SECOND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AMENDMENT ACT, 1981

GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE:

Words underlined with solid line indicate insertions in existing enactments.

ACT

To amend the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1966, in order to preserve for a period of three years the right of certain persons who were contributors immediately prior to Ciskei's becoming independent, to benefits; and to provide for incidental matters.

(Afrikaans text signed by the State President.) (Assented to 16 October 1981.)

BE IT ENACTED by the State President and the House of Assembly of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Insertion of section 64E in Act 30 of 1966.

1. The Unemployment Insurance Act, 1966, is hereby amended by the insertion of the following section after section 64D:

"Preservation of certain rights after Ciskei becomes independent.

64E. (1) No benefit payable to any person under Chapter VI immediately prior to the date on which Ciskei becomes independent and no benefit to which any person has become entitled under the said Chapter before that date, shall cease to be payable on or after that date by reason only that the person concerned ceased to be a contributor by virtue of Ciskei's becoming independent or that Ciskei no longer forms part of the Republic.

(2) Any person who, if he had not ceased to be a contributor as contemplated in subsection (1) or if Ciskei had not ceased to be a part of the Republic, would have been entitled in terms of any provision of Chapter VI to receive or to be paid any benefit in respect of any period of unemployment occurring within three years of the date on which Ciskei becomes independent, shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (5), be entitled to receive or to be paid such benefit in respect of any such period of unemployment as if he had not so ceased to be a contributor or Ciskei had not ceased to be a part of the Republic.

(3) The employment of any person in Ciskei during the period of three years referred to in subsection (2) shall, for the purposes of Chapter VI, not be regarded as employment of that person as a contributor, but as employment otherwise than as a contributor.

(4) Any employer who in Ciskei employs any person referred to in subsection (2), shall keep and retain for the purposes of this section the records and the record card referred to in sections 32 and 33, and any such person who is so employed shall for such purpose keep and retain the record card referred to in section 33.

Act No. 113, 1981

SECOND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AMENDMENT
ACT, 1981

(5) Any application by a person referred to in subsection (2) for a benefit under Chapter VI shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be made to and be dealt with by a claims officer of the Department of Manpower of the Republic, but such application shall not be considered if it is not received by such a claims officer or his representative, who may be an officer or employee in the public service of Ciskei, before or on the date of expiration of the period of three years referred to in subsection (2).”

Short title and commencement.

2. This Act shall be called the Second Unemployment Insurance Amendment Act, 1981, and shall come into operation on the date on which Ciskei becomes independent.
