Repeal of laws

46. Subject to Schedule 1, the laws mentioned in Schedule 2 are repealed to the extent indicated in the third column of that Schedule. 15

Short title and commencement

47. This Act is called the Liquor Act, 2003, and comes into operation on a date to be determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE 1

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Definitions

1. For the purpose of this Schedule—

“Liquor Act, 1989” means the Liquor Act, 1989 (Act No. 27 of 1989);

“Liquor Products Act, 1989” means the Liquor Products Act, 1989 (Act No. 60 of 1989).

Transition from repealed laws to provincial legislation

2. (1) Despite section 46, in respect of each province, a provision of a law mentioned in Schedule 2 that concerns the micro-manufacture, retail sale or consumption of liquor or methylated spirits remains in force within that province until a date determined in accordance with subitems (2) and (3) and declared by notice in the Gazette.

(2) The Premier of a province, or the Member of the Executive Council responsible for liquor in the province, may notify the Minister that the government of that province wishes to consult with the Minister on the determination of a date contemplated in subitem (1), at any time after the legislature of that province has enacted legislation that—

- (a) is consistent with the objects and purposes of this Act;
- (b) provides for regulation of the micro-manufacture, retail sale and consumption of liquor, and methylated spirits within that province;
- (c) requires every person engaging in the micro-manufacture or retail sale of liquor or methylated spirits within that province to be registered, or to have a licence or permit, to perform any of those activities;
- (d) with respect to the registration or licensing of activities contemplated in paragraph (c)—
 - (i) provides for a reasonable procedure, having regard to the competing demands of simplicity, transparency and cost-effectiveness, for the application, evaluation and granting of registration, licences or permits required by that legislation; and
 - (ii) provides for the maintenance of a registry of any persons, firms and premises required to be registered or licensed in terms of that legislation, and the reporting of that information to the Minister;
- (e) establishes enforcement mechanisms to ensure proper monitoring and compliance by any persons registered or licensed in terms of that provincial legislation; and
- (f) provides reasonable transitional protection of the rights of existing licencees in terms of the laws repealed by section 46, to the extent that those licences involve the micro-manufacture, retail sale or consumption of liquor or methylated spirits.

(3) After receiving a notice in terms of subitem (2), the Minister must either—

- (a) in consultation with the appropriate Member of the Executive Council, determine a date contemplated in subitem (1) and declare that date by notice in the Gazette; or
- (b) if the Minister on reasonable grounds believes that the provincial legislation does not substantially meet the criteria required by subitem (2), notify the responsible Member of the Executive Council of that province to that effect, setting out the Minister’s reservations with respect to the provincial legislation.

(4) Until the date contemplated in subitem (1) with respect to any particular province, a reference in this Act to “applicable provincial legislation” must be regarded as being a reference to the provisions of any law mentioned in Schedule 2 that concern the micro-manufacture, retail sale or consumption of liquor or methylated spirits.

Transitional conflicts

3. The provisions of this Act prevail to the extent of any conflict between—

- (a) a provision of this Act; and

- (b) a provision of an Act mentioned in Schedule 2 that remains in force in terms of item 2.

Conversion of existing licences

4. (1) Despite the repeal of the Liquor Act, 1989, upon the coming into operation of this Act—

- (b) a licence issued under that Act remains valid, as if that Act had not been repealed, for a period determined in accordance with this item, if that determination or licence, as the case may be, involved the manufacture or distribution of liquor, and was valid immediately before this Act came into operation.

(2) Subject to subitem (4), 90 days after this Act came into operation, a determination or licence referred to in subitem (1) that involved the manufacture or distribution of liquor, converts automatically to a registration under this Act as—

- (a) a manufacturer;
- (b) a distributor; or
- (c) both,

as elected by notification in writing to the Minister in accordance with subitem (3).

(3) A notification in terms of subitem (2)—

- (a) may be delivered to the Minister by hand, registered mail or fax within the 90-day period referred to in subitem (2); and
- (b) will be deemed to have been received by the Minister on—
 - (i) the date of delivery by hand or transmission by fax; or
 - (ii) three days after the date on which it is sent by registered mail.

(4) If a licensee of a licence or determination referred to in subitem (2) fails to make an election by notification to the Minister as contemplated in subitems (2) and (3), the licence or determination—

- (a) does not convert as contemplated in subitem (2); and
- (b) expires at the end of the last day of the 90-day period referred to in subitem (2).

(5) Within 12 months after the coming into operation of this Act, a manufacturer or distributor whose licence or determination has been converted in terms of subitem (2) must initiate a review by the Minister, by notice in the prescribed manner and form, of that manufacturer's or distributor's registration under this Act.

(6) Within 24 months after receiving an initiation notice in terms of subitem (5) and any additional relevant material that the Minister may require, the Minister must conduct a review of the initiator's registration, having regard to the objects of this Act, applying the criteria set out in section 13, and considering that the registered person is a going concern.

