CHAPTER I

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES AND INTERPRETATION

This Chapter sets out the fundamental principles and objects of this Act. Freedom of expression and the journalistic, creative and programming independence of the broadcasters and independence of regulation are identified as guaranteed by the Constitution. These principles recognise that the South African broadcasting system comprises public, commercial and community elements which make use of the radio frequencies that are public property and provides, through its programming, a public service necessary for the maintenance of South African identity, universal access, equality, unity and diversity.

This Chapter also contains definitions explaining the meaning of certain words for the purpose of the Act and provisions regarding the interpretation of the Act.

Definitions and interpretation

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates, Authority, broadcasting, broadcasting licence, broadcasting licensee, broadcasting service, community broadcasting service, private broadcasting service, public broadcasting service, radio, sound broadcasting service, sound radio set, telecommunications, television, broadcasting service and television set have the meaning assigned thereto in the IBA Act, and—
- (i) “Advisory Body” means the South African Broadcasting Advisory Body established in terms of section 35 of this Act; (ii)
 - (ii) “Board” means the Board of Directors of the South African Broadcasting Corporation limited established in terms of section 12 of this Act; (xvii)
 - (iii) “broadcasting service” means a service that delivers television programmed or radio programmed to a person having equipment appropriate for receiving that service, whether the delivery uses radio frequency spectrum, cable, optical fibre, satellite or a combination of those means but does not include—
 - (a) a service (including a text service) that provides no more than data, or no more than text (with or without associated still images);
 - (b) a service that makes programmed available on demand on a point-to-point basis, including a dial-up service; and
 - (c) a service or a class of service that the Minister determines, by notice in the Gazette, not to fall within this definition; (xx)
 - (iv) “commercial broadcasting service” means a broadcasting service operating for profit and includes any service provided by the Corporation that is not a public broadcasting service; (vi)
 - (v) “Companies Act” means the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973); (ix)
 - (vi) “Corporation” means the South African Broadcasting Corporation Limited established in terms of section 7; (vii)
 - (vii) “Department” means the Department of Communications; (iii)
 - (viii) “encryption” means a method for changing a broadcasting signal in a systematic way so that the picture would be unintelligible without a suitable decoder; (iv)
 - (ix) “free-to-air” service means a service which is broadcast without encryption and capable of being received on universal receivers without payment by the end user to the broadcaster and without the use of decoders; (xxiii)
 - (x) “IBA Act” means the Independent Broadcasting Authority Act, 1993 (Act No. 153 of 1993); (xiii)
 - (xi) “incorporation date” means the date on which the Corporation is incorporated into a public company and issued with a certificate to commence business; (v)
 - (xii) “local content” means broadcast programming produced in South Africa by South Africans and includes South African music as defined in the IBA Act; (xiv)

- (xiii) "local delivery service" means a broadcast service using multi-channel terrestrial distribution systems such as cable, micro-wave multi point distribution systems and local multi-point distribution systems; (xv)
- (xiv) "member" means executive and non-executive members of the Board referred to in section 12 of this Act; (viii) 5
- (xv) "multi-channel distribution service" means a service which transmits more than one broadcasting service at the same time by means of radio waves or telecommunications; (xxi)
- (xvi) "old Corporation" means the South African Broadcasting Corporation established in terms of the Broadcasting Act, 1976 (Act No. 73 of 1976); (xii) 10
- (xvii) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulation; (xxii)_
- (xviii) "President" means the President of the Republic of South Africa; (xvi)
- (xix) "public commercial broadcasting service" means any broadcasting service provided by the commercial operating entity of the Corporation as set out in section 11 of this Act; (xi) 15
- (xx) "satellite broadcasting service" means a service which is broadcast by transmitters situated on a satellite; (xviii)
- (xxi) "subscription broadcasting service" means a service provided to an end user upon the payment of a fee; (xix)
- (xxii) "terrestrial broadcasting service" means a service that is broadcast from a 20 transmitter situated upon the earth's surface; (i)
- (xxiii) "transfer date" means a date announced by the Minister by proclamation in the Gazette. (x)

(2) Any interpretation of the provisions of this Act must be construed and applied in a manner which is consistent with freedom of expression and the journalistic, creative 25 and programming independence of the broadcasters guaranteed by the Constitution.

(3) The provisions of the Companies Act are applicable to the Corporation except where otherwise stated in this Act.

