 - 7.2.8 the actual amount paid to the employee; and
 - 7.2.9 the period in respect of which payment is made, and the envelope or the statement on which such particulars are shown, shall become the property of the employee.
- 7.3 All deductions shall be in accordance with and in terms of the provisions of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act 75 of 1997, as amended.

MJ

8. HOURS OF WORK

- 8.1 The ordinary hours of work of an employee shall not exceed 45 hours in any week. Regular daily shift commencement times shall be regulated by individual employers.
- 8.2 Meal intervals: An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work for longer than five hours continuously without a meal interval of not less than one hour, during which interval the employee shall not be required or permitted to perform any work and such interval shall not form part of the ordinary hours of work or overtime: Provided that the period of five hours may be extended to not more than seven hours for the purpose of loading or unloading a vehicle: Provided further that -
- 8.2.1 such interval may be reduced to not less than half an hour by written agreement between an employer and his/her employee;
- 8.2.2 periods of work interrupted by intervals of less than one hour, except when proviso 8.2.1 or 8.2.5 applies, shall be deemed to be continuous;
- 8.2.3 if such interval is longer than one hour, any period in excess of one and quarter hours shall be deemed to be time worked;
- 8.2.4 only one such interval during the ordinary hours of work of an employee on any day shall not form part of the ordinary hours of work; and
- 8.2.5 when on any day, by reason of overtime worked, an employer is required to give an employee a second meal interval, such interval may be reduced to not less than 15 minutes.

M.T.

- 8.3 Rest intervals: An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work so that he/she has less than nine consecutive hours for rest in any period of 24 hours, calculated from the time the employee commences work on any day.
- 8.4 An owner-driver who is an employer shall observe the same hours of work and limitations as are prescribed herein for an employee.
- 8.5 Compressed working week: Employers may by agreement schedule and require employees to work up to 12 hours a day, inclusive of meal intervals, without overtime pay.
- 8.6 Averaging of hours of work: Ordinary hours of work and overtime may be averaged over a period of up to four months by collective agreement.

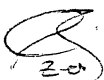

9. REST DAYS FOR LONGHAUL CARRIER DRIVERS

- 9.1 Some long distance carrier drivers currently working a 14 day duty are entitled to a rest period of 60 hrs.
- 9.2 Should a 14 day duty end after 12h00 on a Wednesday, the 60 hours off commences when the tour ends and will run until 24h00 on Friday night. Any part of the rest period of 60 hours which has not expired by 24h00 on Friday night shall be the unexpired part of the rest period.
- 9.3 In the circumstances mentioned in clause 9.2 above, any unexpired part of the rest period which is to run between 24h00 on Friday night and 24h00 on Sunday night will not be calculated as forming part of the 60 hour rest period. This means that from 24h00 on Sunday night the unexpired part of the 60 hour rest period, if any, will continue to run until it is completed.

- 9.4 When the total period including the 60 hour period plus the Saturday and Sunday ends, the long distance carrier driver will be required to report for duty for the purpose of commencing his/her next 14 day tour of duty.
- 9.5 Long distance carrier drivers will, as at present, not be paid for the rest period on Saturday and Sunday. They will only be paid for time off taken during the week, being from 24h00 on Sunday night until 24h00 on a Friday.
- 9.6 The above arrangements are voluntary and long distance carrier drivers may opt to report for duty after 60 hours rest.
- 9.7 If a long distance carrier driver wishes to take the extra time off over a weekend (between 24h00 on a Friday night and 24h00 on a Sunday night) as contemplated above, he/she shall give at least 5 (five) working days notice before the end of the 14 day tour of duty to a designated person of the employer. If the driver is unable to contact the designated person in due time for example because he/she is out of cell phone range or has insufficient air time but he/she nevertheless wishes to take the extra rest days the employer will make reasonable efforts to accommodate such requests. In all other circumstances it will be assumed that the driver does not want to take the extra days off. A written record of those employees taking such time off will be kept.
- 9.8 Employers shall be entitled to schedule drivers' tours of duty so that the operational requirements of the employer are not disrupted to the extent that there are insufficient drivers to carry out planned trips.

