terms of section 7(1)(a)(ii), extend the inquiry so as to include any other offence which he or she suspects to be connected to the subject of the inquiry.

(2) (a) A Director may, at any time prior to or during the holding of an inquiry, designate any prosecutor to conduct the inquiry, or any part thereof, on his or her behalf and to report to him or her.

(b) A prosecutor so designated has the powers of the Director in terms of this section and section 14. The instructions issued by the Treasury, under the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), in respect of commissions of inquiry, apply, with the necessary changes, to such a prosecutor.

(3) The procedure to be followed in conducting an inquiry must be determined by the Director, having regard to the circumstances of each case.

(4) The hearing of evidence during an inquiry may take place in camera if it is in the interests of the administration of justice.

(5) The proceedings at the hearing of evidence during an inquiry must be recorded in such manner as the Director determines.

(6) For the purposes of an inquiry—

(a) the Director may summon any person who is believed to be able to furnish any information on the subject of the inquiry or to have in his or her possession or under his or her control any book, document or other object relating to that subject, to appear before the Director, at a time and place specified in the summons, to be questioned or to produce that book, document or other object; and

(b) the Director or a person designated by him or her may question the person referred to in paragraph (a) under oath or affirmation administered by the Director or designated person and examine or retain such book, document or other object for further examination or for safe custody.

(7) A summons referred to in subsection (6) must—

(a) be in the prescribed form;

(b) contain particulars of the matter in connection with which the person concerned is required to appear before the Director;

(c) be signed by the Director or a person authorised by him or her; and

(d) be served in the prescribed manner.

(8) (a) The law regarding privilege applicable to a witness summoned to give evidence in a criminal case in a magistrate's court, applies to the questioning of a person in terms of subsection (6): Provided that such a person is not entitled to refuse to answer any question on the ground that the answer could expose him or her to a criminal charge.

(b) No evidence obtained from the answers to questions posed to a person under subsection (6) is admissible in any criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings where the person concerned stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (10)(b) or (c), or in section 319(3) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955).

(9) A person appearing before a Director by virtue of subsection (6)—

(a) may be assisted at his or her examination by an advocate or an attorney;

(b) is entitled to such witness fees as he or she would have been entitled to if he or she were a witness for the State in criminal proceedings in a magistrate's court.

(10) Any person who has been summoned to appear before a Director is guilty of an offence if he or she—

(a) without sufficient cause, fails to appear at the time and place specified in the summons or to remain in attendance until he or she is excused by the Director from further attendance; or

(b) at his or her appearance before the Director—

(i) fails to produce a book, document or other object in his or her possession or under his or her control which he or she has been summoned to produce; or

(ii) refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation after he or she has been asked by the Director to do so; or

(c) having been sworn or having made an affirmation—

(i) fails to answer fully and to the best of his or her ability any question lawfully put to him or her; or

- (ii) gives false evidence knowing that evidence to be false or not knowing or not believing it to be true.

(11) If a Director considers it necessary to hear evidence in order to enable him or her to determine if there are reasonable grounds to conduct an inquiry in terms of subsection (1)(a), the Director may hold a preparatory inquiry. 5

(12) Subsections (2) to (10), inclusive, and section 17 apply, with the changes required by the context, to a preparatory examination referred to in subsection (11).

Entering upon premises

14. (1) A Director or any person authorised thereto by him or her in writing may, on the authority of a warrant contemplated in subsection (4), for the purposes of an inquiry, at any reasonable time and without prior notice, enter any premises on which anything connected with that inquiry is or is suspected to be, and may— 10

- (a) inspect and search those premises and there make such enquiries as he or she may deem necessary;
- (b) examine any object found on the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the inquiry in question, and request information regarding that object from the owner or person in charge of the premises or from any person in whose possession or charge that object is; 15
- (c) make copies of or take extracts from any book or document found on the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the inquiry in question, and request from any person suspected of having the necessary information, an explanation of any entry therein; 20
- (d) seize, against the issue of a receipt, anything on the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the inquiry in question, or if he or she wishes to retain it for further examination or for safe custody. 25

(2) Any entry upon or search of any premises in terms of this section must be conducted with strict regard to decency and order, including—

- (a) a person's right to and respect for his or her dignity and the protection of such dignity;
- (b) the right of a person to freedom and security; and 30
- (c) the right of a person to his or her personal privacy.

