(2) A declaration issued under subsection (1) shall be subject to such conditions set out therein as the Minister may in his discretion impose.

(3) The Minister may at any time after the issue of a declaration under subsection (1), by a notice delivered or tendered to the person named in the declaration concerned—

- (a) in his discretion impose such conditions or further conditions as may be set out in the notice, to which the declaration shall be subject;
- (b) withdraw or amend any condition imposed by him under this section;
- (c) withdraw or amend the declaration.

CHAPTER 2

THE LIQUOR BOARD

40 Continuation of Liquor Board

5. The Liquor Board shall, notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of the Liquor Act, 1977 (Act No. 87 of 1977), continue to exist.

Functions of Board

6. The Board shall—
- (a) advise the Minister or furnish a report or recommendation to the Minister on any matter referred to the Board for consideration and arising from the application of this Act or relating to the distribution or control over the distribution of liquor;
 - (b) perform such other functions as may be assigned to it in terms of this Act.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Constitution of Board

7. (1) The Board shall consist of—
- (a) two persons in the employ of the State appointed by the Minister, one as chairman and the other as deputy chairman;
 - 5 (b) a person nominated by the Commissioner of the South African Police; and
 - (c) two other members for each area of the Republic determined by the Minister, appointed by the Minister, in consultation with the Chairmen of the Ministers' Councils of the respective Houses of Parliament, for a period of not more than three years.
- 10 (2) No person shall be appointed as chairman or deputy chairman under subsection (1) or as an alternate to the deputy chairman under subsection (3) unless he possesses such qualification in law and such experience in the administration of justice as, in the opinion of the Minister, renders him suitable for appointment as such.
- 15 (3) The Minister may at any time appoint an officer in the public service as an alternate to the deputy chairman to perform the functions of the deputy chairman when he is not available to perform those functions.
- (4) A person whose term of office as a member has expired, shall be eligible for reappointment.
- 20 (5) When a casual vacancy occurs in the ranks of the members appointed under subsection (1) (c), the Minister shall fill the vacancy by the appointment of another member for the unexpired part of the period for which his predecessor was appointed.
- (6) If in his opinion there are sound reasons for doing so, the Minister may at any 25 time remove from office any member appointed under subsection (1) (c).

Unavailability or vacancy in office of chairman

8. When the chairman is not available to perform his functions as chairman or if the office of chairman is vacant, the deputy chairman shall, during the unavailability of the chairman or until a chairman is appointed, act as chairman and perform all the 30 functions assigned to the chairman by this Act.

Co-opting of persons

9. (1) If the chairman is of the opinion that a particular person is able to assist the Board in the consideration of a particular matter by the Board, he may co-opt that person for that purpose.
- 35 (2) A person so co-opted shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Board.

Disqualification of members

10. A member of the Board shall not sit on the Board when—
- (a) any premises in respect of which any application is made and of which he or his spouse or child is the owner, mortgagee, lessor or lessee;
 - 40 (b) any applicant contemplated in section 11 (3) (a), objector or person who has made representations in support of an application and of whom he or his spouse or child is a partner, director, manager, agent, officer or employee; or
 - 45 (c) any business in respect of which any application is made and in which he or his spouse or child has a direct financial interest, is concerned in the consideration of a matter by the Board.

Convening of meetings

11. (1) Meetings of the Board shall be convened by the chairman, and may be adjourned, whether for an indefinite time or until a particular time, if in the opinion
50 of the chairman circumstances so warrant.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(2) Meetings shall be held or resumed at such times and places as the chairman may at any time determine.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, meetings of the Board shall be convened for the consideration of the following matters, namely—

- 5 (a) any application referred to the Board under section 22 (1) (c), 83 (3) (c) or 121 (1) (c);
- (b) any report submitted to the chairman in terms of section 141 or 142;
- (c) any complaint in respect of licensed premises;
- 10 (d) any objection to a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence)—
- (i) by a person who is ordinarily resident in the district in which the licensed premises concerned are situated; or
- (ii) by a holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) whose licensed premises are situated in the same
- 15 district as those in respect of which the licence objected to is held;
- (e) representations by any person regarding the distribution or control over the distribution of liquor;
- (f) representations by a holder of a licence for the rescission of the suspension of the licence or of any right or privilege which is attached thereto;
- 20 (g) any matter referred to the Board under section 124; or
- (h) any other matter which the Board may or shall consider in terms of this Act.

(4) A meeting of the Board shall not be convened for the consideration of a matter contemplated in subsection (3) (b), (c), (d) or (e) if the chairman is of the opinion that the circumstances of the case do not so warrant.

25 Notices and summonses

12. (1) The chairman may cause any person who is or may be affected by or is concerned in the consideration of a particular matter by the Board, to be notified in the prescribed manner to be present at any meeting, with notice to him of the date, time and place of the meeting at which his presence is required and the relevant 30 matter to be considered thereat.

(2) A person who has received a notice in terms of subsection (1), shall personally appear before the Board on the date and at the time and place set out in the notice or appoint an advocate or attorney or any other person to so appear on his behalf.

(3) The chairman may cause the designated police officer who has submitted a 35 report contemplated in section 11 (3) (b) to be notified of the meeting at which the report will be considered.

(4) The chairman may cause any person to be summonsed in the prescribed manner to be present at any meeting to—

- (a) give evidence; or
- 40 (b) produce any document or any other thing which is in his possession or custody or under his control and which in the opinion of the chairman relates or may relate to a matter to be considered thereat,
- with notice to him of the date, time and place of the meeting at which his presence is required.

45 Procedure

13. (1) Three members of the Board, of whom the chairman or deputy chairman and, when the Board is considering a matter in connection with premises situated in an area for which members were appointed under section 7 (1) (c), any one of those

50 members, shall be one, shall be a quorum for a meeting of the Board.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this section, the chairman shall determine the procedure at the meeting.

(3) Without derogating from section 156, the chairman may, if he is satisfied that any person contemplated in section 12 (1) or (4) whose presence is required at the meeting, has been duly notified or summonsed to be present at the meeting but is not

55 present at the meeting, direct that the meeting be held in the absence of that person.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(4) Any person present at a meeting, whether or not he has been notified in terms of section 12 (1) or summonsed in terms of section 12 (4) to be present at the meeting, may—

- (a) be called upon by the chairman to give evidence; or
 5 (b) be ordered by the chairman to produce to the Board any document or any other thing which is in his possession or custody or under his control, and be questioned by the Board.

(5) The Board may inspect, and retain for such period as it thinks fit, any document or any other thing produced to it.

- 10 (6) If the Board thinks it necessary, the chairman may require of any person called upon in terms of subsection (4) (a) to give evidence or ordered in terms of subsection (4) (b) to produce to the Board any document or any other thing, that he give evidence under oath or after the making of an affirmation.

(7) The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the chairman or a person
 15 designated by him for the purpose.

(8) A person appearing before the Board to give evidence or to produce any document or any other thing shall be entitled to any privilege to which a person appearing in criminal proceedings before the Supreme Court is entitled.

- 20 (9) (a) The Board may, in considering any application contemplated in section 11 (3) (a), of its own accord take cognizance of any matter which in its opinion may be a ground for an objection to the granting of the application.

(b) The chairman shall inform the applicant concerned of the matter contemplated in paragraph (a) and shall, if the applicant so requests, postpone the consideration of the application for such period as the chairman may think
 25 fit so as to afford the applicant the opportunity of stating his case in connection therewith.

(10) A decision of the Board shall be taken by a majority of votes of the members present at a meeting, and in the event of an equality of votes on any matter, the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

30 Accessibility of meetings

14. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), any meeting of the Board shall be accessible to the public.

(2) The chairman may in his discretion direct that any person whose presence is in his opinion not desirable at the meeting concerned, may not attend the meeting or 35 shall leave the meeting.

(3) The deliberations and voting on any matter at a meeting shall take place behind closed doors.

Powers of Board

15. (1) The Board may, after the consideration by it of—

- 40 (a) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (a)—
 (i) refuse the application concerned; or
 (ii) in the case of an application referred to the Board under section 22 (1) (c), recommend to the Minister that he grant the licence concerned; or 45 (iii) in the case of an application referred to the Board under section 83 (3) (c) or 121 (1) (c), grant the application;
- (b) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (b), (c) or (d)—
 (i) suspend for an indefinite time or for such period as it may determine or withdraw from such date as it may determine, a licence (excluding
 50 a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) which is the subject of the report, complaint or objection concerned, or any right or privilege which is attached thereto;
 (ii) declare the licence concerned to be subject to such conditions or further conditions as it may in its discretion impose; or
 (iii) take such other steps as it may think fit;
- 55 (c) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (e), take such steps as it may think fit;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (d) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (f), rescind the suspension of the licence concerned or of any right or privilege which is attached thereto, with immediate effect or from such date as it may determine, subject to such conditions as it may in its discretion impose;
- 5 (e) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (g)—
 (i) advise the Minister in its discretion; or
 (ii) furnish a report or recommendation to the Minister;
- (f) a matter contemplated in section 11 (3) (h), take such steps as shall or may be taken in the circumstances of the case.
- 10 (2) In the application of subsection (1) (e) (ii), the Board may furnish a recommendation to the Minister that a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) which is the subject of the reference concerned, or any right or privilege which is attached thereto, be suspended or withdrawn or that the suspension thereof be rescinded.

15 Minutes

16. (1) (a) Minutes of the proceedings in public of every meeting of the Board shall be kept and be retained at the offices of the chairman.
 (b) Any person may obtain copies of the minutes contemplated in paragraph (a) or of any part thereof against payment of the prescribed fees.
- 20 (2) (a) Separate minutes of the proceedings behind closed doors of every meeting of the Board shall be kept and retained in like manner.
 (b) The minutes contemplated in paragraph (a) or any document in which any advice, report or recommendation by the chairman or the Board is contained, shall not be disclosed, except to—
- 25 (i) the Minister;
 (ii) any person who requires it for the performance of his functions in terms of this Act;
 (iii) any other person—
 (aa) on the instructions of the Minister; or 30 (bb) in terms of an order of a competent court.

Staff

17. (1) The staff required for the proper performance of the Board's functions and the administration of this Act shall be appointed in terms of the Public Service Act, 1984 (Act No. 111 of 1984).
- 35 (2) The chairman may designate any person appointed in accordance with subsection (1) as a secretary of the Board.

Annual reports

18. The Board shall as soon as possible after 1 January in each year cause a report on its activities during the preceding year to be tabled in Parliament.

40

APPLICATIONS FOR LICENCES

Applications

19. Any person may make application for a licence referred to in section 20.

Kinds of licences

- 45 20. The following licences may be granted for the sale of liquor—
 (a) for consumption on the licensed premises concerned, namely—
 (i) hotel liquor licences;
 (ii) restaurant liquor licences;
 50 (iii) wine-house licences;
 (iv) theatre liquor licences;
 (v) club liquor licences;
 (vi) sorghum beer licences;
 (vii) special licences;
 55 (viii) temporary liquor licences;
 (ix) occasional licences;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (b) for consumption off the licensed premises concerned, namely—
- (i) wholesale liquor licences;
 - (ii) brewers' licences;
 - (iii) liquor store licences;
 - 5 (iv) grocers' wine licences;
 - (v) wine farmers' licences;
 - (vi) sorghum beer brewers' licences;
 - (vii) sorghum beer licences;
 - 10 (viii) special licences;
 - (ix) producers' licences.

Content of licences

21. A licence grants to the holder thereof such rights and privileges and subjects him to such obligations and liabilities as may by virtue of this Act be regulated thereby or issue from the holding thereof.

