DRAFT REGULATIONS IN TERMS OF SECTION 5(7) OF THE ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS ACT, 2005

Regulations on the Processes and Procedures to be followed and Fees payable in respect of Applications and Registrations for licences and applications for the Amendment, Renewal and Transfer of licences and applications for Special Temporary Authorisations in terms of the Electronic Communications Act, 2005

1. Definitions

In these Regulations, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act has that meaning, unless the context requires otherwise, and the following terms have the meaning assigned to them below -

“the Act” means the Electronic Communications Act, 2005 (Act No. 36 of 2005);

“applicant” means a person who has submitted an application in terms of the Act;

“application” means an application –

- (a) for an individual licence in terms of regulation 7 of these Regulations, as read with section 9 of the Act;
- (b) to amend an individual licence in terms of regulation 9 of these Regulations, as read with section 10 of the Act, or to amend a class licence in terms of regulation 10 of these Regulations, as the case may be;
- (c) to renew a licence in terms of regulation 11 or regulation 12 of these Regulations, as read with section 11 or 19 of the Act, as the case may be; or
- (d) to transfer a licence in terms of regulation 13 or regulation 14 of these Regulations, as read with section 13 or 16(6) of the Act, as the case may be;
- (e) for a special temporary authorisation in terms of regulation 15 of these Regulations, as read with section 5(7) (a) (iv) of the Act;

“fees” means the fees payable by applicants and registrants in respect of applications and registrations, as the case may be, as set out in Schedule 1;

“historically disadvantaged persons” means

- (a) South African citizens who are Black people, women or people with disabilities and that Black people are defined to include Africans, Indians and Coloureds;

(b) an association or juristic person whose members are natural persons referred to in regulation (a) above;

“licence” means an individual licence or a class licence;

“ITA” means an invitation to apply for an individual licence issued by the Authority in terms of section 9(1) of the Act;

“registrant” means a person who has submitted an application for registration in terms of the Act;

“registration” means a registration for a class licence in terms of regulation 8 of these Regulations read with sections 16 and 17 of the Act;

“these Regulations” includes the Schedules and Forms annexed to these Regulations;

“transfer” means alienate, assign, cede, dispose of, sell, in whole or in part, whether or not for value, any interest in a licence or a licensee from one person to a different person.

2. Purpose of these Regulations

(1) The purpose of these Regulations is to regulate and prescribe –

- (a) the process and procedures for applying for or registering, amending, transferring and renewing licences as contemplated in section 5(7)(a)(i) read with sections 9(1), 13(2), 16(1) and 17(1) of the Act;
- (b) the documentation to be submitted with an application or registration as contemplated in section 5 (7) (a) (ii) of the Act;
- (c) the fees payable in respect of an application or registration for the grant of a licence and in respect of an application for the amendment, transfer or renewal of a licence as contemplated in sections 4 (1) (c) (iv), 4(1) (c) (v) and 5 (7) (a) (iii) of the Act; and
- (d) other matters pertaining thereto, as contemplated in section 5 (7) (b) of the Act.

(2) These Regulations do not regulate –

- (a) the process and procedures in respect of applications for and the granting of radio frequency spectrum licences;

- (b) the annual licence fees payable by successful applicants and registrants.

3. Obtaining relevant forms

Forms referred to in these Regulations which are to be used for the purpose of an application or registration may be downloaded in electronic format from the Authority's website or may be obtained from the Authority at its offices.