(3) No evidence obtained from any answers to questions posed in terms of subsection (1) is admissible in any subsequent criminal proceedings against a person from whom information in terms of that subsection is acquired, if the answers incriminate him or her, except in criminal proceedings where the person concerned stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (12). 35

(4) Subject to subsection (10), the premises referred to in subsection (1) may only be entered and the acts referred to in subsection (1) may only be performed on the authority of a warrant issued in chambers by a magistrate, regional magistrate or judge of the area of jurisdiction within which the premises are situated: Provided that such a warrant may be issued by a judge in respect of premises situated in another area of jurisdiction. 40

(5) A warrant contemplated in subsection (4) may only be issued if it appears to the magistrate, regional magistrate or judge from information on oath or affirmation stating—

- (a) the nature of the inquiry in question; 45
- (b) the suspicion which gave rise to the inquiry; and
- (c) the need, in regard to the inquiry, for a search and seizure in terms of this section, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that anything referred to in subsection (1) is on such premises or suspected to be on or in such premises. 50

(6) A warrant issued in terms of this section may be issued on any day and remain in force until—

- (a) it has been executed;
- (b) it is cancelled by the person who issued it or, if such person is not available, by any person with similar authority; or 55

(c) three months have expired from the day of its issue, whichever occurs first.

(7) (a) Any person who acts on the authority of a warrant issued in terms of this section, may use such force as may be reasonably necessary to overcome any resistance against the entry and search of the premises, including the breaking of any door or window of such premises: Provided that such person must first audibly demand admission to the premises and state the purpose for which he or she seeks to enter such premises. 5

(b) The proviso to paragraph (a) does not apply where the person concerned is on reasonable grounds of the opinion that any object, book or document which is the subject of the search might be destroyed, tampered with or disposed of, if the provisions of the said proviso are complied with. 10

(8) A warrant issued in terms of this section must be executed by day, unless the person who issues it authorises the execution thereof by night at times which are reasonable in the circumstances. 15

(9) Any person executing a warrant in terms of this section must immediately before commencing with the execution—

(a) identify himself or herself to the person in control of the premises, if such person is present, and hand to such person a copy of the warrant or, if such person is not present, affix such copy to a prominent place on the premises; 20

(b) supply such person, at his or her request, with particulars regarding his or her authority to execute such a warrant.

(10) (a) A Director or any person referred to in section 3(2)(c) or (e) may, without a warrant, enter upon any premises and perform the acts referred to in subsection (1) if—

(i) the person who is competent to do so consents to such entry, search, seizure and removal; or 25

(ii) the Director or person referred to in section 3(2)(c) or (e) upon reasonable grounds believes that—

(aa) the required warrant would be issued to him or her in terms of subsection (4) if he or she were to apply for such warrant; and 30

(bb) the delay caused by obtaining such warrant would defeat the object of the entry, search, seizure and removal.

(b) Any entry and search in terms of paragraph (a) must be executed by day, unless the execution thereof by night is justifiable and necessary. The person exercising the powers referred to in the said paragraph must identify himself or herself at the request of the owner or the person in control of the premises. 35

(11) If during the execution of a warrant or the conducting of a search, in terms of this section, a person claims that any item found on the premises in question contains privileged information and for that reason refuses the inspection or removal of such item, the person executing the warrant or conducting the search must, if the item contains information which is necessary for the inquiry, request the registrar of the High Court which has jurisdiction or his or her delegate to seize and remove that item for safe custody until a court of law has made a ruling on the question whether or not the information is privileged. 40

(12) Any person is guilty of an offence if he or she — 45

(a) obstructs or hinders a Director or any other person in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this section; or

(b) when asked in terms of subsection (1) for information or an explanation relating to a matter within his or her knowledge, refuses or fails to give that information or explanation or gives information or an explanation which is false or misleading, knowing it to be false or misleading. 50

Preservation of secrecy

15. (1) Notwithstanding any other law, but subject to subsections (2) and (3), no person may, without the permission of the Director concerned, disclose to any other person— 55

