Substitution of section 2 of Act 25 of 1961

2. The following section is hereby substituted for section 2 of the principal Act:

“[Ex officio marriage] Marriage officers[,] by virtue of office and designation of persons in service of State as marriage officers

2. (1) Every magistrate[,] and every [special] justice of the peace [and every Commissioner] contemplated in section 4 of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Act, 1963 (Act No. 16 of 1963) shall by virtue of his or her office and so long as he or she holds such office, be a marriage officer for the district or other area in respect of which he or she holds office.

(2) The Minister [and any officer in the public service authorized thereto by him] may designate any officer or employee in the public service or the diplomatic or consular service of the Republic to be, by virtue of his or her office and so long as he or she holds such office, a marriage officer, either generally or for any specified class of persons, [or] country or area.”.

Insertion of section 2A in Act 25 of 1961

3. The following section is hereby inserted after section 2 of the principal Act:

“Delegation of powers

2A. The Minister may, in writing and subject to any condition he or she may impose, delegate any power conferred on him or her by this Act, excluding the power conferred by section 38, to a person in the services of the Department, but shall not be divested of any power so delegated and may set aside or amend any decision made in the exercise of such delegates power.”.

Substitution of section 3 of Act 25 of 1961

4. The following section is hereby substituted for section 3 of the principal Act:

“Designation of ministers of religion and other persons attached to religious denomination or organization as marriage officers”

3. (1) Any religious denomination or organization may apply in writing to the Minister to be designated as a religious organization that may solemnize marriages in terms of this Act.

(2) The Minister may designate such a religious denomination or organization as a religious institution that may solemnize marriages under this Act and must, from time to time, publish particulars of all religious institutions so designated in the Gazette.

(3) The Minister may limit the authority of any religious denomination or organization designated in terms of subsection (2) to the solemnization of marriages—

(a) within a specified area; or

(b) for a specified period.

(4) The Minister may, on request of any designated religious institution referred to in subsection (2), revoke the designation under that subsection and must publish such revocation in the Gazette.

(5) The Minister and any officer in the public service authorised thereto by him or her may, upon receiving a written request from any minister of religion or any person holding a responsible position in any designated religious institution, designate such person to be, as long as he or she is such a minister or occupies such position, a marriage officer for the purpose of solemnizing marriages in accordance with this Act and according to the rites of that religion.

(6) Every designation of a person as a marriage officer under subsection (5) shall be by written instrument and the date as from which it shall have effect and any limitation to which it is subject shall be specified in such instrument.

(7) The Minister and any officer in the public service authorised thereto by him or her may, upon receiving a written request from a person designated as a marriage officer under subsection (5), revoke, in writing, the designation of such person as a marriage officer for purposes of solemnizing marriages under this Act.”

Repeal of section 4 of Act 25 of 1961

5. Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Substitution of section 6 of Act 25 of 1961

6. The following section is hereby substituted for section 6 of the principal Act:

“Certain persons may in certain circumstances be deemed to have been marriage officers

6. (1) Whenever any person has acted as a marriage officer during any period or within any area in respect of which he or she was not a marriage officer under this Act or any prior law, and the Minister [or any officer in the public service authorized thereto by the Minister] is satisfied that such person did so under the bona fide belief that he or she was a marriage officer during that period or within that area, [he] the Minister may direct in writing that such person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been a marriage officer during such period or within such area, duly designated as such under this Act or such law, as the case may be.

(2) Whenever any person has acted as a marriage officer during any period or within any area in respect of which he or she was not a marriage officer under this Act or any prior law, and the Minister or any officer in the public service authorized thereto by the Minister is satisfied that such person did so under the bona fide belief that he or she was a marriage officer during that period or within that area, [he] the Minister may direct in writing that such person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been a marriage officer during such period or within such area, duly designated as such under this Act or such law, as the case may be.

(3) Any marriage solemnized by any person who is in terms of this section [to be] deemed to have been duly designated as a marriage officer shall, provided such marriage was in every other respect solemnized in accordance with the provisions of this Act or any prior law, as the case may be, and there was no lawful impediment thereto, be as valid and binding as it would have been if such person had been duly designated as a marriage officer.

