MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE FURTHER EDUCATION
AND TRAINING COLLEGES AMENDMENT BILL, 2011

1. MAIN OBJECT OF BILL

The administration and powers and functions entrusted by the Further Education and Training Colleges Act, 2006 (Act No. 16 of 2006) (the Act), was transferred in terms of section 97 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, to the Minister of Higher Education and Training by Proclamation No. 44 of 2009, published in Government Gazette No. 32367 of 1 July 2009. The Act was amended in 2010 in order to align it with this transfer. The Bill seeks to amend the Act in order to remove all references to provincial authority and at the same time to propose certain related and other amendments. The amendments proposed in the Bill must be seen in conjunction with the Constitution Eighteenth Amendment Bill [B 8—2011], which seeks to amend Schedule 4 to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996. The effect of the proposed amendment to the Constitution is that Further Education and Training Colleges will become an exclusive national competency in stead of a concurrent competency between the national and provincial education departments. The Bill was drafted after the Council of Education Ministers agreed that the Act should be amended to transfer the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities from the provincial authorities to the national authorities in order to align the Act with the proposed amendment to the Constitution. The amendments proposed by the Bill will only come into operation after the amendment to Schedule 4 to the Constitution takes effect.

2. MAIN FEATURES OF BILL

2.1 Clauses 1 to 10 and 14 to 33

The Bill seeks to amend the Act so as to remove all references to provincial authority; to assign functions previously assigned to the Member of the Executive Council to the Minister; to remove all references to “Head of Department” and substitute them with “Director-General”. These amendments therefore repeal the structure of cooperation between national and provincial government contemplated in Schedule 4 of the Constitution.

2.2 Clauses 11 to 13

Lecturers and support staff that were funded by the State were, prior to the enactment of the Act, employed as educators. The Further Education and Training summit held during 2010 resulted in a recommendation that the Act should be amended to transfer staff, remunerated by the State through norms and standards contemplated in section 23 of the Act, back to the public service, which recommendation the Minister accepted. It is imperative to read clauses 11 to 13 with clause 34, which clause makes allowance for compliance with section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995), when implementing those transfers.

2.3 Clause 34

The Bill seeks to provide for transitional arrangements with regard to public service posts and educator posts, staff, disciplinary measures and policy made by the Member of the Executive Council under the principal Act or any provincial law, necessary for the effective governance, management and funding of public further education and training colleges. The rights of current employees are protected in that the Bill requires compliance with section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995. It further regulates how the staff in provincial education departments affected by the transfer of the function to the national authorities will be dealt with.

3. CONSULTATION

The Bill was published for public comment in Government Notice No. 228 in Gazette No. 34222 of 15 April 2011. All interested parties and the public were invited to comment. An extension Notice was published in the media whereby the closing date for comments was extended with another week. Several comments were received and were accommodated in the Bill. The following stakeholders submitted comment:

- Association of Private Providers of Education, Training and Development;
- Capricorn College;
- Centre for Further Education Policy Development;
- College of Cape Town;
- Eduskills Rainbow;
- National Professional Teachers' Organization of South Africa;
- South African College Principals Organization;
- South African Democratic Teachers' Union; and
- South African Qualifications Authority.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Costs follow functions, and therefore current budgets earmarked for Further Education and Training Colleges and reflected in provincial budgets will follow the functions to the national Department of Higher Education and Training. Those funds will therefore revert to the national budget. Allocation to Further Education and Training Colleges are already entrenched in the Division of Revenue Act and distributed in terms of national norms and standards.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

5.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Higher Education and Training are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 76 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it falls within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely "Education at all levels, excluding tertiary education".

5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain any provisions pertaining to customary law or to the customs of traditional communities.
