MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE TRANSNET PENSION FUND AMENDMENT BILL, 2006

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 In 1990 the Transnet Pension Fund, a defined benefit pension fund, was established in terms of the Transnet Pension Fund Act, 1990 (Act No. 62 of 1990) (“the Act”). It assumed the liabilities of the disestablished New Railways and Harbours Superannuation Fund and the Railways and Harbours Pension Fund for Non-White Employees. All employees of Transnet were obliged to belong to the Transnet Pension Fund.
- 1.2 In 2000 the Act was amended to establish the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund to which the liabilities of the Transnet Pension Fund in regard to its pensioners were transferred. The amendments also empowered Transnet to establish new funds for its employees. Transnet established the Transnet Retirement Fund, a defined contribution pension fund. Most employees of Transnet voluntarily transferred from the Transnet Pension Fund to the Transnet Retirement Fund (effective 1 November 2000) and the Transnet Pension Fund has been closed to new members since then. It now has about 12 000 members, including pensioners who retired after the establishment of the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund.
- 1.3 The Transnet funds are pension funds as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “pension fund” in the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), because they were established in terms of specific statutes other than the Pension Funds Act, 1956 (Act No. 24 of 1956). This means that when a member leaves employment, he or she is entitled to have his or her lump sum benefits taxed on the basis that that portion of the benefit attributable to membership prior to 1 March 1998 will not be subject to tax. The special tax status of the benefits of members with pre-March 1998 service cannot be protected in a fund other than a “paragraph (a)” fund.
- 1.4 Transnet is in the process of disposing of its non-core assets. This entails the transfer of shares in some of its companies (including SAA) to the State or to private sector entities. It also entails the transfer of some of its businesses, either to national government business enterprises (such as the transfer of the Metrorail business to the South African Rail Commuter Corporation) or to private sector entities (such as the transfer of the internal audit business of Transnet to Ernst & Young),
- 1.5 Unions representing employees affected by these disposals have urged Transnet and the Department of Public Enterprises to take measures to minimise as far as possible any adverse impact that the disposals may have in relation to the retirement savings of those employees. Transnet and the Department of Public Enterprises have agreed, subject to the condition that such measures do not fundamentally impact upon the efficacy of its restructuring exercise, to allow transferring employees and pensioners the option of retaining membership in the Transnet funds. The Transnet Pension Fund Act requires amendments to support these provisions.

2. OBJECTS

- 2.1 The Bill seeks to—
- (a) amend the definitions of “employer”, “Minister” and “Rules”, to omit the definitions of “Company”, “Fund” and “Second Fund” and to define “actuary”, “alternative employer”, “alternative group of employers”, “dependent pensioner”, “general rules”, “pensioner”, “principal employer”, “special rules”, “subfund”, “subfund board”, “subsidiary”, “Transnet”, “Transnet employer”, “Transnet group of employers”, “Transport Pension Fund”, “Transnet Retirement Fund”, “Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund” and “valuator”;

- (b) provide that the “Transnet Pension Fund” shall continue to exist under the name of “Transport Pension Fund”;
- (c) amend the Act with retrospective effect to 11 November 2005 (the date being proposed for consistency purposes as it is the date used to amend the Transnet Retirement Fund rules and it will be the date from which the Transnet Pension Fund rules will be amended);
- (d) transform the Transnet Pension Fund into a “multi-employer” (umbrella) pension fund for employees of Transnet and for employees of only those State or national government business enterprises (“alternative employers”) to which the shares of the companies in which those employees were employed or to which businesses in which those employees were employed by Transnet, were transferred;
- (e) allow the continued membership in Transport Pension Fund or the Transnet Retirement Fund of persons who were members of that fund immediately prior to the sale of the respective shares or businesses to an alternative employer and who are still employees or retired employees of that alternative employer. and to exclude from continued membership the employees of companies or employees employed in businesses transferred entirely to private sector entities;
- (f) provide that only new employees of Transnet may join the Transnet Retirement Fund and to exclude from membership of that fund new employees of the alternative employer that participates in the fund;
- (g) to provide that the Transport Pension Fund will be governed in terms of general rules applicable to the fund as a whole and in terms of special rules which will make specific provision —
  - * for the contributions payable by and on behalf of employees of specific employers or groups of employers;
  - for the benefits payable to those employees and their dependants and other beneficiaries; and
  - for other matters specific to subfunds to be established in respect of the employees, such as the investment of the assets attributable to subfunds;
- (h) provide that the general rules may be amended with the consent of all principal employers or, failing such consent, by a majority of principal employers and the Minister of Public Enterprises (“the Minister”), and that special rules may be amended with the consent of applicable principal employers;
- (i) to provide that amendments to the general rules and the special rules which may have a financial impact upon the Transport Pension Fund require the approval of the Minister, acting with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance;
- (j) remove the burden on Transnet of funding and guaranteeing benefits in favour of persons no longer related to it by ring-fencing, subject to actuarial valuation, and assigning liabilities in relation to benefits payable by the Transnet Pension Fund to employees and retired employees who are members of the Transport Pension Fund, retired employees, their dependants and other beneficiaries, as well as guarantees in favour of those persons, to each employer or group of employers;
- (k) provide for the establishment of subfund boards to govern subfunds and to exercise powers in relation to the rights and obligations of the subfunds in terms of their special rules that would otherwise have been the responsibility of the Transport Pension Fund’s board of trustees;
- (l) allow the Transport Pension Fund to purchase annuities in the names of its pensioners, thereby allowing it to transfer its liabilities in respect of those pensioners to insurers;
- (m) allow housing finance providers, including employers, to recover out of benefits payable to employees, on termination of employment, by the Transport Pension Fund or the Transnet Retirement Fund amounts due to them by the employees;
- (n) provide that the funds will not lose their special tax status if they become registered in terms of the Pension Funds Act, 1956;

- (o) provide that only those amendments to the rules which may have a financial effect on the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund require the approval of the Minister, acting with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance;
- (p) provide for the payment of pensions by the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund to persons to whom pensions have been paid by Transnet and who are not members of any fund established in terms of this Act; and
- (q) empower the Minister to make regulations.

3. CONSULTATION

The Department of Public Enterprises has consulted the board of directors of Transnet and Transnet in turn has consulted and received input from the boards of trustees of the Transnet Pension Fund, the Transnet Second Defined Benefit Fund and the Transnet Retirement Fund, legal advisers, the actuaries of the Transnet funds and various union representatives.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

- 4.1 The financial implications for the State of the proposed amendments will be apportioned amongst the entities in which the State holds an interest, such as Transnet and the South African Airways, as well as other companies which may participate in the funds, in which the State is a shareholder although it may not be the sole shareholder. In addition, the South African Rail Commuter Corporation as an agent of the State (to which the Metrorail and Shosholozha Meyl businesses have been transferred) will experience similar financial implications as those described above.
- 4.2 No liabilities in excess of those currently borne by Transnet are expected to be borne by Transnet and the new participating employers together. These exposure levels could vary from the current levels over the ensuing period and will depend on the individual employer appetite for benefits payable, risk profile of the subfund and investment strategy.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 5.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Public Enterprises are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 5.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