15 Consideration of applications for licences (excluding temporary liquor licences and occasional licences)

22. (1) An application for a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) shall be considered by the chairman, and he may, after consultation with not fewer than two other members of the Board (of whom one shall 20 be a member appointed under section 7 (1) (c) for the area in which the premises which are the subject of the application, are situated)—

- (a) refuse the application; or
- (b) where no objections have been made in connection with the application, or 25 such objections have in fact been made but only amount to representations regarding the distribution or control over the distribution of liquor in general, recommend to the Minister that he grant the licence concerned; or
- (c) refer the application to the Board for consideration.

(2) The chairman or the Board, as the case may be, shall not make a recommendation contemplated in subsection (1) (b) of this section or in section 15 (1) (a) (ii)—

- 30 (a) in respect of an application for a wine farmer's licence, unless he or it is satisfied that the premises in respect of which the application is made, are situated at a place other than the place where the liquor concerned is manufactured;
- 35 (b) in respect of an application for a special licence, unless in his or its opinion exceptional circumstances warrant the granting of the licence;
- (c) in respect of an application for a producer's licence, unless he or it is satisfied that the premises in respect of which the application is made, are situated on or at the land, central cellar, factory or brewery where the liquor concerned is manufactured;
- 40 (d) in respect of an application for any licence—
 - (i) unless he or it is satisfied that—
 - (aa) the applicant concerned has, on the date of the consideration of the application, for the purposes of the licence applied for, a right to occupy the premises concerned;
 - 45 (bb) the premises are or will on completion be suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence;
 - (cc) if the premises are situated in the vicinity of a place of worship or school or in a residential area, the business will be carried on in a manner that would not disturb the proceedings in that place of 50 worship or school or prejudice the residents of that residential area;
 - (dd) the applicant concerned is of good character and is otherwise fit to be the holder of the licence;
 - (ee) the granting of the licence is in the public interest;
 - 55 (ii) if in his or its opinion the possibility exists that the granting of the application may cause a harmful monopolistic condition to arise or be aggravated in the liquor trade or a branch thereof.

(3) The Minister shall not grant a licence unless the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, makes a recommendation contemplated in subsection (1) (b) of this 60 section or in section 15 (1) (a) (ii) in connection with the application concerned.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(4) If the chairman or the Board makes a recommendation referred to in subsection (3) in connection with an application, the Minister may—

- (a) notwithstanding the recommendation, refuse the application; or
- (b) grant the licence concerned.

5 Consideration of applications for temporary liquor licences and occasional licences

23. (1) An application for a temporary liquor licence or occasional licence shall be considered by the magistrate, and he may—

- (a) refuse the application; or
- (b) grant the licence concerned.

10 (2) (a) Except in a case contemplated in section 27 (b) or (d), the magistrate shall not grant a temporary liquor licence under subsection (1) (b)—

- (i) to a particular person; or
- (ii) in respect of particular premises,

15 for a longer period than seven consecutive days and for more than a total of 30 days per year beginning on 1 January.

- (b) In the application of paragraph (a) of this subsection, the times referred to in section 68 between which liquor may be sold or supplied on any day and the following day, shall be deemed to be one day.

20 (3) The magistrate shall not grant an occasional licence under subsection (1) (b)—

- (a) except in respect of licensed premises to which a licence referred to in section 20 (a) (i), (ii), (iii), (v), (vi) or (vii) relates;
- (b) in respect of the same licensed premises for more than three occasions in a week.

Death or incapability of applicants

25 24. If a person who has made an application for a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) dies, becomes insolvent, is placed under judicial management or is declared incapable of handling his own affairs on or before the date on which the application is considered—

- 30 (a) the administrator of the deceased or insolvent estate, judicial manager or curator concerned or, if such an administrator, manager or curator has not yet been appointed or the holder of that office is unable or unwilling to act, a person who has an interest in the application and is authorized thereto by the competent authority considering the application, shall, subject to the law regarding deceased estates, insolvency, judicial management or mental
- 35 health, have all such rights as the applicant would have had if he had not died, become insolvent, been placed under judicial management or been declared so incapable; and

- (b) the Minister may, subject to this Act and the said law, in his discretion grant the licence in favour of such an administrator, manager, curator or person.

DISQUALIFICATION FOR LICENCES

Licences in general

25. (1) A licence shall not be granted to any person who—

- 45 (a) has in the Republic or elsewhere in the preceding 10 years been sentenced for any offence to imprisonment without the option of a fine, unless the competent authority considering the application concerned is of the opinion that the offence was of such a nature that it does not imply that such a person is unsuitable to hold the licence or unless the sentence has been set aside by a competent court or such a person has received a grant of amnesty or a free pardon;
- 50 (b) has in the preceding 10 years been convicted of an offence in terms of this Act or the Liquor Act, 1977 (Act No. 87 of 1977), irrespective of the sentence imposed, and was within five years after the conviction again

Act No. 27, 1989

- convicted of an offence in terms of this Act or the Liquor Act, 1977, and was then sentenced therefor to a fine of not less than R200 or to imprisonment without the option of a fine, unless the competent authority considering the application concerned is of the opinion that the last-mentioned offence was of such a nature that it does not imply that such a person is unsuitable to hold the licence or unless any one of the sentences has been set aside by a competent court or such a person has received a grant of amnesty or a free pardon in respect of any one of the sentences or the fine has been remitted;
- 5
- 10 (c) is not domiciled in the Republic;
 (d) is an unrehabilitated insolvent;
 (e) is a minor on the date of the consideration of the application concerned;
 (f) is the spouse of a person contemplated in paragraph (a), (b) or (d).
- (2) If a person who is in terms of subsection (1) disqualified to hold a licence—
- 15 (a) has a controlling interest in a company, close corporation or trust;
 (b) is a partner in a partnership; or
 (c) is the main beneficiary under a trust, a licence shall also not be granted to that company, corporation, partnership or trust.
- (3) In the application of subsection (1) (a) and (b), "preceding" means preceding
- 20 the date of the application concerned.

Club liquor licences

26. A club liquor licence shall not be granted except to a club in respect of which the competent authority is satisfied that it is a bona fide club and that, according to the rules thereof—
- 25 (a) the club consists of at least 35 ordinary members;
 (b) its management is elected by its members and regularly holds meetings of which proper minutes are kept;
 (c) only its members (including bona fide reciprocity members) are permitted to pay for facilities, liquor or refreshments supplied on the premises of the club;
- 30 (d) in so far as the use of its facilities by guests (excluding family members) of its members is permitted by those rules, the number of guests of any member may not on any occasion exceed the number so permitted;
 (e) no ordinary member thereof is elected within less than 14 days after his nomination or without his name having been displayed on the premises of the club for at least seven days;
- 35 (f) the election of such a member takes place either by the management or by all the members of the club, excluding any member disqualified from voting by reason of his being in arrear with any payment due thereto;
- 40 (g) no person residing within 30 kilometres from the premises of the club is eligible for election as an honorary member, temporary member or reciprocity member of the club unless—
- (i) he is so eligible by reason of his holding a public office or being a bona fide candidate for membership or having conferred an exceptional benefit on the club; or
- 45 (ii) he is allowed the privileges of membership while engaged in a match or competition, approved by the management of the club;
- (h) proper records, including a register of members, are kept;
 (i) the annual subscription for ordinary members amounts to at least R12,00;
- 50 (j) no profit from the sale of liquor by the club accrues to any individual except in terms of a written agreement approved by the Minister on application; and
 (k) no member who has not paid his subscription within three months after it became due is allowed to remain a member while his subscription is unpaid.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Temporary liquor licences

27. A temporary liquor licence shall not be granted except to—

- (a) the holder of a licence referred to in section 20 (a) (i), (ii), (iii), (vi) or (vii);
- 5 (b) the holder of a club liquor licence or sportsground liquor licence who has satisfied the magistrate that the temporary liquor licence is necessary for a bona fide public function on the premises of the club or on the sportsground in respect of which he is licensed—
 - 10 (i) which is connected with any game, match, competition or social occasion which forms part of the activities normally taking place on the premises or on the sportsground; or
 - (ii) for which no suitable facilities are reasonably available at any place other than the premises of a club or a sportsground in the district;
- (c) the secretary of a bona fide exhibition;
- 15 (d) the secretary, manager or chief steward of a bona fide race or sports meeting or similar event;
- (e) the secretary or chairman of a bona fide cultural or welfare organization;
- (f) the principal of an educational institution.

Occasional licences

28. An occasional licence shall not be granted except to the holder of a licence 20 referred to in section 20 (a) (i), (ii), (iii), (v), (vi) or (vii).

Wine farmers' licences

29. A wine farmer's licence shall not be granted except to—

- (a) a person who engages in viticulture;
- 25 (b) an association of persons the majority of the members of which engages in viticulture; or
- (c) a co-operative society (as defined in section 1 of the Wine and Spirit Control Act, 1970 (Act No. 47 of 1970)) which manufactures wine from grapes produced by members of the co-operative society and of which no other such co-operative society is a member.

30 Producers' licences

30. A producer's licence shall not be granted except to a person who engages in viticulture or manufactures any other fermented beverage.

Certain other off-consumption licences

31. (1) A licence referred to in section 20 (b) (iii), (vi), (vii) or (viii) shall not be 35 granted to—

- (a) a producer or his agent;
- (b) a manufacturer of beer or his agent;
- (c) a person who has a financial interest in the business of a producer or a manufacturer of beer, or the agent of such a person;
- 40 (d) a company in which shareholders having a financial interest in the business of a producer or a manufacturer of beer, together hold a controlling interest, or the agent of such a company;
- (e) a company in which a company contemplated in paragraph (d) holds a controlling interest, or the agent of such a company.

45 (2) In the application of this section—

- 50 (a) "producer" means a co-operative society as defined in section 1 of the Wine and Spirit Control Act, 1970 (Act No. 47 of 1970), which manufactures wine or brandy for sale, or a wholesale trader who has during the expired portion of any year (as defined in section 14 of that Act) or during the immediately preceding year (as so defined) purchased a wholesale quantity (as so defined, and determined with reference to 1 November 1940) of wine of a particular vintage or the equivalent of such a quantity of wine in spirit or who so manufactures wine or brandy;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (b) "financial interest" means any such interest acquired in a business and directly or indirectly related to the fortunes, including the turn-over, of the business, but does not include such an interest which is not a controlling interest acquired in a public company, a co-operative society as defined in section 1 of the Wine and Spirit Control Act, 1970 (Act No. 47 of 1970), or a financial institution registered under the law regarding financial institutions.

CHAPTER 5

ISSUE OF LICENCES

10 Licences (excluding temporary liquor licences and occasional licences)

32. (1) After granting a licence under section 22 (4) (b), the Minister shall, subject to sections 33 and 35, issue the licence to a person named in the licence, to sell any liquor, or the kind of liquor provided for in this Act in respect of the kind of licence concerned, or, in the case of a special licence, the kind of liquor determined by the Minister, on premises the plan of which has been approved by the Minister, but which premises shall not for the purposes of the licence include such place or places thereon as he has in his discretion specifically excluded therefrom.

(2) A licence issued under subsection (1) shall be subject to such conditions set out in the licence as the Minister may in his discretion impose.

(3) The Minister may, in respect of a sorghum beer licence, special licence or producer's licence, in addition to the imposition by him of any condition or further condition under this section, declare in the licence concerned or in a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of the licence that such provisions of this Act as do not in themselves relate to the licence concerned and as are set out in the licence or notice, shall mutatis mutandis apply to that licence.

(4) The Minister may at any time after the issue of a licence under subsection (1), by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of the licence concerned—

(a) declare the licence to be subject to such conditions or further conditions set out in the notice as he may in his discretion impose;

(b) suspend, withdraw or amend any condition or declaration imposed or made by him under this section.

(5) (a) In the application of this section, the Minister may impose a condition that the holder of a special licence shall pay all the profits, or such part thereof as the Minister may determine, derived from the sale of liquor under the licence over to such person or body as the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Finance may determine.

