To provide for measures to safeguard the physical well-being and safety of persons and property at sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events held at stadiums, venues or along a route; to provide for the accountability of event role-players; to provide for certain prohibitions; to provide for the risk categorisation of events; to provide for the establishment of measures to deal with safety and security at events; to provide for accreditation of role-players at events; to provide for event ticketing; to provide for the control of access of spectators and vehicles at events; to provide for the issuing of safety certificates for planned or existing stadiums or venues; to provide for the contents of safety certificates and amendments to safety certificates; to provide for appointment of inspectors and their powers of entry and inspection; to provide for the deployment of security services; to provide for spectator exclusion notices; to provide for prohibition notices; to provide for the establishment of an Appeal Board and for appeals; to provide for public liability insurance for events; to provide for payment of fees; to provide for offences and penalties; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

RECOGNISING that—

- the physical well-being and safety of all persons attending sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events as well as the safety of their property—
 - at stadiums or other venues; and
 - in the case of a race, tour or procession, along a route, must be promoted and protected;
- the rights of persons who attend sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events must be protected;

NOTING that—

- the planning, management and enforcement of safety and security at sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events held at stadiums, other venues and in respect of events in the form of a race, tour or procession along a route, must be handled by people experienced in the field of safety and security;
- all controlling bodies of sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar activities, event organisers, stadium or venue owners and their managements must have proper safety and security measures in place; and

Act No. 2, 2010 SAFETY AT SPORTS AND RECREATIONAL EVENTS ACT, 2010

- controlling bodies of all sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar activities, event organisers and stadium and venue owners and their managements must place the broader interests of sports, recreational, religious, cultural, organisational or similar activities above their own interests, particularly the promotion and maintenance of the safety, security and convenience of persons who attend sports, recreational, religious, cultural, organisational or similar events;

ACKNOWLEDGING—

- the need to determine and maintain minimum safety and security standards at sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events;
- the importance of the promotion of spectator-friendly, secure sports, recreational, religious, cultural, organisational or similar events;
- that the Republic has become a desirous destination for the hosting of major international sports, recreational, religious, cultural, exhibitional, organisational or similar events,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Application of Act

2. (1) In the event of any conflict between this Act and any other legislation, this Act prevails if the conflict specifically relates to a matter dealt with in this Act.

(2) This Act—

- (a) applies subject to any guarantee or undertaking given by the Government of the Republic to an event organiser or a controlling body under authority of the Cabinet or under any national legislation in respect of the hosting of a major international event in the Republic; and 20
- (b) does not apply to gatherings as defined in the Regulation of Gatherings Act, 1993 (Act No. 205 of 1993). 25

Exemptions

3. The Minister of Police may on application in the prescribed manner—

- (a) by notice in the Gazette exclude from the operation of any or all of the provisions of this Act any area specified in the notice or any area other than an area so specified or any events or any class or category of such events, and may in like manner amend or repeal any such notice; or 30
- (b) by notice in writing addressed to any person, and on such conditions as he or she may deem fit, exempt such person from compliance with any or all of the said provisions, and in like manner amend or withdraw any such notice.

CHAPTER 2

35

ENSURING RESPONSIBILITY FOR SAFETY AND SECURITY AT EVENTSResponsibility for safety and security at events

4. (1) A controlling body, an event organiser, or a stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, must put in place such measures as may be prescribed to ensure the physical safety and security of persons and their property at an event. 40

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) must cooperate with and assist the event safety and security planning committee and the VOC commander in the performance of their functions under this Act.

- (3) The National Commissioner—
- (a) may direct a person referred to in subsection (1) to implement such additional measures as may, in the opinion of the National Commissioner, be necessary to further the objects of this Act;
 - (b) must establish an event safety and security planning committee for each event contemplated in section 6 and categorised as either a medium-risk or high-risk event or any other event whether or not such event is in compliance with the provisions of this Act; 5
 - (c) must appoint a VOC commander as contemplated in section 17;
 - (d) may prohibit the sale of event tickets at a stadium or venue on the day of an event; 10
 - (e) may stipulate conditions to be included in a high-risk event safety certificate as contemplated in section 11(2);
 - (f) may amend or replace a safety certificate as contemplated in section 13;
 - (g) may prohibit or restrict the admission of a person or group of persons to a stadium or venue or route by issuing a prohibition notice referred to in section 21; and 15
 - (h) may issue a spectator exclusion notice referred to in section 22 with regard to an undesirable spectator.
- (4) A person referred to in subsection (1) must appoint— 20
- (a) sufficient persons to be responsible for safety and security at an event, including an event safety officer, security officers or such other persons as may be prescribed;
 - (b) stewards responsible for—
 - (i) the marshalling and overseeing of the safe general flow of spectators; 25
 - (ii) the provision of event information, including safety and security information to spectators;
 - (iii) the provision of ushering services; and
 - (iv) the provision of assistance with emergency evacuation procedures to persons within a stadium or venue and its precincts. 30
- (5) The persons appointed under subsection (4) must—
- (a) be present at an event; and
 - (b) take such steps as may be reasonably necessary for the safeguarding of an event as well as for the protection of the people and the property at an event.
- (6) A person referred to in subsection (1) may appoint volunteers to supervise arrangements or provide any function or service in support of an event. 35
- (7) A person appointed under subsection (4)(b) or (6) may not provide security services unless such a person is registered as a security officer.
- (8) An event organiser, where such person is a natural person, must—
- (a) in respect of a medium-risk or high-risk event— 40
 - (i) be at least 21 years of age; and
 - (ii) have the necessary capacity, resources and event-related experience to organise the event, and
 - (b) in respect of a low-risk event be at least 21 years of age.
- (9) An event organiser must, for every event categorised as low-risk, ensure that— 45
- (a) a safety officer is appointed for that event;
 - (b) a written safety plan is prepared detailing event—
 - (i) safety measures;
 - (ii) security measures;
 - (iii) crowd management measures; 50
 - (iv) motor vehicle parking arrangements;
 - (v) emergency medical measures, including participant medical measures as contemplated in the National Health Act;
 - (c) measures contemplated in paragraph (a) and in the safety plan contemplated in paragraph (b) are put in place; and 55
 - (d) ensure that the local police station is informed, prior to the event, of the event details.