10. FURTHER SPECIFIC PROVISIONS FOR LONG DISTANCE CARRIER DRIVERS

10.1 PAYMENT FOR REST PERIOD

Where the 60 hour rest period or any part thereof, falls on a weekday (Monday to Friday) the Long distance carrier driver will receive a proportional payment based on 22.5 (twenty two and a half) ordinary hours. Where the rest period or any part thereof falls on a Saturday or Sunday the long distance carrier driver will not receive any payment in respect of that period.

10.2 PAYMENT FOR OVERTIME

Long Distance Carrier Drivers will be paid one and one-half times their normal hourly rate for each hour of overtime worked.

10.3 PAYMENT FOR SATURDAY WORK

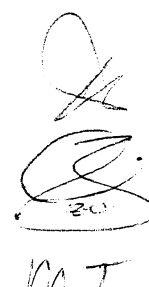

Long Distance Carrier Drivers will be paid one and one-half times their normal hourly rate for every hour worked on a Saturday.

10.4 PAYMENT FOR SUNDAY WORK AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

Long Distance Carrier Drivers will be paid double their normal hourly rate for every hour worked on a Sunday or a Public Holiday.

10.5 GENERAL

There will be one driver per carrier operating for 9 ordinary hours per day and, in order to meet the operational requirements of manufacturers, overtime work will be necessary each day. An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work more than 90 hours in any week, inclusive of ordinary hours of work, overtime hours and hours worked on a Sunday or paid holiday. Single long distance carrier drivers will have to stop for sleeping purposes during the hours of 23h00 and 05h00 unless otherwise agreed. During this period S&T will be payable.

Long Distance Carrier Drivers will be paid per hour and payment will be made weekly or monthly (to be decided by each Long Distance Carrier Driver and advised to management).

11. SHORT TIME

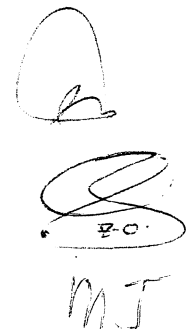

11.1 In the event of short time being contemplated by an employer, it will immediately notify, in writing, the applicable recognised union (if any), the elected shop stewards at that branch as recognised by the employer (if any), as well as any employees affected by the contemplated short time of:

11.1.1 the need to implement short time;

11.1.2 the date and time of such implementation; and 11.1.3 the reasons why the short time is necessary.

11.2 When an employer is confronted with a situation that may necessitate short time, that employer shall give at least 48 hours notice thereof and must first consult with the union/s where their members could be affected. The consultation process envisaged between the parties must be a meaningful endeavor to find solutions to the problem. This requirement will not apply where short time worked is for legitimate causes, such as a national or similar disaster.

- 11.3 During any period of short time, the employer shall not utilise the services of a temporary employment service in the positions of the employees who are on short time.
- 11.4 Before implementing any short time, the employers will place employees potentially affected by the implementation of short time in positions where that work is being performed by temporary employment services providing such employees are able to perform that work.

12. LEAVE

- 12.1 All employers shall grant an employee 15 working days leave in respect of each annual leave cycle.
- 12.2 All full-time permanent employees will receive the following additional annual leave:
- 12.2.1 Employees who have 6 consecutive years of completed service with the employer, will accrue one additional day's leave during the 7th year of service;
- 12.2.2 Employees with 7 consecutive years of completed service with the employer will accrue an additional 2 working days' leave during the 8th year of service;
- 12.2.3 Employees with 8 consecutive years of completed service with the employer will accrue an additional 3 working days' leave during the 9th year of service;

Handwritten signature and initials, possibly 'M J', with a date '2.0.' written below the signature.

- 12.2.4 Employees with 9 consecutive years of completed service with the employer will accrue an additional 4 working days' leave during the 10th year of service;
- 12.2.5 Employees with 10 consecutive years of completed service with the employer will accrue an additional 5 working days' leave during the 11th year of service;
- 12.3 All Employees with more than 10 consecutive years of completed service with the employer will consequently receive 5 extra working days leave during the 12th and subsequent years of service.
- 12.4 Where an employer closes down its operation completely or partially for the December / January holiday period employees who are not required to work shall take their leave during such period.

13. FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY LEAVE

- 13.1 Employees who have been employed by an employer for longer than four months and who work for at least four days a week for that employer are entitled to family responsibility leave as follows:
- 13.1.1 during each annual leave cycle, three days paid leave and two days unpaid leave when the employee's child is born or when the employee's child or spouse is sick; and
- 13.1.2 three days paid leave and two days unpaid leave in the event of the death of the employee's spouse or life partner; or the employee's parent, parent-in-law, adoptive parent, grandparent, child, adopted child, grandchild or sibling.

- 13.2 For a day's paid family responsibility leave, an employee will receive the wage the employee would ordinarily have received for work on that day and on the employee's usual payday. An employee may take family responsibility leave in respect of the whole or part of a day.
- 13.3 All new employees will submit a list of names of the agreed family members. Should this list change, employees must immediately inform their management in writing of the changes. Family Responsibility leave will not be granted for anyone except in relation to the names on this list.
- 13.4 Before an employee will receive any payment for family responsibility leave, the employee must provide reasonable proof of the event for which leave was required.
- 13.5 An employee's unused entitlement to leave in terms of this clause lapses at the end of the annual leave cycle in which it accrues.

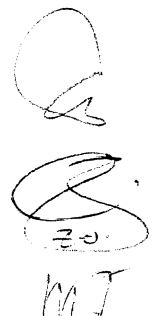

14. SICK LEAVE

- 14.1 In this sub-clause "sick-leave cycle" means the period of 36 months of employment with the same employer immediately following –
- (a) an employee's commencement of employment; or
 - (b) the completion of such employee's previous sick- leave cycle.

Handwritten signature and initials, possibly 'M.J.', located at the bottom right of the page.

- 14.2 During every sick-leave cycle, an employee shall be entitled to an amount of paid sick leave equal to the number of days he/she would normally work during a period of six weeks.
- 14.3 Notwithstanding paragraph 14.2, during the first six months of employment, an employee shall be entitled to one day's paid sick leave for every 26 days worked.
- 14.4 During an employee's first sick-leave cycle, an employer may reduce the employee's entitlement to sick leave in terms of paragraph 14.2 by the number of days' sick leave taken in terms of paragraph 14.3.
- 14.5 Subject to clause 14.6, an employer shall pay an employee for a day's sick leave –
- 14.5.1 the wage the employee would ordinarily have received for work on that day; and
- 14.5.2 on the employee's usual payday.
- 14.6 Proof of incapacity:
- 14.6.1 An employer shall not be required to pay an employee in terms of this clause 14 if such employee has been absent from work for more than two consecutive days or on more than two occasions during an eight-week period and, at the request of the employer, does not produce a medical certificate stating that he/she was unable to work for the duration of his/her absence on account of sickness or injury.

- 14.6.2 The medical certificate shall be issued and signed by a medical practitioner or any person who is certified to diagnose and treat patients and who is registered with a professional council established by an Act of Parliament.

15. SANGOMA LEAVE

- 15.1 Subject to clause 15.2 below employers shall recognize Sangomas (traditional healers) for the purposes of sick leave.³ Sangoma leave will only be recognised where the employee gives the employer prior notice of his/her intention to consult a Sangoma.
- 15.2 In cases where a medical certificate would be required in the normal course of events and the employee has complied with clause 15.1 above then the employee is required to provide a satisfactory letter from the Sangoma he/she has consulted, that states that the employee is incapacitated due to illness, gives the nature of the illness and specifies the period of time for which the employee is booked off.
- 15.3 The number of days paid sick leave is as per clause 14 above.

³ This means that if employees decide to visit a Sangoma rather than a doctor and are booked off sick by the Sangoma, then this will be regarded by the employers in the same manner as a sick leave certificate.

