- (ii) the importers benefit from the levy;
- (iii) the imposition of the levy on the imported commodity is not contrary to South Africa’s international obligations;
- (iv) that the organization, by virtue of its membership and structure, represents adequately the views and interests of the persons who are primarily responsible for paying the levy; and
- (v) that the organization has in place adequate systems for accounting to the Minister and persons who are primarily responsible for paying the levy, of its receipt and expenditure.

(8)(a) A commodity association or group may not spend any amount of the levy for commercial or trading activity.

(b) Subject to paragraph (a) a levy can only be used for:

- (i) research, including market research relating to the commodity or commodities concerned, or in relation to any matter connected therewith,
- (ii) the development of products derived from the commodity concerned,
- (iii) the development of markets for the commodity or product derived from the commodity,
- (iv) the promotion (including generic advertising) of the industry concerned, the commodity or product derived from the commodity,
- (v) education, information, or training related to the commodity concerned,
- (vi) the advancement of transformation in the industry concerned,
- (vii) day to day administration of only the activities that are linked to the objectives of the levy as specified in the Notice (not being the administration, direct or indirect, of any commercial or trading activity undertaken by the organization or on its behalf), and
- (viii) any other purpose the Minister may consider fit.”

Amendment of section 16 of Act 47 of 1996

14. Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby amended by-

- (a) the substitution for the heading of section 16 of the following heading:
“Control of exports and imports of agricultural, forestry and fisheries products”

(4) Any regulation or notice contemplated in this section may provide that any person contravening such regulation or failing to comply therewith is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine, or to imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.”

Amendment of section 25 of Act 47 of 1996

17. Section 25 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Insertion of Section 25A in Act 47 of 1996

18. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25:

“Assignment of administration of matters pertaining to agricultural and food markets to MECs

25A. The Minister may, subject to the Constitution, relevant national legislation and such conditions as he or she may determine, in consultation with an MEC responsible for agriculture, in writing assign a matter or matters relating to the administration of matters pertaining to implementation of this Act.”

Insertion of Section 25B in Act 47 of 1996

19. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25A:

“Delegation of powers and assignment of duties by Minister to MECs

25B.(1) The Minister may, subject to the Constitution, relevant national legislation and such conditions as he or she may determine, in consultation with an MEC responsible for agriculture, in writing delegate any power or assign any duty conferred on him or her by or under this Act, other than—

- (a) the power to publish a notice contemplated in section 23A; and
- (b) the power to make regulations contemplated in section 23, to the concerned.

(2) Such delegation or assignment, or the execution of such power, as the case may be, does not prevent the carrying out of the assigned duty by the Minister.

(3) The Minister may at any time withdraw or amend, in writing, a delegation or assignment as contemplated in subsection (1).

(4) The delegation of any power or the assignment of any duty does not divest the Minister of the accountability concerning the execution of the delegated power or carrying out of the assigned duty, as the case may be.”

Insertion of Section 25C in Act 47 of 1996

20. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25B:

21. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25C:

“Assignment between spheres of government

25D.(1) Any assignment to an MEC of a matter contemplated in this Act must be in accordance with the assignment and delegation framework that must be developed in consultation with all the MECs responsible for agriculture, and published in the Gazette within a period not exceeding six months after the commencement of this Act.

(2) Any person or entity effecting an assignment must—

- (a) ensure the availability of sufficient funding and other resources required for the full and effective implementation of such assignment; and
- (b) monitor and review its implementation.”

Insertion of Section 25E in Act 47 of 1996

22. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25D:

“Legal effect of delegation of power

25E.(1) The delegation of a power does not prevent a competent authority from exercising that power, subject to sub-section (3).

(2) The delegation of a power does not relieve the competent authority from accountability for the exercise of the power.

(3) When an MEC exercises a power that has been delegated to him or her, the exercise of the power has the same force as if it had been exercised by the competent authority.

(4) Any activity in the exercise of a power by an MEC, which was carried out within the scope of the delegation, remains in force and is not invalid by reason—

- (a) of the competent authority electing subsequent to the activity contemplated in this subsection, to exercise that power; or
- (b) a subsequent amendment to, or withdrawal of, the delegation.”

Insertion of Section 25F in Act 47 of 1996

23. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25E:

“Delegation proceedings in writing

25F.(1) All proceedings relating to any delegation contemplated in this Act, must be in writing.

(2) The record of proceedings contemplated in subsection (1), must be available for inspection and copying by any person, at all reasonable times.”

24. The following section is inserted in the principal Act after section 25F:

“Record of delegations

25G.(1) Both the competent authority and the organ of state to whom a power has been delegated, must compile and maintain an updated inventory of all delegations made as contemplated in this Act, as contemplated in section 25F.

(2) The inventory contemplated in subsection (1), must be available for inspection and copying by any person, at all reasonable times.”

Amendment of section 26 of Act 47 of 1996

25. Section 26 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

(3)(a) On dissolution of any scheme in terms of the Marketing Act, 1968 (Act No. 59 of 1968), any surplus or shortfall of assets over liabilities of that scheme shall be dealt with in terms of the applicable scheme;

(b) If the Minister, on advice from the Council or on own accord, is not satisfied that the surplus referred to in paragraph (a) is not being dealt with in terms of the applicable scheme, the Minister shall determine how such surplus is to be dealt with.

Insertion of Section 26A

26. The following section is hereby inserted after section 26 of the principal Act:

“Agricultural industry trusts and trust funds

26A. (1) All trusts that received funds originating from the collection of levies imposed under sections 46A and 84A of the Marketing Act, 1968 (Act No. 59 of 1968), must align their objectives and activities with the objectives mentioned in section 2”.

(2) The Minister may —

(a) by notice in the Gazette, on the advice of the Council or on own accord, issue regulations on how trust funds should be utilized to achieve the objectives of this Act;

(b) at any time, on advice from the Council or on own accord, order any agricultural trust to stop utilizing the trust funds referred to in subsection (1) if such a trust fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or any regulations issued in terms of this Act; and

(c) issue a directive to any agricultural industry trust to initiate amendments to and review the agricultural trust deeds of such a trust, provided that such a directive is not inconsistent with the objectives of this Act and those of the Trust Property Control Act, 1988 (Act. No. 57 of 1988).

(2) Every trust which administers agricultural industry trust funds must—

(a) within three months before the beginning of its financial year, submit to the Minister for approval a business plan for its activities and the budget for its subsequent financial year.”

(b) within six months after the end of its financial year, submit to the Minister a report on its activities and finances during its preceding financial year.”

Insertion of section 27A in Act 47 of 1996

27. The principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion after section 27 of the following section:

“Tariffs on agricultural, forestry and fisheries products, competition issues and related matters

27A.(1) The department and the Council shall provide advice on the determination and implementation of any tariff policy position on agricultural, forestry and fisheries products as proposed by the International Trade Administration Commission (ITAC) in accordance with the department’s tariff policy for agricultural, forestry and fisheries products.

(2) The Minister shall, subject to applicable provisions of Competition Act, 1998 (Act No. 89 of 1998), be consulted for advice during the Competition Commission’s investigations relating to mergers and acquisitions that affect the agricultural, forestry and fisheries industries and any other matter relating to uncompetitive practices in agricultural, forestry and fisheries markets, before a final decision is taken.”