- (10) The safety plan referred to in subsection (9) must include the—
- (a) event risk assessment;
 - (b) event details including duration;
 - (c) stadium, venue or route design, safe capacity and compliance with other relevant safety certification; 5
 - (d) spectator profile and expected spectator attendance;
 - (e) control of event service providers;
 - (f) availability of ablution facilities, refuse removal, water and lighting at the event;
 - (g) control of liquor; 10
 - (h) proactive and reactive fire measures;
 - (i) emergency medical measures;
 - (j) access and egress control;
 - (k) safety information announcements; and
 - (l) emergency evacuation procedures detailing action to be taken by designated persons in the event of a major incident. 15

Prohibition

5. (1) No person may organise an event unless that person complies with the requirements of section 6(1) or 6(3) and section 25.
- (2) No person may for a commercial purpose— 20
- (a) obtain an event ticket with the intention to resell or use such ticket or any right pertaining to such ticket, whether for a profit or not;
 - (b) directly or indirectly sell, dispose of or promote event tickets or any right pertaining to such tickets;
 - (c) use a ticket for advertising, sales or promotional purposes, or as part of a hospitality or travel package, or make it available or advertise it for any such purpose; 25
 - (d) use a ticket transferred or acquired in contravention of subsection (a), (b) or (c); or
 - (e) directly or indirectly sell or dispose of complimentary tickets, 30
- without the prior written authorisation of an event organiser, or a stadium or venue owner, as the case may be.

Risk categorisation of events

6. (1) An event organiser must, at least six months before the start of—
- (a) a calendar year for a specific sport, recreational, religious, cultural, organisational or similar activity, or 35
 - (b) a season, in the case of a seasonal sport, recreational, religious, cultural, organisational or similar activity,
- submit an annual schedule of events to the National Commissioner.
- (2) The schedule of events, referred to in subsection (1) or (3), must contain— 40
- (a) the prescribed information; and
 - (b) sufficient particulars of the planned events,
- to enable the National Commissioner to make a categorisation of the safety and security risk associated with each event contained in the schedule.
- (3) Where an event— 45
- (a) cannot, by virtue of its unforeseen nature, be planned to fall within the schedule of events referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) is scheduled to take place within the six months contemplated in that subsection or during the calendar year or season,
- the event organiser must upon initiating plans for the event forthwith submit the schedule for that event to enable the National Commissioner to make a risk categorisation. 50

(4) The National Commissioner may require the event organiser to provide additional information or particulars necessary to make a decision regarding the risk categorisation of an event.

(5) The National Commissioner must, subject to subsection (6), consider the schedule referred to in subsection (1) or (3) and, if the schedule complies with all of the requirements of this section, make a risk categorisation of each event contained in the schedule. 5

(6) (a) The National Commissioner may refuse to make a risk categorisation if the schedule, and where applicable, the additional information submitted, do not meet the requirements of subsection (2). 10

(b) In the case of a refusal, the National Commissioner must give the event organiser notification and reasons in writing for the refusal.

(7) In making a risk categorisation for an event the National Commissioner must take the following factors into account—

(a) the popularity or reputation of any team or person participating in an event; 15

(b) the expected attendance at an event and, where available, a historic record of attendance at similar events;

(c) the location where the event is to be held;

(d) the suitability of a stadium, venue or route, having regard to its physical structure, spectator facilities, precinct layout, or any other factors that impact on its suitability for hosting an event; 20

(e) the level of physical, human resource and electronic safety and security infrastructure, as well as the state of readiness of such infrastructure for an event;

(f) the historic record of safety, security and medical incidents at similar events, where available; 25

(g) any relevant crime statistics and trends;

(h) any threat analysis information regarding an event, where available;

(i) the certified safe capacity of a stadium, venue or route and respective precincts; 30