- (b) the contents of any book or document or any other item in the possession of the Director; or
- (c) the record of any evidence given at an inquiry.
- (2) Information contemplated in subsection (1) may be disclosed—
 - (a) by a person in performing his or her functions in terms of this Act; or 5
 - (b) when required to do so by order of a court of law.
- (3) A person from whom a book or document has been taken under section 13(6)(b) or 14(1)(d) must, while it is in the possession of the Director, at his or her request be allowed, at his or her own expense and under the supervision of the Director, to make copies thereof or to take extracts therefrom at any reasonable time. 10
- (4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Compensation regarding expenses

16. The Chief Executive Officer may, on the recommendation of the Director concerned and with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, order that the expenses or any part of the expenses incurred by any person in the course of or in connection with an inquiry, be paid from the funds of the Directorate. 15

- (a) information with respect to that person has been gathered in the prescribed manner in a security screening investigation by the Directorate or the Agency; and
- (b) the Chief Investigating Officer, after evaluating the collected information, is satisfied that such person may be appointed as a permanent member without the possibility that such person might be a security risk or that he or she might act in any way prejudicial to the security interests of the Republic.

40

(2) If the Chief Investigating Officer is so satisfied, he or she must issue a document in respect of such person in which it is certified that such person has successfully undergone a security clearance: Provided that the Chief Investigating Officer may withdraw such certificate if he or she should obtain information which, after evaluation by him or her, causes him or her to believe that the member could be a security risk or could possibly act in any manner prejudicial to the security interests of the Republic.

(3) If—

- (a) the certificate referred to in subsection (2) is withdrawn; or 5
- (b) the Chief Investigating Officer obtains information regarding a permanent member which causes him or her to suspect that such member could be a security risk or could possibly act in any manner prejudicial to the security interests of the Republic,

In that event the period of his or her absence from his or her official duties is deemed to have been absence on vacation leave without pay, or leave on such other conditions as the Chief Investigating Officer may determine. 25 30

(4) If the Chief Investigating Officer refuses to reinstate a member in accordance with subsection (3), the member concerned may appeal to the Minister, stating the reasons why he or she should be so reinstated, and the Minister, after consideration of the appeal, may turn down the appeal or direct the Chief Investigating Officer to take such steps as the Minister deems appropriate for the re-instatement of the member. 35

Discharge of permanent members on account of ill-health

25. MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE DIRECTORATE OF SPECIAL OPERATIONS BILL

1. BACKGROUND

1.1 In his opening address in Parliament on 25 June 1999, the President announced “that a special and adequately staffed and equipped investigation unit will be established urgently to deal with all national priority crimes, including police corruption”. At the same time the President directed the Ministers of Safety and Security, Defence, Intelligence, Justice, Home Affairs and Finance to finalise all outstanding matters which relate to the activation of this specialised investigation unit.

1.2 A ministerial task team, supported by officials from the departments concerned, immediately after the announcement commenced an investigation into the establishment of a special investigation unit. On 9 July 1999 the Minister for Justice and Constitutional Development and the Minister of Safety and Security announced the creation of the Directorate of Special Operations. In September 1999 the Directorate was officially launched in Guguletu. At the launching of the Directorate, it was announced that the Directorate would, within four years, have the strength of about 2000 employees. At present the Directorate is operating with staff borrowed from other departments and Services. It is not possible for the Directorate to grow any further under such service arrangements. The legislation proposed by the Bill is of the utmost importance in order to enable the Directorate to—

- (a) establish an adequate infrastructure, including the necessary capacities for intelligence gathering and law-enforcement functions;
- (b) employ persons with suitable skills and qualifications;
- (c) obtain the support of all relevant governmental institutions; and
- (d) coordinate its activities with those of the South African Police Service and the Intelligence Services.

2. CONTENTS OF THE BILL

2.1 The Bill makes provision for a Directorate comprising two main components, namely—

- (a) members of the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA); and
- (b) permanent, seconded and contract members of the Directorate.

2.2 The National Director of Public Prosecutions (National Director) will (in addition to certain other functions) exercise control over both components of the Directorate.

2.3 The NPA component of the Directorate will consist of the following members of the Office of the National Director:

- * A Deputy National Director appointed by the President and assigned to the Directorate by the National Director.
- * Directors of Public Prosecutions appointed in terms of the National Prosecuting Authority Act and assigned to the Directorate by the National Director.
- * Deputy Directors and Prosecutors assigned to the Directorate by the National Director.

