DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND INDUSTRYNo. R. 873*1 September 2006*INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION OF SOUTH AFRICA*IMPORT RESTRICTIONS ON TEXTILES AND CLOTHING ORIGINATING FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

I, Mandisi Mpahlwa, in my capacity as Minister of Trade and Industry, acting under the powers vested in me by Section 6 of the International Trade Administration Act 2002 (Act 71 of 2002) hereby prescribe that-

- (a) goods described in Schedule A originating from the People's Republic of China shall not be imported into the Republic of South Africa except by virtue of a Special Import Permit Certificate (SIPC) issued in terms of section 6 of the said International Trade Administration Act, 2002, and in which such goods are specifically described;
- (b) goods described in Schedule A shall not be shipped to the Republic of South Africa unless the importer is in possession of an appropriate valid SIPC issued in terms of section 6 of the said International Trade Administration Act, 2002, and in which such goods are specifically described;
- (c) only the goods of a class and kind specified in the SIPC may be imported;
- (d) the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa will issue a single SIPC to an authorised party for the importation and clearance of goods described in Schedule B during the period covered by these regulations;
- (e) the quota per tariff heading indicated in the SIPC shall be valid for the importation and clearance of an amount of such quota for the calendar year or part thereof specified in the SIPC, which specific allocation will be valid until 31 December of the year for which the quota was allocated;
- (f) goods referred to in Schedule A that arrive at ports of entry in the Republic of South Africa and for which the importer cannot produce a valid SIPC shall be deemed to have been imported in contravention of the International Trade Administration Act, 2002; and will be subject to detention and seizure by the South Africa Revenue Service-;
- (g) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above, no SIPC shall be necessary for the importation of goods referred to in Schedule A if -
 - (i) the goods are for personal use imported by a bona fide immigrant or temporary resident;
 - (ii) the goods are for personal use imported by a returning resident or national returning to SA after having been outside of South Africa for a period in excess of 6 months;

- (iii) the goods are for personal use imported by a non- resident, resident or national and the goods do not exceed 20kg or 20 units as the case may be and in accordance with the statistical unit relevant to the customs tariff number;
 - (iii) the goods are imported in terms of rebate item 470.03 of Schedule 4 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, (Act 91 of 1964); or
 - (iv) the goods are imported in terms of rebate items 406.02, 406.03, 406.05, 406.06, 406.07 and 408.10 of Schedule 4 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act 91 of 1964)-:
- (h) nothing in this notice shall absolve an importer from the obligation of also complying with the provisions of other legislation relating to the importation of the specified goods into South Africa, originating from the People's Republic of China:-
- (i) the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa and/or The Commissioner for the SA Revenue Service will not be held responsible for any losses incurred by any party as a result of the enforcement of these regulations:- and
- (j) this notice and the regulations contained herein shall come into operation on 28 September 2006 and shall expire on 31 December 2008.

Mandisi Mpahlwa, M P
Minister of Trade and Industry

2. Definitions

2.1 Past Performer.

A Past Performer for the purpose of these regulations is a party that imported clothing and textiles originating from the PRC for commercial purposes during the period 1 January 2003 to 30 June 2006.

2.2 New Entrants

A New Entrant is a party who did not import clothing and textiles from the PRC for commercial purposes during the period 1 January 2003 to 30 June 2006.

3. There will not be inter-changeability of quota allocations between clothing and textiles or between the various clothing and textile tariff headings/sub-headings.

4. Allocated quotas are not transferable.
5. A Past Performer will be issued with a SIPC, reflecting the quantities (mass or units) per six digit tariff line that the Past Performer is allowed to import during a specific calendar year.
6. The maximum quota that may be imported per six-digit tariff line by a Past Performer will be provided to the SARS to be captured on the SARS electronic database in accordance with the importer's name and importer's code number. Quantities imported by individual importers will be debited from the importer's allocated quota until depleted.
7. Goods described in Schedule A that have arrived for clearance at a port of entry in the Republic of South Africa on or after the date on which the regulations on the importation of the textiles and clothing originating from the PRC have come into effect shall be deemed to have been imported in contravention of the International Trade Administration Act, 2002 and will be subject to detention and seizure unless:
 - 7.1 such goods are covered by a SIPC; or
 - 7.2 the importer provides written documentation demonstrating to the satisfaction of SARS that such goods were shipped on board prior to the date of publication of the regulations in the Government Gazette.
8. Contraventions of the provisions of the International Trade Administration Act (71 of 2002) and/or the Customs and Excise Act will result in the withdrawal or cancellation of the SIPC and/or may result in criminal prosecution in terms of the International Trade Administration Act and/or the Customs and Excise Act.
9. Quotas will not be re- instated. Example: where goods were intended for home consumption and cleared as such and the available quota was written off but later changed to an export transaction for example, warehoused for export, duty paid ex warehouse .etc such written off quota will not be re-instated.
10. Calculation of quotas to New Entrants.
 - 10.1 No quota allocations will be made to New Entrants during the 2006 calendar year.
 - 10.2 Quota allocations to New Entrants will be made for the 2007 and 2008 calendar years. calculated as follows:
 - A percentage of volume imported per six-digit tariff line over the period 1 January 2003 to 30 June 2006 will be set aside as a quota to be allocated to New Entrants for the 2007 and 2008 calendar years.
 - New Entrants are hereby invited to apply before 1 December 2006 to be allocated a portion of the quota per six-digit tariff line.
 - Application forms (IE230 and IE461) are available at www.itac.org.za or from the address referred to hereunder.

- All New Entrants are required to register as an importer with SARS and no quota allocation will be made to unregistered importers.
 - The available quota for New Entrants per six-tariff line will be divided equally between all New Entrants who applied within the specified time limit.
11. SIPC must be collected from the office of ITAC, situated at Block E, The DTI Campus, 77 Meintjies Street Sunnyside, Pretoria.
 12. SIPC must be collected by importers or their authorised representatives who must complete or submit a completed declaration reflecting the name and physical address of the holder of the quota.
 13. The regulations restricting the importation of clothing and textiles originating from the PRC will be available at www.itac.org.za or from the office of ITAC.