(j) the age profile of attendees at an event, where available;

(k) any information regarding the consumption and sale of liquor to spectators at an event and the safety and security impact thereof on previous similar events;

(l) the day of the week on which an event is scheduled to be hosted including factors impacting thereon; 35

(m) the commencement time and estimated duration of an event including the expected arrival or departure of participants and spectators;

(n) the relevance of the outcome of a competitive event;

(o) the level of intensity of the rivalry between competing sports teams or sports persons participating in an event and any tensions which may exist between the supporters of those sports teams or sports persons; 40

(p) the positions of the teams on the league or the rankings of the persons participating in an event;

(q) any international, national, local, social, economic, political or security related factors which might have an impact on an event from a safety and security perspective; 45

(r) the availability of police officials, emergency and essential services to assist at an event,

(s) the weather or other natural conditions which are anticipated to prevail before or on the day of an event; 50

(t) the nature of pre-event spectator entertainment and marketing promotions of any person contemplated in section 4(1); and

(u) any other factor that the National Commissioner considers appropriate.

(8) In making the risk categorisation of each event, the National Commissioner may, if necessary— 55

(a) consult any person; and

(b) take into account any other information.

(9) The National Commissioner must categorise each event reflected in the annual schedule of events as being either low-risk, medium-risk or high-risk.

(10) Upon making the risk categorisation contemplated in this section, the National Commissioner must give written notification—

- (a) to a local authority of the events which are scheduled to be hosted within its jurisdiction and the risk categorisation of such events; and
- (b) to the event organiser concerned of the risk categorisation of the events reflected in the schedule of events submitted by such event organiser.

(11) An event organiser dissatisfied with a risk categorisation may provide additional written information to the National Commissioner and request him or her to reconsider such risk categorisation.

(12) After considering the information contemplated in subsection (11), the National Commissioner must where he or she has refused to amend the risk categorisation furnish such event organiser with written reasons for his or her decision.

Safety certificates

7. (1) A local authority may issue a safety certificate in respect of—

- (a) an existing stadium or venue as contemplated in section 8;
- (b) the design of a new stadium or venue, as contemplated in section 9; and
- (c) alterations of or extensions to a stadium or venue, as contemplated in section 10.

(2) A local authority may issue a grading certificate as contemplated in section 8(4).

(3) The National Commissioner may issue a high-risk event safety certificate as contemplated in section 11.

(4) A local authority must, before deciding whether to issue a safety certificate in terms of subsection (1) or (2) in respect of a stadium or venue that is owned by the local authority, consider a written recommendation of an independent registered person.

Existing stadium or venue safety certificate

8. (1) (a) A stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, must annually and at least 30 days before the expiry of an existing safety certificate in respect of a stadium or venue apply in the prescribed manner to a local authority for a safety certificate in respect of that stadium or venue.

(b) The application for safety certification of an existing stadium or venue must be made within 90 days after the commencement of this Act.

(2) The Minister, in consultation with the Minister of Science and Technology, may prescribe criteria and other requirements to ensure safety of the infrastructure and accommodation at a stadium or venue which must include provision of adequate safe access and sufficient facilities for persons with disabilities.

(3) If at the commencement of this Act the criteria and requirements prescribed under subsection (2) are not in place at an existing stadium or venue, they must be complied with within—

- (a) two years, if high-risk events are hosted at that stadium or venue;
- (b) three years, if medium-risk events are hosted at that stadium or venue; or

(c) five years if, low-risk events are hosted at that stadium or venue, after the commencement of this Act.

(4) (a) The certificate contemplated in subsection (1) must be accompanied by a grading certificate issued by a local authority.

(b) The grading certificate must state the determined safe spectator capacity of the stadium or venue and the level of risk of the event that may be hosted at a stadium or venue. 5

(c) A local authority may issue a high-risk event grading certificate only after consultation with the relevant authorised member.

New stadium or venue design safety certificate 10

9. (1) A stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, must at least three months before the projected commencement date of construction of a new stadium or venue apply in the prescribed manner to a local authority for a certificate in respect of the safety of the design of the new stadium or venue.

(2) A stadium or venue owner involved in planning and designing a new stadium or venue, must comply with— 15

- (a) prescribed safety and security requirements and any conditions stated in the certificate contemplated in subsection (1);
- (b) applicable building legislation and local authority by-laws and guidelines;
- (c) applicable building design guidelines of the South African Bureau of Standards; 20
- (d) applicable stadium or venue infrastructure requirements stipulated in writing by a recognised international controlling body;
- (e) applicable stadium or venue infrastructure requirements stipulated in writing by a controlling body, event organiser or stadium or venue owner; 25
- (f) applicable requirements relating to medical facilities; and
- (g) any other prescribed criteria relating to safety and security regarding the suitability of a planned stadium or venue to hold events.