(b) If profits are not paid over in accordance with a condition contemplated in paragraph (a), the person or body to whom the profits are to be paid over may by judicial process recover from the holder of the licence concerned an amount equal to such profits.

Incomplete premises

33. (1) If an application for a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) is granted by the Minister in respect of premises not yet erected, or premises requiring any structural alteration, addition or reconstruction to be effected so as to make them suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence, the Minister shall issue a notice to the applicant concerned in which he shall be ordered to comply with such conditions or requirements, referred to in the notice, with regard to those premises as the Minister may determine, within such period as may likewise be determined and referred to.

(2) The Minister may at any time after the issue of such a notice, on application by the applicant concerned—

(a) withdraw or amend any condition or requirement determined under subsection (1);

(b) extend the period determined under subsection (1);

(c) extend or further extend the period determined under subsection (1) or the period so determined and extended under paragraph (b) of this subsection,

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

as the case may be, in respect of premises not yet erected at the time of the issue of the notice, if he is satisfied that a substantial part of the premises has since been erected.

(3) The period determined under subsection (1) or the period so determined and 5 extended under subsection (2) (b), as the case may be, shall not be longer than 24 months, and the period extended or further extended under subsection (2) (c), as the case may be, shall not be longer than a further 12 months.

(4) When the Minister is satisfied that the premises in respect of which a notice has been issued under subsection (1), have been completed in accordance with the plan 10 thereof approved by the Minister, the conditions and requirements determined by the Minister have been complied with and the premises are suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence concerned, he shall issue the licence in accordance with subsection 32 (1)—

(a) in a case contemplated in subsection (6) and subject to this Act and the law 15 regarding deceased estates, insolvency, judicial management or mental health, to the administrator, manager, curator or person so contemplated;

(b) in any other case, to the applicant concerned.

(5) If the licence is not issued before the expiration of the period determined under subsection (1), extended under subsection (2) (b) or further extended under 20 subsection (2) (c), as the case may be, the notice concerned shall lapse and the application for the licence shall be deemed not to have been granted.

(6) If an applicant to whom a notice has been issued under subsection (1) dies, becomes insolvent, is placed under judicial management or is declared incapable of handling his own affairs—

(a) the administrator of the deceased or insolvent estate, judicial manager or 25 curator concerned or, if such an administrator, manager or curator has not yet been appointed or the holder of that office is unable or unwilling to act, a person who has an interest in the application and is authorized thereto by the Minister, shall, subject to the law regarding deceased estates, insol- 30 vency, judicial management or mental health, have all such rights as that applicant would have had if he had not died, become insolvent, been placed under judicial management or been declared so incapable; and

(b) the administrator, manager, curator or person contemplated in paragraph 35 (a) of this subsection may do anything that he may by virtue of the notice be required to do so as to satisfy the Minister as to the matters contemplated in subsection (4).

Temporary liquor licences and occasional licences

34. (1) After granting a temporary liquor licence or occasional licence under section 23 (1) (b), the magistrate shall issue the licence to a person named in the 40 licence, to sell—

(a) in the case of a temporary liquor licence—

(i) where that licence has been granted to the holder of a licence contemplated in section 27 (a) or (b), the liquor permitted by the last-mentioned licence concerned; or

45 (ii) where that licence has been granted to a person contemplated in section 27 (c), (d), (e) or (f), any liquor or the kind of liquor determined by the magistrate; or

(b) in the case of an occasional licence, the liquor permitted by the licence in respect of which the occasional licence has been granted,

50 as the case may be—

(aa) in the case of a temporary liquor licence, at the place on the premises where the occasion in respect of which the licence has been granted, takes place, determined by the magistrate; or

55 (bb) in the case of an occasional licence, on the licensed premises in respect of which the occasional licence has been granted, but which premises shall not for the purposes of the occasional licence include such place or places thereon as the magistrate has in his discretion specifically excluded therefrom.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(2) A licence issued under subsection (1) shall be subject to such conditions set out in the licence as the magistrate may in his discretion impose.

Disqualification and other incompetency

35. A licence shall not be issued to a person who is disqualified or otherwise incompetent in terms of this Act to hold the licence concerned.

CHAPTER 6

GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO LICENCES

Standard conditions

36. (1) The Minister may by a notice in the Gazette impose in respect of any kind of licence referred to in the notice such conditions as he may think fit, and thereupon every licence of that kind shall, as from a date so referred to or, if such a licence is issued after that date or such a licence which has lapsed or has been suspended before that date again becomes valid after that date in terms of section 108 or 109, from the date on which it is issued or again becomes valid, as the case may be, be subject to those conditions.

(2) The Minister may at any time suspend, withdraw or amend any condition imposed under subsection (1)—

- (a) by a notice in the Gazette, in so far as that condition relates to any kind of licence;
- 20 (b) by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of a particular licence, in so far as that condition relates to that licence.

Financial interests

37. (1) A producer, a manufacturer of beer or a person who has a controlling interest in a company, partnership or close corporation which is a producer or a manufacturer of beer, shall not without the consent of the Minister, granted on application and on such conditions as he may think fit, directly or indirectly procure a financial interest in the business to which a licence referred to in section 20 (b) (iii), (vi), (vii) or (viii) relates.

(2) The holder of a licence contemplated in subsection (1) or a person who has a controlling interest in a company, partnership or close corporation which is the holder of such a licence, shall not without the consent of the Minister, granted on application and on such conditions as he may think fit, directly or indirectly procure a financial interest in the business of a producer or a manufacturer of beer.

(3) In the application of this section, "producer" mutatis mutandis has the meaning ascribed to it in section 31 (2).

Controlling interests

38. (1) The holder of a licence shall not permit any other person to procure a controlling interest in the business to which the licence relates, unless the chairman has, on application by the holder, granted consent that such a person may procure such an interest in that business.

(2) The chairman shall not grant consent under subsection (1)—

- (a) in the case of a business to which a club liquor licence relates;
- (b) where the person who is the subject of the application, is disqualified in terms of section 25 to hold a licence;
- 45 (c) if in his opinion the possibility exists that the granting of the application may cause a harmful monopolistic situation to arise or be aggravated in the liquor trade or a branch thereof.

Management

39. (1) A person other than a natural person shall not conduct any business under a licence unless a natural person who is not disqualified in terms of section 25 to hold a licence, is appointed by it in the prescribed manner to manage and be responsible for its business.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (2) A natural person who is the holder of a licence may in the prescribed manner appoint another natural person who is not disqualified in terms of section 25 to hold a licence, to manage and be responsible for the business to which the first-mentioned licence relates.
- 5 (3) (a) If the holder of a licence or the only member of a company or close corporation which is the holder of a licence—
- (i) has, in the opinion of the Minister, left the licensed premises concerned without making provision for the conduct thereon of the business to which the licence relates; or
- 10 (ii) becomes a person who is disqualified or otherwise incompetent in terms of this Act to hold the licence,
- or if the holder of a licence which is a partnership, is dissolved, the Minister may, on application by a person who has an interest in the business concerned, appoint any person he thinks fit to manage and be responsible
- 15 for that business for a period of not more than 12 months.
- (b) An appointment under paragraph (a)—
- (i) shall be subject to such conditions set out in the appointment as the Minister may in his discretion impose;
- (ii) shall not affect any right of a person who has an interest in the business
- 20 concerned;
- (iii) may at any time be withdrawn by the Minister.
- (4) (a) A person managing and responsible for a business to which a licence relates, shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities as the holder of the licence concerned.
- 25 (b) Paragraph (a) shall not release the holder of a licence from any obligation or liability to which he is subject in law.

Nature of premises

40. (1) Subject to sections 87 and 99 and without derogating from section 41, the holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence, occasional licence and
- 30 wholesale liquor licence) shall not conduct his business under the licence on premises on which any other business (including a business to which any other licence relates) or any trade or occupation is carried on or pursued.
- (2) Unless the competent authority, at any time when the matter may in its opinion rightly be raised, determines otherwise in a particular case, two or more premises
- 35 under the same roof shall for the purposes of subsection (1) be deemed to be one if those premises are not completely separated from each other by a wall or walls in which there is no door, window or other aperture.

Nature of business

41. (1) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary—
- 40 (a) the holder of an on-consumption licence may also sell or supply newspapers, tea, coffee, cocoa, cake, confectionery, other light refreshments (including drinks other than liquor as defined in section 2 (1)), tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and matches on the licensed premises, or conduct such other business thereon as the Minister may, on application, when granting
- 45 the licence concerned or at any time thereafter, approve subject to such conditions as he may think fit;
- (b) the holder of a brewer's licence may also manufacture beer containing less than one per cent by volume of alcohol, on the licensed premises;
- (c) the holder of a liquor store licence or special licence referred to in section
- 50 20 (b) (viii) may also sell or supply mineral waters, other drinks (other than liquor as defined in section 2 (1)), tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, matches, cooler bags and such other articles as the Minister may by a notice in the Gazette declare to be articles normally used in or in connection with the serving of liquor, on the licensed premises;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(d) the holder of a wine farmer's licence may also sell such articles as the Minister may by a notice in the Gazette declare to be articles normally used in or in connection with the serving of wine, on the licensed premises.

(2) The Minister may at any time by a like notice withdraw or amend any 5 declaration made under subsection (1) (c) or (d).

Alterations to and extension of licensed premises

42. The holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence) shall not—

- (a) effect any structural alteration, addition or reconstruction of or to the licensed premises; or
- 10 (b) extend the licensed premises, except with the consent of the Minister, granted on application by him and on such conditions as the Minister may think fit.

Place for sale of liquor

43. (1) Subject to section 51 (5) and (6), the holder of a licence shall not sell liquor 15 at any place other than the licensed premises.

(2) The Minister may, on application by the holder of an on-consumption licence, grant consent to that holder, on such conditions as the Minister may think fit and for such period as the Minister may determine, to carry on his business on only a part of the licensed premises.

20 Employees

44. (1) The holder of a licence shall not—

- (a) in or in connection with the sale or supply of liquor; or
 - (b) during the times when he may sell or supply liquor, in any restricted part (if any) of the licensed premises,
- 25 employ any person—
- (i) who is under the age of 18 years; or
 - (ii) who to his knowledge has within the preceding two years been convicted of a contravention of any law governing the sale of liquor and has been sentenced therefor to imprisonment without the option of a fine.

30 (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply—

- (a) to any person of or above the age of 16 years who is undergoing or has undergone training in catering services, and who is employed on the premises of the holder of a licence to whom he is duly apprenticed in any capacity in connection with the management of the business to which the licence relates; or
- 35 (b) to a member of the family of the holder of the licence or of the manager of the business to which the licence relates.

Juveniles

45. The holder of a licence shall not—

- 40 (a) sell or supply liquor on the licensed premises to any person who is under the age of 18 years;
- (b) allow such a person who is not a person contemplated in section 44 (2), to be in any restricted part (if any) of those premises.

Accessibility of licensed premises

45 46. The holder of a licence or his agent or employee may—

- (a) refuse to admit any person to the licensed premises or any part thereof;
- (b) refuse to sell or supply liquor to any person;
- (c) request any person who is in any part of the licensed premises, to leave that part;
- 50 (d) request any person who is not a lodger on the licensed premises and who is in any part of the licensed premises reserved for lodgers, to leave that part;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (e) remove from the licensed premises any person who is drunk, violent or disorderly or whose presence on the licensed premises may subject the holder of the licence to prosecution under this Act or any other law;
- 5 (f) request any police officer to remove or assist in removing from the licensed premises any person contemplated in paragraph (e) or to remove from the licensed premises any person who refuses or fails to comply with a request contemplated in paragraph (c) or (d).