Object of Act

2. The object of this Act is to establish and develop a broadcasting policy in order to 30 regulate and control broadcasting in the Republic and for that purpose to—

- (a) contribute to democracy, development of society, nation building, provision of education and strengthening the spiritual and moral fibre of society ;
- (b) safeguard, enrich and strengthen the cultural, political, social and economic fabric of South Africa; 35
- (c) encourage ownership and control of broadcasting services by persons from historically disadvantaged groups;
- (d) ensure plurality of news, views and information and provide a wide range of entertainment and education programmed;
- (e) cater for a broad range of services and specifically for the programming needs 40 in respect of children, women, the youth and the disabled;
- (f) cater for human resource development;
- (g) encourage investment in the broadcasting sector;
- (h) ensure fair competition in the broadcasting sector;
- (i) ensure efficient use of the broadcasting frequency spectrum; 45
- (j) provide a clear allocation of roles and assignment of tasks between policy formulation, regulation and service provision as well as articulation of long-term and intermediate-term goals;
- (k) provide for a three tier system of public, commercial and community broadcasting services; 50
- (l) establish a strong and committed public broadcasting service which will service the needs of all South African society;
- (m) ensure that the commercial and community licences, viewed collectively, are

- controlled by persons or groups of persons from a diverse range of communities in South Africa;
- (n) ensure that broadcasting services are effectively controlled by South Africans;
 - (o) integrate multi-channel distribution systems into the broadcasting policy framework;
 - (p) provide access to signal distribution services for content providers;
 - (q) provide access to signal distribution services for broadcast content receivers;
 - (r) encourage the development of local programming content.

CHAPTER 11

SOUTH AFRICAN BROADCASTING SYSTEM

10

This Chapter is of central significance to the Act, as it lays the basis that the South African broadcasting system is owned and controlled by South Africans. The National Government, acting through the Minister, is responsible for the achievement of this purpose and the constitutional mandate of broadcasting policy development. Being empowered to act on behalf of the nation, the Minister has the ultimate responsibility to fulfil certain obligations relating to use, protection and access to broadcasting resources.

South African broadcasting system

3. (1) The South African broadcasting system—
 - (a) serves to safeguard, enrich and strengthen the cultural, political, social and economic fabric of South Africa;
 - (b) operates in the public interest and strengthens the spiritual and moral fibre of society;
 - (c) ensures that the broadcasting system is controlled by persons or groups of persons from a diverse range of communities in South Africa and within each element promotes ownership, control and management of broadcasting services by persons from historically disadvantaged groups;
 - (d) encourages fair competition in the provision of programmed and services.
- (2) Subject to subsection(1), the Minister is ultimately responsible to develop policy that is required from time to time.
- (3) Public and commercial broadcasting services must comply with international technical standards and the broadcasting system must be readily adaptable to scientific and technological advances.
- (4) The broadcasting system, as a whole, must provide educational programming, and where such programming is provided by a dedicated education service, must be extended throughout the Republic within the financial resources.
- (5) The programming provided by the South African broadcasting system must—
 - (a) be varied and comprehensive, providing a balance of information, education and entertainment meeting the broadcasting needs of the entire South African population in terms of age, race, gender, interests and backgrounds;
 - (b) be varied and offer a range of South African content and analysis from a South African perspective;
 - (c) should be drawn from local, regional, national and international sources;
 - (d) provide a reasonable, balanced opportunity for the public to receive a variety of points of view on matters of public concern;
 - (e) provide a significant place for programmed produced by the independent production sector;
 - (f) comply with the code of conduct for broadcasting services as prescribed in Schedule 1 of the IBA Act;
- (6) A range of programming in the Republic's official languages must be extended to all South Africans as circumstances permit.
- (7) The human resources development strategy for the broadcasting sector must be viewed holistically in terms of qualification standards, skills development, teaching, inter-relationships with the complementary sectors and the funding of the training system.

- (a) has a signal or packages of signals receivable in South Africa;
- (b) acquires programme rights for South Africa; 15
- (c) solicits subscribers or advertising or activates and deactivates decoders of South African subscribers.

(3) This section must not be construed to mean that a broadcaster licensed or authorised to provide service to a foreign country by the appropriate authority and whose signal is incidentally received in South Africa, is required to hold a licence in 20 South Africa.

(4) The Authority may attach prescribed conditions to an authorisation or licence.

(5) No person may provide a broadcasting service unless such service is provided in accordance with a broadcasting licence issued to that person by the Authority.