Certificate in respect of alteration of or extension to stadium or venue

10. (1) Where a safety certificate has been issued in terms of section 8 or 9, and a stadium or venue owner wishes to alter or extend as prescribed— 30

- (a) an existing stadium or venue;
- (b) the design of a planned stadium or venue; or
- (c) a stadium or venue under construction,

the stadium or venue owner must, before the commencement of the proposed alteration or extension, apply in the prescribed manner to a local authority within whose jurisdiction the stadium or venue is situated for written approval of the proposed alteration or extension. 35

(2) In deciding on the application contemplated in subsection (1) the local authority must take into account— 40

- (a) the certified safe capacity of a stadium or venue;
- (b) the spectator grandstand or multi-tiered seating design of a stadium or venue;
- (c) the spectator turnstiles of a stadium;

- (d) the emergency exits, access routes or gates inside a stadium or venue or within its precincts;
- (e) the physical spectator barricading inside a stadium and within its precinct;
- (f) the traffic management design and impact plan;
- (g) whether the proposed alteration or extension is likely to affect the safety and security of persons at the stadium or venue; or 5
- (h) the duration of the proposed building operations in order to give effect to the proposed alteration or extension.

(3) Where a holder of a safety certificate contemplated in section 8 intends to alter or extend a stadium or venue by erecting a temporary structure, he or she must apply in the prescribed manner for written approval contemplated in subsection (1). 10

High-risk event safety certificate

11. (1) Where an event has been categorised as a high-risk event in terms of section 6, the event organiser must at least 60 days before the event apply in the prescribed manner to the National Commissioner for a high-risk event safety certificate. 15

(2) The National Commissioner may issue a high-risk event safety certificate, which may be subject to prescribed conditions.

Contents of safety certificates

12. (1) A safety certificate may contain such conditions as—

- (a) the local authority, in the case of a safety certificate contemplated in section 8, 9 or 10; or 20
- (b) the National Commissioner, in the case of a high-risk event safety certificate contemplated in section 11, considers necessary to ensure safety and security at a stadium or venue when it is used to host the event. 25

(2) A safety certificate must—

- (a) reflect the terms and conditions upon which the decision to issue it is based; and
- (b) comply with the terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Amendments to safety certificates 30

13. (1) (a) A local authority may amend or replace a safety certificate contemplated in section 8, 9 or 10 in the prescribed manner.

(b) The National Commissioner may amend the conditions of a high-risk event safety certificate contemplated in section 11, in the prescribed manner.

(2) A safety certificate referred to in subsection (1) may be amended or replaced on written application of the holder of the certificate, a controlling body, event organiser or stadium or venue owner, as the case may be. 35

(3) The Minister may prescribe the procedure for amendment or replacement of a safety certificate after consultation with the National Commissioner.

Inspectors and powers of entry and inspection 40

14. (1) A person appointed in writing as an inspector by a local authority may enter a stadium, venue or other business premises of a controlling body, the event organiser or a stadium or venue owner at any reasonable time during the day to conduct an inspection and make such inquiries as may be necessary to ensure compliance with this Act.

- (2) An inspector may be accompanied during an inspection by a police official and any other person reasonably required to assist in conducting the inspection.
- (3) The inspector or police official may—
- (a) require a person who appears to be in charge of the stadium, venue or premises to produce a safety certificate, record, book or other document, including documentation in electronic format relating to compliance with this Act; 5
 - (b) examine any document referred to in paragraph (a) and where necessary make a copy of any such document; and
 - (c) direct any person who appears to be in control of such premises to take steps within a reasonable period to ensure compliance with the Act. 10
- (4) When appointing an inspector under subsection (1), a local authority must ensure that—
- (a) a person appointed has sufficient qualifications and experience in the field of safety and security;
 - (b) at least one of the appointed persons is registered with the Health Professions Council of South Africa and is registered as an advanced life support paramedic; 15
 - (c) a person appointed has not at any time been convicted of a criminal offence involving dishonesty or violence; and
 - (d) a person appointed is independent of, and has no direct or indirect financial or other material interest in— 20
 - (i) a controlling body;
 - (ii) the event organiser;
 - (iii) a stadium or venue owner; and
 - (iv) any other person who is directly or indirectly linked to the persons referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (iii). 25
- (5) The local authority must issue an inspector appointed in terms of subsection (1) with a certificate of appointment which the inspector must produce if so requested during an inspection.
- (6) A person present at an inspection must cooperate with and furnish such assistance as the inspector or police official may require in the exercise of his or her powers under this Act. 30

PART 1

MEASURES TO ENSURE SAFETY AND SECURITY AT EVENTS 35

Event safety and security planning committee

15. (1) The National Commissioner must designate in writing a police official, suitably qualified and experienced in event policing matters, with at least the rank of Captain as an authorised member, either in general or for a specific event.
- (2) An authorised member must establish the event safety and security planning committee for each event categorised as medium or high-risk. 40
- (3) The event safety and security planning committee consists of—
- (a) persons who are designated and authorised by the following role-players to take decisions on the functions of the committee:
 - (i) The National Commissioner or an authorised member; 45
 - (ii) a local authority disaster management department or centre;
 - (iii) a controlling body, in respect of high-risk events only;
 - (iv) a stadium or venue owner;
 - (v) the event organiser;
 - (vi) an emergency service provider; 50