Records

47. (1) The holder of a licence shall keep the prescribed records in the prescribed
10 manner.

(2) The Minister may at any time by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of a licence—

- (a) direct that holder to keep such additional records as may be determined in the notice, in such manner as may likewise be determined;
- 15 (b) withdraw or amend any direction contemplated in paragraph (a).

Furnishing of information and documents

48. The holder of a licence shall, at the request of the Minister, furnish such information and documents in connection with the licensed premises (including a description and plan thereof), the business to which the licence relates or that 20 holder's interests in the liquor trade or a branch thereof as the Minister may require.

Quality of liquor

49. The holder of a licence shall not sell or supply liquor—

- (a) under a name given or a description contained in the Wine, Other Fermented Beverages and Spirits Act, 1957 (Act No. 25 of 1957), or any 25 other law, which does not as to its constituents comply with the requirements of that Act or other law;
- (b) as being of a particular kind or brand or as the manufacture of a particular person, which is not of that kind or brand or the manufacture of that person.

30 Reasonable requirements of public

50. (1) The holder of a licence (excluding a club liquor licence, temporary liquor licence, wholesale liquor licence, brewer's licence, wine farmer's licence, sorghum beer brewer's licence, producer's licence, sorghum beer licence and special licence) shall at all times satisfy the reasonable requirements of the public regarding the
35 availability for sale of wine, brandy and beer.

(2) Such a holder shall not be deemed to satisfy such requirements unless he has, except in so far as he is prevented from doing so by circumstances beyond his control, at all times available and prominently displayed for sale on the licensed premises concerned, in reasonable quantities—

- 40 (a) if any wine is sold on the licensed premises, wine of not fewer than eight different persons, each of whom shall either be the holder of a wine farmer's licence or producer's licence or a producer of wine, and, in the case of such a producer, be an independent producer in relation to the holder of the licence concerned and to every other such producer taken into 45 account for the calculation of that number of persons;
- (b) if any brandy is sold on the licensed premises, brandy for which there is a reasonable demand by the public of not fewer than six different producers of brandy, each of whom shall, in relation to each of the others and to the holder of the licence concerned, be an independent producer;
- 50 (c) if any beer is sold on the licensed premises, beer for which there is a reasonable demand by the public of not fewer than seven different

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

manufacturers of beer in the Republic and the Territory of South West Africa, each of whom shall, in relation to each of the others and to the holder of the licence concerned, be an independent manufacturer of beer.

(3) In the application of this section, a producer or a manufacturer of beer—

- 5 (a) in whose business another producer or manufacturer of beer, or some person on behalf of another producer or manufacturer of beer, has a financial interest, shall not, in relation to that other producer or manufacturer of beer or a producer or manufacturer of beer in whose business that 10 other producer or manufacturer of beer, or some person on behalf of that producer or manufacturer of beer, has a financial interest, be deemed to be an independent producer or manufacturer of beer;
- (b) who is a company in which another person, or some person on behalf of another person, has a controlling interest, shall not in relation to any other 15 producer or manufacturer of beer who is a company in which such other person, or some person on behalf of such other person, has a controlling interest, be deemed to be an independent producer or manufacturer of beer;
- (c) shall not be deemed to be an independent producer or manufacturer of 20 beer in relation to the holder of a licence contemplated in subsection (1) if he, or another person on his behalf, has a financial interest in the business in respect of which the licence concerned has been issued.

(4) The holder of a licence contemplated in subsection (1) may in writing request any applicable producer or any manufacturer of beer, as the case may be, to furnish
25 him in writing within 30 days as from the date of the request with such information, including the name and address of any person, as he may reasonably require to ascertain whether that or any other such producer or that or any other manufacturer of beer whose wine, brandy or beer he wishes to procure, is or is not an independent producer or manufacturer of beer in relation to another such producer or another manufacturer of beer.

(5) In the application of this section—

- (a) "producer" mutatis mutandis has the meaning ascribed to it in section 31 30 (2);
- (b) the holder of an applicable licence shall in respect of table wine as defined in section 88 (2) be deemed to satisfy the requirements contemplated in 35 subsection (1) of this section if he advertises the wine by means of a wine list or otherwise.

Storing of liquor

51. (1) The holder of a licence shall store his liquor on the licensed premises unless the Minister, on application, determines another or an additional place in the district
40 in which the licensed premises concerned are situated, in which the liquor may be stored.

(2) The holder of a wholesale liquor licence, brewer's licence, sorghum beer brewer's licence or producer's licence may, notwithstanding subsection (1), also store his liquor in a place, determined by the Minister on application, in a district
45 other than the district in which the licensed premises concerned are situated.

(3) A determination under subsection (1) or (2) shall be subject to such conditions set out in the determination as the Minister may in his discretion impose.

(4) The Minister may at any time amend any determination made under subsection (1) or (2).

(5) The holder of the licence concerned shall not sell liquor in or from a place determined under subsection (1) or (2), except to—

- (a) a person who exports liquor from the Republic;
- (b) the holder of a licence;
- (c) an exempted person;
- 55 (d) a person who sells liquor in an area for which a legislative assembly has been established under the National States Constitution Act, 1971 (Act No. 21 of 1971).

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(6) The holder of a wholesale liquor licence may, notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, also sell his liquor in or from a place determined under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, to—

- 5 (a) subject to section 154 (1) (k), a person employed in connection with the carrying on of the business to which the licence relates;
- (b) a person contemplated in Item 602.01 of Schedule 6 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964);
- (c) a person who supplies grapes or wine to him in bulk for processing or blending.

CHAPTER 9

VALIDITY OF LICENCES

Commencement of licences

105. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a licence which has been issued shall be valid—

- 20 (a) if no fees have been prescribed under section 182 (1) (i) in respect of the issue thereof, as from the date of such issue;
- (b) if any fees have in fact been so prescribed, as from the date on which such fees are paid.

25 (2) If any fees so prescribed are not paid in respect of an applicable licence before the expiration of the period so prescribed, that licence shall not acquire validity and the application for the licence shall be deemed not to have been granted.

Lapse of temporary liquor licences and occasional licences

106. A temporary liquor licence or occasional licence shall lapse immediately after the expiration of the time for which it was granted.

30 Lapse of other licences

107. A licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) shall lapse—

- 35 (a) on the date on which the holder abandons it in writing;
- (b) on 1 January of the year in respect of which the applicable fees prescribed under section 182 (1) (i) (if any) are not paid on or before 31 December of the preceding year;
- (c) on the date determined by the competent authority under section 15 (1) (b) (i) or 125 (b) when the competent authority withdraws the licence under the applicable section;
- 40 (d) where the licence has already acquired validity in accordance with section 105, on the date on which a competent court sets aside the decision to grant or issue the licence.

Restoration of lapsed licences

45 108. A licence which has lapsed, and the rights, privileges, obligations and liabilities which were attached thereto immediately before the date on which it lapsed, shall, subject to section 36 (1), again become valid on the date on which—

- (a) where the licence has lapsed under the circumstances contemplated in section 107 (b), the fees so contemplated—
- (i) plus a surcharge of 50% are paid on or before 31 January; or

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (ii) plus a surcharge of 100% are paid on or before 28 February, of the year in respect of which those fees should have been paid;
- (b) where the licence has lapsed under the circumstances contemplated in section 107 (c), the decision by the competent authority under section 15 (1) (b) (i) or 125 (c) to withdraw that licence, is set aside by the court under section 132 or 134 (3) or by the Minister under section 133, as the case may be;
- (c) where the licence has lapsed under the circumstances contemplated in section 107 (d), the decision by the court to set aside the decision to grant or issue that licence, is set aside on appeal.

Effect of suspension of licences

109. A licence which has been suspended—

- (a) shall not be valid while the suspension thereof is in force;
- (b) shall, subject to section 36 (1), together with the rights, privileges, obligations and liabilities which were attached thereto immediately before the date on which the suspension commenced, again become valid—
- (i) where the licence has been suspended for a determined period—
- (aa) after the expiration of that period;
- (bb) as from the date on which the competent authority rescinds the suspension under section 15 (1) (d) or 125 (c) or the date determined by the competent authority under the applicable section when it so rescinds the suspension, as the case may be; or
- (cc) as from the date on which the decision by the competent authority under section 15 (1) (b) (i) or 125 (b) to suspend the licence, is set aside by the court under section 132 or 134 (3) or by the Minister under section 133, as the case may be; or
- (ii) where the licence has been suspended for an indefinite time, as from the applicable date contemplated in subparagraph (i) (bb) or (cc).

Sale of liquor after lapse or suspension of licences

110. (1) The holder of a licence which has lapsed or has been suspended may, within a period of 30 days after the date on which it has lapsed or the suspension thereof has commenced, through a licensed auctioneer sell by public auction, held on the licenced premises concerned or the premises of that auctioneer, any liquor which was on those premises on that date.
- (2) If the holder of a licence which has lapsed under the circumstances contemplated in section 107 (c) or (d) or has been suspended under section 15 (1) (b) (i), has not availed himself of subsection (1) of this section but has, within a period of 30 days after the date on which the licence has so lapsed or the suspension thereof has commenced, instituted judicial proceedings for the review of the decision concerned or noted an appeal against that decision, that holder may, within a period of 30 days after the date on which the decision concerned is confirmed on review or finally confirmed on appeal, as the case may be, or on which he abandons the review or appeal, mutatis mutandis avail himself of subsection (1) of this section.

Fees not refundable

111. The fact that a licence has lapsed or has been suspended or has again become valid shall not entitle the person who was or is the holder thereof, as the case may be, to a refund of any prescribed fees, or any part thereof, already paid in connection with the licence concerned.

CHAPTER 10

TRANSFER OF LICENCES

Non-transferability of certain licences

112. A temporary liquor licence or occasional licence shall not be transferable to another person.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Applications

113. The holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) may at any time make application for the transfer thereof to another person (hereinafter called the prospective holder).

5 Consideration of applications

114. (1) The chairman shall consider each application for the transfer of a licence and may—

- (a) refuse the application; or
- (b) grant the application.

10 (2) The chairman shall not grant such an application—

- 15 (a) unless he is satisfied that the prospective holder concerned—
 - (i) on the date of the consideration of the application, has, for the purposes of the licence for which the application for transfer is made, a right to occupy the licensed premises concerned;
 - (ii) is of good character and is otherwise fit to be the holder of the licence;
- (b) if in his opinion the possibility exists that the granting of the application may cause a harmful monopolistic condition to arise or be aggravated in the liquor trade or a branch thereof.

Disqualification and other incompetency

20 115. (1) A licence shall not be transferred to a person who is disqualified or otherwise incompetent in terms of this Act to hold the licence concerned.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section read with section 31, shall not be so construed as to—

- 25 (a) prohibit the granting of an application for the transfer of a licence—
 - (i) from one agent of any person to another agent of that person;
 - (ii) to a producer or a manufacturer of beer, or a person having a controlling interest in a company which is such a producer or manufacturer of beer, who has, with the consent of the Minister, granted under section 37 (1), directly or indirectly procured a financial interest in the business to which the licence concerned relates, or to the agent of that producer, manufacturer of beer or person; or
 - 30 (iii) to a person (other than a producer or a manufacturer of beer, or a person having a controlling interest in a company which is a producer or manufacturer of beer) who has, with the consent of the Minister, granted under section 37 (2), directly or indirectly procured a financial interest in the business to which the licence concerned relates, or to the agent of that person;
- 35 (b) prohibit the transfer of a licence—
 - 40 (i) held by, or by the agent of, a manufacturer of beer who on 4 May 1956 was a member of the Brewers' Institute of South Africa, to, or to the agent of, another manufacturer of beer who on that date was a member of that institute; or
 - (ii) held by a company, or the agent of a company, to a person who on 4 May 1956 held all the shares of that company, or to the agent of that person.

