FOREWORD BY THE MINISTER OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING

It is with great pleasure that I present the Department of Higher Education and Training's annual report for the 2009 academic year for the General Education and Training Certificate (GETC) – Adult Basic Education and Training (ABET) in South Africa.

The 89 510 candidates in 2009 is an increase of 29 510 on the 60 000 candidates registered in 2008. The profile of these candidates must be of interest to policy analysts. As many as 41 315 (48%) of those adults writing the GETC-ABET are between 20 and 29 years of age. This is an age group we consider still to be youth, and all of these young people should have spent a considerable part, if not all, of their school years in a post-democratic South African Education system. Whatever the reason for them not having completed school, this success in their 'second chance' must be applauded and is a great source of pride to us.

The upper age range of the ABET cohort of 2009 confirms the adage that no person is ever too old to learn. 685 of those who wrote in 2009 were over the age of 60 and one had reached the age of 99 years. We salute the commitment and determination of people deprived of education who have remained determined to achieve their potential. Such learners must be encouraged and celebrated for the exemplary example they are setting to our younger generations about the value of getting an education.

The interim GETC-ABET qualification which will be implemented as from 01 January 2010 until 2012 comes with added advantages to learners. Learners will for the first time in eight years have a choice of offering Mathematical Literacy or Mathematics and Mathematical Sciences and will not have to offer both learning areas as has happened in the past. In addition, ABET learners will be required to offer a Language and the Life Orientation learning areas and may then choose a minimum of two other learning areas including a second language to meet the requirements of the interim qualification.

I thank all South Africans who in various ways have contributed to the success and integrity of the 2009 GETC-ABET Level 4 examination. I take my hat off to the examining panels, departmental officials, Umalusi, SITA, parents or guardians or spouses, and in particular to the learners themselves, for the contributions, support and effort they have collectively made.

The fourth goal of the EFA focuses on achieving a 50% improvement in levels of adult literacy by 2015 and equitable access to basic and continuing education for all adults. May our determination to achieve this goal spur on all South Africans involved with the ABET sector to work tirelessly to ensure that the needs of adult learners are met. Working together we can make a difference in the lives and livelihood of adult learners.

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

1.1 BACKGROUND OF THE GETC-ABET LEVEL 4 QUALIFICATION

The first formal General Education and Training Certificate - Adult Basic Education and Training Level 4 examinations for adult learners was conducted in 2001. The examination comprised only the examination marks. In 2002 the site-based assessment mark pegged at 25% was introduced into the examination system for this qualification. In the same year the learning area formerly known as Mathematical Literacy, Mathematics and Mathematical Sciences was split into two learning areas, namely Mathematical Literacy and Mathematics and Mathematical Sciences. Mathematical Literacy was then declared one of the Fundamental learning areas that are compulsory for every adult learner to offer for the qualification. The GETC-ABET qualification as registered by SAQA is pegged at NQF level 1. Its rules of combination require the offering of two Fundamental learning areas, four Core learning areas and two Elective learning areas. Some learners prefer to choose six Core learning areas with no Elective learning areas being offered. All learning areas offered by the DHET in all the PALCs listed under item 1.5 below.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

This technical report on the 2009 GETC-ABET Level 4 examination aims at providing reliable data to education planners, policy analysts, learning area specialists, educators, panels of examiners and moderators, the external quality assessor, key stakeholders with an interest in adult education and the general South African public. Intervention strategies in this sector should be based on this report score card. Additional information for researchers is available upon request from the Director-General of the Department of Higher Education and Training.

1.3 POLICY FRAMEWORK

The following policy frameworks inform the conduct, administration and management of the GETC-ABET Level 4 formative and summative assessment:

- 1) National Policy on the Conduct of Adult Basic Education and Training (ABET) Level 4 examinations.
- 2) Department of Education (2006), Learning Area Assessment Guidelines for Adult Basic Education and Training.
- 3) The GENFETQA Act of 2001 that gave rise to Umalusi as an external quality assessor.
- 4) Department of Education (1997): The ABET Policy Document, states that the achievement of specific outcomes, measured against unit standards serve as the basis for assessing learners and thus, indirectly, the effectiveness of learning processes and learning programmes.
- 5) SAQA registered Unit Standards in all the learning areas with their specific outcomes and assessment criteria.
- 6) Department of Education (1997): Guidelines for a Macro Approach to ABET Assessment and Assessor Bodies (Discussion Document, Pretoria) provides details concerning the level of complexity, scope and learning context; discusses the issues of transparency, fairness and effectiveness in relation to assessment; and stresses the importance of the "records of learning" produced in instructional situations.

All the above mentioned learning areas are offered through the medium of English and Afrikaans. This brings to the fore issue of parity of language esteem for the disadvantaged adult learners studying for the GETC-ABET qualification. The question papers for these learning areas are set in English and after approval by the external quality assessor get translated into Afrikaans.

Learning areas like Ancillary Health Care and Applied Agriculture and Agricultural Technology have a more practical component. Therefore, PEDs are advised to ensure that the relevant resources for learners to do the practicals in these learning areas are made available.

