SCHEDULE

EXEMPTION OF LEHMAN BROTHERS IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN CLIENTS

Definitions

1. In this Schedule, “the FAIS Act” means the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002 (Act No. 37 of 2002), any word or expression to which a meaning is assigned in the FAIS Act shall have that meaning, and unless the context otherwise indicates-

“Lehman Brothers” means Lehman Brothers Europe Limited who renders a financial service to a client as a regular feature of its business and belongs to ‘Category I’ as defined in paragraph 1(1) of the Determination of Fit and Proper Requirements for Financial Services Providers, 2003, published by Board Notice No. 91 of 2003 in Gazette No. 25446 of 10 September 2003;

“client”, in relation to Lehman Brothers, means-

- (a) a bank;
- (b) a financial services provider who is registered licensed, recognised, approved or otherwise authorised by-
 - (i) the Registrar of Long-term Insurance to conduct long-term insurance business;
 - (ii) the Registrar of Short-term Insurance to conduct short-term insurance business;
- (c) a person outside the Republic who-
 - (i) as a regular feature of the person’s business, renders a service similar to a ‘financial service’ as defined in section 1(1) of the FAIS Act; and
 - (ii) is registered, licensed, recognised, approved or otherwise authorised to conduct the business of a bank or a business referred to in paragraph (b) by a foreign regulator, with functions similar to those of the Registrar of Banks or a Registrar referred to in the said paragraph;
- (d) a central bank or other national monetary authority of any country, state or territory;

- (i) a natural person;

 - (iv) a medical scheme as defined in section 1(1) of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998);

Objective of exemption

2. Lehman Brothers has submitted an application for exemption from the application of the FAIS Act in respect of the rendering of financial services in the course of merchant banking business. Lehman Brothers offers similar services to those of merchant banks to which a similar exemption has already been granted.

The registrar is of the view that the provisions of the FAIS Act can hardly be applied where an entity is confronted by large corporate and other clients in a business situation where clients will usually have sufficient know-how and expertise, or access thereto. Certain of these clients will be "execution-only" clients who will have a fixed mind on the services required, leaving the entity with a limited discretion in the rendering of the required service.

The registrar is also satisfied that the requested exemption can hardly frustrate the achievement of any object of the FAIS Act, particularly as the exemption will not apply to several classes of clients still in need of full statutory protection.

The registrar is in addition satisfied that under current economic and public financial circumstances, the granting of the requested exemption does not seem to be in conflict with public interest, and that the public interest in sound merchant banking business, which is apparently conducted in terms of proper international standards and norms, may not be capable of being served by the application of section 7 of the FAIS Act, conjointly with other provisions of the FAIS Act, and may obviously result in financial or other hardship or prejudice to the relevant parties.

The registrar is however, despite the considerations mentioned above, satisfied that economic and public financial circumstances and current business practices and client base of Lehman Brothers may change even in the near future, and that the non-applicability of the provisions of the FAIS Act referred to above, may in practice be proved to frustrate an object of the FAIS Act to provide and promote client protection, and that at this stage an exemption of only limited duration must be granted.

Extent of exemption and condition

3. Lehman Brothers is exempted until 30 September 2006 from section 7(1) of the FAIS Act, subject to the condition that in the rendering of a financial service to a client suitable guarantees or professional indemnity or fidelity insurance cover, quarterly approved by the registrar, are maintained.

Amendment and withdrawal of exemption and conditions

4. The exemption and conditions mentioned in paragraph 4 are subject to-
 - (a) amendment thereof published by the registrar by notice in the Gazette; and
 - (b) withdrawal in like manner.

Short title and commencement

5. This Exemption is called the Exemption of Lehman Brothers in respect of Certain Clients, 2006, and comes into operation on the date of publication of this Notice in the Gazette.