45 (3) In the application of this section, "producer" mutatis mutandis has the meaning ascribed to it in section 31 (2).

Issue of certificates of transfer

116. (1) After he has granted an application for the transfer of a licence under 50 section 114 (2) (b), the chairman shall issue a certificate of transfer to a person named in the certificate.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (2) The effect of the issue of a certificate of transfer shall be that—
- (a) if no fees have been prescribed under section 182 (1) (j) in respect of the transfer thereof—
- 5 (i) the person who on the date immediately before the date of the issue of the certificate was the holder of the licence concerned shall as from the last-mentioned date cease to be such holder; and
- (ii) the person to whom the certificate has been issued shall as from the last-mentioned date for all purposes become the holder of the licence;
- 10 (b) if any fees have in fact been so prescribed—
- (i) the person who on the date immediately before the date of the issue of the certificate was the holder of the licence concerned—
- (aa) shall continue to be such holder unless the person to whom the certificate has been issued pays the applicable fees before the expiration of the period so prescribed; and
- 15 (bb) shall cease to be such holder as from the date on which such fees are so paid; and
- (ii) the person to whom the certificate has been issued—
- (aa) shall not become the holder of the licence concerned unless he so pays such fees; and
- 20 (bb) shall as from the date on which such fees are so paid for all purposes become the holder of the licence concerned.
- (3) If any fees so prescribed are not paid in respect of an applicable licence before the expiration of the period so prescribed, the certificate of transfer concerned shall lapse and the application for the transfer of that licence shall be deemed not to have
- 25 been granted.

117. If a prospective holder dies, becomes insolvent, is placed under judicial management or is declared incapable of handling his own affairs on or before the date on which the application for the transfer of the licence concerned is considered—

- 30 (a) the administrator of the deceased or insolvent estate, judicial manager or curator concerned or, if such an administrator, manager or curator has not yet been appointed or the holder of that office is unable or unwilling to act, any other person who has an interest in the application and is authorized thereto by the chairman, shall, subject to the law regarding deceased
- 35 estates, insolvency, judicial management or mental health, have all such rights as the prospective holder would have had if he had not died, become insolvent, been placed under judicial management or been declared so incapable; and
- 40 (b) the chairman may, subject to this Act and the said law, in his discretion grant the application in favour of the administrator, manager, curator or other person concerned.

Death or incapability of certain holders

118. (1) If the holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) dies, becomes insolvent, is placed under judicial management or is declared incapable of handling his own affairs—

- 45 (a) the administrator of the deceased or insolvent estate, judicial manager or curator concerned shall, subject to the law regarding deceased estates, insolvency, judicial management or mental health, as from the date of his appointment as such, for all purposes become the holder of the licence;
- 50 (b) the administrator of the deceased or insolvent estate, judicial manager or curator concerned may, for the purposes of the administration or management of the estate concerned, conduct the business to which the licence relates.

55 (2) The Minister may, on application by any person and if satisfied that every person who has a financial interest in the business contemplated in subsection (1) has been given reasonable notice of the application, appoint any person who is not disqualified or otherwise incompetent in terms of this Act to hold the licence concerned, to conduct that business until the appointment of the administrator,

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

manager or curator so contemplated, and a person so appointed shall, subject to the law regarding deceased estates, insolvency, judicial management or mental health, for the period of his appointment for all purposes be deemed to be the holder of the licence.

- 5 (3) If the only member of a company or close corporation which is the holder of a licence dies, becomes insolvent, is placed under judicial management or is declared incapable of handling his own affairs, subsections (1) and (2) shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, mutatis mutandis apply to that company or corporation.

CHAPTER 11

10 REMOVAL OF LICENCES

Non-removability of certain licences

119. A temporary liquor licence or occasional licence shall not be removable from the licensed premises concerned to other premises.

Applications

- 15 120. The holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) may at any time make application for the removal, whether permanently or temporarily, of the licence from the licensed premises concerned to other premises situated in the same district as the licensed premises.

Consideration of applications

- 20 121. (1) The chairman shall consider each application for the removal of a licence and may, after consultation with not fewer than two other members of the Board (of whom one shall be a member appointed under section 7 (1) (c) for the area in which the premises which are the subject of the application, are situated)—

- 25 (a) refuse the application;
 (b) grant the application; or
 (c) refer the application to the Board for consideration.

(2) The chairman or the Board, as the case may be, shall not grant such an application —

- 30 (a) in the case of a wine farmer's licence, unless he or it is satisfied that the premises in respect of which the application is made, are situated at a place other than the place where the liquor concerned is manufactured;

- (b) in the case of any licence—
 35 (i) unless he or it is satisfied that—
 (aa) the applicant concerned has, on the date of the consideration of the application, for the purposes of the licence for which the application for removal is made, a right to occupy the premises concerned;

- (bb) the premises are or will on completion be suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence;

- 40 (cc) if the premises are situated in the vicinity of a place of worship or school or in a residential area, the business will be carried on in a manner that would not disturb the proceedings in that place of worship or school or prejudice the residents of that residential area;

- 45 (dd) the removal of the licence to those premises is in the public interest;

- (ii) if in his or its opinion the possibility exists that the granting of the application may cause a harmful monopolistic condition to arise or be aggravated in the liquor trade or a branch thereof.

50 Issue of certificates of removal

122. (1) The chairman may, after he or the Board has granted an application for the removal of a licence under section 121 (1) (b) or 15 (1) (a) (iii), but subject to section 123, issue a certificate of removal to the holder of the licence concerned.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (2) A certificate of removal shall be subject to such conditions set out in the certificate as the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, may in his or its discretion impose.
- (3) The chairman may at any time after the issue of a certificate of removal, by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of the licence concerned, withdraw or amend any condition imposed by him or the Board under subsection (2).
- (4) (a) The effect of the issue of a certificate of removal shall be that—
- (i) if no fees have been prescribed under section 182 (1) (k) in respect of the removal of the licence concerned, the holder of the licence shall, as from a date determined by the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, and mentioned in the certificate, either permanently or for the period so determined and mentioned; or
 - (ii) if any fees have in fact been so prescribed, the holder of the licence shall, as from the date on which the applicable fees have been paid before the expiration of the period so prescribed, either permanently or for the period determined by the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, and mentioned in the certificate, conduct the business to which the licence relates on the premises (the plan of which has been approved by the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, but which premises shall not for the purposes of the licence include such place or places thereon as he or it has in his or its discretion specifically excluded therefrom) in respect of which the application concerned was made.
- (b) If any fees so prescribed have not been paid in respect of an applicable licence before the expiration of the period so prescribed, the certificate of removal concerned shall lapse and the application for the removal of that licence shall be deemed not to have been granted.
- (5) Where a certificate of removal permits the removal of a licence to other premises for a determined period, the chairman may at any time before the expiration of that period, on application by the holder of the licence concerned—
- (a) extend that period; or
 - (b) withdraw the certificate.

Incomplete premises

123. (1) If an application for the removal of a licence is granted by the chairman or the Board in respect of premises not yet erected, or premises requiring any structural alteration, addition or reconstruction to be effected so as to make them suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence, the chairman shall issue a notice to the applicant concerned in which he shall be ordered to comply with such conditions or requirements, referred to in the notice, with regard to those premises as the chairman may determine, within such period as may likewise be determined and referred to.
- (2) The chairman may at any time after the issue of such a notice, on application by the applicant concerned—
- (a) withdraw or amend any condition or requirement determined under subsection (1);
 - (b) extend the period determined under subsection (1);
 - (c) extend or further extend the period determined under subsection (1) or the period so determined and extended under paragraph (b) of this subsection, as the case may be, in respect of premises not yet erected at the time of the issue of the notice, if he is satisfied that a substantial part of the premises has since been erected.
- (3) The period determined under subsection (1) or the period so determined and extended under subsection (2) (b), as the case may be, shall not be longer than 24 months, and the period extended or further extended under subsection (2) (c), as the case may be, shall not be longer than a further 12 months.
- (4) When the chairman is satisfied that the premises in respect of which a notice has been issued under subsection (1), have been completed in accordance with the plan thereof approved by the chairman or the Board, as the case may be, the conditions and requirements determined by the chairman have been complied with and the premises are suitable for the purposes for which they will be used under the licence concerned, he shall issue the certificate of removal in accordance with section 5 122 (1).

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(5) If the certificate of removal is not issued before the expiration of the period determined under subsection (1) or extended under subsection (2) (b) or further extended under subsection (2) (c), as the case may be, the notice concerned shall lapse and the application for the removal of the licence shall be deemed not to have 10 been granted.

CHAPTER 12

SPECIAL POWERS IN CONNECTION WITH SALE, SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION OF LIQUOR

Minister may refer matters to Board

124. The Minister may in his discretion refer any matter arising from the 15 application of this Act or relating to the distribution or control over the distribution of liquor to the Board for consideration and request the Board to advise him, or to furnish him with a report or recommendation, on the matter concerned.

Minister's powers after recommendations or reports by Board

125. If the Board furnishes the Minister with a recommendation contemplated in 20 section 15 (2), the Minister may, after consideration of the recommendation, the report by the Board (if any) and any other matter which in the opinion of the Minister ought to be taken into consideration—

- (a) notwithstanding the recommendation, refuse to take the recommended steps;
- 25 (b) suspend for an indefinite time or for such period as he may determine or withdraw from such date as he may determine, a licence which is the subject of the recommendation, or any right or privilege which is attached thereto;
- (c) rescind the suspension of the licence concerned or of any right or privilege 30 which is attached thereto, with immediate effect or from such date as he may determine, subject to such conditions as he may in his discretion impose; or
- (d) declare the licence concerned to be subject to such conditions or further conditions as he may in his discretion impose, and the Minister's decision on the matter shall be final.

35 Closing of licensed and other premises

126. (1) The magistrate or, if the magistrate is not available, any police officer of or above the rank of warrant officer may, if he is of the opinion that a strike or lock-out or public disturbance, disorder, riot or public violence is occurring or threatening at or near any licensed premises or any premises on or place in which 40 liquor may be sold without a licence, in such manner as may appear to him in the circumstances of the case to be the most effective, order the holder of the licence or the exempted person concerned, as the case may be, or the manager or agent of that holder or person, to close the premises or place concerned during such times or for such periods as the magistrate or the police officer concerned may think fit.

45 (2) The holder of a licence or an exempted person, or his manager or agent, shall, on receipt of an order given under subsection (1), forthwith comply therewith, and, if he fails to do so, the person who has given the order may take such steps and use or cause to be used such force as he may think necessary to close the premises or place concerned.

50 (3) Any order given under subsection (1), may at any time be withdrawn—

- (a) by the magistrate or police officer who gave such an order;
- (b) where such an order was given by the magistrate, by any other magistrate of the district concerned;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (c) where such an order was given by a police officer, by a police officer of more senior rank.