(4) Nothing contained in this section [contained] shall be construed as relieving any person in respect of whom a direction has been issued thereunder, from the liability to prosecution for any offence committed by him or her.”.

Repeal of section 7 of Act 25 of 1961

7. Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Substitution of section 8 of Act 25 of 1961

8. The following section is hereby substituted for section 8 of the principal Act:

“Change of name of religious denomination or organization and amalgamation of religious denominations or organizations

8. (1) If a religious denomination or organization changes the name by which it was known, amalgamates with any other religious denomination or organization, or changes its objects or if there is a material change in its circumstances, it shall immediately advise Minister thereof.

(2) The Minister must inform the denomination or organization concerned in writing of any such cancellation”.

Substitution of section 9 of Act 25 of 1961

9. The following section is hereby substituted for section 9 of the principal Act:

“Cancellation or revocation of designation as marriage officer and limitation of authority of marriage officer

9.(1) The Minister may, cancel or revoke in writing the designation of any person as a marriage officer or the authority of any other person to solemnize marriages under this Act if—

- (a) the marriage officer no longer wishes to be a marriage officer;
- (b) the denomination by which that person was nominated for designation as a marriage officer, or in respect of which that person is designated, no longer desires that person to be designated as a marriage officer;
- (c) the denomination by which a marriage officer was nominated for designation, or in respect of which that person is designated, has ceased to be a recognized denomination;
- (d) the marriage officer has been found guilty of contravening this Act; or
- (e) the marriage officer is for any other reason not entitled to such designation.

(2) The Minister may on good cause, in writing, limit the authority of a marriage officer or class of marriage officers to the extent to which the Minister deems fit.

(3) Prior to taking any action under subsection (1) or (2), the Minister must inform—

- (a) the person whose designation or authority is to be revoked or limited; and
- (b) the religious denomination or organization that—
  - (i) nominated that person for designation as a marriage officer; or
  - (ii) no longer desires that person to be designated as a marriage officer, in writing of the proposed revocation and the grounds founding it, and afford them sufficient opportunity to show cause why such action should not be taken."

Substitution of section 10 of Act 25 of 1961

10. The following section is hereby substituted for section 10 of the principal Act:

“Solemnization of marriages in country outside [the Union] Republic

10. (1) Any person who is under the provisions of this Act authorized to solemnize any marriages in any country outside the [Union] Republic—

- (a) may so solemnize any such marriage only if the parties thereto are both South African citizens or permanent residents domiciled in the [Union] Republic; and
- (b) shall solemnize any such marriage in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any marriage so solemnized shall for all purposes be deemed to have been solemnized in the province of the [Union] Republic in which [the male] either party thereto is domiciled.”.

Repeal of section 11 of Act 25 of 1961

11. Section 11 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Substitution of section 12 of Act 25 of 1961

12. The following section is hereby substituted for section 12 of the principal Act:

“Prohibition of conducting of marriage without production of identity document or prescribed affidavit

12.(1) No marriage officer shall conduct a marriage unless each of the parties in question produces to the marriage officer his or her identity document issued under the provisions of the Identification Act, 1997 (Act No. 68 of 1997);

(2) A party failing to produce to the marriage officer his or her identity document contemplated in subsection (1) must furnish the marriage officer with—

- (a) his or her original birth certificate issued under the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1992 (Act No. 51 of 1992);
  - (b) a prescribed affidavit sworn to before an authorised officer of the Department; and
  - (c) proof of his or her application for identity document.
- (3) If one of such parties is a foreigner, he or she must furnish the marriage officer with—
- (a) proof of his or her lawful sojourn in the Republic;
  - (b) his or her original passport or travel document; and
  - (c) a prescribed affidavit sworn to before an officer of the Department,
- and where such foreigner is a refugee, he or she must furnish to the marriage officer his or her original identity document issued in terms of the Refugees Act, 1998 (Act No. 130 of 1998).".

Insertion of section 12A in Act 25 of 1961

13. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 12:

“Requirements for solemnization of marriage

12A. (1) A person may only be a spouse in one marriage at any given time.

(2) A foreigner who intends to marry a South African citizen or permanent resident must—

- (a) in the prescribed manner, notify; and
- (b) submit to, a letter issued by the relevant authorities in his or her country of birth as proof of no lawful impediment, the Director-General 30 days prior to the date of the intended marriage.

