Short title and commencement

6. This Act is called the Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Amendment 5 Act, 1998, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on 30 April 1998.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE PROMOTION OF NATIONAL UNITY AND RECONCILIATION AMENDMENT BILL

1. During 1997 the Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Act, 1995 (Act No. 34 of 1995), was amended, amongst others, so as to extend the period within which the Committee on Amnesty shall finish its work, to 30 June 1998 (see the Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Second Amendment Act, 1997 (Act No. 34 of 1997)). This amendment also entailed that the Truth and Reconciliation Commission would have to submit its final report on or before 31 July 1998.

2. However, it has become clear that the Committee on Amnesty will not be able to finalise its functions by 30 June 1998. According to information supplied by the Committee, more than one thousand amnesty applications still need to be dealt with by way of formal hearings, in addition to many more which could be dealt with in chambers. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission, consequently, requested that the said Act be amended so as to allow the Committee on Amnesty to complete its work, and to allow for the suspension of the activities of the Commission.

3. The Bill, consequently, purports to amend the Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Act, 1995, so as to make provision for the following:

- (a) The Commission must complete its work on 31 July 1998 and submit a report to the President within three months thereafter. Thereupon the activities of the Commission will be suspended until the Committee on Amnesty has completed its work, whereupon the Commission must be reconvened by the President for the purpose of completing and submitting its final report.
- (b) Notwithstanding the suspension of the activities of the Commission, the Committee on Amnesty will continue with its functions until a date to be determined by the President, and, for the duration of such period, the Committee will also exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions of the Committees on Human Rights Violations and on Reparation and Rehabilitation.
- (c) Upon the dissolution of the Commission, all assets will revert to the Department of Justice to be dealt with according to law, and the Minister of Justice will be the legal successor of the Commission.
- (d) The President's Fund will continue to exist until a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

4. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission was consulted regarding the contents of the Bill.

5. In the opinion of the Department and the State Law Advisers, the Bill should be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.
