ACT

To give effect to section 155(6A) of the Constitution by authorizing the provincial executives affected to establish cross-boundary municipalities; to provide for the re-determination of the boundaries of such municipalities under certain circumstances; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Municipal Demarcation Board established by section 2 of the Local Government: Municipal Demarcation Act, 1998 (Act No. 27 of 1998), has indicated the desirability for certain municipal boundaries to extend across provincial boundaries;

AND WHEREAS national legislation must authorise the respective provincial executives to establish a municipality within a municipal area that extends across a provincial boundary,

B E IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Establishment of cross-boundary municipality

1. The members of the Executive Councils responsible for local government in the provinces indicated in the first column of the Schedule are hereby authorised to establish a municipality in the municipal area mentioned in the second column of the Schedule opposite such provinces.

Re-determination of boundaries

2. The boundaries of a municipality authorised by this Act may only be re-determined under circumstances other than those provided for in section 90(5) of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998)—

(a) with the concurrence of the legislatures of the provinces involved; and

(b) if the re-determination is authorised by national legislation.

Short title

3. This Act is called the Local Government: Cross-boundary Municipalities Act, 2000.