Restriction of sale or supply of liquor

- 5 127. (1) (a) The Minister may, at the request of the magistrate, or the local authority in whose area of jurisdiction the area concerned is situated, and if he thinks it desirable in the interests of the population or a part of the population in any area, by a notice in the Gazette declare that area to be a restricted area for the purposes of this section.
- 10 (b) A declaration contemplated in subsection (1) (a) shall not be made unless the Board, after notice thereof has been given in the prescribed manner and after hearing evidence in public, recommends that the area concerned be declared a restricted area.
- (2) The Minister may—
- 15 (a) determine—
- (i) that no application for a licence in respect of premises situated in the restricted area concerned shall be considered as from the date of the determination;
- (ii) that no licence granted before that date in respect of such premises but not yet issued on that date—
- 20 (aa) shall be issued;
- (bb) shall be issued except subject to such conditions contemplated in subsection (3) as he may in his discretion impose;
- (b) by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of a licence issued before the date of the determination in respect of licenced premises situated in the restricted area concerned, declare that licence to be subject to such conditions contemplated in subsection (3) as he may in his discretion impose.
- 25 (3) The conditions which the Minister may impose under subsection (2) may, notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, relate to—
- 30 (a) the quantity or kind of liquor which may be sold or supplied;
- (b) the category of persons to whom liquor or any kind of liquor shall not be sold or supplied;
- (c) the place where liquor may be sold, supplied or consumed;
- (d) the receptacles in which liquor shall be sold or supplied;
- 35 (e) the days per week, but not fewer than five (except in a week in which a public holiday falls, when they may be four), on which liquor may be sold;
- (f) the hours, but not fewer than five, during which liquor may be sold on those days.
- (4) The Minister may at any time—
- 40 (a) after a determination under subsection (2) has been made—
- (i) withdraw the determination;
- (ii) on such conditions as he may think fit exempt any person or category of persons from the determination;
- (iii) by a notice delivered or tendered to the holder of a licence which is subject to conditions imposed by him under this section, suspend, withdraw or amend any condition or declaration so imposed or made by him under this section;
- 45 (iv) withdraw any exemption granted under subparagraph (ii);
- (b) after a notice under subsection (1) has been issued, suspend, withdraw or amend the notice.
- 50

Prohibition of sale of liquor

128. (1) If he is satisfied from information on oath that the fact that liquor is being sold on particular licensed premises gives rise to circumstances on or near those premises which probably warrant the suspension or withdrawal of the licence concerned or of any right or privilege attached thereto, the Minister may, after consultation with the chairman and after having afforded the holder of the licence an opportunity to make representations with regard to the matter to him within a period of seven days, by a notice delivered or tendered to that holder, prohibit him from selling liquor until the Board has had the opportunity to consider the matter and has taken such steps under section 15 as shall or may be taken in the circumstances of the case.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (2) A notice under subsection (1)—
- 5 (a) may at any time before the Board considers the matter which is the subject of the notice, be withdrawn by the Minister by a like notice;
- (b) shall lapse if a meeting of the Board to consider that matter is not convened within 60 days after the notice has been delivered or tendered to the holder of the licence concerned, as the case may be.

10 Restriction of conveyance of liquor

129. (1) The Minister may, after having afforded the holder of an off-consumption licence an opportunity to make representations with regard to the matter to him within a period of seven days, by a notice delivered or tendered to that holder, prohibit him for such period as may be mentioned in the notice, from conveying or 15 causing to be conveyed at any time liquor in a quantity of more than 50 litres unless he is in possession of a permit, issued by a police officer, authorizing him to convey or cause to be conveyed liquor in such a quantity.

- (2) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall not apply to the conveyance of liquor—
- 20 (a) from the licensed premises concerned to any other licensed premises or to premises or a place to which an exemption contemplated in section 3 or 4 relates;
- (b) from a place determined under section 51 (1) or (2), where the liquor is stored.
- 25 (3) The Minister may at any time by a like notice withdraw any notice issued under subsection (1).

FURNISHING OF REASONS, REVIEWS AND APPEALS

Reasons for decisions by competent authority

- 30 130. (1) A person who has made any application, objection or representations in terms of this Act and who feels aggrieved by a decision on a question of law made by the competent authority in connection with the application, objection or representations, may make application to the competent authority that the competent authority furnish reasons for that decision.
- 35 (2) The competent authority shall, after receipt of the last-mentioned application, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner furnish its reasons for the decision concerned.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the competent authority shall not be obliged to furnish reasons for any decision made by it by virtue of this Act.

40 Grounds for review

131. The court of a division of the Supreme Court may, at the instance of a person who has made any application, objection or representations in terms of this Act and who feels aggrieved by a decision made by the competent authority in connection with that application, objection or representations, review the decision only if the

45 court is satisfied—

- (a) that the competent authority exceeded its powers or refused to exercise a power which it was obliged to exercise or exercised a power in an arbitrary or mala fide or grossly unreasonable manner; or
- 50 (b) where that decision was made by the Board, that a member of the Board who was in terms of section 10 disqualified from sitting on the Board, sat on the Board in the consideration of the matter in respect of which the decision was made.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Powers on review

132. The court reviewing a decision of the competent authority in terms of section 131, may, if the court is satisfied that—

- 5 (a) any of the grounds for review referred to in that section has been proved; and
 (b) the applicant has been substantially prejudiced by the decision, set aside the decision, and shall, in setting aside the decision, unless in its opinion exceptional circumstances warrant another order, issue an order that the competent authority consider afresh the matter in respect of which the decision was made.

10 Appeals to Minister

133. (1) The holder of a licence who feels aggrieved by a decision made by the Board under section 15 (1) (b) (i) or (ii) may within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner appeal to the Minister against the decision.

15 (2) The Minister may, after considering the appeal under subsection (1), in his discretion confirm, set aside or amend the decision concerned, and the Minister's decision on the matter shall be final.

Appeals to Supreme Court

134. (1) A person who has made any application, objection or representations in terms of this Act and who feels aggrieved by a decision on a question of law made
 20 by the competent authority in connection with the application, objection or representations, may appeal to the court of a division of the Supreme Court against the decision.

(2) Such an appeal shall be noted and prosecuted as if it were an appeal against a judgment in a magistrate's court in civil proceedings.

25 (3) If the court, after considering the appeal, is satisfied that the competent authority has misdirected itself in the making of the decision concerned, the court may set aside that decision, and shall in setting aside the decision, unless in its opinion exceptional circumstances warrant another order, issue an order that the competent authority consider afresh the matter in respect of which the decision was 30 made.

CHAPTER 14

PROHIBITED AND CONTROLLED LIQUIDS

Prohibited concoctions and drinks

35 135. (1) No person shall manufacture, have in his possession or custody or under his control or consume or sell, supply or give to any person—

- (a) any concoction manufactured by the fermentation of treacle, sugar or other substances and known as isityimiyana, hopana, qediviki, skokiaan, uhali or barberton;
 40 (b) any concoction which, though called by another name, is similar or substantially similar to any of the concoctions referred to in paragraph (a);
 (c) any concoction manufactured by the fermentation of any substance the consumption of which would, in the opinion of the Minister, be prejudicial to the health and well-being of the population of the Republic, and
 45 specified by him by a notice in the Gazette; or
 (d) any drink manufactured by the distillation of any concoction referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

(2) The Minister may at any time by a like notice withdraw or amend any notice issued under subsection (1) (c).

50 Methylated spirit

136. (1) The Minister may make regulations regarding—

- (a) the regulation and restriction of the importation, transshipment, conveyance, transmission, keeping, sale, supply or use of methylated spirit;
 (b) the categories of persons who may sell methylated spirit;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (c) the keeping of records or other documents in respect of any dealing in methylated spirit, the form and manner in which the records or other documents shall be kept and the particulars to be entered therein;
- 5 (d) the custody and retention of records or other documents contemplated in paragraph (c);
- (e) the denaturation, odorization, colouring and rendering impotable of methylated spirit sold or kept for sale, and the manner in which this shall be done;
- 10 (f) the quantities of methylated spirit which may be sold on any occasion to any person and the receptacles in which it shall be sold;
- (g) the prohibition or restriction of the purchase or possession of methylated spirit, including the granting of permits for the purchase or possession thereof.
- (2) A regulation made under this section may for a contravention thereof or failure 15 to comply therewith prescribe a penalty which shall not exceed a fine of R1 000 or imprisonment for a period of six months.
- (3) Different regulations may be made under this section in respect of different categories of persons or different areas.

CHAPTER 15

20 INSPECTORS AND POLICE OFFICERS

*Designation and functions of inspectorsDesignation of inspectors

137. (1) The Minister may designate any person in the employ of the State as an inspector for the purposes of this Act.
- 25 (2) An inspector shall perform—
- (a) such functions of a designated police officer as the Minister may determine;
- (b) such other functions in connection with the administration of this Act as may be assigned to him by the Minister.
- (3) An inspector shall be provided with a certificate, signed by the Minister, 30 declaring that he has been designated as an inspector for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) An inspector performing any function by virtue of subsection (2) shall on demand by any person affected by the performance of that function exhibit the certificate with which he has been provided in terms of subsection (3), to that person.

Powers of inspectors

- 35 138. (1) An inspector may in the performance of his functions—
- (a) at all reasonable times enter any licensed premises, any premises in respect of which an application for a licence has been made or any premises on or place in which liquor may be sold without a licence, and, after having 40 informed the person who is then in charge of the premises or place of the purpose of his visit, make such investigation and enquiry as he may think necessary;
- (b) at any time demand from any person that he forthwith or at a time and place fixed by the inspector produce to him any record or other document which is in the possession or custody or under the control of that person or 45 any other person on his behalf;
- (c) inspect such a record or other document and make copies thereof or extracts therefrom, and demand from any person contemplated in paragraph (b) an explanation of any entry therein, and seize such a record or 50 other document if in his opinion it may afford evidence of an offence in terms of this Act;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (d) either alone or in the presence of any other person, as he may think fit, question the holder of any licence, or any person who manages and is responsible for the business to which a licence relates or who has made an application for a licence, or any exempted person, or any employee of that holder or person, or any person whom he finds on premises or in a place entered by him in terms of paragraph (a) or whom he on reasonable grounds suspects to have the possession or custody of or the control over any record or other document, with regard to any matter which he is investigating;
- (e) order any person contemplated in paragraph (b) or (d) to appear before him at a time and place fixed by the inspector, and at that time and place question that person with regard to any matter which he is investigating.
- 10
- (2) Any person who is in charge of any premises or place contemplated in subsection (1) shall at all reasonable times while an inspector is on those premises or
- 15 in that place render such assistance as that inspector may require in the exercise of his powers under that subsection.

*Designation and functions of certain police officersDesignation of police officers for certain purposes

139. The Minister of Law and Order may designate any police officer who is a 20 commissioned officer to perform the functions of a designated police officer in terms of this Act.

Reports on applications

140. A designated police officer shall—
- 25 (a) in respect of every prescribed application made in terms of this Act, report to the competent authority on such matters as may be prescribed or which ought, in the opinion of that officer, to be taken into consideration in respect of the application concerned;
- (b) at the request of the competent authority, furnish such information or further information in connection with any matter to the competent
- 30 authority as may be requested from him.

Reports on certain holders and premises

141. A designated police officer shall, as soon as possible after the fact concerned has come to his notice, submit to the chairman a report—
- 35 (a) on any failure by the holder of a licence (excluding a temporary liquor licence and occasional licence) to discharge an obligation which is attached to the licence concerned;
- (b) if such a holder becomes disqualified or otherwise incompetent in terms of this Act to hold the licence concerned;
- 40 (c) if he is of the opinion that alterations or repairs ought to be effected to any licensed premises to which a licence other than a hotel liquor licence relates;
- (d) on any other matter which in the opinion of that officer ought to be brought to the notice of the Board.

