
GENERAL NOTICE

NOTICE 950 OF 2013

CORRECTION OF ERRONEOUS E-MAIL ADDRESSES FOR WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS ON PRIVATE MEMBERS' BILLS

Rule 241(2) of the Rules of the National Assembly requires a member of Parliament intending to introduce a private member's bill to invite interested parties and institutions to make written representations on the bill.

In Gazette No 36566 (Notice 614 of 2013) and Gazette No 36608 (Notice 674 of 2013), interested parties and institutions were invited by Ms Mudene Smuts MP to submit written representations on the draft Constitution Eighteenth Amendment Bill and draft Constitution Nineteenth Amendment Bill respectively. Erroneous e-mail addresses were inadvertently published.

Correction: Written representations via e-mail on the draft Constitution Eighteenth Amendment Bill and draft Constitution Nineteenth Amendment Bill must be directed to the Secretary to Parliament at mbcoetzee@parliament.gov.za, copied to bmantyi@parliament.gov.za and vramaano@parliament.gov.za, and to Ms Mudene Smuts MP at dene@iafrica.com.

In Gazette No 36768 (Notice 867 of 2013), interested parties and institutions were invited by Mr. David Maynier MP to submit written representations on the draft Defence Amendment Bill. Again an erroneous e-mail address was inadvertently published.

Correction: Written representations via e-mail on the draft Defence Amendment Bill must be directed to the Secretary to Parliament at mbcoetzee@parliament.gov.za and copied to cayleyb@da.org.za and mbalie@parliament.gov.za.

Masibulele Xaso
Secretary to the National Assembly
17 September 2013
