1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose of the Manual

1.1.1 The Mpumalanga Department of Co-operative Governance & Traditional Affairs (COGTA) recognizes and respects the right of access to information as enshrined in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (hereafter referred to as “the Act”) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by any public or private body that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. The Act sets out the procedures attached to such request.

1.1.2 Section 9 of the Act, however, recognizes that such right to access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations, for instance limitations aimed at;

- The reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance.

1.1.3.Section 14 of the Act obliges bodies to compile a Manual, which could assist a person to obtain access to information held by the public body and stipulates the minimum requirements such a Manual has to comply with.

1.1.4.The purpose of this Manual is therefore to inform a person on how to obtain access to records held by the Department of Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs, and thereby giving effect to Section 14 of the Act.

7. THE REQUEST PROCEDURE

- a. The requester who wishes to obtain access to information held by the Department of COGTA has to complete the request form and submit it to the attention of the Information Officer on the contact details stated above (Request Form attached as "Annexure "A")
- b. The prescribed form must be filled in with enough detailed information to at least enable the Information Officer to identify the record(s) requested, the identity of the requester, which form of access is required and the postal address or fax number of the requester.
- c. If the requester is unable to read or write, the request for the record can be made orally by the requester. The Information Officer must then fill in the form on behalf of such a request and give him or her copy.
- d. After lodging the request with the Information Officer, the application will be processed within 30 days.
- e. If the requester requests information in a particular form (e.g. a paper copy, electronic copy etc) then the requester should receive access in that form, unless doing so would interfere unreasonably with the running of a public body concerned or damage to the record or infringe on the copyright not owned by the state.
- f. If the requester requests information on behalf of somebody else, the capacity in which the request is being made, must be indicated.

7.1 Fees payable for a request

- 7.1.1 The Act provides for two types of fees:
  - a. A Request Fee, which will be a standard fee; and
  - b. An Access Fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.
- 7.1.2 The requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about the requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester must pay the required fee, with exception, to requesters classified for the purpose of section 22(8) of the Act.
- 7.1.3 The Information Officer must notify the requester by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed request fee and deposit (if any) before further processing the request.
- 7.1.4 If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the reproduction and for the search and preparation for any time required in excess of the stipulated hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

7.1.5 Access to a record will be withheld until all the applicable fees have been paid.

7.1.6 In a case where a deposit has been paid and the records cannot be made available, the Department shall refund the deposit amount to the requester.

7.2 Fees in respect of Public Bodies in terms of section 22(2) of the Act

Refer to "Annexure B"

8. ARRANGEMENTS ALLOWING INVOLVEMENT IN THE FORMULATION OF POLICY & PERFORMANCE OF FUNCTIONS

The Department of COGTA maintains a high level of public engagement and interaction with stakeholders through inviting comments on proposed legislation and notices published in the Provincial Gazette, and workshops.

9. REMEDIES WHERE REQUESTS FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION ARE REFUSED

9.1 Refusal of request

The main grounds for the Department of COGTA to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
  - a. Trade secrets of that third party;
  - b. Financial, commercial, specific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
  - c. Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Department of COGTA, if the disclosure could put a third part at the Department of COGTA at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- Operations of Department of COGTA;
- The commercial activities of the Department of COGTA, which may include:

- a. Trade secrets of the Department of COGTA;
  - b. Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Department of COGTA;
  - c. Information which, if disclosed could put the Department of COGTA at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
  - d. A computer programme which is owned by the Department of COGTA, and which is protected by copyright;
- The research information of the Department of COGTA or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Department of COGTA, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

9.2 Appeal

9.2.1 The requester may lodge an internal appeal against a decision of the Information Officer of the Department of COGTA –

- a. to refuse a request for access; or
- b. taken in terms of section 22, 26(1) or 29(3), in relation to that requester, with the relevant authority.

9.2.2 A third party may lodge an internal appeal to the relevant authority, against a decision of the Information Officer of the Department of COGTA, to grant a request for access.

9.3 Manner of appeal and appeal fees

9.3.1 An internal appeal must be lodged in the prescribed form (see Annexure "C")

- a. Within 60 days;
- b. If notice to a third party is required by section 49(1)(b) of the Act, within 30 days after notice is given to the appellant of the decision appealed against or; if notice to the appellant is not required, after the decision was taken;
- c. It must be delivered or sent to the Information Officer of the Department of COGTA at his or her addresses, or fax number;
- d. It must identify the subject of the internal appeal and state the reasons for the internal appeal and may include any other relevant information known to the appellant,
- e. If, in addition to a written reply, the appellant wishes to be informed of the decision on the internal appeal in any other manner, must state that manner and provide the necessary particulars to be so informed;

9.3.2 If an appeal is lodged after the expiry of the period referred to, the MEC must, upon good cause shown, allow the late lodging of the appeal.

9.3.3 If the MEC disallows the late lodging of the appeal, he or she must give notice of that decision to the person who lodged the appeal.

9.3.4 As soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within ten (10) working days after receipt of an appeal, the Information Officer of the Department of COGTA must submit to the MEC:

- a. the appeal together with his or her reasons for the decision concerned; and
- b. if the appeal is against the refusal or granting of a request for access, the name, postal address, phone and fax number and electronic mail address, whichever is available, of any third party that must be notified of the request.

10. UPDATING AND AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

The Department of COGTA undertakes to update and publish its Manual referred to in Section 14(1), at intervals of not more than a year.

Section 14(1) of the Act, read with Regulation No. R. 187 of 15 February 2002 prescribes that the Manual of a public body must be made available in the following manner:

- A copy will be made available to the South African Human Rights Commission,
- The Manual will be published in the Provincial Gazette, which will be published by the Government Printer,
- In addition to this the Department of COGTA's Manual will be accessible through the Department of COGTA's website on <http://cgta.mpg.gov.za>.