Reports on certain convictions

45 142. When the holder of a licence or a person who has been appointed in terms of section 39 (1) to manage and be responsible for a business under a licence has been convicted of an offence in terms of either this Act or any other law or the common law and is sentenced therefor to a fine of not less than R1 000 or to imprisonment without the option of a fine, a designated police officer shall submit to the chairman

50 a report on the conviction and the circumstances of the offence.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

*Powers of police officers in generalSearch and inspection in general

143. A police officer may—

- 5 (a) during the times when the holder of a licence is authorized in terms of this Act to sell or supply liquor, enter and inspect any part of the premises concerned or any place where liquor is stored by virtue of a determination under section 51 (1) or (2), and take stock of all liquor found on those premises or in that place;
- 10 (b) at any time enter and search any premises, place or vehicle, or search any person or object, whether found on those premises or in that place or vehicle or not, if—
- 15 (i) there are reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence in terms of this Act is being committed on those premises or in that place or vehicle, or is being committed by that person or by means of that vehicle or object, or that it is being used in connection with the commission of such an offence; or
- 20 (ii) there are reasonable grounds to suspect that—
- (aa) that person has in his possession any liquor, vehicle or object;
- (bb) any liquor, vehicle or object is kept on those premises or in that place;
- (cc) liquor is kept in that vehicle or object;
- (dd) any object is kept in that vehicle; or
- (ee) any object is kept in any receptacle,
- 25 (c) enter any premises on or place in which liquor is being sold and demand that the licence authorizing such sale be produced to him;
- (d) at any time inspect any record or other document required to be kept by virtue of this Act;
- 30 (e) at the request of the holder of a licence or his agent or employee, remove or assist in removing from the licensed premises concerned any person contemplated in section 46 (e) or remove from the licensed premises concerned any person who refuses or fails to comply with a request contemplated in section 46 (c) or (d).

Search and seizure in connection with methylated spirit

35 144. A police officer or an officer as defined in section 1 (1) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964), may, in the performance of his functions as such—

- 40 (a) at any time enter and search the premises of a person who is authorized in terms of this Act to sell methylated spirit, inspect any record or other document required to be kept by virtue of this Act and take stock of all methylated spirit found on the premises;
- (b) at any time enter and search the premises of a person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of unlawfully importing, keeping, selling, supplying or using methylated spirit;
- 45 (c) on premises so entered seize any methylated spirit kept in contravention of this Act.

Demanding of names and addresses

145. A police officer may—

- 50 (a) demand the name and address of any person whom he finds on premises or in a place or vehicle from which he removes or on or in which he seizes any liquor, methylated spirit or object under this Act or any other law;
- (b) if such a person refuses or fails to furnish his full name and address so demanded, arrest that person;
- 55 (c) if such a person, when his name and address is so demanded, furnishes a name and address which that officer on reasonable grounds suspects to be false or misleading, arrest and detain that person for a period of not more than 12 hours until the name and address so furnished have been verified.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- 10 or on such a demand furnishes any name or address which is false or misleading, knowing it to be false or misleading,
- shall be guilty of an offence.

Offences regarding liquor trade

158. (1) Any person who—
- (a) enters into or is a party to a tie which is not permitted by virtue of subsection (2); or
- 15 (b) contravenes section 37 (1) or (2),
- shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) The Minister may, on application by any one of the prospective parties concerned, grant consent to the entry into a tie to which a manufacturer of liquor and
- 20 the holder of a wholesale liquor licence or an applicant for such a licence will be the parties.
- (3) In the application of this section, "tie" means any agreement, understanding or condition whereby any person is directly or indirectly bound at any time—
- (a) to purchase liquor, whether together with any other article or not, from or
- 25 through any person, whether to the exclusion wholly or partly of any other person or not;
- (b) to purchase or keep in stock liquor of a particular manufacturer;
- (c) not to purchase liquor from or through a particular person;
- (d) not to purchase or keep in stock liquor of a particular manufacturer.

30 Offences by holders of licences in general

159. The holder of a licence who—
- (a) if it is not otherwise an offence in terms of this Act, refuses or fails to comply with a condition which is attached to the licence;
- 35 (b) contravenes section 38 (1);
- (c) keeps the licensed premises open for the sale, supply or consumption of liquor or sells or supplies any liquor at a time when the sale of liquor is not permitted by the licence;

- 40 (e) sells or supplies liquor in a place where the sale or supply of liquor is not permitted by the licence;
- (f) contravenes section 39 (1), 40 (1), 42, 44 (1) (a), 45 (1) (a) or 47 (1);
- (g) fails to keep any additional record which he is by virtue of section 47 (2) required to keep, or keeps such a record in an inadequate or improper
- 45 manner;
- (h) contravenes section 49 (a) or (b) or 50 (1); or
- (i) refuses or fails to comply with a notice under section 128 (1),
- shall be guilty of an offence.

50 Offences by holders of on-consumption licences

160. The holder of an on-consumption licence who—
- (a) allows drunkenness or licentious conduct on the licensed premises;
- (b) sells or supplies liquor to a person who is in a state of intoxication;
- 55 (c) allows the licensed premises to be used as a brothel or to be frequented by persons who are regarded as prostitutes;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (d) allows any person—
- (i) to perform an offensive, indecent or obscene act; or
 - (ii) who is not clothed or not properly clothed, to perform or to appear, on a part of the licensed premises where entertainment of any nature is presented or to which the public has access; or
- 5 (e) contravenes section 44 (1) (b), 45 (1) (b) or 52, shall be guilty of an offence.

Offences by holders of off-consumption licences

- 10 161. The holder of an off-consumption licence who—
- (a) contravenes section 73, 74 (1), 75 (1), 84 (1), 89, 92 (1) or 102 (1);
 - (b) conveys or causes to be conveyed any liquor in a quantity of more than 50 litres in conflict with a notice under section 129 (1); or
 - (c) opens or allows to be opened on the licensed premises any receptacle containing liquor sold by him,
- 15 shall be guilty of an offence.

Offences by holders of sundry licences

- 20 162. The holder of a wine-house licence, sorghum beer licence, special licence or producer's licence who contravenes or refuses or fails to comply with a provision of this Act which applies to that licence by virtue of a declaration under section 32 (3) or 60 (3), as the case may be, the contravention of which or the refusal or failure to comply with which constitutes an offence in terms of this Act by the holder of a kind of licence other than the licence concerned, shall be guilty of an offence.

*Punitive jurisdictionPenalties

- 25 163. (1) Any person who is guilty of an offence in terms of this Act, shall on conviction be liable—
- (a) in the case of an offence referred to in section 154 (1) (a) or (i) or 159 (a), (b) or (i), to a fine of not more than R10 000 or to imprisonment for a period of not more than five years;
 - 30 (b) in the case of an offence referred to in section 154 (1) (b) to (h) or (j) to (k), 155, 156, 157, 158, 159 (c) to (h), 160 or 161, to a fine of not more than R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period of not more than six months; and
 - (c) in the case of an offence referred to in section 162, to the same penalties to which the holder of the other kind of licence concerned is liable for the
- 35 corresponding offence.
- (2) Any person who is convicted of an offence contemplated in subsection (1) within a period of five years after he was convicted of any offence contemplated in that subsection, shall be liable to double the fine or imprisonment which may be imposed for that offence, or to both that fine and that imprisonment.

40 Competency to impose penalties

- 164. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a magistrate's court shall have jurisdiction to impose any penalty prescribed by this Act.

*Vicarious responsibilityHolders of licences

- 45 165. When the manager of the business to which a licence relates, the agent or employee of the holder of a licence or a member of the family of such a holder or manager does or omits to do any act which it would be an offence in terms of this Act

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

for the holder concerned to do or omit to do, that holder shall be deemed himself to have done or omitted to do the act, unless he satisfies the court that—

- (a) he neither connived at nor permitted the act or omission by the manager, agent, employee or member concerned;
 - 5 (b) he took all reasonable steps to prevent the act or omission; and
 - (c) an act or omission, whether lawful or unlawful, of the nature charged on no condition or under no circumstance fell within the scope of the authority or employment of the manager, agent, employee or member concerned,
- and the fact that that holder issued instructions whereby an act or omission of that 10 nature is prohibited shall not in itself be sufficient proof that he took all reasonable steps to prevent the act or omission.

Managers, agents, employees and family members

166. (1) When the holder of a licence is by virtue of section 165 liable for an act or omission by the manager of the business to which the authority or licence
15 concerned relates, the agent or employee of that holder or a member of the family of that holder or manager, that manager, agent, employee or member shall also be liable therefor as if he were the holder of the licence concerned.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not release the manager, agent, employee or member contemplated in that subsection from any other liability which he may have incurred
20 apart from the liability which he shares with the holder of the licence concerned.

*Evidential and procedural mattersProof of sale of liquor by non-holders

167. Evidence in any criminal proceedings that any person who is not the holder of a licence—

- 25 (a) had on or near his premises any signboard or notice purporting that he holds a licence;
- (b) was in occupation or control of premises fitted out with a bar or similar place containing bottles, casks or other receptacles so displayed as to induce a reasonable suspicion that liquor was sold thereon;
- 30 (c) had on his premises more liquor than was reasonably required for his personal use and for the use of any person residing thereon; or
- (d) bought or procured or had in his possession or custody or under his control more liquor than was reasonably necessary for consumption by himself, his family or his bona fide employees or guests,

35 shall be prima facie proof of the sale of liquor by the first-mentioned person.

Proof that person belongs to particular category

168. (1) If it is alleged in any prosecution for an offence in terms of this Act that any person is under a particular age or belongs to any other particular category, evidence that the person concerned is apparently under that age or that he is 40 regarded as belonging to that other category or by his appearance belongs thereto, as the case may be, shall be prima facie proof of that fact.

(2) If in addition the court is satisfied from personal observation that that person is apparently under that age or by his appearance belongs to that other category, it shall announce and record that fact, but that announcement and recording shall not
45 prevent the accused from proving that that person, although having the appearance of, is not in fact, a person under that age or belonging to that other category, as the case may be.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Proof of licences and certain conditions

169. A document which purports to be a copy of a licence shall on its mere production in any judicial proceedings be prima facie proof of the licence, and any condition recorded thereon shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be a 5 condition imposed under this Act in respect of the licence.

Proof of certain qualifications and of issue of licences

170. In any prosecution for an offence in terms of this Act, a statement made by a witness that he is the holder of a licence or an exempted person or the agent or employee of such a holder or person, or that a licence has been issued in respect of 10 any relevant business, shall be prima facie proof of that fact.

Proof of certain facts by affidavit

171. (1) If the question arises in any civil proceedings whether a particular act, transaction or occurrence did or did not take place in a particular department of the State or in a branch or office of such a department, or the question arises in such 15 proceedings whether a particular functionary in such a department, branch or office did or did not perform a particular act or did or did not take part in a particular transaction, a document purporting to be an affidavit by a person who in that affidavit alleges—

20 (a) that he is in the employ of the State in the department, branch or office concerned;

(b) that—
25 (i) if the act, transaction or occurrence concerned took place in that department, branch or office; or
(ii) if the functionary concerned performed such an act or took part in such a transaction, it would in the ordinary course of events have come to his, the deponent's, knowledge and a record thereof which is available to him would have been kept; and

30 (c) that it has not come to his knowledge—
(i) that such an act, transaction or occurrence took place; or
(ii) that that functionary performed such an act or took part in such a transaction, and that there is no record thereof, shall on mere production be admissible as proof in those proceedings that the act, 35 transaction or occurrence concerned did not take place or that the functionary concerned did not perform the act concerned or did not take part in the transaction concerned.

(2) If the question arises in any civil proceedings whether a person with a particular name did or did not furnish a particular officer with particular information or a 40 particular document, a document purporting to be an affidavit by a person who in that affidavit alleges that he is that officer and that no person with such a name furnished him with such information or document, shall on mere production be admissible as proof in those proceedings that that person did not furnish that officer with such information or document.

45 (3) If the question arises in any civil proceedings whether a fact or information has been recorded under this Act or whether a document is kept or retained thereunder, a document purporting to be an affidavit by a person who in that affidavit alleges that he is the person on whom this Act confers the power or imposes the duty to record that fact or information or to keep or retain that document and that he has recorded 50 the fact or information concerned or keeps or retains the document concerned or that he has satisfied himself that the fact or information concerned has been recorded or that the document concerned is kept or retained, shall on mere production be admissible as proof in those proceedings that that fact or information has been so recorded or that that document is so kept or retained.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

Procedural requirements for proof by affidavit

172. (1) An affidavit contemplated in subsection (1), (2) or (3) of section 171 shall not be admissible as proof in terms of the applicable subsection unless a copy thereof has been delivered by the party intending to make use thereof to every other party 5 to the proceedings concerned at least seven days before the date of the production thereof.