- (vii) a health and medical service provider acting in terms of the National Health Act;
 - (viii) a security service of the State;
 - (ix) a provincial health department; and
 - (b) a representative of— 5
 - (i) a security service provider;
 - (ii) a person that an authorised member considers necessary; and
 - (iii) volunteers, where applicable.
 - (4) The authorised member contemplated in subsection (1)— 10
 - (a) is the Chairperson of the event safety and security planning committee;
 - (b) appoints the members of the event safety and security planning committee;
 - (c) manages and coordinates the powers and duties of the event safety and security planning committee; and
 - (d) has overall authority to direct measures relating to safety and security at the event. 15
 - (5) Nothing in this section may be construed as limiting the accountability and liability of any person responsible for the management and organisation of the event to ensure safety and security, including the deployment of adequate personnel for security, safety, health and sanitation purposes. 20
- Functions of event safety and security planning committee 20
- 16. (1) The event safety and security planning committee must—
- (a) consider the categorisation of the event made in terms of section 6 and where circumstances impacting on the risk categorisation of the event have changed, make a written recommendation to the National Commissioner regarding that risk categorisation; 25
 - (b) prepare the event-specific written safety and security plan providing for the coordination of the functions of the following persons involved in the provision of safety and security at the event:
 - (i) A police official;
 - (ii) a member of a local authority disaster management department or centre; 30
 - (iii) a member of an emergency service;
 - (iv) a representative of a national controlling body;
 - (v) a stadium or venue owner or duly authorised representative;
 - (vi) the event organiser;
 - (vii) a security service provider employed by a controlling body, event 35 organiser or a stadium or venue owner or other interested party;
 - (viii) a steward;
 - (ix) where applicable, a volunteer;
 - (x) a health and medical service provider acting in terms of the National Health Act; 40
 - (xi) a member of a provincial health department;
 - (xii) a member of a local authority inspectorate as contemplated in section 14;
 - (xiii) a role-player that the authorised member considers necessary; and
 - (xiv) a member of the security services of the State.
 - (c) assign specific tasks to the persons contemplated in paragraph (b), relating 45 to—
 - (i) event safety measures;
 - (ii) event security measures;
 - (iii) the deployment of police officials;
 - (iv) the deployment of security service providers; 50
 - (v) emergency and essential services measures;
 - (vi) the VOC; and
 - (vii) event medical measures;
 - (d) determine with regard to a specific event prescribed measures relating to— 55
 - (i) spectator access control;
 - (ii) vehicle access control, including parking measures;
 - (iii) accreditation;
 - (iv) the control of liquor and prohibited substances;
 - (v) the control of tobacco usage;

- (vi) environmental control;
 - (vii) vendor control;
 - (viii) corporate hospitality;
 - (ix) volunteers;
 - (x) adequate access and accommodation for persons with disabilities; 5
 - (xi) communication;
 - (xii) spectator exclusion notices;
 - (xiii) accredited training of stadium, venue and event personnel;
 - (xiv) event ticketing safety measures;
 - (xv) prohibition notices; or 10
 - (xvi) the control of prohibited or restricted objects;
 - (e) demarcate a site or an area in a site at the event as an area that may only be entered by a person in possession of a special pass in the form of—
 - (i) an accreditation card; or
 - (ii) the event ticket; 15
 - (f) demarcate a zone surrounding or adjacent to a stadium, venue or route as an exclusive zone where prescribed commercial activities may only be conducted by persons authorised by the event organiser; and
 - (g) advise the persons referred to in section 4(1) on the steps necessary to safeguard a stadium, venue or route and its respective precincts, as well as to protect persons and property therein. 20
- (2) In all cases where the event is categorised as high-risk, the event safety and security planning committee must, at least 60 days before the event, submit the plan contemplated in subsection (1)(b) to the National Commissioner for written approval. 25
- (3) The event safety and security planning committee must, where an event categorised as medium-risk or high-risk is to be hosted, submit the details of a security service provider or a security officer whose services are employed at the event to the Authority to satisfy itself of compliance with the Private Security Industry Regulation Act, 2001 (Act No. 56 of 2001). 30
- Venue operations centre 30
17. (1) The VOC at an event is where the entire safety and security operation at a stadium, venue or along a route is coordinated.
- (2) (a) Where the event is categorised as either medium-risk or high-risk and is held—
 - (i) at a stadium or venue, the stadium or venue owner; or
 - (ii) along a route, the event organiser, 35
 must establish the prescribed VOC.
- (b) The event safety and security planning committee may—
 - (i) on written application by the event organiser or the stadium or venue owner; or
 - (ii) of its own accord, 40
 approve the use of an alternative, temporary or mobile VOC for the event or decide that a VOC is not necessary for the event.
- (3) (a) The authorised member must determine which of the following role-players or representatives of such role-players are to staff a VOC for the duration of the event:
 - (i) Police officials; 45
 - (ii) the disaster management services;
 - (iii) the private emergency medical services;
 - (iv) the fire department;
 - (v) the national or provincial health department or a member of the health department of the relevant local authority; 50
 - (vi) the local authority and provincial traffic department;
 - (vii) the private security service providers;
 - (viii) the controlling body;
 - (ix) the event organiser;

