REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES TO SERVE AS FULL-TIME MEMBER RESPONSIBLE FOR PIPED-GAS REGULATION FOR THE NATIONAL ENERGY REGULATOR OF SOUTH AFRICA (NERSA)

The National Energy Regulator of South Africa (NERSA) is a regulatory authority established as a juristic person in terms of section 3 of the National Energy Regulator Act 40 of 2004 (the Act). NERSA's mandate is to regulate the electricity, piped-gas and petroleum pipelines industries in terms of the Electricity Regulation Act 4 of 2006, the Gas Act 48 of 2001 and the Petroleum Pipelines Act 60 of 2003.

In terms of section 5(1) of the Act, NERSA consists of four full-time and five part-time members appointed by the Minister of Energy. A part-time member of the Energy Regulator holds office for a period of four years, while a full-time member holds office for a period of five years.

Nominations are invited for suitable candidates to be appointed as full-time member responsible for piped-gas regulation. The successful candidate is expected to commence their term of office on May 1, 2012.

The candidate must possess relevant post graduate qualification and have extensive experience relevant to the piped-gas industry. Candidates nominated must strictly be South African citizens or the holders of a permit as permanent residents in the Republic who are not disqualified in terms of section 6 of the Act.

Nominations must be accompanied by comprehensive Curriculum Vitae and should be sent to the following address on or before March 31, 2013:

The Director-General, Department of Energy, Private Bag X96, Pretoria 0001, for attention Mr L Ganta, Director: SOE Oversight.