4. Submission of applications, registrations and other documents in terms of these Regulations

- (1) Applications, registrations and other submissions in terms of these Regulations may be submitted to the Authority in hard copy or as may be specified in an ITA.
- (2) Where an application, registration or any other document required in terms of these Regulations must be submitted on or before a particular date as provided for in these Regulations or an ITA, such application, registration or other document must be submitted to the Authority before 16h30 on the date in question.
- (3) Applications, registrations and other submissions to the Authority in terms of these Regulations must be signed by a duly authorised representative of the applicant or registrant namely -
 - (a) the applicant or registrant, where the applicant or registrant is a natural person;
 - (b) each of the partners of the applicant or registrant, where the applicant or registrant is a partnership;
 - (c) a member, director or representative of the applicant or registrant, as the case may be, duly authorised thereto, where the applicant or registrant is a juristic person.
- (4) In addition to the requirements set out in sub-regulation (3), an application for the transfer of an individual licence in terms of regulation 13 and an application for the transfer of a class licence in terms of regulation 14 must also be signed on behalf of the prospective transferee of the licence to which the application relates by the duly authorised representative, as provided in sub-regulations (3)(a), (b) and (c), of the prospective transferee.

- (5) Any fees in respect of an application or registration which are payable in terms of these Regulations –
 - (a) may be paid by way of an electronic transfer of funds to the Authority; and
 - (b) must be paid on or before the day specified in the relevant ITA, where applicable; or
 - (c) must be paid on or before the day when the application or registration is submitted to the Authority, and documentary proof of payment must accompany such submission.
- (6) The Authority will not consider any application or registration where an applicant or registrant fails to pay the applicable application or registration fee timeously and in accordance with sub-regulation (5).
- (7) The Authority will not consider any application or registration where the applicant or registrant fails to comply with sub-regulation 4 (2) of these regulations.

5. Amendment of applications or registrations

- (1) Where information included in an application or registration ceases to be accurate, correct or complete at any time after submission thereof but before the Authority makes a decision thereon, the applicant or registrant must notify the Authority and request to amend the application or registration, in writing within fourteen (14) days of any such change.
- (2) Where a request referred to in sub-regulation (1) relates to an application for, or for the amendment, renewal or transfer of, an individual licence, to which the provisions of sections 9(2) to (6) of the Act are applicable, and such request is made:
 - (a) prior to the publication of the notice referred to in section 9(2) of the Act, the Authority may grant the request to amend the application where this will not unfairly prejudice other interested parties or impede the expeditious and proper consideration of the application;
 - (b) subsequent to the publication of the notice referred to in section 9(2) of the Act but prior to the expiry of the period for the submission of written representations referred to in section 9(2)(a) of the Act, the Authority –
 - (i) may grant the request to amend the application where this will not

- unfairly prejudice other interested parties or impede the expeditious and proper consideration of the application; and, where the Authority grants such request,
- (ii) must give notice of the amended application in the Gazette and invite interested parties to submit written representations in relation to the amended application within the period mentioned in the notice;
- (c) subsequent to the expiry of the period for the submission of written representations referred to in section 9(2)(a) of the Act –
- (i) the applicant must give notice of the proposed amendment to the application to all interested parties who submitted such written representations, which notice must be given at the same time as the notice referred to in sub-regulation (1);
 - (ii) the applicant must provide documentary proof to the Authority that it has so given notice to such interested parties;
 - (iii) interested parties may, within 5 working days of receipt of the notice referred to in sub-regulation (3)(c)(i), make representations to the Authority with regard to whether the request to amend the application referred to in sub-regulation (2) should be granted;
 - (iv) after considering any written representations from interested parties in relation to the proposed amendment to the application, the Authority may grant the request referred to in sub-regulation (2) where this will not unfairly prejudice other interested parties or impede the expeditious and proper consideration of the application, or where the Authority otherwise considers that granting the request would be in the interest of the proper consideration of the application;
 - (v) where the Authority grants the request to amend the application referred to in sub-regulation (2), the Authority must give notice of the amended application in the Gazette and invite interested parties to submit written representations in relation to the amended application within the period mentioned in the notice.
- (4) Where a request referred to in sub-regulation (2) relates to a registration or to an application for the amendment, renewal or transfer of a class licence, the Authority may grant the request where this will not unfairly prejudice other interested parties or impede the expeditious and proper consideration of the application, or where the Authority otherwise considers it appropriate to grant such request.