Classes of licences

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Authority may, on such conditions as it may determine, issue a sound or television broadcasting service licence for a specified area in the following broadcasting service categories:

- (a) A public broadcasting service;
- (b) a commercial broadcasting service; and 30
- (c) a community broadcasting service.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the broadcasting licences are categorised in the following classes:

- (a) Free-to-air radio broadcasting service;
- (b) free-to-air television broadcasting service; 35
- (c) satellite-free-to-air radio service;
- (d) satellite-free-to-air television service;
- (e) satellite-subscription television service;
- (f) terrestrial-subscription television service;
- (g) direct-to-home delivery service, including multi-channel satellite distribution; 40
- (h) local delivery service, including multi-channel terrestrial distribution such as cable, microwave multi-point distribution systems and local multi-point distribution systems;
- (i) cable television subscription service.

CHAPTER IV

45

Part 5: Governance of Corporation

Composition of Board

12. (1) A Board appointed in terms of section 13 of this Act controls the affairs of the 20 Corporation.

(2) The Board consists of eleven members, eight of whom are non-executive members appointed by the President on the advice of the relevant Portfolio committee of Parliament, in accordance with the following principles, namely:

- (a) participation by the public in the nomination process; 25
- (b) transparency and openness; and
- (c) publication of a short list of candidates for appointment, duly taking into account the objects and principles enunciated in section 2 of this Act.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operations Officer and the Financial Director are executive members of the Board. 30

(4) Six members of the Board, which must include the chairperson or vice-chairperson, will constitute a quorum at any meeting.

Board of Directors

13. (1) The President must, on the advice of the relevant Portfolio Committee of Parliament, appoint a Board of Directors of the Corporation for such period as he or she may determine, which period must not exceed five years, based on the following principles: 35

- (a) The members of the Board must be persons who are suited to serve on the Board by virtue of their qualifications, expertise and experience in the fields of broadcasting policy and technology, media law, frequency planning, business 40 practice and finance, marketing, journalism, entertainment and education, social and labour issues.
- (b) The members of the Board must be persons who are committed to fairness, freedom of expression, the right of the public to be informed, and openness and accountability on the part of those holding public office. 45
- (c) The members of the Board must be representative of the broader population of the Republic.

(2) The President must designate one of the members of the Board referred to in subsection (1) as a chairperson and another such member as a vice-chairperson, both of whom must be non-executive directors. 50

(3) The vice-chairperson referred to in subsection (2) must, when the chairperson is absent or unable to perform his or her duties, act in his or her stead and, when so acting, exercise or perform any function of the chairperson.

- (4) Every appointment of a member of the Board must be published in the Gazette.
- (5) A member of the Board appointed to fill a casual vacancy must hold office for the unexpired portion of the period for which the vacating member was appointed.
- (6) Members of the Board appointed immediately before the transfer date will retain their appointments with all existing benefits.

Executive committee

14. (1) The affairs of the Corporation are administered by an executive committee consisting of the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operations Officer, the Financial Director and four additional executive members of the Corporation appointed by the Board.

(2) The executive committee is accountable to the Board.

(3) The executive committee will perform such functions as determined by the Board.

Termination of service

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 13(1) the President may remove a Director from office on account of misconduct or inability to perform the duties of his or her office efficiently.

(2) The services of a Director may be terminated in terms of subsection (1) only after an inquiry and upon recommendation by the Board to the President.

Part 6: Financial matters

Shareholding

16. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 32 of the Companies Act the Corporation may have less than seven members.

(2) The Minister must, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determine the total value and number of the shares in the Corporation.

(3) The Corporation is exempt from the payment of any stamp duty or fees which are payable in respect of any increase of the share capital or the number of shares in the Corporation as required by section 75(3) of the Companies Act.

(4) Any dividends received by the State must be paid into the National Revenue Fund.

Financial year and annual financial statements

30

17. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 285 of the Companies Act, the financial year of the Corporation commences on 1 April and ends on 31 March of the following year.

(2) In addition to the annual financial statements to be drawn up in terms of the Companies Act the Minister may direct the Corporation to draw up annual statements in a form determined by him or her.

35

(3) The annual statements must be tabled by the Minister in Parliament.

Rights and obligations

18. (1) The Corporation may not by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by this Act do anything for which a licence is required in terms of the IBA Act or the Telecommunications Act, 1996 (Act No. 103 of 1996), unless it has obtained the licence in question and complies with the conditions thereof.