Handwritten signature and initials, possibly 'MT', in the bottom right corner of the page.

16. MATERNITY LEAVE

- 16.1 During an employees first year of service the employee shall be entitled to four consecutive month's unpaid maternity leave.
- 16.2 After completion of one year's uninterrupted service with an employer, employees shall be entitled to up to 6 month's maternity leave, of which 3 months will be paid at one third the employee's basic wage and 3 months unpaid.⁴

17. STUDY AND EXAMINATION LEAVE

All employees will receive 3 days study and exam leave per approved subject per annum.⁵ Approval is within the sole discretion of management but may not be unreasonably withheld.

18. VACANCIES AND PROMOTION

Employers shall advertise any vacancies at the relevant workplace, and employees applying to fill such vacancies will be considered on merit.

19. PROVIDENT FUND

Should an employer have one or more retirement funds that employer shall require that its employees either be members of one of such funds or of the SATAWU National provident fund. Where an employee is a member of any of the aforementioned retirement funds the employer of such employee shall contribute to the retirement or provident fund an amount equivalent to at least 10% of the employee's basic pay. An employee shall contribute at least 8.5% of the employee's basic pay to the retirement or provident fund.

An employer shall be entitled to deduct from an employee who is a member of any of the aforementioned retirement funds the employee's contribution of 8.5% of the employee's basic pay. The employee's contribution, once deducted, together with the employer's contribution shall be paid over to the relevant fund by the employer by no later than the fifth day of each month or in terms of the rules of the relevant fund.

20. 13th CHEQUE

Employees who are in employment on 1st December and who have been employed for the previous 12 months will receive a thirteenth cheque equivalent to 4.333 weeks pay with their December pay. Employees who have been employed for less than 12 months will receive a pro rata thirteenth cheque.

21. TAX DEDUCTION 13th CHEQUE

The PAYE tax due in respect of 13th cheques will be deducted monthly in equal installments from employees' salaries in the period prior to December. Employees will receive a separate pay slip in respect of their 13th cheque payment.

22. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

22.1 An employer or an employee, may terminate the contract of employment only on written notice of not less than –

22.1.1 one week, if the employee has been employed for 6 months or less;

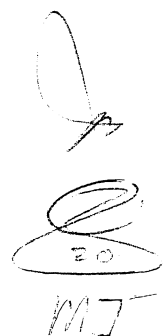

22.1.2 two weeks, if the employee has been employed for more than 6 months but not more than one year;

22.1.3 four weeks, if the employee has been employed for more than one year.

22.2 Nothing contained in clause 22.1 above shall effect:

22.2.1 the right of an employer or an employee to terminate the contract of employment without notice for any cause recognised by law as sufficient; or 22.2.2 any agreement between an employer and an employee that provides for a period of notice of equal duration on both sides of longer than one week, two weeks or four weeks, as the case may be: Provided that if an agreement has been entered into in terms hereof, the payment or forfeiture in lieu of notice shall be proportionate to the period of notice agreed upon.

23. PAYMENT INSTEAD OF NOTICE

- 23.1 Instead of giving an employee notice in terms of clause 22 above, an employer may pay the employee the remuneration the employee would have received, if the employee had worked during the notice period.
- 23.2 If an employee gives notice of termination of employment, and the employer waives any part of the notice, the employer must pay the remuneration referred to in clause 23.1 unless the employer and employee agree otherwise.

24. SEVERANCE PAY

All employees who are dismissed due to operational requirements and whom are entitled to severance pay will be paid Severance Pay of 1.4 weeks basic pay per year of continuous service, subject to permanent employees with more than 6 (six) months' continuous service whom will be paid Severance Pay of 1.4 weeks basic pay per year of continuous service with a pro-rata severance payment for any part years' service. During a retrenchment process in a company a union recognised as a collective bargaining agent may enter into ad hoc negotiations with the respective employer at plant level to improve the severance payments of its members.