6. Liability of Authority as to cost of applications and registrations

The Authority is not liable for any costs incurred by an applicant or registrant in complying with these Regulations.

7. Application for an individual licence (section 9 of the Act)

- (1) An application for an individual licence in terms of section 9(1) of the Act must be made in writing in the manner and form set out in the ITA published by the Authority in relation to the individual licence concerned, and must include all the information and documents required by the ITA.
- (2) An application for an individual licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in the ITA published by the Authority in relation to an individual licence, and the provisions of regulation 4(5) apply to the payment of such fee.
- (3) Where an application for an individual licence submitted to the Authority is incomplete in that it does not contain all the information stipulated in the ITA published by the Authority in relation to the individual licence concerned, or where such an application otherwise fails to comply with the requirements of the ITA, the Authority may –
 - (a) reject the application; or
 - (b) direct the applicant to furnish the Authority within the period specified by the Authority with such further information as is necessary to complete the application, or to comply otherwise with the requirements of the ITA, and failing compliance by the applicant with such direction, the Authority may reject the application.
- (4) If an application for an individual licence is not submitted to the Authority before the deadline for submission specified in the ITA concerned, the Authority must refuse to accept and consider that application.
- (5) The ITA in respect of applications for a particular individual licence may contain provisions, not inconsistent with the Act or these Regulations, relating to the procedure to be adopted by the Authority in dealing with such applications.

- (6) An application for an individual licence must include -
 - (a) in the case of an application by a natural person, a certified copy of the applicant's identity document indicating that he or she is a citizen of the Republic, as required by section 5(8)(a) of the Act;
 - (b) in the case of an application by a juristic person -
 - (i) where the applicant has been registered under the laws of the Republic, a certified copy of the applicant's certificate of incorporation and memorandum and articles of association or other constitutive documents indicating the applicant's compliance with the requirements of section 5(8)(b) of the Act;
 - (ii) where the applicant has not been so registered, a written undertaking, given by a duly authorized representative of the applicant, that the applicant will comply with the requirements of section 5(8)(b) of the Act and will provide the Authority with documentary proof of such compliance within a period specified in that undertaking.

8. Registration for a class licence (section 17 of the Act)

- (1) Notice of a registration for a class licence in terms of sections 16(2) and 17(1) of the Act, other than a class licence to provide a community broadcasting service, must be in writing in the form set out in Form A and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form A.
- (2) Notice of a registration for a class licence to provide a community broadcasting service in terms of sections 16(2), 17(1) and 50 of the Act must be in writing in the form set out in Form B and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form B.
- (3) A registration notice contemplated in sub-regulations (1) and (2) must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such a registration.

9. Application to amend an individual licence (section 10 of the Act)

- (1) An application to amend a licensee's individual licence in terms of section 10(1) (c) of the Act must be made in writing in the form set out in Form C and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form C, including the proposed amended formulation of the provision sought to be amended and the applicant's motivation for such proposed amendment.
- (2) An application to amend an individual licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such an application.

10. Application to amend a class licence

- (1) An application to amend a licensee's class licence must be made in writing in the form set out in Form D and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form D.
- (2) An application to amend a class licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such an application.
- (3) An application to amend a licensee's class licence will not be required in relation to the matters referred to in section 17(6) (b), read with sections 16(5) (a) and (b) of the Act, provided that, where a change notified to the Authority in terms of those sections is made in relation to the nature of the services provided in terms of the licensee's class licence, such services are authorised by that licence.
- (4) Where a licensee submits a notice to the Authority in terms of section 17(6) (b) of the Act and where, in the opinion of the Authority, the nature of the services described in that notice are not authorised in terms of the licensee's class licence, the Authority must direct the licensee to submit an application to amend its licence in terms of this regulation 10.
- (5) Where a direction is made to a licensee in terms of sub-regulation (4), the licensee may not commence with the provision of the relevant services for which an amendment to the class licence is required unless and until the Authority grants the licensee's application to amend its class licence in the manner proposed.