(3) A person in a marriage under this Act may not conclude a civil union under the Civil Union Act or a marriage under the Recognition of Customary Marriages Act.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) shall not apply to a man and a woman married under the Recognition of Customary Marriages Act who are neither spouses in any other subsisting customary marriage with any other person.

(5) A prospective spouse who has previously been—

- (a) registered as a civil union partner under the Civil Union Act;
- (b) married under the Recognition of Customary Marriages Act; or
- (c) married under this Act,

must present a certified copy of the divorce order or death certificate of the former civil union partner or spouse, as the case may be, to the marriage officer as proof that the previous civil union or marriage has been terminated.

(6) No marriage officer shall proceed with the solemnization of the marriage unless in possession of the relevant documentation referred to in subsection (5).”

Repeal of section 22 of Act 25 of 1961

14. Section 22 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 23 of Act 23 of 1961

15. Section 23 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsections (2) and (3) of the following subsections:

“(2) Upon receipt of any such objection the marriage officer concerned shall inquire into the grounds of the objection and if he or she is satisfied that there is no lawful impediment to the proposed marriage, [he] the marriage officer may solemnize the marriage [in accordance with the provisions of this Act].

(3) If [he] the marriage officer is not so satisfied, he or she shall refuse to solemnize the marriage and record the reasons for such refusal in writing.”.

Amendment of section 24 of Act 25 of 1961

16. Section 24 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a minor does not include a person who is under the age of [twenty-one] eighteen years and who previously contracted a valid marriage which has been dissolved by death or divorce.”.

Substitution of section 24A of Act 25 of 1961

17. The following section is hereby substituted for section 24A of the principal Act: is hereby amended by—

“Consequences and dissolution of marriage for want of consent of parents or guardian

24A. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or the common law a marriage between persons of whom one or both are minors shall not be void merely because the parents or guardian of the minor, or a [commissioner of child welfare] presiding officer whose consent is by law required for the entering into of a marriage, did not consent to the marriage, but may be dissolved by a competent court on the ground of want of consent if application for the dissolution of the marriage is made—

- (a) by a parent or guardian of the minor before [he] that minor attains majority and within six weeks of the date on which the parent or guardian becomes aware of the existence of the marriage; or

(b) by the minor before he or she attains majority or within three months thereafter.

(2) A court shall not grant an application in terms of subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that the dissolution of the marriage is in the interest of the minor or minors, as the case may be."

Substitution of section 25 of Act 25 of 1961

18. The following section is hereby substituted for section 25 of the principal Act:

"When consent of parents or guardian of minor cannot be obtained

25. (1) If [a commissioner of child welfare] the presiding officer of a children's court defined in section 1 of the [Child Care Act, 1983,] Children's Act is after proper inquiry satisfied that a minor who is resident in the district or area in respect of which he or she holds office has no parent or guardian or is for any good reason unable to obtain the consent of his or her parents or guardian to enter into a marriage, such [commissioner of child welfare] presiding officer may in his or her discretion grant written consent to such minor to marry a specified person, but such [commissioner of child welfare] presiding officer shall not grant his or her consent if one or other parent of the minor whose consent is required by law or his or her guardian refuses to grant consent to the marriage.

(2) [A commissioner of child welfare] The presiding officer of a children's court shall, before granting his or her consent to a marriage under subsection (1), enquire whether it is in the interests of the minor in question that the parties to the proposed marriage should enter into an antenuptial contract, and if he or she is satisfied that such is the case, he or she shall not grant his or her consent to the proposed marriage before such contract has been entered into, and shall assist the said minor in the execution of the said contract.

(3) A contract so entered into shall be deemed to have been entered into with the assistance of the parent or guardian of the said minor.

(4) If the parent, guardian or [commissioner of child welfare] presiding officer in question refuses to consent to a marriage of a minor, such consent may on application be granted by a judge of the [Supreme] High Court of South Africa: Provided that such a judge shall not grant such consent unless he or she is of the opinion that such refusal of consent by the parent, guardian or [commissioner of child welfare] presiding officer is without adequate reason and contrary to the interests of such minor.”.

