STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR CLASS BROADCASTING SERVICES LICENCES

The present document, setting forth the standard terms and conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) for Class Broadcasting Services Licences forms an integral part of the Class Broadcasting Licence to which they are appended and, subject to the applicable laws and regulations, sets forth the rights and obligations of the Licensee named in the foregoing Licence.

1. INTERPRETATION

- a. In this document terms must have the same meaning as in the Electronic Communications Act no. 36 of 2005 (the “Act”), unless otherwise defined herein.
- b. The use of singulars must, where appropriate in the context include the plural. Persons, where referred to, may be individuals or legal persons.
- c. The headings grouping the provisions of this document are solely for the convenience of the reader and do not limit or affect the content of provisions stated thereunder.
- d. Any express or implied reference to any enactment includes laws, regulations or other legal documents of binding effect promulgated by a properly authorized public body, including documents enacted or re-enacted, promulgated, amended or revised after the date of this Licence being issued.
- e. Any schedules attached to this document must form a part of this document and be of equal force and effect.

- f. Should any specific provision of these Terms and Conditions become void or unenforceable as a result of a change of law, or the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, all other provisions hereof must continue to remain in force notwithstanding.

2. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW AND REGULATIONS

- a. This Licence is issued under the powers delegated by the Act to the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (the "Authority") and remains subject to the terms of said Act, including the continuing jurisdiction of the Authority in its implementation thereof, including all regulations currently in effect or as may be promulgated in the future by the Authority under the provisions of the Act.
- b. The Licensee must comply with provisions of the Act and the ICASA Act, No.13 of 2000, as amended ("the ICASA Act"); and any other applicable legislation, regulations, guidelines or policies valid and effective at any time during the term of this Licence.
- c. The Licensee remains under the continuing obligation to conduct its operations affecting or involving this Licence in conformity with all applicable laws, regulations and the present terms and conditions as are now effective or may be later promulgated. Failure to observe the provisions of law and regulations may result in the imposition of sanctions against the Licence holder in accordance with the provisions of the Act and such applicable regulations as may be promulgated by the Authority.
- d. Equipment and apparatus to be used for the provision of Broadcasting Services ("BS") must be type approved in terms of the Act.

3. OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL

- a. This Licence is issued to the natural or juristic person named in the Licence document.
- b. No transfer of the Licence or direct or indirect change of control of the Licensee may be effected without the Licensee submitting a written application for prior approval thereof to the Authority and the Authority giving its prior written approval thereof as provided for under the terms of the Act and such regulations of the Authority as may apply to approval requirements for such transactions.
- c. No reduction in the percentage of effective Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment ownership, whether direct or indirect, of the Licensee may be effected without the Licensee submitting a written application to the Authority for its prior written approval thereof and the Authority approving same as provided for under the terms of the Act and such regulations of the Authority as may apply to approval requirements for such transactions.
- d. The named Licensee remains legally responsible for the operations carried out under the terms of this Licence unless and until this Licence has expired on its own terms, been revoked or suspended, or returned to the Authority in compliance with the terms of the Act and such regulations as the Authority has, or may in the future promulgate.
- e. The Licensee must, provide notice to the authority in the proper form upon the occurrence of certain events, including but not limited to the suspension or termination of operations, changes to the Board of Directors, bankruptcy, or analogous events impairing the ability of the Licensee to conduct the operations authorized and required under the terms of this Licence, the Act, and the regulations of the Authority.

4. LICENCE AREA

The Licence area is a district or local municipality as defined in the Local Government Municipal Structures Act, Act No 117 of 1998, including communities with ascertainable common interests that are restricted to this area.

5. DURATION OF THE LICENCE

- a. The Licence is valid for four (4) years from the date of issue.
- b. Upon the conversion of the Licence, the Authority may take into account the existing Licence period to determine the Licence's remaining period of validity which is to be reflected in the Authority's register of class BS Licences.

6. COMPLIANCE WITH TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF OTHER LICENCES HELD

The Licensee must comply with the provisions of all other Licences issued to the Licensee in conducting any aspects of operations authorized or required under the terms of the present Licence, including without limitation any and all radio frequency spectrum Licences and/or Electronic Communications Network Service ("ECNS") Licences issued in terms of the Act.

7. COMMENCEMENT OF OPERATIONS

- a. Unless the Authority has granted an extended term upon application made by the Licensee, the Licensee must commence operation of the Broadcasting Services specified in this Licence within six (6) months from the date of issue of this Licence.

- b. Proof of type-approval of all equipment and apparatus must be provided to the Authority prior to commencement of the provision of the services.

8. HOURS OF OPERATIONS

Unless the Authority has approved another, shorter, schedule of daily broadcast operations which is appended hereto as an Annexure to this Licence, the Licensee must provide broadcast services twenty four (24) hours per day, seven days a week.

9. SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY THE LICENSEE