11. Application to renew an individual licence (section 11 of the Act)

- (1) An application to renew an individual licence must be made in writing in the form set out in Form E and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form E.
- (2) An application to renew an individual licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such an application.
- (3) Subject to section 11(9) of the Act, an application to renew an individual licence must be submitted to the Authority no earlier than twelve months and no later than six months prior to the expiry of the individual licence to which the application relates.
- (4) An application for the renewal of an individual licence must set out full particulars of any prior failure by the licensee to comply with the terms and conditions of the licence, the provisions of the Act or the related legislation, or any regulation made by the Authority.
- (5) An application for the renewal of an individual licence must further set out full particulars of –
 - (a) any finding by the Complaints and Compliance Committee against the applicant, as well as details of the sanction imposed by the Authority, if any; and
 - (b) any finding by a body recognised in terms of section 54 and 55 of the Act.
- (6) If the Authority, upon receipt of an application for the renewal of an individual licence, intends to amend the terms and conditions attaching to that licence if it were to be renewed, as contemplated in section 11(6) of the Act, the Authority must –
 - (a) when giving notice of the renewal application in terms of section 9(2) read with section 11(3) of the Act, also give notice of the proposed amendments to terms and conditions of the licence concerned; and
 - (b) afford the applicant and other interested parties a fair opportunity to make written representations to the Authority in respect of such proposed amendments.

12. Notice to renew a class licence (section 19(2) of the Act)

- (1) A notice to renew a class license must be made in writing in the form set out in Form F and must include all the information and documents required in terms of Form F.
- (2) A notice to renew must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such a notice.
- (3) A notice to renew a class license must be submitted to the Authority no earlier than twelve months and no later than six months prior to the expiry of the licence to which the notice relates.
- (4) The notice must further set out full particulars of –
 - (a) any finding by the Complaints and Compliance Committee against the applicant, as well as details of the sanction imposed by the Authority, if any; and
 - (b) any finding by a body recognised in terms of section 54 and 55 of the Act.

13. Application to transfer an individual licence (section 13(2) of the Act)

- (1) An application to transfer an individual licence must be made in writing in the form set out in Form G and must include the information and documents required in terms of Form G.
- (2) An application to transfer an individual licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in respect of such an application.
- (3) An application to transfer an individual licence must, subject to the requirements of regulation 4(4), be submitted by the prospective transferor.
- (4) Where, in the opinion of the Authority, it is necessary as a matter of procedural fairness to do so, the Authority may take any or all of the following steps -
 - (a) give notice of an application to transfer an individual licence in the Gazette;

- (b) invite interested persons to submit written representations in relation to the application within the period specified in the notice referred to in sub-regulation 13(4) (i);
 - (c) allow the applicant an opportunity to submit written responses to representations received in relation to the application within the period specified by the Authority; and
 - (d) conduct a public hearing in relation to the application.
- (5) Interested persons who submitted written representations in response to an invitation from the Authority to do so may request an opportunity to make representations at any public hearing conducted in relation to an application for the transfer of an individual licence and the Authority must grant such a request where, in the opinion of the Authority, it is necessary as a matter of procedural fairness to do so.
- (6) Nothing in these Regulations constitutes a requirement that the Authority conduct a public hearing in relation to an application for the transfer of an individual licence.

14. Application to transfer a class licence (section 16(6) of the Act)

- (1) An application to transfer a class licence must be made in writing in the form set out in Form H and must include the information and documents required in terms of Form H.
- (2) An application to transfer a class licence must be accompanied by the fee stipulated in Schedule 1 in relation to such an application.

15. Application for a special temporary authorisation for testing purposes, demonstrations and research and development

- (1) Any person may make application to the Authority for a special temporary authorisation to provide an electronic communications network service or an electronic communications service or a broadcasting service for testing purposes, demonstrations and/or research and development.

