

NOTICE 304 OF 2006NATIONAL DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Government Notice no of 2006

INVITATION TO INTERESTED PARTIES TO NOMINATE
PERSONS FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE NATIONAL HEALTH RESEARCH ETHICS COUNCIL

Section 72(1) of the National Health Act, 2003 (Act No 61 of 2003) (hereinafter referred to as the Act) established the National Research Ethics Council. The National Health Research Council is appointed by the Minister of Health after consultation with the National Health Council and consists of not more than 15 people nominated by interested parties at the invitation of the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Interested parties are therefore invited to submit nominations for appointment of persons to the National Health Research Ethics Council.

The council will be appointed for the a three year term and must, as is stipulated in section 76(6) of the Act-

- a) determine guidelines for the functioning of health research ethics committees;
- b) register and audit health research ethics committees;
- c) set norms and standards for conducting research on human and animals, including norms and standards for conducting clinical trials;
- d) adjudicate complaints about the functioning of health research ethics committees and hear any complaints by a researcher who believes he or she has been discriminated against by a health research ethics committee;
- e) refer to the relevant statutory health professional council matters involving the violation of a professional or ethical rule by a health care provider;
- f) institute such disciplinary action as may be described against any person found to be in violation of any norms and standards, or guidelines set for the conducting research in terms of the Act; and
- g) advise the National Department of Health and the provincial departments of health on any ethical issues concerning research.

The functions of the council are such that only the nominations of persons with relevant qualification and experience in health research will be considered.

Members of the council will not serve on full time basis but will meet approximately four times a year in Pretoria. The National Department of Health will render secretariat functions to the council.

The closing date for the receipt of nominations is 24 March 2006.