40

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the IBA Act, or any other law, the Corporation is entitled, against payment of the annual fees which the Authority may from time to time determine, to be issued with any licence contemplated in subsection (1).

45

(3) The Corporation must provide the Authority with all necessary and relevant information for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the Charter.

Transfer of assets

19. (1) Before the transfer date the Corporation must apply in terms of sections 41 and 42 of the IBA Act for the broadcasting licences held by the old Corporation to be transferred to the Corporation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the IBA Act or any other law, all the other assets issued to the old Corporation must be transferred to the Corporation in terms of section 74 of the IBA Act. 5

(3) The Corporation is required to pay liabilities, rights and obligations of the old Corporation, including any claim to copyright, trademarks, patents and inventions vested in the Corporation. 10

(4) Subject to the provisions of any other law, no transfer duty, stamp duty or any other duty must be payable in respect of the transfer of any asset in terms of this section.

Borrowing powers

20. The Corporation must not borrow money without prior written approval of the Minister and the Minister of Finance. 15

Acquisition of land

21. (1) Despite anything to the contrary in any other law, the Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister and subject to such conditions as he or she may deem fit—

(a) acquire any land or right in or over land required for the erection of transmission or receiving plant and buildings, masts, power generators and other accessories and enclosures connected therewith; 20

(b) acquire any land or right in or over land required for an access road to such transmission or receiving plant, or for a way leave for the construction and use of any such road or the erection, maintenance or inspection of power or programme lines. 25

(2) (a) The Minister may not grant such approval unless he or she is satisfied, after considering a report by the Board, that the Corporation is unable to acquire the land or right upon reasonable terms by agreement with the owner, and that it is necessary that the land or right be acquired by the Corporation for the purpose for which it intends to use it. 30

(b) When the Minister has granted his or her approval for such acquisition, the provisions of the Constitution or any other law in the Republic must apply with the necessary changes, subject to the context, in relation to such acquisition.

Accounts

22. (1) The Corporation must keep proper account of all moneys received or expended by it and of all its assets, liabilities and financial transactions. 35

(2) The Corporation must as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare statements of accounts and a balance sheet showing in appropriate detail the revenues and expenditure of the Corporation during that financial year, and its assets and liabilities as at the end of that financial year. 40

Auditing

23. (1) In addition to the annual financial statements to be prepared in terms of the Companies Act, the Corporation must cause its books and accounts to be audited annually by a person registered as a public accountant and auditor under the Public Accountants' and Auditors' Act, 1991 (Act No. 80 of 1991), and appointed as auditor of the Corporation. 45

(2) The Board must produce and lay before the auditor all books and accounts of the Corporation with all vouchers in support thereof, and all books, papers and writings relating thereto which are in its possession or control.

(3) For the purposes of the audit the auditor may hear and receive evidence upon oath, and may by written notice under his hand require any person to appear before him 50 in person at a time and place stated in such notice, to give information or produce any books or document necessary for the audit.

(4) Any person appearing in terms of such a notice must be paid such witness fees and allowances as he or she would have been entitled to if such person appeared in a magistrate's court as a witness. 5

(5) The auditor must—

(a) disallow any payment made without proper authority according to law, and report the disallowance to the Board;

(b) charge against the person who made or authorised the payment in question, so much of the payment as is not condoned by the Board; 10

(c) charge against the person responsible therefor—

(i) as much of the amount of any deficiency or loss arising from negligence or misconduct of that person as is not condoned by the Board;

(ii) as much of any amount which ought to have been but was not brought into account by that person as is not condoned by the Board, provided 15 that no amount must be condoned where such deficiency or loss is the result of theft or fraud by that person, and certify in every case that the amount so charged is correct. '

(6) Any amount so charged and certified by the auditor must be paid by the person against whom it has been charged to the Corporation within fourteen days after it was so 20 certified, and, if not so paid, may be recovered from that person as a debt by the auditor.

(7) Any amount so recovered by the auditor must be paid to the Corporation.

(8) The Corporation must pay to the auditor all reasonable costs incurred by him or her in recovering such an amount.