(7) Upon completing a review in terms of subitem (6), the Minister must either—

- (a) confirm the initiator's registration without alteration; or
- (b) confirm the initiator's registration, subject to further conditions that are reasonable, justifiable and relevant to the matters mentioned in subitem (6).

(8) The provisions of section 13, read with the changes required by context, apply to any proposal by the Minister to impose further conditions as contemplated in subitem (7)(b).

(9) If a manufacturer or distributor who is required to initiate a review under subitem (5), fails to—

- (a) initiate that review within the time provided in subitem (5); or
- (b) provide additional relevant material to the Minister within six months after being requested to do so, the Minister may cancel the registration of that manufacturer or distributor, in the manner set out in section 20 (4), (5) and (6).

(10) If the Minister fails to complete a review within the time allowed by subitem (6), the initiator's registration will continue in force, subject to any conditions that applied at the time the initiation notice was delivered to the Minister.

Transitional provisions concerning retail sale

5. Despite the repeal of the Liquor Act, 1989, until the date contemplated in item 2(1) with respect to any particular province, a person within that province who, at the coming into operation of this Act, was authorised in terms of that Act to engage in the retail sale of liquor may continue to engage in the retail sale of liquor to the extent permitted by that authorisation.

Consents granted under section 158(2) of Liquor Act, 1989

6. Any consent granted under section 158(2) of the Liquor Act, 1989, lapses on 31 December of the year following the year in which this Act comes into operation and will on that date cease to be of any force and effect.

Applications before commencement of this Act

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE LIQUOR BILL, 2003

1. BACKGROUND

The Department of Trade and Industry (hereinafter refer to as “the dti”) and the provincial departments responsible for liquor matters jointly embarked on an extensive exercise to evaluate the existing legislation regulating the manufacture, distribution and sale of liquor for consumption in 1994. An analysis of existing liquor legislation and the state of the liquor industry was conducted in 1996. The outcome of the joint review was a new policy on liquor regulation and draft legislation, which were approved by the Members of the Executive Council responsible for liquor matters through a series of MinMec meetings. The Liquor Policy and the draft Liquor Bill were published for public comment in July 1997. Their publication was followed by extensive consultation with stakeholders at national and provincial level.

The Liquor Bill, 1998, was tabled in Parliament in August 1998 and was approved on 2 November 1998, where after the Bill was referred to the President for his assent. The President had reservations about the constitutionality of the Bill and accordingly referred it to the Constitutional Court under section 84(2) of the Constitution of the Republic Act, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996). The Constitutional Court held in Ex Parte President of the RSA In re: Constitutionality of the Liquor Bill, 2000(1) BCLR (CC) that the Bill was unconstitutional in certain respects. The Liquor Bill, 2003, was drafted with a view to complying with that judgement.

The Bill provides for a national liquor policy in Chapter 2 of the Bill. These provisions are minimal in content, but are necessary to maintain economic unity, essential national standards and minimum standards required for the rendering of services.

Another new element introduced in the Bill is the establishment of the National Liquor Policy Council, which consists of the Minister of Trade and Industry and the relevant Members of the Executive Council of the provinces. This body is responsible for policy formulation and co-ordination and it gives expression and content to the concept of co-operative governance.

The Bill also provides for public interest prohibitions and the powers of inspection.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

The objects of the Bill are—

- (a) to reduce the socio-economic and other costs of alcohol consumption by-
 - (i) setting essential national norms and standards in the liquor industry;
 - (ii) regulating the manufacture and wholesale distribution of liquor;
 - (iii) setting essential national norms and standards for the regulation of the retail sale and micro-manufacture of liquor;
 - (iv) providing for public participation in the consideration of applications for registration; and
- (b) to promote the entry of new participants into the liquor industry, a diversity of ownership and an ethos of social responsibility in the industry.

3. ORGANISATIONAL AND PERSONNEL IMPLICATIONS

As the Bill provides that the dti is responsible for the licensing and inspection of national manufacturing and for wholesale licences, the Bill requires that the dti have sufficient capacity to deal with these functions. The Department has provided for a Deputy Director and two Assistant Directors for the licensing and inspection function.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Sufficient funds are available in the current budget for the additional staff required to perform the licensing and inspection function. Provision has also been made in the Medium Term Expenditure Framework.

5. COMMUNICATION IMPLICATIONS

As the Bill has been previously consulted on and does not constitute a departure of previously agreed policy, no public consultation process is envisaged, save through the Parliamentary process. However, once the Bill becomes law, extensive communication with industry and other stakeholders will occur through provincial workshops and through the national media.

6. CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

The constitutional concerns have been addressed in the new Bill. It is therefore not anticipated that further constitutional matters will arise.

7. OTHER DEPARTMENTS/BODIES CONSULTED

The content of the Bill was agreed upon between the Minister of Trade and Industry and the Members of the Executive council responsible for liquor matters in each province.

8. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Trade and Industry are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with parliamentary procedure established by section 76 of the Constitution since it involves an intervention in terms of section 44(2) of the Constitution.