The Deputy National Director must exercise control over the Directors, Deputy Directors and Prosecutors assigned to the Directorate.

2.4 The non-prosecutorial component of the Directorate will consist of a Chief Investigating Officer appointed by the President and permanent, seconded and contract members of the Directorate. The Chief Investigating Officer must exercise control over the members of the Directorate.

2.5 The Bill seeks to allow the President to establish a Crime Intelligence Division for the Directorate and the Minister for Justice and Constitutional Development (the Minister) to establish Divisions and Subdivisions for the Directorate.

2.6 It is also proposed that the President may dissolve any Investigating Directorate established in terms of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, and transfer the functions of such an Investigating Directorate to the Directorate.

POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY

2.7 The Bill seeks to give the Minister final responsibility over the Directorate.

2.8 Since the successful functioning and achievement of the aims of the Directorate will have a bearing on the area of responsibility of more than one member of the Cabinet, provision is made for the establishment of a Ministerial Coordinating Committee in order to ensure that the members concerned shall—

- * cooperate with one another towards the achievement of such aims; and
- * jointly determine policy matters regarding the functioning and administration of the Directorate.

The functions of this Committee will be to—

- * jointly determine policy guidelines in respect of the combating and investigation of offences by the Directorate;
- * coordinate the functions of the Directorate and those of other relevant government institutions; and
- * perform other functions assigned to it in terms of the Bill.

AIMS AND FUNCTIONING OF THE DIRECTORATE

2.9 The Directorate's principal aims are to investigate, and to gather intelligence in respect of, offences which are identified in terms of the Bill as being of a very serious nature, and, under the guidance of the National Director and with the support of the National Prosecuting Authority, to ensure that such offences are investigated and prosecuted as competently as possible.

2.10 Matters to be investigated: The Bill proposes that the National Director, as head of the National Prosecuting Authority, must, in consultation with the National Commissioner, determine procedures for the referral to the Directorate of investigations into—

- (a) any offence falling within a category of offences determined by the Minister—
 - (aa) after consultation with the Minister of Safety and Security; and
 - (bb) in accordance with guidelines formulated by the Committee; or
- (b) any other specific case which the National Director and the National Commissioner wish to be dealt with by the Directorate.

2.11 It is proposed that directors assigned to the Directorate will have the same powers that Investigating Directors have under the National Prosecuting Authority Act.

2.12 The Bill seeks to allow the Chief Investigating Officer to designate suitably qualified members to act as investigators of the Directorate, and such investigators will have the powers bestowed upon—

- (a) a peace officer referred to in the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, relating to—
 - (i) the investigation of offences;
 - (ii) the entry and search of premises;
 - (iii) the seizure and disposal of articles;
 - (iv) arrests;
 - (v) the execution of warrants;
 - (vi) the attendance of an accused person in court; and
 - (vii) such other matters as the Minister may determine from time to time by notice in the Gazette;
- (b) a police official appointed as a member of the SAPS.

2.13 Intelligence: The Bill proposes that the Directorate may either rely on the support of the National Intelligence Agency, the South African Secret Service and the SAPS intelligence division in this regard, or the President may establish a Crime Intelligence Division for the Directorate.

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

2.14.1 Chapter 6 of the Bill deals with the remuneration and conditions of service of members of the Directorate. The remuneration and conditions of service of the Chief Investigating Officer are to be determined by the Minister. The Chief Investigating Officer may not receive less than a Director-General. The remuneration and conditions of service of other members are determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance. Members and seconded members may receive additional benefits for extraordinary diligence or devotion in the performance of their duties.

2.14.2 The provisions pertaining to permanent members are necessarily comprehensive and are largely based on the dispensation of members of the National Intelligence Agency.

2.14.3 With regard to the finances of the Directorate, the Bill proposes that the Minister must appoint a fit and proper person as the Chief Executive Officer of the Directorate, who will be the accounting officer thereof. Requests for funds needed for the administration and functioning of the Directorate must be addressed to Parliament by the Minister in the manner prescribed for the budgetary process of departments of state.

2.14.4 Provision is being made for comprehensive regulations to be made by the Minister, regarding such matters as conditions of service of members, the establishment of the Directorate, training, misconduct proceedings, labour relations, etc.

6. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