(2) The court to which such an affidavit is produced may on application by any party to the proceedings concerned order that the person who made the affidavit concerned be called upon to give evidence in those proceedings or that written 10 interrogatories be submitted to him for reply, and such interrogatories and any reply thereto purporting to be a reply by that person shall likewise be admissible as proof in those proceedings.

Presumption of sale from nature of transactions

173. If it is alleged in any prosecution for an offence in terms of this Act that an 15 unlawful sale of liquor took place, a sale of liquor shall be presumed to have taken place if the court is satisfied, notwithstanding the absence of proof that money passed, that a transaction in the nature of a sale actually took place.

Presumption regarding prohibited concoctions and drinks

174. If it is proved in any prosecution for an offence in terms of section 154 (1) (j) 20 that the accused manufactured, had in his possession or custody or under his control, or consumed or sold, supplied or gave to any person a liquid which had or has the appearance of a concoction or drink referred to in section 135 (1) and in the charge, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the liquid was or is that concoction or drink.

25 Bona fide mistake of fact no defence

175. It shall be no defence to a charge for an offence in terms of this Act that the accused or his principal, agent or employee bona fide believed in the existence of any fact which, had it actually existed, would have been a valid defence to the charge.

Procuring of certain evidence

30 176. When any person in any judicial proceedings requires any evidence to be given in connection with any information recorded, or the production of any record, plan or other document kept or retained, by virtue of section 179, he shall summons the recorder to give such evidence or to produce such a record, plan or other document.

- (b) retain all documents furnished by virtue of section 48; and
- 10 (c) perform such other functions as may be assigned to him in terms of this Act.

Copies of records and other documents

180. The recorder shall, on application and against payment of the prescribed fees, furnish to any person copies of any licence and the conditions thereto or of any application which is being kept or retained by him and which relates to any licensed 15 premises.

Secrecy

181. Subject to the provisions of section 180, the records and other documents kept or retained by virtue of section 179 shall not be disclosed, except to—

- 20 (a) the Minister;
- (b) any person who requires it for the performance of his functions in terms of this Act;
- (c) any other person—
- (i) on the instructions of the Minister; or
- (ii) in terms of an order of a competent court.

25 Regulations

182. (1) The Minister may make regulations regarding—

- (a) the applications made in terms of this Act to which or in connection with which objections or representations may be made by any person;
- 30 (b) the form in which and the manner in which any application, objection, representations or complaint in terms of this Act is or are to be made;
- (c) the documents which are to be lodged in support of any application in terms of this Act, and the form in which and the manner in which those documents are to be lodged;
- 35 (d) the lodging of replies to any objection or representations in terms of this Act;
- (e) the maximum number of licences of or in which any person may be the holder or may have any interest;
- (f) the furnishing of any information for the purpose of any record or other document required to be kept by virtue of this Act;
- 40 (g) the retention and destruction of any record or other document required to be kept or retained by virtue of this Act;
- (h) the payment of fees in respect of any application made in terms of this Act;
- (i) the payment of fees in respect of the issue of any licence, including, in the case of any licence other than a temporary liquor licence or occasional licence, the period within which such fees are to be paid;
- 45 (j) the payment of fees in respect of the transfer of any licence, including the period within which such fees are to be paid;
- (k) the payment of fees in respect of the removal of any licence, including the period within which such fees are to be paid;
- 50 (l) the payment of annual licence fees in respect of any licence;
- (m) the duties of officers by virtue of this Act;

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (n) the form of licences, declarations, notices, summonses, consents, appointments, directions, determinations, approvals, authorities and other documents in terms of this Act;
- (o) reviews and appeals in terms of this Act;
- 5 (p) any matter which in terms of this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed; and
- (q) in general, any matter in respect of which he thinks it necessary or expedient to make regulations for achieving the objects of this Act, the generality of this paragraph not being limited by the preceding paragraphs.
- 10 (2) A regulation made under this section may for a contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith, prescribe a penalty which shall not exceed a fine of R1 000 or imprisonment for a period of six months.
- (3) Different regulations may be made under this section in respect of different kinds of licences, licences of the same kind having different common characteristics, 15 different categories of persons or different areas.
- (4) A regulation under this section regarding any fees or allowances shall be made in consultation with the Minister of Finance.

Delegation of powers

183. (1) The Minister may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, delegate 20 to the chairman or any other person in the employ of the State any power conferred on him by this Act, excluding a power contemplated in sections 2 (2) and (3), 3 (2) and (3), 4 (1) (a) to (f), 4 (2) (in so far as it relates to a power contemplated in section 4 (1) (a) to (f)), 7, 16 (2) (b) (iii), 22 (4), 24 (b), 32 (2), (3) and (5), 36, 37, 41 (1) (a) (in so far as the power may be exercised on the granting of an on-consumption 25 licence), 41 (1) (c) and (d), 41 (2), 47 (2), 56 (1), 60 (1) (a), 60 (2) and (3) (in so far as they relate to a power contemplated in section 60 (1) (a)), 63 (1), 75, 78 (1) (a), 80 (3) (a), 82 (1) (a), 86 (1) (a), 94 (1) (a), 104 (1) (a), 124, 125, 127, 128, 129, 133 (2), 135 (1) (c), 135 (2), 136, 158 (2), 177 and 182.
- (2) The Minister of Law and Order may, subject to such conditions as he may 30 impose, delegate to any police officer who is a commissioned officer the power conferred on him by section 139.
- (3) The chairman may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, delegate to any person in the employ of the State the powers conferred on him by section 17 (2), 38, 114, 116, 117 (b), 122 (1) and (3), 123 and 179.
- 35 (4) The Minister, the Minister of Law and Order or the chairman shall not by the delegation of any power under this section be divested of a power so delegated and may set aside or amend any decision of the delegate made in the exercise of such a power.

Condonation of defective applications

- 40 184. If—
- (a) an application in terms of this Act or a document accompanying it is defective in any respect; or
- (b) an applicant fails to lodge any document in support of such an application, the competent authority may, when dealing with or considering the application, 45 condone the defect or failure if it is of the opinion that there has been substantial compliance with this Act and that the condonation is not likely to prejudice any person.

Cognisance of certain documents and matters

185. The competent authority shall, in the consideration of any application made 50 in terms of this Act, take cognisance of—
- (a) the application and the report contemplated in section 140 (if any);
- (b) the documents lodged in support of the application, objections to and representations in connection with the application, replies to such objections and representations and other information procured in connection 55 with the application (if any); and

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

- (c) any matter which in the opinion of the competent authority ought to be taken into consideration.

Nominees

186. A licence shall not be granted, issued or transferred to the nominee of a 5 person, but shall be granted, issued or transferred to the person concerned himself.

CHAPTER 18

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Conversion of certain authorities and licences

187. (1) Notwithstanding any law or contract to the contrary, every authority and 10 licence of the kind referred to in the first column of Schedule 1 and in force immediately before the date of commencement of this section shall as from that date be deemed to be a licence of the kind referred to in the second column of the said Schedule.

(2) In the application of subsection (1)—

- 15 (a) the annual licence fees which have in terms of the Liquor Act, 1977 (Act No. 87 of 1977), been paid in respect of a licence referred to in the first column of Schedule 1 of this Act for the year in which this section commences, shall be deemed to be the annual licence fees prescribed under section 182 (1) (l) of this Act which have been paid for that year in respect of the licence referred to in the second column of the said Schedule;
- 20 (b) the kinds of liquor prescribed by sections 93 and 109 of the Liquor Act, 1977, in respect of the licences concerned referred to in the first column of Schedule 1 of this Act, shall be deemed to have been determined under section 56 (1) of this Act in respect of the respective licences referred to in the second column of the said Schedule;
- 25 (c) a provision of section 125 or 126 of the Liquor Act, 1977, shall be deemed to be a condition imposed under this Act in respect of an applicable wholesale liquor licence.

(3) A conditional authority issued under section 37 of the Liquor Act, 1977, in 30 respect of an application for a licence referred to in the first column of Schedule 1 of this Act and in force immediately before the date of commencement of this section, shall as from that date be deemed to be a notice issued under section 33 of this Act in respect of an application for a licence referred to in the second column of the said Schedule.

35 Lapse of certain authorities

188. (1) Subject to section 187 (1), any person who immediately before the commencement of this section is authorized by or under the Sorghum Beer Act, 1962 (Act No. 63 of 1962), to manufacture, sell or supply sorghum beer shall, notwithstanding the repeal of that Act by this Act, for a period of 12 months as from the date 40 of such commencement continue to be entitled to manufacture, sell or supply sorghum beer under such an authority as if that Act were not so repealed.

(2) An authority contemplated in subsection (1) shall lapse on the expiration of the period so contemplated unless the person concerned applies for a licence referred to in section 22 (a) (vi) or (b) (vi) or (vii) at least three months before such expiry, in 45 which case the authority concerned shall lapse on the date immediately preceding the date of the issue of the licence concerned or on the date of the refusal of the application concerned, as the case may be.

Existing sportsground liquor licences

189. (1) A sportsground liquor licence in force immediately before the commence- 50 ment of this section by virtue of the Liquor Act, 1977 (Act No. 87 of 1977), and any right, privilege, obligation or liability attached thereto and so in force, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, remain in force.

LIQUOR ACT, 1989

Act No. 27, 1989

(2) In the application of this Act, a sportsground liquor licence shall be deemed to have been issued under this Act, and any provision of a law repealed by this Act and 5 which related to the facilities which the licensed premises shall afford, shall be deemed to be a condition imposed under this Act in respect of such a licence.

Restriction of effect of certain laws, title deeds, servitudes and contracts

10 190. The provisions of the Mining Rights Act, 1967 (Act No. 20 of 1967), or of any other law or any title deed, servitude or contract prohibiting, restricting or regulating the carrying on of any business on proclaimed land, land held under mining title or land on which mining operations are being lawfully carried on, shall not apply to the sale or supply of liquor or any article under a special licence or by virtue of section 41 of this Act by an employer regularly employing or housing employees.

Continuation of certain pending matters

15 191. (1) Notwithstanding the repeal of any law by this Act, any application made by virtue of such a law before the date of commencement of the repeal and not disposed of on that date, shall be continued and disposed of as if that law were not so repealed.

(2) In the application of subsection (1) of this section and of section 12 of the 20 Interpretation Act, 1957 (Act No. 33 of 1957), a reference to the Board in a law so repealed shall be construed as a reference to the Board as constituted in terms of this Act.

Repeal of laws

25 192. (1) The laws referred to in Schedule 2 are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the third column of that Schedule.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, anything done or deemed to have been done under a provision of a law repealed by subsection (1), and which is capable of being done under a provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.

30 (3) In the application of subsection (2)—

(a) a provision of a law repealed by subsection (1) and which related to the facilities which the licensed premises in respect of which a restaurant liquor licence, wine-house licence and theatre liquor licence issued before the commencement of this section was held, had to afford, shall be deemed to be a condition imposed under this Act in respect of such a licence;

35 (b) a declaration in the Gazette contemplated in section 23 (2) of the Liquor Act, 1977 (Act No. 87 of 1977), shall be deemed to be a declaration contemplated in section 32 (3) of this Act in respect of every special licence concerned.

40 Short title and commencement

193. (1) This Act shall be called the Liquor Act, 1989, and shall commence on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.

(2) Different dates may be so fixed in respect of different provisions of this Act or in respect of section 192 in so far as it relates to different laws referred to in Schedule 45 2 or to different provisions of any law so referred to.
