 - (c) conclude such contracts and institute such proceedings as may be necessary for the exercise of its powers and fulfilment of its functions under this Act.

Powers of intervention of Regulatory Authority

12. (1) If the Regulatory Authority is satisfied on reasonable grounds that there has 50 been maladministration by a social housing institution, the Regulatory Authority must-

(a) prepare a report to that effect;

(b) provide the social housing institution with a written notice of the Regulatory Authority's intention to intervene, and must specify in that notice what remedial action must be taken by the social housing institution;

55

(c) instruct the social housing institution to take the remedial action specified in the notice, and may request the institution to obtain specified support in order to rectify such maladministration.

35

50

SOCIAL HOUSING ACT, 2008

(2) The Regulatory Authority may make available funds through the social housing investment plan to assist in meeting the costs of any such support.

- (3) Should the social housing institution continue to resist the intervention of the Regulatory Authority or if there is no improvement in performance in respect of the matters which necessitated the intervention, the Regulatory Authority may authorise a forensic investigation into the institution's affairs and appoint a public accountant and auditor registered in terms of the Public Accountants' and Auditors' Act, 1991 (Act No. 80 of 1991), to undertake such investigation.
- (4) The Regulatory Authority may, after consultation with the providers of any debt finance to the institution and upon notice to affected parties, including the providers of 10 finance to the institution—
 - (a) apply to the High Court for the suspension of the chairperson, members of the board, manager or executive or senior staff of the institution for the period of the investigation; and
 - (b) appoint suitably qualified persons to manage the institution's affairs in their 15 place pending the findings of the forensic audit report.
- (5 The forensic audit report must make a finding on whether the social housing institution has been managed in a manner which constitutes maladministration.
- (6) If the forensic audit report does not make a finding of maladministration, the suspended persons are automatically re-instated as from the date of such report and the 20 Regulatory Authority must review its previous instructions to the institution.
- (7) If the forensic audit finds maladministration, the Regulatory Authority must request the members of the social housing institution to replace any suspended person or person associated with the maladministration with a person acceptable to or recommended by the Regulatory Authority.
- (8) If the Regulatory Authority, based on the forensic audit report, does not believe that the institution is sustainable in its current form, or if the social housing institution refuses to take the steps required under subsection (8), the Regulatory Authority may, after consultation with the providers of debt finance to the institution and upon notice to affected parties, including the providers of finance to the institution, apply to the High Court for an order placing the institution under the administration of the Regulatory Authority.
- (9) If the High Court grants an order placing the institution under the administration of the Regulatory Authority. the Regulatory Authority—
 - (a) must manage the institution effectively and efficiently;
 - (b) may remove the accreditation of the social housing institution;
 - (c) may transfer the housing stock or rights of the social housing institution to another social housing institution prepared to accept such transfer on such terms and conditions as may be agreed at the time; or
 - (d) where appropriate, institute legal proceedings for the winding up of the 40 institution.
- (10) Where the Regulatory Authority succeeds in restoring the viability of the institution or any part thereof, it may apply to High Court for—
 - (a) the administration order to be lifted; and
 - (b) for an order authorising the Regulatory Authority to appoint suitable persons 45 as directors and office bearers of the institution.
- (11) A social housing institution or any person directly affected by a decision of the Regulatory Authority, may exercise—
 - (a) any rights to internal review to the Regulatory Authority in accordance with the prescribed procedures;
 - (b) any other rights according to law.
- (12) A social housing institution for purposes of any inspection under this Act must, subject to the provisions of any applicable law and subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Minister, allow the Regulatory Authority—
 - (a) access to its premises or any property developed, constructed or managed by 55it;

- 13. (1) As from the commencement of this Act, all institutions having undertaken housing developments with the benefit of an institutional subsidy are provisionally accredited social housing institutions for purposes of this Act, subject to the provisions of this Act and the powers of the Regulatory Authority.
- (2) Provisional accreditation pursuant to subsection (1) lapses on the date prescribed by the Minister which date may not exceed 12 months after the commencement of this Act.
- (3) An institution wishing to carry on the business of social housing must in the prescribed format apply to the Regulatory Authority for accreditation.
- (4) A municipality wishing to participate in social housing may establish an institution, which must be accredited.
- (5) Subject to any conditions prescribed by the Minister, a social housing institution 20 must be a company registered under the Companies Act. 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), or a co-operative registered under the Co-operatives Act, 2005 (Act No. 14 of 2005), or any other form of institution acceptable to the Regulatory Authority.
- (6) Should a social housing institution comply with all the qualifying criteria, it shall be accredited as a social housing institution in terms of this Act and its details must be 25 entered in a register kept for this purpose by the Regulatory Authority.
- (7) Should a social housing institution at any stage fail to comply with the qualifying criteria, the Regulatory Authority may—
 - (a) exercise the powers referred to in section 12; and
 - (b) in its discretion and as determined in the regulations and upon notice to 30 affected parties—
 - (i) recover any monies granted to the social housing institution in terms of the social housing programme:
 - (ii) withhold any further grants;
 - (iii) stipulate conditions relating to reforms to be undertaken by the social 35 housing institution or improvements to be effected by it for the payment of any grants; and
 - (iv) where necessary, intervene in accordance with the provisions of section
- (8) A social housing institution must comply with all the provisions of the Act in terms—40 of which it was established and any other applicable law, and any contravention of the said provisions may result in its accreditation being withdrawn by the Regulatory Authority.
- (9) The lapsing of provisional accreditation, or the withdrawal of accreditation in terms of this Act, does not preclude the Regulatory Authority from exercising any of its powers under this Act.
