5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 5.1.1 On 15 June 2006 the Joint Tagging Mechanism (JTM) found that the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa Special Measures Bill, 2006 [B13—2006] includes provisions to which the procedure set out in section 75 of the Constitution applies as well as provisions to which the procedure set out in section 76 of the Constitution applies. The JTM classified the Bill as a mixed section 75/76 Bill and, since there is no procedure whereby Parliament can pass such a mixed Bill, found that the Bill was out of order.
- 5.1.2 The 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa Special Measures Bill, 2006 [B13—2006] has thereupon been redrafted omitting the provisions to which the procedure set out in section 76 of the Constitution applies. The State Law Advisers and Sport and Recreation South Africa are of the opinion that the redrafted Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