Act No. 2, 2010 SAFETY AT SPORTS AND RECREATIONAL EVENTS ACT, 2010

- (x) the stadium or venue owner;
 - (xi) the safety officer;
 - (xii) volunteers;
 - (xiii) any person whom the event safety and security planning committee designates; and 5
 - (xiv) any person whom the VOC commander authorises in writing.
- (b) The authorised member must act as VOC commander or designate a suitably qualified police official, suitably qualified and experienced in event policing matters, with at least the rank of Captain as VOC commander.
- (4) The VOC commander must— 10
- (a) ensure that a written VOC contingency and operational plan is prepared by the event safety and security planning committee;
 - (b) ensure that a plan for the event categorised as high-risk is approved by the National Commissioner in writing; and
 - (c) distribute a copy of such plan at least 30 days before the commencement of the event to the persons contemplated in subsection (3)(a) or such lesser period as the authorised member or VOC commander may in writing agree to. 15

Accreditation and access to designated areas

18. (1) The controlling body, event organiser, or the stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, in consultation with the event safety and security planning committee, may, in order to control access to any area within a stadium, venue or along a route designated in the prescribed manner, accredit in the prescribed manner any person who— 20

- (a) participates;
- (b) officiates; 25
- (c) provides logistical support;
- (d) is an emergency and essential services official;
- (e) is a police official or peace officer;
- (f) is a security officer;
- (g) is a host stadium or venue employee, contractor or sub-contractor; 30
- (h) is a steward;
- (i) is a health official;
- (j) is an invited VVIP or VIP;
- (k) is the event sponsor representative;
- (l) is a media representative; 35
- (m) is an official event broadcaster representative;
- (n) is a volunteer;
- (o) is a VOC representative;
- (p) is a vendor; or
- (q) is required to provide a support function in terms of the safety and security plan. 40

(2) The event organiser must ensure that every entry point of a designated area is clearly identified and must indicate on a notice at such entry point that access to that area is limited to a person specifically accredited to enter that area.

(3) No person may enter a designated area unless in possession of an accreditation card authorising him or her to enter such area. 45

(4) A person who enters a designated area in contravention of subsection (3) is guilty of an offence and may upon conviction be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(5) An access control officer may request any person who enters or is found in a designated area to produce an accreditation card authorising entry to such area. 50

(6) An access control officer may refuse a person permission to enter a designated area unless such person produces an accreditation card authorising him or her to enter such area.

(7) An access control officer may remove a person found in a designated area from 55 that area if such person upon the request of the officer refuses or fails to produce an accreditation card authorising him or her to enter such area.

- (8) The Minister of Police may prescribe—
- (a) the process to be followed in respect of accreditation; and
 - (b) identification, security and other physical features and information that have to be incorporated within accreditation cards. 5

Event ticketing

19. (1) Subject to the rules of a controlling body—
- (a) the event organiser; or
 - (b) a stadium or venue owner, 10
- as the case may be, may require persons to purchase the event ticket that entitles the person holding it to attend the event on the day and at the time indicated on the ticket.
- (2) If event tickets are sold as contemplated in subsection (1), access to a stadium or venue may only be gained by—
- (a) producing a valid event ticket issued by the event organiser, a stadium or venue owner or an authorised agent; or 15
 - (b) producing written permission of the event organiser or a stadium or venue owner.
- (3) The total number of event tickets made available to spectators for the event in terms of this section, including the written permission referred to in subsection (2)(b), must not exceed the safe spectator capacity of a stadium or venue determined by a local authority for hosting the event. 20
- (4) The National Commissioner may, in the prescribed manner, prohibit the sale of event tickets at a stadium or venue on the day of the event.
- (5) If the sale of event tickets is permitted on the day of a high-risk event, such sale must be conducted at least one kilometre from a stadium or venue or at a location determined by the event safety and security planning committee. 25
- (6) The Minister of Police may prescribe any matter relating to event ticketing necessary to ensure safety and security at events.
- (7) An event ticket must at a minimum contain information relating to the— 30
- (a) name of the area where the event will be hosted including the name of the stadium or venue;
 - (b) nature of the event;
 - (c) date, day and time of the event;
 - (d) layout plan of the stadium or venue with block or sector spectator orientation information; and 35
 - (e) conditions of entry to the event.

Spectator and vehicle access control

20. (1) A controlling body, event organiser or stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, may appoint in writing— 40
- (a) a security officer as an access control officer to be in charge of the control of access of persons and motor vehicles at an event; and
 - (b) peace officers to be in charge of searches and seizures at an event.
- (2) A peace officer may search— 45
- (a) a person who enters a stadium or venue; and
 - (b) a motor vehicle or container in the possession or under the control of a person who enters a stadium or venue,
- for any prescribed prohibited or restricted object or substance and may seize such an object or substance found on such person, in or on such motor vehicle or container and deal with the seized object or substance in the prescribed manner. 50
- (3) If an access control officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person, motor vehicle or container found along a route is in possession of or carries a prescribed prohibited or restricted object or substance, the access control officer may request a police official at the event to search that person, motor vehicle or container and the police official may seize the prescribed prohibited object or substance and deal with the seized object or substance in the prescribed manner.

