ARTICLE 5

PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

- (1) The Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, adopted by the General Assembly on 13 February 1946 ("the Convention"), to which the Government is a Party, shall be applicable in respect of the Workshop and Meeting. In particular, representatives of States shall enjoy the privileges and immunities accorded under Article IV of the Convention. The participants invited by the United Nations shall enjoy the privileges and immunities accorded to experts on mission for the United Nations under Articles VI and VII of the Convention. Officials of the United Nations participating in or performing functions in connection with the Workshop and Meeting shall enjoy the privileges and immunities provided under Articles V and VII of the Convention. Officials of the specialized agencies participating in the Workshop and Meeting shall be accorded the privileges and immunities provided under Articles VI and VIII of the Convention on the privileges and immunities of the specialized agencies adopted by the General Assembly, on 21 November 1947.

- (2) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Convention, all participants and persons performing functions in connection with the Workshop and Meeting shall enjoy such privileges and immunities, facilities and courtesies as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the Workshop and Meeting.
 - (3) Personnel provided by the Government pursuant to the Agreement shall enjoy immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written or any act performed by them in their official capacity in connection of the Workshop and Meeting.