(9) It must be the duty of the auditor, in addition to his or her ordinary duties as an 25 auditor, to certify not less than once in every year—

(a) whether or not, in his or her opinion—

(i) the accounts of the Corporation are in order;

(ii) such accounts present a true and correct view of the financial position of the Corporation and of its transactions; 30

(iii) due provision has been made for the redemption and repayment of loans raised by the Corporation;

(iv) the value of the assets of the Corporation has been correctly stated: and

(b) whether or not all his or her requirements and recommendations as auditor have been complied with and carried out. 35

(10) The expenses of or incidental to any audit must be borne by the Corporation.

Part 7: Staffing of Corporation

Staff of Corporation

24. (I) The Corporation may engage such officers and other employees as it may deem necessary for the attainment of its objects, and may determine their duties and 40 salaries, wages, allowances or other remuneration and their other conditions of service in general.

(2) The Corporation may—

(a) by means of the establishment of a housing fund or in any other manner provide for the provision of housing to its officers and other employees on 45 such terms and conditions as it may determine;

(b) establish or support associations or institutions for the promotion of the interests of its officers and other employees of their dependants;

CHAPTER VII

SIGNAL DISTRIBUTION AND MULTI-CHANNEL DISTRIBUTIONS 40

Part 1: Signal distribution and objectives

Signal distribution

30. The Authority must determine and propose to the Minister the terms, licence conditions, obligations and a tariff structure to govern the signal distribution sector upon opening of the sector to competition by the year 2000. 45

Objectives

31. (1) All signal distribution services and broadcasting services, whether through terrestrial frequencies, satellite or telecommunication facilities within the borders of the Republic or from the Republic to other countries will be required to hold a licence issued by the Authority. 50

(2) The signal distribution sector must—

- (a) prioritise the provision of broadcasting channels licensed in South Africa:

- (b) provide universal access for all South Africans to broadcast and multi-media services;
 - (c) provide a diversity of type of broadcast services and content;
 - (d) distribute relevant services in all the official languages;
 - (e) deliver public services, including educational, commercial and community services; 5
 - (f) roll-out relevant infrastructure for regional services;
 - (g) be open and interoperable, harmonised with the Southern African region, and be able to meet international distribution standards.
- (3) The signal distribution sector must be controlled by South Africans, provide employment and training for South Africans and pay a licence fee determined by the Authority. 10

Part 2: Multi-channel distributors

Multi-channel distributors

32. (1) Multi-channel distributors must hold a separate class of licence issued by the Authority. 15
- (2) All broadcast services to be distributed by the multi-channel distributors must hold licences issued by the Authority.
- (3) Multi-channel distributors may carry other signals, domestic or foreign, upon approval by the Authority. 20

Objectives

33. (1) The objectives of the multi-channel delivery system are to—
- (u) give priority to the carriage of South African programming services and, in particular, to the carriage of South African services;
 - (b) provide efficient delivery of programming using the most effective technologies available at reasonable cost; 25
 - (c) provide reasonable terms for the packaging and retailing of broadcasting services, where such services are supplied pursuant to contractual agreements, failure of which will be determined by the Authority ;
 - (d) carry original programming, including local programming, where the Authority considers it appropriate. 30
- (2) The multi-channel delivery system must carry out its objectives on such terms and conditions as are determined by the Authority to achieve the objectives of the broadcasting policy set out in Chapter 11 of this Act, and in particular to provide access to the under-served and historically disadvantaged groups. 35

CHAPTER VIII

FREQUENCY SPECTRUM DIRECTORATE

Frequency Spectrum Directorate

34. (1) There is established within the Department a Frequency Spectrum Directorate. 40
- (2) The Frequency Spectrum Directorate and its support staff must operate as a directorate of the Department and must report to the Minister through the Director-General.
- (3) The Frequency Spectrum Directorate must be impartial in the performance of its functions. 45
- (4) The Frequency Spectrum Directorate is vested with policy development of the radio frequency spectrum and must undertake technological and economic research of the radio frequency spectrum to ensure the efficient use of the spectrum.
- (5) In accordance with subsection (2) the Frequency Spectrum Directorate is vested with the responsibility for the overall research of the use of the radio frequency spectrum to meet the needs of the users thereof. 50

CHAPTER IX

ADVISORY BODY TO MINISTER

South African Broadcast Production Advisory Body

35. (1) The Minister must establish a South African Broadcast Production Advisory Body to advise him or her on how the development, production and display of local television and radio content can be supported. 5

(2) The terms and conditions of allowances, composition and meetings applicable to the Advisory Body by virtue of its appointment in terms of subsection (1) must be as determined by the Minister in a written agreement entered into for that purpose between the Minister and the Advisory Body. 10