(4) In order to achieve the objects contemplated in subsection (2) or (3), a peace officer may request a person at the event who enters a stadium or venue or is found inside a stadium or venue or along a route to—

- (a) produce and open for inspection any bag, container or item that the person takes into, or has in his or her possession inside, a stadium, venue or along a route;
- (b) submit to being searched by a peace officer of the same gender;
- (c) be screened by an electronic search and scanning device; or
- (d) allow his or her belongings, including a motor vehicle, to be screened by physical or electronic scanning devices.

(5) An access control officer or a peace officer must have displayed on his or her person an accreditation card issued under section 18 certifying his or her appointment.

(6) An access control officer or peace officer may prevent a person from entering a stadium or venue, or request a person to leave a stadium or venue, if such person—

- (a) refuses to comply with a request made under subsection (4); or
- (b) appears to be intoxicated or under the influence of a prohibited substance.

(7) An access control officer may direct a person who is in a stadium, venue or along a route and who refuses to comply with a request made under subsection (4) to leave the stadium or venue or route.

(8) No person may take or have in his or her possession inside a stadium, venue or along a route any prescribed prohibited or restricted object or substance.

(9) The controlling body, event organiser, or the stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, must ensure that every entry point to a traffic-free zone is clearly identified and must indicate on a notice at such entry point that access to that zone is limited to a person and a motor vehicle specifically accredited to enter it.

(10) No person may drive a motor vehicle into or in a traffic-free zone unless he or she is in possession of an accreditation card authorising him or her and the motor vehicle to enter such zone.

(11) An access control officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that a motor vehicle found in a traffic-free zone is not accredited to enter that zone, may—

- (a) if the owner or driver of the motor vehicle is readily available, order such owner or driver to remove the motor vehicle from the zone; or
- (b) if the owner or driver of the motor vehicle is not readily available, request a police official or peace officer to remove the motor vehicle from the zone and impound the motor vehicle, and the owner shall bear the costs of such removal and impoundment.

(12) An access control officer may request a person who drives a motor vehicle into or in a traffic-free zone, to produce an accreditation card authorising such person and motor vehicle to enter that zone.

(13) An access control officer may refuse permission to a person to drive a motor vehicle into a traffic-free zone unless such person produces an accreditation card authorising him or her and the motor vehicle to enter such zone.

(14) An access control officer may direct a person, found in a motor vehicle in a traffic-free zone, to remove the vehicle from the zone if such person upon the request of the officer refuses or fails to produce an accreditation card authorising him or her and the motor vehicle to enter such zone.

(15) The Minister of Police, after consultation with the Minister, may prescribe measures necessary to control spectator and vehicle access at events.

Prohibition notices

21. If the admission of spectators to a stadium, venue or route involves a serious risk to any person at the event, the National Commissioner or the authorised member may, after consulting the event safety and security planning committee, issue the prescribed prohibition notice prohibiting or restricting the admission of spectators to a stadium, venue or route. 5

Spectator exclusion notices

22. (1) If the National Commissioner, event safety and security planning committee, authorised member or VOC commander has reasonable grounds to believe that there is a threat that the attendance of a person or group of persons may result in the disruption of the event or cause injury to a person or damage to property, the authorised member or VOC commander may issue a spectator exclusion notice to a person or group of persons in the prescribed manner. 10

(2) The Minister of Police, after consultation with the National Commissioner and taking into account any international standards or guidelines in respect of spectator exclusion, may prescribe factors that must be taken into account in deciding whether the attendance of a person or group of persons at the event is regarded as undesirable. 15

Event safety and security measures

23. The event safety and security planning committee, taking into consideration the categorisation of the event, must ensure that prescribed measures relating to— 20

- (a) safety;
- (b) health and medical services or facilities as contemplated in the National Health Act;
- (c) security;
- (d) the deployment of private security service providers; 25
- (e) emergency and essential services; and
- (f) access and safety for persons with disabilities, are in place for that event.

Deployment of state security services

24. (1) The National Commissioner or the authorised member must, taking into consideration the risk categorisation of the event in terms of section 6, ensure that the necessary security measures and deployments are in place for the event. 30

(2) If a number of events are hosted on the same day in a specific area and the authorised member has reason to believe that the police will not be able to provide adequate policing for the event, the authorised member must— 35

- (a) notify the relevant controlling body, event organiser or stadium or venue owner, as the case may be, accordingly; and
- (b) take such steps as are in the circumstances reasonable and appropriate, including negotiating with any person, to ensure the protection of persons and property at that event. 40

Public liability insurance

25. (1) A person referred to in section 4(1) must ensure that public liability insurance, as prescribed, is in place for an event.