- (2) A service which is provided in terms of a special temporary authorisation may not be sold or otherwise be made available or provided on a commercial basis, and may not be made available or provided as an incident of a service provided commercially in terms of an individual or class licence or as an exempted service.
- (3) Where the provision of the electronic communications network service or electronic communications service or broadcasting service, as the case may be, in terms of a special temporary authorisation referred to in sub-regulation (1) requires the transmission of any signal by radio or the use of radio apparatus to receive any signal by radio, the applicant must apply for a special temporary authorisation in respect of the use of the radio frequency spectrum to be used in addition to the special temporary authorisation provided for in these Regulations.
- (3) An application for a special temporary authorisation in terms of sub-regulation (1) must be made in the form set out in Form I and must include the information and documents required in terms of Form I.

16. Surrender of an individual licence (section 12 of the Act)

- (1) A licensee may surrender its individual licence to the Authority in terms of section 12 of the Act at any time during the applicable licence term by submitting a notice in writing in the form set out in Form J to the Authority and providing the information and documents required in terms of Form J.
- (2) The notice referred to in sub-regulation (1) must be submitted no less than ninety (90) days prior to the date determined by the licensee on which the surrender of its individual licence will take effect and on which it will cease to provide the services in respect of which the licence was granted.
- (3) A licensee that intends to surrender its individual licence to the Authority must take appropriate steps to inform subscribers and end-users of the cessation of the services in respect of which the licence was granted prior to the cessation of those services.
- (4) Upon receipt of a notice referred to in sub-regulation (1), the Authority may stipulate the steps to be taken by the licensee in order to comply with its obligations in terms of sub-regulation (3).

- (5) A licensee that surrenders its individual licence must pay to the Authority –
 - (a) any outstanding fees and contributions which may be due and payable by the date on which the surrender of the licence is to take effect; and
 - (b) the proportion of any annual fees and contributions payable at a date subsequent to the date on which the surrender of the licence will take effect, which amount must be calculated in relation to the number of months in the year which will have elapsed by the date on which the licensee ceases to provide the services.
- (6) All amounts payable in terms of sub-regulation (5) must be paid to the Authority within one month of the date on which the services provided in terms of the individual licence are discontinued, except where the Authority, upon the request of the licensee, extends the time period in this regard.

17. Surrender of class licence and notice of changes in respect of the class licence (section 17(6) of the Act)

- (1) A licensee that elects to surrender its class licence in terms of the Act at any time during the applicable licence term must submit a notice in the form set out in Form K to the Authority and provide the information and documents required in terms of Form K.
- (2) The notice referred to in sub-regulation (1) must be submitted no less than thirty days prior to the date determined by the licensee on which the surrender of its class licence will take effect and on which it will cease to provide the services in respect of which the licence was granted.
- (3) A licensee that intends to surrender its class licence must take appropriate steps to inform subscribers and end-users of the cessation of the services in respect of which the licence was granted prior to the cessation of those services.
- (4) Upon receipt of a notice referred to in sub-regulation (1), the Authority may stipulate the steps to be taken by the licensee in order to comply with its obligations in terms of sub-regulation (3).

- (5) A licensee that surrenders its class licence must pay to the Authority –
 - (a) any outstanding fees and contributions which may be due and payable by the date on which the surrender of the licence is to take effect; and
 - (b) that proportion of any annual fees and contributions payable at a date subsequent to the date on which the surrender of the licence will take effect, which amount must be calculated in relation to the number of months in the year which will have elapsed by the date on which the licensee ceases to provide the services.
- (6) All amounts payable in terms of sub-regulation (5) must be paid to the Authority within one month of the date on which the services provided in terms of the class licence are discontinued, except where the Authority, upon the request of the licensee, extends the time period in this regard.
- (7) A licensee must submit a notice to the Authority in writing in the form of Form L within thirty (30) days of the change occurring where -
 - (a) the name or contact details of the licensee change; or
 - (b) the nature of the services provided in terms of the licence change.
