MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE AFRICAN RENAISSANCE AND INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION FUND BILL, 2000

BACKGROUND AND OBJECTS OF BILL

1. The African Renaissance and International Co-operation Fund Bill, 2000, provides for the establishment of the African Renaissance and International Co-operation Fund for the purpose of the enhancing of international co-operation with and on the African Continent and to reaffirm the Republic's commitment to Africa. The Bill repeals the Economic Co-operation Promotion Loan Fund Act, 1968 (Act No. 68 of 1968).

2. The objective of the African Renaissance and International Co-operation Fund is to create a framework and basis for providing funds for projects approved by the Minister of Foreign Affairs. This will be effected through the replacement of the Economic Co-operation Promotion Loan Fund with the African Renaissance and International Co-operation Fund ("new Fund"), coupled with the transfer of the unexpended balance in the Economic Co-operation Promotion Loan Fund ("previous Fund") into the new Fund.

3. A major departure from the previous Fund will be the provision for funds to be utilised to provide financial assistance to organisations and parties other than the governments of countries. This provision will enable the new Fund to be utilised for the promotion of democracy and good governance, the prevention and resolution of conflict, socio-economic development and integration, humanitarian assistance and human resource development in Africa, as well as any other area of the world that is deemed a priority by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, by the granting of loans or rendering of other financial assistance within the African Renaissance framework. Within this framework, it is envisaged that the new Fund will be utilised for the following:

- (a) promotion of democracy and good governance and the prevention and resolution of conflict;
- (b) socio-economic development and integration;
- (c) humanitarian and disaster relief in Africa and elsewhere in the world;
- (d) technical assistance projects;
- (e) capacity building, specifically in terms of human resource development, management training and student bursaries; and
- (f) projects relating to reaffirmation of South Africa's commitment to relations with Africa.

4.1 The new Fund will also create a mechanism through which donor (third party) funds would be channelled to recipients and joint tripartite projects.

4.2 Apart from the transfer of the unexpended money currently in the Economic Co-operation Promotion Loan Fund to the new Fund, money will also be appropriated by Parliament for the new Fund. The new Fund will also benefit from money received from repayment of any loan made from the new Fund; interest received on any loan made from the new Fund, including interest derived from any investment of money standing to the credit of the new Fund; and money accruing to the new Fund from any other source, such as donor funds.

4.3 The new Fund will be under the control of the Director-General: Foreign Affairs, who, as the accounting officer, will keep records and accounts of all payments into and out of the Fund. An Advisory Committee will be established to make recommendations to the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Finance on the disbursement of funds as spelt out in the Bill.

4.4 Loans or other financial assistance, excluding assistance for the promotion of democracy and good governance and the prevention or resolution of conflict, must be granted or rendered in accordance with an agreement entered into between the parties and a project proposal, upon the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, for approval by the Minister of Foreign Affairs in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

The principal financial implication of the Bill will be occasioned by the disestablishment of the Economic Co-operation Promotion Loan Fund once that Fund's debit balance has been cleared by either changing outstanding loans into grants or writing-off of outstanding debt. The amounts owed by other countries in terms of loans under the previous Fund are: Central African Republic (R4,956 million), Comoros (R30,519 million), Gabon (R6,382 million), Lesotho (R4,449 million), Malawi

(R14,709 million), Mozambique (R8,369 million), Paraguay (R0,852 million) and Swaziland (R10,119 million). The total amount owed is R80,355 million. The Minister may, upon recommendation of the Advisory Committee, write off any outstanding debts owed to the Previous Fund in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

6. CONSULTATIONS

The Department of Finance has been consulted regarding the Bill.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Foreign Affairs are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established in section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), since it contains no provisions to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
