written objection and thereafter verbally inform the objector and any other parties involved of his or her decision.

(4) A person wishing to appeal against the decision of the counting officer must do so by way of a written notice served on the Commission at its offices in Pretoria by not later than 21:00 on the second day after the voting day, indicating the section of the Act in terms of which the appeal is brought and giving full particulars of the parties involved, the alleged inaccuracy in the counting of the votes, the decision of the counting officer and the reasons for the appeal.

Part 2: Counting of votes at place other than voting station

Verification: Irregularities and discrepancies

28. (1) The counting officer must deal with irregularities and discrepancies found when complying with section 52(3) of the Act in the following manner:

- (a) The counting officer must immediately call for an explanation by the presiding officer who delivered the material to him or her.
- (b) The counting officer must together with the presiding officer attempt to resolve the irregularities and discrepancies.
- (c) The agents present in the counting station must immediately be informed about the irregularities and discrepancies, must as far as possible be present at all discussions between the counting officer and the presiding officer and must be invited to contribute to the discussion and the search for solutions.
- (d) If any of the material appears to have been unlawfully tampered with or are missing, the counting officer must call in the assistance of a member of the security forces to investigate the matter and to assist in the search for missing material.

(2) The written record to be kept by the counting officer in terms of section 52(5) of the Act in respect of irregularities and discrepancies and the manner in which they were dealt with, must be in the form of a full report to the chief electoral officer on the nature of each irregularity and discrepancy, the manner in which they were dealt with and the explanations offered by the presiding officer and any of the agents.

(3) The report must be transmitted to the chief electoral officer as soon as possible.

Objections and appeals concerning verification

29. (1) An agent wishing to object to the counting officer in terms of section 53(1) of the Act to any alleged irregularity or inaccuracy in the verification procedure must do so in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 8.

(2) The counting officer must summarily investigate the factual circumstances underlying the objection, and may for this purpose also direct verbal enquiries to any person that may be able to assist.

(3) The counting officer must decide the objection, endorse his or her decision on the written objection and thereafter verbally inform the objector and any other parties involved in the objection of his or her decision.

Appeal to Commission concerning verification

30. A person wishing to appeal to the Commission in terms of section 53(3) of the Act against the decision of the counting officer, must do so by way of a written notice served on the Commission at its offices in Pretoria by not later than 21:00 on the second day after the voting day, indicating the section of the Act in terms of which the appeal is brought and giving full particulars of the parties involved, the alleged irregularity or inaccuracy in the verification procedure objected to, the decision of the counting officer and the reasons for the appeal.

Objections material to the determination of the final results

31. (1) Any interested party wishing to lodge an objection in terms of section 55 of the Act in respect of proceedings concerning voting and counting of votes, that is material to the determination of the final result of the election, must do so by serving on the Commission at its offices in Pretoria, by not later than 21:00 on the second day after the voting day, a written notice of objection containing-

- (a) a reference to the election concerned and the section of the Act in terms of which the objection is brought;
- (b) the full name and physical address of the objecting party;
- (c) the postal address and telephone number where the party can be contacted;
- (d) if available, the party's facsimile number and E-mail address;
- (e) the interest of the party in the matter;
- (f) details of the objection and the proceedings concerned;
- (g) detailed reasons for the objection;
- (h) the relief sought;
- (i) a list of any supporting documents accompanying the notice of objection; and
- (j) proof of service of copies of the notice and annexures on all other interested parties.

(2) In considering and deciding the objection, the Commission may take any one or more or all of the following actions:

- (a) Investigate the factual basis of the objection.
- (b) Afford other interested parties an opportunity to make written or oral submissions.
- (c) Call for written or oral submissions from other persons or parties.
- (d) Call upon the objecting party to submit further information or arguments in writing or orally.
- (e) Conduct a hearing on the objection.

Appeal to Electoral Court against decision of Commission

32. Any appeal against the decision of the Commission to the Electoral Court must be made in terms of the Rules of the Electoral Court.

Chapter 7

Party Agents and Candidates

Appointment and revocation of appointment of party agents

33. (1) The appointment of a party agent for a voting station in terms of section 58 of the Act must be effected in writing in a form substantially similar to Appendix 9.

(2) The revocation of the appointment of a party agent must be effected by way of a written notice addressed to the person involved in which the person is also instructed to immediately return or destroy any written appointment referred to in subregulation (1) that may be in his or her possession.

Identification of party agents

34. The identification that section 59(3)(a) of the Act requires a party agent to wear is a tag displayed on the left breast of his or her outer clothing bearing the words "Agent" and the abbreviated name of the party represented in black letters, of at least 1 cm high, on a white background.

Candidates allowed within voting station

35. The number of candidates to be allowed within the voting station referred to in section 73(3)(c) of the Act, are those which the presiding officer, in his or her discretion, can comfortably accommodate within the voting station concerned at any specific time having due regard to the conduct of a free and fair election.

Prohibited conduct at voting station

36. No agent or candidate may within the boundaries of a voting station-

- (a) display or distribute any party bill-board, poster, placard or pamphlet;
- (b) wear, carry or display any clothing, headwear, footwear or other apparel in such a manner that any writing, picture or sign thereon relating to any political party is visible;
- (c) attempt to induce, influence or persuade a person to vote or not to vote for a particular party; or
- (d) attempt to induce, influence or persuade a person not to vote.

Powers and duties of agents

37. Whilst observing proceedings in terms of section 59(1) of the Act, an agent may not interfere with the proceedings but may lodge objections with or bring any alleged irregularities to the attention of the presiding officer.

Chapter 8General provisions*Offences and penalties

38. (1) No person, except for a member of the security services on duty at that voting station, may without the permission of the presiding officer, enter into the boundaries of a voting station while in possession of a fire-arm or of any other weapon identified as a weapon by a member of the security services.

(2) Any person who contravenes subregulation (1) or any other provisions of these regulations, is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to the payment of a fine or a period of imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Repeal of Regulations

39. The Election Regulations, 1999, published in Government Notice No. R.478 of 14 April 1999, are hereby repealed.