25. EXPENSES OF THE COUNCIL

- 25.1 The expenses of the Council shall be met in the following manner:
- 25.1.1 An amount equivalent to R15 per month shall be deducted by an employer from the wage of every employee in employment within the bargaining unit. To this amount so deducted the employer shall add R30 per month for each employee and pay the total amount, not later than the twentieth day of each month, following that to which it relates, into the General fund bank account.

25.1.2 An owner-driver shall contribute R6 per month in respect of himself/herself as driver and/or owner.

25.2 An employer shall, when remitting the amounts payable in terms of clause 25.1, also submit to the Secretary of the Council at the same address, by not later than the twentieth day of the following month, a monthly return with the particulars in the form specified by the Council for this purpose (including each employee's full names surname, date of birth and identification number).

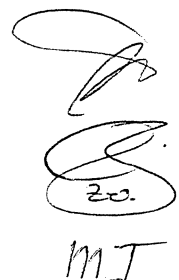

26. EXEMPTIONS BY THE COUNCIL

26.1 Applications by both parties and non-parties for exemption from any of the provisions of this Agreement shall comply with the following requirements-

26.1.1 The applicant must negotiate with the respective unions (or employees in the absence of a recognised union) in an attempt to reach consensus regarding the application.

26.1.2 If consensus is reached, an agreement signed by the Employer and Union or affected Employee/s (in the absence of a recognised Union) must be attached in support of the application.

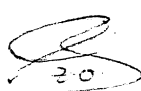

26.1.3 If no agreement is reached, the Union or affected Employee/s (in the absence of a recognised union) must be given the opportunity to sign the application indicating its/their lack of agreement whereafter the applicant shall be entitled to forward the application to the Council's exemption committee at the following address for consideration: Motor Ferry Bargaining Council, Postal Address: Postnet Suite 553, Private Bag x113 Melville 1209, Johannesburg or Physical Address: Tokiso Dispute Settlement (Pty) Ltd, The Atrium 10th Floor, 41 Stanley Avenue, Milpark, Tel (011) 853 6327, Fax 086 638 4179, Email Sumayya@tokiso.com .

- 26.2 The application will be considered by the relevant body at its regular meeting and will make a decision in writing, giving written reasons therefore.
- 26.3 If any party, including the applicant, the union or an Employers Association which is party to the Council is dissatisfied with the decision, then that party may appeal to the Independent Appeal Board.
- 26.4 The Applicant must notify the Council in writing of its intention to appeal within 14 days. He/She must then submit an appeal in writing enclosing whatsoever documentation and any other information in support of the appeal as soon as possible by post or telefax to the Independent Appeal Board but by no later than 90 days of written receipt of refusal by the Council, failing which the right of appeal will fall away. A copy of the exemption appeal letter, documentation and any other information submitted must be supplied to the other party.
- 26.5 All the appeal documentation must then be sent to the Independent Appeal Board by no later than 60 days after the relative agreement has been signed by the two parties or the union (or employee/s in the absence of a recognised union) have been given an opportunity to sign the application indicating disagreement, whichever the case may be.

- 26.6 In the event of an appeal, any party may submit further written representations to the Independent Appeal Board. Any such written representations must be sent to the other parties who will be given an opportunity to submit their own further written representations. In this latter event, the appellant must also receive a written copy of the counter-representations.
- 26.7 In considering the application, the Independent Appeal Body shall take into consideration all relevant factors, which may include, but shall not be limited to, the following criteria:
- 26.7.1 The applicant's past record (if applicable) of compliance with the provisions of Council's Collective Agreements and Exemption Certificates;
- 26.7.2 any special circumstances that exist;
- 26.7.3 any precedent that might be set;
- 26.7.4 the interests of the Industry as regards-
- 26.7.4.1 unfair competition;
- 26.7.4.2 collective bargaining;