The registration of 10 – 14 years old learners for the GETC-ABET qualification raises questions for investigation as they are supposed to be in main stream schools and not in Public Adult Learning Centres.

CHAPTER 2: SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT – GETC-ABET LEVEL 4 EXAMINATIONS 2009

The GETC-ABET L4 qualification comprises two equally weighted components at 50% each, namely SBAs and External Examinations. The external examination processes conducted under national policy form the bulk of this report.

2.1 THE GETC-ABET EXAMINATION CYCLE

The pictorial presentation of the main examination processes above serves to explain the steps taken by the DHET and PEDs to ensure that the 2009 GETC-ABET L4 examination is fair, reliable, valid and credible for all candidates. Generally after certification learners pursue different further studies like registering for the National Certificates (Vocational) courses or Grade 10 in mainstream schooling.

| Northern Cape  | 546     | 292   | 1830    | 994   | 2376    | 1286  | 54.12   |
| Western Cape   | 1106    | 832   | 931     | 686   | 2037    | 1518  | 74.52   |
| National       | 19020   | 11845 | 70490   | 46503 | 89510   | 58348 | 65.19   |

This table shows that 89 510 candidates entered for the November 2009 GETC-ABET Level 4 examination and 65.19% of them wrote the examination. More female candidates (46 503) wrote compared to 11 845 male candidates. Although the percentage wrote at 65.19% is an improvement from 61.11% of 2008, there is a growing need to establish the causal factors for candidates not pitching to write their examination.

2.3 REGISTRATION OF EXAMINATION CENTRES IN 2009

Examination centres were set up and registered by PEDs for the purpose of administering the GETC-ABET L4 examination. All PALCs offering ABET Level 4 were periodically audited to ensure their suitability as examination centres. The GETC-ABET L4 examination was also written in prisons under prescribed conditions. This is in line with the DHET's commitment to ensuring access to education and examination services to all South African citizens and other legal immigrants.

2.4 APPOINTMENT OF EXAMINERS AND MODERATORS

Forty-six (46) examiners and twenty-three (23) internal moderators were appointed nationally to set and moderate 35 question papers and accompanying marking memoranda. These examiners and moderators are highly qualified, very experienced and successful educators and learning area specialists in their respective provinces. In setting the question papers the prescribed processes followed are inclusive of the planning phase, drafting working session, quality control, declaration, internal and external moderation, effecting changes and finalisation, approval, editing and proof reading and final quality control phase.

2.5 SETTING OF QUESTION PAPERS

Panels of examiners developed, evaluated and reviewed questions for the 23 learning areas that finally formed the written examination question paper. They ensured that the content and cognitive skills of the question paper reflected the requirements of the Unit Standards at ABET level 4. The marking memoranda were developed at the same time as the questions were constructed to ensure that all relevant and possible responses are catered for in the marking memoranda. The setting of these question papers started in July 2008 and was completed in November 2008.

2.6 MODERATION OF QUESTION PAPERS

To ensure validity and reliability of questions, the criteria used to evaluate question papers in respect of coverage of Unit Standards, cognitive skills, language and bias, validity were adhered to.

The internal moderators' reports reflect that the question papers written were of an appropriate level and the language was accessible to ABET Level 4 learners. External moderation of the question papers was done by the moderators appointed by the external quality assessor. They endorsed the quality work performed by the internal moderators, although there is still room for improvement. All written question papers were approved by Umalusi prior to the conduct of the 2009 examination.

2.7 TRANSLATION OF QUESTION PAPERS

All question papers were provided in two of the eleven official languages, English and Afrikaans, with the exception of language learning areas.

The translated question papers underwent the same processes as the original question papers in terms of quality assurance so that learners are not disadvantaged by the quality of the translation. However, note must be taken that the Umalusi appointed external moderators are not fully bilingual with the result that the translated Afrikaans version of the question papers remain an area of concern in terms of quality.

2.8 ADAPTATION OF PAPERS FOR INCLUSIVITY

Question papers for thirteen (13) of the 23 learning areas were adapted for visually impaired candidates requiring large font and braille papers. Participating PEDs included KwaZulu-Natal and Limpopo.

2.9 QUALITY CONTROL OF QUESTION PAPERS

Apart from the moderation processes, the DHET convened a final working session for panels of examiners, moderators and learning area specialists where final question paper quality measurement is done and proof reading conducted. The final examination paper is endorsed by completing declaration forms to ensure that the papers are print ready and error-free.

2.10 LANGUAGE EDITING OF QUESTION PAPERS

Editors appointed by the DHET edited all the 2009 written question papers for the GETC-ABET Level 4 examination. This stage of question paper development adds further emphasis on quality and error-free question papers.

2.11 SECURITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

To enhance the integrity of the GETC-ABET Level 4 examination with regard to security and confidentiality, the DHET has built-in security processes and ensures compliance by all role players in the process. Signing confidentiality documents by all involved in handling question papers marks the beginning of such processes. This is followed by electronic tracking processes that make it very difficult for malpractices to occur.

