DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

No. 430

1 June 2012

INVITATION TO NOMINATE MEMBERS OF THE ICT POLICY REVIEW PANEL

I, Dina Pule, Minister of Communications, hereby invite nominations for membership of the ICT Policy Review Panel.

An ICT Policy Colloquium was held in April 2012 as a first step in the formulation of an Integrated National ICT Policy. The main purpose of the ICT Policy Review Panel (the Panel) is to advance the outcomes of the ICT Policy Colloquium towards the formulation of a Green Paper and thereafter a White Paper on Integrated National ICT Policy. The Panel will be supported by Working Committees and will be required in the first instance to make recommendations to the Minister within six (6) months of its establishment.

The Panel shall consist of up to twenty (20) members. These members will when viewed together constitute an ICT core expert group whom about 6 members will be appointed as chairpersons of the six (6) working committees, namely Broadcasting, Telecommunications and Information Technology, Postal, Content Development, Digitising government, and Investment and Manufacturing.

In appointing the Members of the Panel, the Minister will consider a broad spectrum of required skills including inter alia engineering, legal, economics, education, business development, financial, regulatory and research.

The Terms of Reference of the Panel is available on the Department's website at: www.doc.gov.za.

The following information should be supplied in respect of the person nominating and the person nominated:
