MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL YOUTH COMMISSION AMENDMENT BILL, 2000

1. BACKGROUND

1.1. The National Youth Commission Act, 1996 (Act No. 19 of 1996), in terms of which the National Youth Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) was established, currently makes provision for the appointment by the President of five full-time commissioners and five part-time commissioners on the advice of a committee of Parliament, and nine part-time provincial commissioners nominated by the Premiers.

1.2. The Commission raised concern with the Presidency about the proliferation of full and part-time members of the national and provincial commissions as well as difficulties with provincial co-ordination of activities and initiatives related to youth development. Since the establishment of the Commission in 1996, seven provinces passed legislation to establish provincial youth commissions.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

2.1. The Bill seeks to reduce the number of commissioners of the Commission to five full-time members.

2.2. The Bill also aims to provide for a more constructive relationship between the Commission and provincial youth structures, whether they be Provincial Youth Commissions, or cases where a Member of the Executive Council takes primary responsibility for youth development initiatives.

2.3. The Bill commits the Commission to promote and maintain sound working relationships between the Commission and the provinces. It also compels the Commission to provide provincial structures with minutes of every Commission meeting.

3. CONSULTATION

The following bodies were consulted:

- 3.1. The National Youth Commission.
- 3.2. Provincial representatives on the National Youth Commission.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The reduction of the number of commissioners of the Commission to five full-time members will bring about savings on the Commission's budget, which will be redirected to work on the Commission's programmed.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Office of the President are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 75 of the Constitution, since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