2.12 MONITORING THE ABET LEVEL 4 EXAMINATION

It is standard practice in the South African examination system to monitor the writing of examinations according to policy prescriptions as well as regulations where applicable. The 2009 examination was no exception and both desktop monitoring and site visits took place. National and Provincial monitoring teams monitored and reported progress on a daily basis from the beginning to the end of the writing sessions. Minor technical malpractices such as learners not being registered on the computerised mark sheets were identified and corrected timeously. Inappropriate furniture in some of the examination centres was also identified and reported and such matters are currently receiving due consideration by PEDs.

The National Examinations Irregularities Committee (NEIC) together with the Provincial Examinations Irregularities Committees (PEIC) played a pivotal role in ensuring that any irregularity identified by monitors is reported to the DHET and Umalusi as soon as possible. The NEIC met on 21 December 2009 to address these irregularities.

2.13 MARKING PROCESS

The Department of Higher Education and Training advocates quality marking for every answer script in all the learning areas in order to ensure that the marking system produces marks that are valid and reliable.

Marking for the 2009 examination took place in 9 provincially determined marking centres during November and December 2009. The DHET used the Personnel Administrative Measures document to appoint markers. PEDs established selection processes to ensure that the experience and qualifications of the markers were verified. PEDs trained markers prior to the marking process in the consistent application of the nationally agreed upon marking memoranda.

National marking memoranda discussions were convened for the 23 learning areas and this entailed a total of 23 meetings that were convened by the Department of Higher Education and Training in Pretoria. The meetings were attended by the chief marker and internal moderator from each of the 9 PEDs. The meetings were chaired by the internal moderators of the national panels whilst the external moderator served as the quality assessor of standards. All chief markers and internal moderators were expected to have marked a sample of 20 scripts prior to the meeting in order to actively participate in the process. Comprehensive final marking memoranda were developed and used in the various marking centres. No additions were accepted from the marking centres unless approval was received from the DHET and Umalusi.

CHAPTER 3: FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT – SITE-BASED ASSESSMENT

The draft ABET qualifications and assessment policy framework for Adult Basic Education and Training Levels 1-4, 2005, states that one of the principal aims of the ABET Assessment Policy is to enhance the provision of education for each learner. Assessment which is continuous, coherent and progressive is one of the key elements in the quality assurance system. Following the above cited policy prescription is the further determination by the DHET that the formative assessment in the form of SBAs will count 50% of the overall assessment for GETC-ABET L4.

3.1 SBA CONTEXT

The implementation of Site-Based Assessment as the critical 50% component in the GETC-ABET L4 assessment was initially not standardised. Each PED set its own SBA tasks for learners hence the various standards which arose across the PEDs. Since 2007, the DHET national has overseen the setting of common SBA tasks for every PALC. These tasks are set with the same rigour as the setting of examination question papers. The panels of examiners and moderators appointed to set and moderate question papers also set the SBA tasks used in 2009 academic year.

To enhance the quality of the SBA tasks, the external quality assessor scrutinises the processes and actual tasks using stringent criteria such as those used in external moderation of question papers. PEDs were tasked to train their learning area specialists and educators for the successful implementation of SBA tasks. The training sessions in the PEDs were conducted under the watchful eye of national officials.

3.2 STEPS AND PRINCIPLES OF ASSESSMENT USED IN SETTING SBA TASKS

The steps indicated below are followed in the setting of the SBA tasks:

The SBAs in a learning area comprise a Learner's Book which includes the assessment tasks, and an Educator's Guide which includes the assessment instruments / tools which will be used to assess learner performance along clear instructions on how to implement the tasks.

CONCLUSION

The Executive Committee of the Umalusi Council has concluded, from the report submitted by all the personnel involved in the quality assurance of the 2009 examination, that the ABET level 4 assessment was conducted in line with the policies and regulations governing the conduct of examinations. The results were, therefore, found to be reliable, valid, fair and credible. The standardisation meeting took place at Umalusi offices in Pretoria on Tuesday, 15 December 2009 where Umalusi declared that the examination was beyond reproach.

The table shows that 54 786 candidates would qualify for the full GETC-ABET qualification after combinations have been done in the system. The majority of these candidates did not enter for a full qualification due to the credits they already have acquired. The 2 147 candidates who obtained a full GETC-ABET is significantly higher than that of 2008.

Adult learners as reflected in the table above enter up to eleven learning areas despite the policy prescription of minimum eight learning areas for the GETC-ABET qualification. Limpopo, Mpumalanga, Gauteng and KwaZulu-Natal show a very high number of candidates who registered more than eight learning areas.

From the table it is evident that performances in fewer learning areas are higher than when the learner has registered for more learning areas. For example those candidates who passed one learning area are 11 392, 8 888 for two learning areas, 7 595 for three following that descending order until 25 for eleven learning areas. This performance must be commended considering the difficult circumstances under which they were obtained.