(3) The Advisory Body must advise the Minister on how to encourage, facilitate and offer guidance and advice in respect of any scheme and to promote—

(a) the production of broadcast materials that meet the cultural needs of South Africans;

(b) the screening and airplay of South African content in television and radio, respectively; 15

(c) awareness of local content in South African and foreign markets;

(d) distribution and exhibition of local content in foreign markets;

(e) the correction of imbalances in the local content production industry;

(f) human resource development to provide skills and training of local content providers. 20

(4) The Advisory Body must, after consultation with the National Film and Video Foundation and the broadcasting industry, make recommendations for the Minister to determine—

(a) policy and strategies to govern the production and display of local content; 25

(b) financing strategies to support the production and display of local content;

(c) supply-side measures and initiatives to support the production of local content;

(d) policies to enhance the production of local content for the multi-channel and digital broadcasting environment. 30

CHAPTER X

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

This Chapter relates to the use of broadcasting as a resource in support of both the formal and informal education. The need for the broadcasting system as a whole to offer programming which is informative and increase the public understanding of development is emphasised. 35

Human resources development

36. All licensees licensed in terms of the IBA Act and the provisions of this Act must comply with the provisions of the national policy regarding skills development and specific human resource development conditions determined by the Authority 40

CHAPTER XI

GENERAL

Regulations

37. (I) The Minister may make regulations in respect of any matter required to be prescribed by the Minister and necessary in order to achieve the objectives of this Act, and any such regulation may create offences and provide for penalties in respect thereof. 45

(2) In the exercise of his or her powers under subsection (1), the Minister is obliged to consider the commendations of the Authority and is not obliged to accept such recommendations.

Repeal and amendment of laws

38. (1) The laws specified in Schedule 1 are repealed or amended to the extent 5 indicated in the third column thereof.

(2) Any regulation, license, appointment, designation, determination or other thing which was made, issued or done under a law repealed by this section and which could be made, issued or done, under any provision of this Act, is deemed to have been made, issued or done under the last-mentioned provision and remains in force until repealed or 1 () amended.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE BROADCASTING BILL, 1998

This bill is the culmination of the White Paper on Broadcasting, 1998. One of the objectives of the exercise is to repeal the Broadcasting Act, 1976 (Act No. 73 of 1976), so as to establish a new broadcasting policy in the Republic. Accordingly, the Independent Broadcasting Authority Act, 1993 (Act No. 103 of 1993), must be amended. The objects of the new Broadcasting Act are specifically spelled out and contained in clause 2.

The SABC currently operates in terms of the Broadcasting Act, 1976. This Bill proposes that the Broadcasting Act, 1976, be repealed. It is therefore imperative to deal with the SABC in a different manner.

1. CLAUSE BY CLAUSE ANALYSIS

Chapter I contains the definitions, interpretation, fundamental principles and objects of the Bill.

Chapter II stipulates that the Act must foster freedom of expression and journalistic, creative and programming independence.

Chapter III requires all persons providing broadcasting services to hold a licence and clause 5 defines the different classes of broadcasting licences.

Chapter IV—

- (a) establishes the Charter of the Corporation in terms which the Corporation must be managed;
- (b) establishes the South African Broadcasting Corporation as a limited liability company in terms of the Companies Act, 1973; and
- (c) deals with the establishment, management and operation of the Corporation, which were addressed in the Broadcasting Amendment Bill (B 8 of 1998), which was introduced in Parliament earlier this year but was kept on hold pending the approval of the White Paper on Broadcasting.

Chapter V provides for the commercial broadcasting services and license requirements. Part 2 of Chapter V deals with licensing of additional services.

Chapter VI deals with community broadcasting services and an inquiry into the feasibility of additional services.

Chapter VII provides for signal distribution, multi channel distributors and the objectives thereof.

Chapter VIII establishes the Frequency Spectrum Directorate in the Department of Communications with the task to develop policy for radio frequency spectrum.

Chapter IX establishes the South African Broadcast Production Advisory Body to deal primarily with how the development, production and display of local television and radio content can be supported.

Chapter X states that the human resource development policies of licensees must comply with the provisions of the national policy regarding skills development.

Chapter XI deals with the regulations, repeals and amendments and stipulates that the Act will come into operation on a date determined by the President.

2. PERSONS AND BODIES CONSULTED
