Substitution of long title to Act 73 of 1976

13. The following long title is hereby substituted for the long title to the principal Act: 40

“To consolidate and amend certain laws relating to the South African Broadcasting Corporation; to provide for the succession to the South African Broadcasting Corporation by a State-owned public company; to authorize that public company to issue certain licences; and to repeal certain laws; and to provide for matters connected therewith.”. 45

Short title

14. This is the Broadcasting Amendment Act, 1998.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE BROADCASTING AMENDMENT BILL, 1998

1. The principal object of the Bill is to transform the South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC) into a public company with the State as sole shareholder. This will contribute to transparency and accountability as the SABC will report to its shareholder in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973).

2. Section 30 of the Broadcasting Act, 1976 (Act No. 73 of 1976), provides that the President may make any provision of the Companies Act, 1973, applicable to the corporation as long as it is not inconsistent with the Broadcasting Act, and provided that the corporation shall not be dissolved except by an Act of Parliament. The Minister for Posts, Telecommunications and Broadcasting is proceeding with the Broadcasting Amendment Bill instead of a section 30 presidential proclamation for the following reasons: Firstly, there will be inconsistencies between the Broadcasting Act and the newly applied provisions of the Companies Act. Secondly, section 32 of the Companies Act provides that a company must have seven or more members. In order to take on a strategic equity partner in the future the corporation should be allowed to have less than seven members. A deviation from the provisions of section 32 of the Companies Act is not possible in terms of a proclamation contemplated in section 30 of the Broadcasting Act. Thirdly, in order to provide for the succession to the South African Broadcasting Corporation by a state-owned public company, the SABC should be dissolved. This may only be done in terms of an Act of Parliament. Since a Broadcasting Amendment Bill would in any event be required to remove inconsistencies between the Broadcasting Act and the Companies Act, to provide that the SABC Limited may have less than seven members and to dissolve the SABC, it is more appropriate to provide for the whole process in the Broadcasting Amendment Bill instead of following the route provided for in section 30 of the Broadcasting Act.

3. The provisions of the Bill therefore seek to amend the Broadcasting Act, 1976, so as to convert the SABC into a public company with the State as sole shareholder at this stage and they contain the necessary incidental provisions to achieve this object.

4. Persons and bodies consulted

The following bodies were consulted in the preparation of the Bill:

Independent Broadcasting Authority

South African Broadcasting Corporation.

5. Parliamentary procedure

The Department of Communications and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provisions to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
