SCHEDULE 3

Code of Conduct for Members of the Municipal Planning Tribunal

OBJECTIVES OF THE CODE

The objectives of this Code are to set forth responsibilities and establish standards of conduct for all members of a Municipal Planning Tribunal.

The unacceptable actions and essential practices set forth by this Code encourage responsible and generally accepted practices and encourage a responsible and ethical approach to planning decisions.

Members of the Municipal Planning Tribunal, because they serve the state, stakeholders and the community at large, assume a position of trust together with ethical obligations. The members are seen as representatives of the municipality, not only in the performance of administrative duties but also in the manner in which they conduct themselves in business dealings of the Municipal Planning Tribunal. Members have a duty to uphold and contribute to the good reputation of the Municipal Planning Tribunal. The duty to uphold the reputation of the Municipal Planning Tribunal is fundamental and underlies the approach to these principles of conduct elaborated under the subheadings below.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

The members of the Municipal Planning Tribunal will make decisions in compliance with the laws of the Republic.

COMPLIANCE WITH CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

In addition to laws, the Municipal Planning Tribunal takes seriously its contractual obligations and will adhere to its contractual requirements and, unless they are excused, will fulfil its contractual obligations.

COMPLIANCE WITH CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The Municipal Planning Tribunal must endeavour to earn and maintain a reputation for integrity that includes, but is not limited to, compliance with laws and its contractual obligations. Even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety can be very damaging to the Municipal Planning Tribunal. The members of the Municipal Planning Tribunal must strive at all times to maintain the highest standards of quality and integrity. Rules of fairness, honesty and respect for the rights of others will govern their conduct at all times.

This policy requires each member to conduct himself or herself with the utmost honesty, accuracy and fairness when taking decision. Each situation needs to be examined under this standard. No unethical practice can be resorted to on the grounds that it is customary practice outside the Municipal Planning Tribunal or that it serves worthy goals. Expediency should never compromise integrity.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Ethics and integrity are the responsibility of each member. Therefore, every member acting on behalf of the Municipal Planning Tribunal, is responsible for ethical conduct consistent with this Code.

Any activities undertaken on behalf of the Municipal Planning Tribunal with the national or provincial government, the municipality, parties to an application and the public in general must reflect the highest standards of honesty, integrity and fairness. Each member must be careful to avoid even the appearance of misconduct and impropriety.

REPORTING OF SUSPECTED VIOLATIONS

Members should report suspected violations of applicable laws, contractual requirements or this Code through the channels established for this purpose.

Such reports will be confidential. Raising concerns is a service to the Municipal Planning Tribunal and will not jeopardize any person's appointment.

The making of an allegation however, which is found to be without substance and which is knowingly false, vexatious or malicious, may be treated as a breach of this Code.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Members should be sensitive to situations which could raise questions of potential or apparent conflicts between personal interests and the interests of the Municipal Planning Tribunal and must disclose any such conflict of interest.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The Municipal Planning Tribunal will during its existence be entrusted with many kinds of confidential, proprietary and private information. It is imperative that no member who has access to this information makes any unauthorised disclosures of the information, either during or after membership.