Amendment of section 26 of Act 25 of 1961

19. Section 26 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) No [boy under the age of 18 years and no girl under the age of 15 years] person under the age of 15 years shall be capable of contracting a valid marriage except with the written permission of the Minister or any officer in the public service authorized thereto by him or her, which he or she may grant in any particular case in which he or she considers such marriage desirable: Provided that such permission shall not relieve the parties to the proposed marriage from the obligation to comply with all other requirements prescribed by law: Provided further that such permission shall not be necessary if by reason of any such other requirement the consent of a judge or court having jurisdiction in the matter is necessary and has been granted.”.

Substitution of section 27 of Act 25 of 1961

20. The following section is hereby substituted for section 27 of the principal Act:

"Proof of age of parties to proposed marriage

27. If parties appear before a marriage officer for the purpose of contracting a marriage with each other and such marriage officer reasonably suspects that either of them is of an age which debars him or her from contracting a valid marriage without the consent or permission of some other person, [he] that marriage officer may refuse to solemnize a marriage between them unless he or she is furnished with such consent or permission in writing or with satisfactory proof showing that the party in question is entitled to contract a marriage without such consent or permission."

Amendment of section 28 of Act 25 of 1961

21. Section 28 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words:

"[Any legal provision to the contrary notwithstanding] It shall be lawful for—".

22. Section 29 of the principal Act is hereby amended by—

(a) the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) A marriage officer [shall] may solemnize any marriage in a church or other building used for religious service, or in a public office or private dwelling-house, with open doors, or in any place outside thereof: Provided that the parties themselves and at least two competent witnesses are present in such place [and in the presence of the parties themselves and at least two competent witnesses, but the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not be construed as prohibiting a marriage officer from solemnizing a marriage in any place other than a place mentioned therein if the marriage must be solemnized in such other place by reason of the serious or longstanding illness of, or serious bodily injury to, one or both of the parties].”; and

- (b) the repeal of subsection (3).

Amendment of section 29A of Act 25 of 1961

23. Section 29A of the principal Act is hereby amended by—

- (a) the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) The marriage officer shall forthwith transmit the marriage register and records concerned, as the case may be, to a regional or district representative [designated as such under section 21(1) of the Identification Act, 1986 (Act No. 72 of 1986)] of the Department in whose region or district the marriage was solemnized.”; and .

- (b) the insertion after subsection (2) of the following subsections:

“(3) Upon receipt of the said register and records the regional or district representative, as the may be, shall cause the particulars of the marriage to be included in the population register in accordance with the provisions of the Identification Act.

(4) A marriage certificate issued in the prescribed manner shall be prima facie proof of the existence of the marriage and of the particulars contained in the certificate.”.

Amendment of section 30 of Act 25 of 1961

24. Section 30 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) If the provisions of this section or any former law relating to the questions to be put to each of the parties separately or to the declaration whereby the marriage shall be declared to be solemnized or to the requirement that the parties shall give each other the right hand, have not [been] strictly been complied with owing to an error, omission or oversight committed in good faith —

- (a) [an error, omission or oversight committed in good faith] by the marriage officer; [or]
- (b) [an error, omission or oversight committed in good faith] by the parties; or [owing to the physical disability of one or both of the parties]
- (c) owing to the physical disability of one or both of the parties.

but such marriage has in every other respect been solemnized in accordance with the provisions of this Act or, as the case may be, a former law, that marriage shall, provided there was no other lawful impediment thereto [and provided further that such marriage, if it was solemnized before the commencement of the Marriage Amendment Act, 1970 (Act No. 51 of 1970), has not been dissolved or declared invalid by a competent court and neither of the parties to such marriage has after such marriage and during the life of the other, already lawfully married another], be as valid and binding as it would have been if the said provisions had been strictly complied with.”.

Substitution of section 31 of Act 25 of 1961

25. The following section is hereby substituted for section 31 of the principal Act:

“Certain marriage officers may refuse to solemnize certain marriages

31. Nothing contained in this Act [contained] shall be construed so as to compel a marriage officer who is a minister of religion or a person holding a responsible position in a religious denomination or organization to solemnize a marriage which would not conform to the rites, formularies, tenets, doctrines or discipline of his or her religious denomination or organization.”.

Repeal of section 32 of Act 25 of 1961

26. Section 32 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.
