MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT AND POLITICAL OFFICE-BEARERS
PENSION SCHEME ACT, 1984

Act No. 112, 1984

(3) If the membership of any member terminates in terms of subsection (2) and he immediately thereafter, or after such interruption as the Minister of Health and Welfare may approve, again becomes a member, his membership shall, subject to subsection (4), be deemed not to have been interrupted and he shall not merely on the ground of any such interruption be entitled to any pension or gratuity (except a special pension and a gratuity referred to in section 10 (ii)), or any other benefit in terms of this Act.

10 (4) Any period of interruption which is approved in terms of subsection (3) shall not for the purposes of this Act be allowed as pensionable service.

4. (1) A member shall, from the date on which he becomes a member until the end of the month in which he has 12 years pensionable service to his credit, contribute an amount to the State Revenue Fund equal to seven percent of the pensionable salary of an ordinary member.

Pension contributions.

(2) No contributions are payable by any member holding an office referred to in section 7 (1).

20 (3) Any amount to be contributed by a member in terms of this section shall be deducted in monthly instalments, or in such other instalments and at such other times as the director-general may approve, from the member's salary.

5. (1) If a former member who becomes or again becomes a member on or after the fixed date is, on the date on which he becomes or again becomes a member, entitled to a pension in terms of an applicable pension law, except a special pension—

Recognition of certain periods as pensionable service.

30 (a) such pension shall cease to be payable to him as from the date on which he becomes, or again becomes, a member;

(b) he shall refund to the revenue fund concerned any amount paid to him by way of such pension in respect of any period as from the said date; and

35 (c) (i) the whole period of his previous pensionable service in terms of this Act or any repealed law; and
(ii) one half of the period of his pensionable service in terms of the Members of the Coloured Persons Representative Council Pensions Act, 1974 (Act No. 79 of 1974), the Members of the South African Indian Council Pensions Act, 1974 (Act No. 86 of 1974), or any ordinance made under the Provincial Powers Extension Act, 1980 (Act No. 32 of 1980),

40 if any, shall be allowed as pensionable service for purposes of this Act.

45 (2) A former member may, while he is a member, at any time elect to have—

50 (a) any part of that half of his pensionable service which in terms of section 4 (4) of the Parliamentary Service and Administrators' Pensions Act, 1971 (Act No. 81 of 1971), or subsection (1) (c) (ii) of this section, is not allowed as pensionable service; and

55 (b) any period of his pensionable service under any applicable pension law which is in respect of a former member not allowed as pensionable service in terms of any provision of this Act, allowed as pensionable service for purposes of this Act, and on receipt by the director-general of a written notification by such member of his election, such periods of pensionable service shall be allowed for purposes of this Act.

60 (3) There shall, in respect of pensionable service allowed in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), be paid by the member concerned an amount calculated at 10 percent of his pensionable salary on the date on which the written notice referred to in subsection (2) is received by the director-general, multiplied by the period of pensionable service which is so allowed.

(4) Any amount which in terms of this section is to be paid or 5 refunded by a member—

- (a) shall be paid or refunded in such instalments and subject to such conditions as the director-general may determine; and 10 (b) shall, if such member assumes an office referred to in section 7 (1) or 16, and to the extent that any portion of such amount is unpaid on the date of such assumption, on such date cease to be payable by him.

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act any period of pensionable service shall be calculated by the year and a portion of a year.

15 (2) A portion of a year shall be determined according to the proportion which the number of days in such portion bears to 365.

Calculation of periods of pensionable service.

7. (1) There shall, subject to section 16, be paid to a member who holds the office of Prime Minister and ceases to hold such 20 office—

- (a) a pension equal to his pensionable salary; and
(b) a gratuity equal to three times his pensionable salary, on the date on which he ceases to hold that office.

(2) A member to whom a pension and gratuity are payable in 25 terms of subsection (1) shall not be entitled to any other pension, gratuity or benefit in terms of any applicable pension law.

Pension and gratuity payable to Prime Minister.

8. On the termination of his membership there shall, subject to sections 7 (2), 12 (1) and 16, be paid to a member who—

- 30 (a) has at least seven years and six months pensionable service to his credit, or was a member during the full duration of at least two successive Parliaments or President's Councils (including a Parliament referred to in the former Constitution Act, or a former President's Council, as the case may be), and whose membership
35 terminated on the dissolution of a Parliament or President's Council; and
(b) at any time during the period of his pensionable service was an ordinary member, or held an office in respect of which a special pension is payable to him,
40 a pension calculated in accordance with the formula—

Pensions payable to members who did not hold offices, or held offices in respect of which special pensions are payable.

$$\frac{A}{15} \times B$$

in which formula—

- 45 (i) A represents the total period of the member's pensionable service, but not exceeding 15 years, during which he did not hold any office, or held an office in respect of which a special pension is being paid to him; and 50 (ii) B represents the pensionable salary of an ordinary member on the date on which the membership of the member concerned terminates.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 7 (2), 12 (1) and 16, and subsection (2) of this section, there shall be paid to a member who at any time during his pensionable service was an office-bearer, in addition to any pension payable to him in terms of 55 section 8 (if any), on the termination of his membership a pension, in respect of each office held by him, calculated—
