1. INTRODUCTION

Section 32(1) (a) of the constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (act 108 of 1996) determines that everyone has a right of access to information held by the state. Section 32(1) (b) of the Constitution provides for the horizontal application of the right of access to information held by another person to everyone when that information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;

Furthermore, Section 32(2) of the Constitution provides for the enactment of national legislation to give effect to this fundamental right. As a result, the promotion of access to Information Act, 2000 (Act no 2 of 2000) (PAIA) was promulgated in February 2001 to give effect to section 32 (2) of the constitution.

The purpose of this act is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Section 9 of PAIA however recognizes that the right of access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations aimed at, amongst others:

- (a) The reasonable protection of privacy
- (b) Commercial confidentiality;
- (c) Effective, efficient and good governance.

Section 14 (1) of PAIA stipulates that the information officer of Municipal Council must compile a manual in at least three official languages containing information on the Municipal Council for public consumption. Hence Greater Taung Local Municipality do hereby presents section 14 manual in terms of PAIA.

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of this manual therefore is to inform the public and the municipal stakeholders about functions and records of the Municipal Council and how to access them.

The provision of any information in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 14 of the Act does not create any contractual right or entitlement to receive such information, other than in terms of the Act.

3. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

A copy of this manual is available for inspection at no cost at all municipal council's service points. This manual is available in English only. The version in Setswana and Afrikaans shall be availed in the near future.
