(4) Subsections (2) and (3), read with such changes as the context may require, apply to any person employed at or involved in a non-profit organisation managing a cluster foster care scheme.

Cluster foster care

183. (1) A cluster foster care scheme must be managed in the following manner:

(2) A child may be placed in the foster care of a person from a different cultural, religious and linguistic background to that of the child, but only if—

5

Number of children to be placed in foster care per household

10

(2) More than six children may be placed in foster care in terms of a registered cluster foster care scheme.

Duration of foster care placements

15

186. (1) A children's court may, despite the provisions of section 159(1)(a) regarding the duration of a court order, after a child has been in foster care with a person other than a family member for more than two years and after having considered the need for creating stability in the child's life, order that—

Reunification of child with biological parent

40

187. (1) If a children's court placing a child in foster care is of the view that reunification between the child and the child's biological parents is possible and in the best interest of the child, the court must issue the placement order subject to conditions providing for a designated social worker to facilitate such reunification as contemplated in section 156(3)(a).

45

(2) If the child has not been reunited with the child's biological parents two months before the expiry of the initial court order or any extension of the order, the designated social worker appointed to facilitate the reunification must submit a report to the children's court—

- (a) explaining why the child was not reunited with the biological parents; and
- (b) recommending any steps that may be taken to stabilise the child's life.

Short title and commencement

13. This Act is called the Children’s Amendment Act, 2007, and takes effect on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE CHILDREN'S AMENDMENT BILL, 2006

LEGAL-TECHNICAL BACKGROUND OF THE BILL

This Amendment Bill contains part of the envisaged Children's Act. The Bill that was initially submitted to Parliament (the "consolidated Bill") dealt with the full spectrum of protection of children in both national and provincial spheres and was to be dealt with in terms of section 76 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa Act, 1996 (functional area of concurrent national and provincial legislative competence). It was later found to be a "mixed" Bill, including elements to be dealt with in terms of both section 75 (functional area of national legislative competence) and section 76 of the Constitution.

Due to its mixed character, the Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly requested the Executive to split the consolidated Bill, which was subsequently done. The provisions of the consolidated Bill that will apply to the national government was passed by Parliament during 2005 as the Children's Act, No. 38 of 2005. The provisions of the consolidated Bill that will apply to the provincial government is contained in the current Amendment Bill as an amendment to the Children's Act, 2005 (the "Children's Act"). This Amendment Bill will be dealt with in terms of section 76 of the Constitution and will complete the Children's Act by inserting the provisions that deal with welfare services as delivered by the provinces.

GENERAL BACKGROUND AND OVERVIEW

The lives of children are affected by various pieces of legislation and international conventions. Apart from section 28 of the Constitution, which deals with the rights of children specifically, some of the statutes pertaining to children currently on the statute book are the following:

- The Age of Majority Act, 1972 (Act No. 57 of 1972)
- The Child Care Act 1960 (Act No. 74 of 1983)
- Children's Status Act, 1987 (Act No. 82 of 1987)
- Guardianship Act, 1993 (Act No. 192 of 1993)
- Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction Act, 1996 (Act No. 72 of 1996)
- Natural Fathers of Children born out of Wedlock Act, 1997 (Act No. 86 of 1997)

Over the past few years, it has become clear that existing legislation is not in keeping with the realities of current social problems and no longer protects children adequately. In addition thereto, the Republic of South Africa has acceded to various international conventions, such as the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of the Child and the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child, the principles of which have to be incorporated into local legislation.

During 1997 the Minister for Social Development requested the South African Law Reform Commission to investigate the Child Care Act, 1983 and to make recommendations to the Minister for the reform of this particular branch of the law. After an extensive process of research and consultation, the Law Reform Commission finalised its report and proposed a draft Children's Bill in January 2003.

The Department of Social Development then took the process further through close liaison with the national Departments of Justice and Constitutional Development, Education, Health, Labour, the South African Police Service, the provinces, national non-governmental organisations and service providers as well as the Office on the Rights of the Child in the Presidency. After extensive discussions in the parliamentary committees and two rounds of public hearings, the Children's Act was finally passed by Parliament in December 2005 and the President assented to the Children's Act on 8 June 2006. The Children's Act will take effect on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Government Gazette.

OBJECTS

The objects of the Children's Act are:

- (a) To promote the preservation and strengthening of families;
- (b) To give effect to certain constitutional rights of children;

- (c) To give effect to the Republic's obligations concerning the well-being of children in terms of international instruments binding on the Republic;
- (d) To make provision for structures, services and means for promoting and monitoring the sound physical, psychological, intellectual, emotional and social development of children;
- (e) To strengthen and develop community structures which can assist in providing care and protection for children;
- (f) To protect children from discrimination, exploitation and any other physical, emotional or moral harm or hazards;
- (g) To provide care and protection for children who are in need of care and protection;
- (h) To recognise the special needs that children with disabilities may have; and
- (i) Generally, to promote the protection, development and well-being of children.

The Amendment Bill further expands on the above-mentioned objects of the Children's Act by proposing to insert the sections that pertain to the provincial sphere of government. The parts to be inserted may be summarised as follows:

- Chapter 5 deals with partial care and the approval and registration of partial care facilities, while chapter 6 regulates early childhood development and the approval and registration of early childhood development programmes.
- Part 1 of chapter 7 makes further provision for the protection of children by providing for a strategy for child protection and the reporting of children that has been seriously abused, sexually abused or deliberately neglected. The designation of child protection organisations is also regulated in this part of the Amendment Bill. Part 4 of chapter 7 amongst others deals with child-headed households, the unlawful removal or detention of children and corporal punishment.
- Chapter 11 provides for alternative care of children and chapters 12 and 13 further expand on alternative care by respectively regulating foster care and child and youth care centres.
- Chapter 13 determines that child and youth care centres must comply with certain requirements, be registered, offer certain programmes to children in the care of these centres, must have a management system and that a quality assurance process must be carried out in respect of the centres.
- Chapter 14 regulates the establishment and registration of and norms and standards for drop-in centres.

Other amendments proposed are amendments to bring the long title, regulations provided for and the offences section in line with the amendments to be effected by this Bill.

CONSULTATION

Apart from the broad consultation process followed by the South African Law Reform Commission during its review of the Child Care Act, 1983, the Department of Social Development also distributed the original consolidated Bill to national departments, the provinces, non-governmental organisations and other service providers for comment. The consolidated Bill was also published for general comment in the Gazette on 13 August 2004. During the course of 2006, the Department of Social Development consulted other national departments, the provinces and non-governmental organisations through the holding of a series of workshops. It is also envisaged that public hearings on the Amendment Bill will be held once the Bill is in the parliamentary process.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The Children's Act and the proposed Amendment Bill has been through an extensive and detailed costing process. The process involved all national and provincial departments that play a part in the implementation of the Children's Act and the proposed Children's Amendment Bill. The final costing report was submitted to the Minister of Social Development in July 2006.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The Department of Social Development and the State Law Advisors are of the view that this Amendment Bill must be dealt with by Parliament in accordance with the procedure established by Section 76 of the Constitution.
