(2) The Case Management Committee must— 30

(a) ensure that each [sentenced prisoner] offender has been assessed, and that for sentenced offenders serving more than [twelve] 24 months there is a plan specified in section 38(2)(1A);

(b) interview, at regular intervals, each [prisoner] sentenced offender sentenced to more than twelve months, review the plan for such [prisoners] sentenced offenders and the progress made and, if necessary, amend such plan; 35

(c) make preliminary arrangements, in consultation with the Head of Community Corrections for possible placement of [a prisoner] a sentenced offender under community corrections; 40

(d) submit a report, together with the relevant documents, to the Correctional Supervision and Parole Board regarding—

(i) the offence or offences for which the sentenced [prisoner] offender is serving a term of [imprisonment] incarceration together with the judgment on the merits and any remarks made by the court in question at the time of the imposition of sentence if made available to the Department; 45

(ii) the previous criminal record of such [prisoner] sentenced offender;

(iii) the conduct, disciplinary record, adaptation, training, aptitude, industry, physical and mental state of such [prisoner] sentenced offender; 50

(iv) the likelihood of a relapse into crime, the risk posed to the community and the manner in which this risk can be reduced;

(v) [a prisoner] a sentenced offender who has been declared an habitual criminal which indicates that— 55

(aa) there is a reasonable probability that the [prisoner] sentenced offender will in future abstain from crime and lead a useful and industrious life; or

- (bb) the [prisoner] sentenced offender is no longer capable of engaging in crime; or
- (cc) for any other reason, it is desirable to place the [prisoner] sentenced offender on parole;
- (vi) the possible re-placement of such [prisoner] sentenced offender under correctional supervision in terms of a sentence provided for in section 276(1)(i) or 287(4)(a) of the Criminal Procedure Act, or in terms of the conversion of such [prisoner's] sentenced offender's sentence into correctional supervision under section 276A(3)(e)(ii), 286B(4)(b)(ii) or 287(4)(b) of the said Act, and the conditions for such placement;
- (vii) the possible placement of such [prisoner] sentenced offender on day parole or on parole, and the conditions for such placement; and
- (viii) such other matters as the Correctional Supervision and Parole Board may request; and
- (e) [at the request of the Area Manager,] submit a report as contemplated in paragraph (d) to [him or her] the National Commissioner in respect of any [prisoner] sentenced offender sentenced to [12 months' imprisonment] incarceration of 24 months or less.
- (3) [A prisoner] A sentenced offender must be informed of the contents of the report submitted by the Case Management Committee to the Correctional Supervision and Parole Board or the [Area Manager] National Commission and be afforded the opportunity to submit written representations to the Correctional Supervision and Parole Board or [Area Manager] National Commissioner, as the case may be.”.

Amendment of section 43 of Act 111 of 1998

41. Section 43 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsections (1), (2) and (3), respectively, of the following subsection: 30

“(1) A sentenced [prisoner] offender must be housed at the [prison] correctional centre closest to the place where he or she is to reside after release, with due regard to the availability of accommodation and facilities to meet his or her security requirements and with reference to the availability of programmes.

(2) The transfer of [a prisoner] a sentenced offender is subject to the same consideration. 35

(3) [A prisoner] A sentenced offender must be examined by the registered nurse or correctional medical [officer] practitioner before his or her transfer. Where such [a prisoner] a sentenced offender is being treated by a medical practitioner, he or she must not be transferred until the [prisoner] sentenced offender has been discharged from the treatment or the transfer has been approved by the correctional medical [officer] practitioner after consultation with the Head of [Prison] Correctional Centre.”. 40

55. Section 73 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4), respectively, of the following subsections:

“(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act— 35

(a) [a sentenced prisoner] a sentenced offender remains in [prison] a correctional centre for the full period of sentence; and

(b) [a prisoner] a sentenced offender sentenced to life [imprisonment] incarceration remains in [prison] a correctional centre for the rest of his or her life. 40

(2) Any sick [prisoner] sentenced offender whose sentence has expired but whose release is certified by the correctional medical [officer] practitioner to be likely to result in his or her death or impairment of his or her health or to be a source of infection to others, may be temporarily detained until his or her release is authorised by the correctional medical [officer] practitioner. 45

(3) A sentenced [prisoner] must be released from [prison] a correctional centre and from any form of community corrections imposed in lieu of part of a sentence of [imprisonment] incarceration when the term of [imprisonment] incarceration imposed has expired. 50

(4) In accordance with the provisions of this Chapter [a prisoner] a sentenced offender may be placed under correctional supervision or on day parole or on parole before the expiration of his or her term of [imprisonment] incarceration.”;

- (b) by the substitution in subsection (5) for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph:

“(a) A sentenced offender may be placed under correctional supervision or on day parole or on parole—

- (i) on a date determined by the Correctional Supervision and Parole Board; or
- (ii) in the case of a sentenced offender sentenced to life incarceration, on a date to be determined by the Minister, after receipt of a recommendation in this regard from the National Council and after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A.”; and

- (c) by the substitution for subsections (6) and (7) of the following subsections respectively:

“(6) (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b), [a prisoner] a sentenced offender serving a determinate sentence may not be placed on parole until such [prisoner] sentenced offender has served either the stipulated non-parole period, or if no non-parole period was stipulated, [half of the sentence, but parole must be considered whenever a prisoner has served 25 years of a sentence or cumulative sentences] the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister.