29. MEDICAL SCHEME

- 29.1 The agreed medical scheme provider will be solely responsible for the running of the scheme, its administration and for the handling of any queries and/or complaints of members of the scheme employed by employers in the Industry. Employers' only role and responsibility in the scheme will be to pay over the premiums deducted from members' salaries or wages to the agreed Fund.
- 29.2 The decision to join the medical fund will be voluntary.
- 29.3 Employers will pay 50% of the monthly premiums for an employee, his or her spouse, if there is one, and the balance of the dependants, if there are any subject to a maximum of 3 children who are under the age of 21.
- 29.4 Any changes to the subscriptions (monthly premiums) and/or rules of the medical scheme which have a cost implication will need to be agreed by both parties to the Bargaining Council before they can be implemented.
- 29.5 Any additional costs, including any increases to the annual subscription value with existing or a new medical service provider must be expressly agreed to between the parties in writing.
- 29.6 A union member employed outside the bargaining unit who is paid on a cost to company basis, may join the medical plan and choose any option. This is subject to such members paying for the full contribution out of their salary package.
- 29.7 Any union member within the bargaining unit who wishes to exercise a different option from that currently provided for may do so on the basis that such employee pays for any additional costs him or herself.

30. STUDY GRANT SCHEME

Employees wishing to study towards education higher than ABET level 4 (Grade 8/Std 6) will be eligible for the study grant scheme. On approval of an application for such a grant the employer concerned will pay up to 50% of the cost of the education fees for that particular year to the educational service provider. The amount paid to the service provider will however be repayable to the respective employer by the employee if the employee is unsuccessful with the requirements for passing that year. The same scheme will also be applicable for employees wishing to study towards a transport qualification through a Technikon or University or to a person with less than ABET 4 where that person wishes to study towards a relevant qualification such as a trade test as a diesel mechanic or trade school.

31. DISHONoured CHEQUES

Whenever an employer pays any sum of money that is due to the Council in terms of this Agreement in any manner other than in cash, and such payment is dishonoured for any reason whatever, then and in such event a penalty shall be payable by the employer to the Council in its sole discretion, which penalty shall be equal to 1.5 percent of the amount of the purported payment. Any penalty due to the Council in terms of this clause shall be payable on demand.

32. ENFORCEMENT/LEGAL COSTS

Whenever it becomes necessary or expedient for the Council to institute proceedings in any competent forum for the recovery of any amount of money deducted by an employer from any monies due to an employee but not paid over to the Council, then and in such event the debtor shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Council in recovery of the amount due, including costs on attorney and client scale in the event of a legal practitioner having been instructed by the Council to collect the amount.

33. TIME AND WAGE REGISTERS

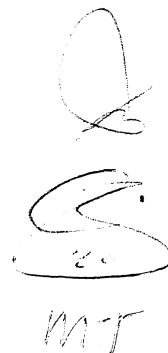

33.1 Every employer shall in respect of each place where he conducts business, keep available for inspection, an up-to-date record of the earnings paid to and the time worked by each of its employees to which this agreement applies. All entries shall be of a permanent nature and non-erasable.

33.2 Every employer shall retain the completed record referred to in 33.1 for a period of three years subsequent to the date of the last entry in it.

33.3 Every employer shall upon the commencement of employment of every employee, enter into the record referred to in clause 33.1-

33.3.1 the full first names, surname and identity number of the employee;

33.3.2 the class of his/her employment; and

Handwritten signature and initials MT

33.3.3 the date of commencement of his/her employment.

34. INTEREST CLAUSE

Whenever any amount payable to the Council in terms of this Agreement is not paid on the due date, interest shall be payable on such amount or on any such lesser amount as may remain unpaid, calculated from the due date of payment at the rate applied by the Reserve bank at the time.

35. PROFESSIONAL DRIVING PERMIT

- 35.1 Drivers shall be responsible for completing all administrative formalities and ensuring that their Professional Driving Permits are timeously renewed.
- 35.2 Employers shall refund drivers the prescribed fees for renewal of a driver's Professional Driving Permit and the cost of a medical certificate and fingerprinting if officially required, on the driver's furnishing a receipt of proof of payment.
- 35.3 In the event of a driver leaving employment of his/her own accord within six months of the date of renewal of his/her Professional Driving Permit, the employer shall be entitled to recover a pro rata amount of the fee paid by means of a deduction from the employee's wage/leave pay.