(2) The insurance referred to in subsection (1) must be sourced from a person registered or authorised under section 7 of the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 53 of 1998) or section 7 of the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998). 45

PART 2APPEAL BOARD AND APPEALS*Establishment, composition and appointment of Appeal Board

- 26. (1) There is hereby established an independent board known as the Appeal Board to hear and decide upon appeals against decisions made in terms of this Act. 5
- (2) The Appeal Board consists of at least seven members appointed by the Minister on the advice of the National Assembly.
- (3) The members of the Appeal Board must be appointed in a manner ensuring—
- (a) participation by the public in a nomination process;
 - (b) transparency and openness; 10
 - (c) that a short-list of candidates for appointment is published and that every appointment of a member of the Appeal Board is published in the Gazette.
- (4) (a) At least one member appointed by the Minister must be an admitted and practising attorney or advocate with at least two years experience.
- (b) The Minister must designate the member referred to in paragraph (a) as Chairperson and another member as Deputy Chairperson of the Appeal Board. 15
- (c) The Deputy Chairperson referred to in paragraph (b) must, when the Chairperson is absent or unable to perform his or her duties, act in his or her stead and when so acting, exercise or perform any function of the Chairperson.
- (5) The members of the Appeal Board must, when viewed collectively be persons 20 who—
- (a) possess special knowledge and expertise relating to safety and security as well as disaster management at events; and
 - (b) are committed to fairness, openness and accountability on the part of those holding public office; 25
- (6) A member of the Appeal Board is appointed for a period of two years, but is eligible for re-appointment.

Acting by member of Appeal Board after expiry of term of office

- 27. If, on the expiry of the term of office of a member of the Appeal Board, that member is still considering a matter before the Appeal Board, that member may 30 continue to act as a member in respect of that matter only.

Resignation and casual appointment of member of Appeal Board

- 28. (1) A member of the Appeal Board may resign by giving the Minister one month's written notice of his or her intention to vacate office.
- (2) A member of the Appeal Board appointed to fill a casual vacancy must hold office 35 for the unexpired portion of the period for which the vacating member was appointed.

Quorum and decisions of Appeal Board

- 29. (1) Four members of the Appeal Board, which must include the Chairperson or the Deputy Chairperson, constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.
- (2) A decision of the majority of the members present at any meeting constitutes a 40 decision of the Appeal Board and, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson has a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

Removal of member and dissolution of Appeal Board

30. (1) The Minister must remove a member of the Appeal Board from office on account of misconduct or inability to perform his or her duties efficiently after due inquiry and upon recommendation by the National Assembly.

(2) (a) The National Assembly may, after due inquiry and by the adoption of a resolution, recommend the removal of a member of the Appeal Board from office on account of any or all of the following: 5

- (i) Misconduct;
- (ii) inability to perform the duties of his or her office efficiently;
- (iii) absence from three consecutive meetings of the Appeal Board without the permission of the Appeal Board, except on good cause shown; 10
- (iv) failure to disclose a conflict of interest in a matter heard by the Appeal Board or participation in proceedings of the Appeal Board while having an interest in the matter heard by the Appeal Board; or
- (v) his or her becoming disqualified as contemplated in section 34. 15

(b) The National Assembly may, after due inquiry and by the adoption of a resolution, recommend the dissolution of the Appeal Board if it fails in discharging its duties in terms of this Act.

(3) The Minister—

- (a) may suspend a member of the Appeal Board from office at any time after the proceedings of the National Assembly for the removal of the member have commenced; 20
- (b) must act in accordance with a recommendation contemplated in subsection (2) within 30 days of receipt by the Minister of that recommendation;
- (c) must dissolve the Appeal Board if the resolution of the National Assembly recommends the removal of all the members of the Appeal Board. 25

Appointment of interim Appeal Board

31. (1) (a) Upon the dissolution of the Appeal Board, the Minister must appoint an interim Appeal Board consisting of a person referred to in section 26(4) and three other persons recommended by the National Assembly. 30

(b) The interim Appeal Board must be appointed within 10 days of receipt of the recommendations of the National Assembly by the Minister and is appointed for a period not exceeding six months.

Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of interim Appeal Board

32. (1) (a) The Minister must designate the member of the interim Appeal Board referred to in section 26(4) as the Chairperson and another member as the Deputy Chairperson. 35

(b) The Deputy Chairperson of the interim Appeal Board designated in terms of paragraph (a) must, when the Chairperson is absent or unable to perform his or her duties, act in his or her stead and when so acting, exercise or perform any function of the Chairperson. 40

Quorum of interim Appeal Board

33. A quorum for any meeting of the interim Appeal Board is three members.

Disqualification from appointment to Appeal Board

34. A person is disqualified from appointment to the Appeal Board if such person— 45

- (a) is not a citizen of, or not permanently resident, in the Republic;
- (b) is subject to an order of a competent court declaring such person to be mentally ill or disordered;

- (c) is convicted, after the commencement of this Act, whether in the Republic or elsewhere, of any offence for which such person is sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine;