(b) A person who has been sentenced to—

- (i) periodical [imprisonment] incarceration, must be detained periodically in a [prison] correctional centre as prescribed by regulation;
- (ii) [imprisonment] incarceration for corrective training, may [be detained in a prison for a period of two years and may] not be placed on parole until he or she has served the period [at least 12 months] determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A;
- (iii) [imprisonment] incarceration for the prevention of crime, may [be detained in a prison for a period of five years and may] not be placed on parole until he or she has served [at least two years and six months] the period determined by the Minister, in consultation with the National Council and after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister;
- (iv) life [imprisonment] incarceration, may not be placed on parole until he or she has served [at least 25 years of the sentence but a prisoner on reaching the age of 65 years may be placed on parole if he or she has served at least 15 years of such sentence] the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister;
- (v) [imprisonment] incarceration contemplated in section 51 or 52 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1997 (Act No. 105 of 1997), may not be placed on parole unless he or she has served [at least four fifths of the term of imprisonment imposed or 25 years, whichever is the shorter, but the court, when imposing imprisonment, may order that the prisoner be considered for placement on parole after he or she has served two thirds of such term] the period determined by the Minister, in consultation with the National Council and after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister.

(c) A person who has been declared an habitual criminal may [be detained in a prison for a period of 15 years and may] not be placed on parole until [after a period of at least seven years] he or she has served the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister.

(7) (a) A person sentenced to [imprisonment] incarceration under section 276(1)(i) of the Criminal Procedure Act, must serve [at least one sixth of his or her sentence] the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister, before being considered for placement under correctional supervision, unless the court has directed otherwise, but if more than one sentence has been imposed under section 276(1)(i) of the said Act, the person may not be placed under correctional supervision for a period exceeding five years. 5 10

(b) If a person has been sentenced to [imprisonment] incarceration under section 276(1)(i) of the Criminal Procedure Act, and to [imprisonment] incarceration for a period not exceeding five years as an alternative to a fine the person must serve [at least one sixth of the effective sentences] the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister, before being considered for placement under correctional supervision, unless the court has directed otherwise. 15

(c) If a person has been sentenced to [imprisonment] incarceration for— 20

- (i) a definite period under section 276(1)(b) of the Criminal Procedure Act;
- (ii) [imprisonment] incarceration under section 276(1)(i) of the said Act;
- (iii) a period not exceeding five years as an alternative to a fine, the person shall serve [at least a quarter of the effective sentences imposed] the period determined by the National Council after taking into consideration the incarceration framework contemplated in section 73A and after having been ratified by the Minister, or the non-parole period, if any, whichever is the longer, before being considered for placement under correctional supervision, [unless the court has directed otherwise]: Provided that the sentence contemplated in subparagraph (i) has been converted into correctional supervision in accordance with section 276A(3) of the said Act.”. 25 30 35

Insertion of section 73A in Act 111 of 1998

56. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act, after section 73:

“Incarceration framework

73A. (1) The National Council must, in the manner prescribed by the regulations made in terms of section 134(1)(kkI), and in consultation with the National Commissioner determine minimum periods for which offenders must be incarcerated before being considered for placement under community corrections, in this Act referred to as ‘the incarceration framework’ and after having been ratified by the Minister. 40 45

(2) The incarceration framework—

- (a) must prescribe sufficient periods in custody to indicate the seriousness of the offences;
- (b) must apply to all sentenced offenders generally;
- (c) must provide for consistent application of its provisions;
- (d) may provide for different periods in relation to the same offence, depending on the measure of good behaviour or co-operation of a sentenced offender during incarceration; and
- (e) may provide for any ancillary or incidental administrative matter necessary for the proper implementation or administration of the incarceration framework. 50 55

(3) The incarceration framework may not be applied in a manner that would be in conflict with any other law or any direction given or decision made by a court of law.”.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE CORRECTIONAL SERVICES AMENDMENT BILL, 2007

1. OBJECTS OF BILL

The Bill seeks to amend the Correctional Services Act, 1988 (Act No. 111 of 1998), in order to align it with the White Paper on Correctional Services by addressing the following principles contained in the White Paper:

- Correction: Aiming at addressing the offending behaviour of sentenced persons;
- Security: Aiming at addressing the safety of inmates, officials and members of the public;
- Facilities: Ensuring that the Department has a long-term facilities strategy to ensure conditions consistent with human dignity for offenders;
- Care: Intending to address the well-being needs of inmates including access to social and psychological services;
- Development: Providing for skills development in line with departmental and national human resource needs;
- After Care: Intending to ensure successful re-integration through appropriate interventions directed at both the inmate and relevant societal institutions.

2. PERSONS/BODIES CONSULTED

- National Council for Correctional Services
- Justice, Crime Prevention and Security Cluster

3. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The implementation of the Bill will be covered by the implementation plan of the White Paper within the normal Medium Term Expenditure Framework.

4. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

4.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Correctional Services are of the view that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.

4.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
