DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

within 21 days after the date of publication of a notice referred to in subsection (2) (b), such Commissioner or member shall cause the diamond in question to be sold and the proceeds thereof shall, subject to subsection (4), be paid into the State Revenue Fund.

(4) If such Commissioner or member is satisfied that the diamond in question was found or picked up in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), he shall pay to the person who so found or picked up that diamond an amount calculated at one-third of the amount realized at the sale in terms of subsection (3).

CHAPTER IV

LICENCES AND PERMITS

Licences

- 15 26. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the Board may issue the following licences, namely— Kinds of licences.
- (a) a diamond dealer's licence entitling the holder to carry on business as a buyer, seller, importer or exporter of unpolished diamonds;
 - 20 (b) a diamond cutting licence entitling the holder to polish diamonds for the purpose of business or trade;
 - (c) a diamond tool-making licence entitling the holder to set unpolished diamonds in tools, implements or other articles or to crush or to alter those diamonds for the purposes of such setting or for the purpose of trade;
 - 25 (d) a diamond research licence entitling the holder to do applied research and tests in connection with diamonds, but not to polish diamonds for the purpose of business or trade.
- 30 27. (1) Any natural or juristic person may apply to the Board on the prescribed form for a licence. Applications for licences.
- (2) An applicant for a licence shall furnish such additional particulars in connection with his application as the Board may require.
- 35 28. (1) Before the Board decides on any application for a licence, it may conduct such investigation regarding the application as it may deem fit. Consideration of applications for licences.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the Board may at its discretion grant or refuse an application for a licence, but
- 40 the Board shall not grant any application if it is of the opinion—
- (a) that the applicant or, where the applicant is a company, any director thereof or, where the applicant is a close corporation, any member thereof is not a suitable person to carry on the activities authorized by the licence, or to be involved in such activities;
 - 45 (b) that an interest which any person has in the applicant is undesirable;
 - (c) that the applicant will probably not be able to exercise in a satisfactory manner control over the activities authorized by the licence;
 - 50 (d) that there are already a sufficient number of persons holding the licence in question; or
 - (e) that the issue of the licence will be contrary to the public interest.
- 55 (3) If the Board refuses an application for a licence, the executive officer shall notify the applicant in writing of the decision of the Board.

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

29. (1) If the Board grants an application for a licence, the executive officer shall against payment of the prescribed fee issue to the applicant the licence on the prescribed form. Issue of licences.
- (2) The executive officer shall endorse on such licence—
- 5 (a) any condition determined by the Board under section 30 (1); and
- (b) particulars of the location of the premises approved by the Board under section 31 (1).
30. (1) A licence shall be subject to such conditions as the Board may determine at the time of the granting of the application in question. Conditions of licence.
- (2) The Board may at any time—
- (a) cancel or vary any condition to which a licence is subject; or
- 15 (b) impose any condition or any further condition in respect of a licence.
- (3) The executive officer shall endorse on the licence any cancellation, variation or condition referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) In order to give effect to subsection (3), the executive officer may request a licensee in writing to submit his licence to the executive officer within the period specified in the request.
- 20
31. (1) No licence shall be issued unless the premises upon which the activities authorized by the licence will be carried on— Business premises.
- 25 (a) comply with the prescribed requirements; and
- (b) were approved by the Board.
- (2) Any licensee who desires to move or extend his business premises to any other premises shall apply to the Board in writing for its approval of the new or additional premises, as the case may be.
- 30 (3) After such investigation as the Board may deem fit, it may grant, on such conditions as it may determine, or refuse an application referred to in subsection (2), but the Board shall not grant any application if it is of the opinion—
- 35 (a) in the case of an application in respect of any additional premises, that the granting of the application will not be in the interest of the diamond trade in general; or
- (b) that the new or additional premises, as the case may be, do not comply with the prescribed requirements.
- 40 (4) If the Board—
- (a) grants an application referred to in subsection (2), the executive officer shall against payment of the prescribed fee endorse on the licence the particulars of the location of the new or additional premises, as the case may be, and such other alterations as the Board may direct; or
- 45 (b) refuses the application, the executive officer shall notify the licensee in writing of the decision of the Board.
32. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), a licence shall be valid until it is suspended or cancelled in terms of this Chapter. Period of validity of licences.
- 50 (2) The Board may authorize the issue of a temporary licence for such period, but not exceeding one year, as the Board may determine.
- 55 33. Unless a licensee is a natural person who has acquired the approval of the Board to transfer his licence in terms of section 34, he shall not in any manner dispose of his licence or allow any other person to acquire any interest therein. Transfer of licences by juristic persons prohibited.
34. (1) Any natural person who desires to transfer his licence to a company or close corporation shall apply to the Board in writing for its approval of such transfer. Applications by natural persons for transfer of licences.
- 60

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

(2) A licensee who has applied in terms of subsection (1) for the Board's approval shall furnish such additional particulars in connection with his application as the Board may require.

(3) The Board shall not grant its approval for the transfer of a licence to a company or close corporation if it is of the opinion—

- (a) that the licensee concerned does not hold the controlling interest in the company or close corporation;
- (b) that, in the case of the company, any director thereof or, in the case of the close corporation, any member thereof is not a suitable person to carry on the activities authorized by the licence, or to be involved in such activities; or
- (c) that an interest which any person has in the company or close corporation is undesirable.

(4) If the Board—

- (a) grants its approval for a transfer referred to in subsection (1), the executive officer shall endorse on the licence such alterations as are necessary as a result of the transfer; or
- (b) refuses its approval for the transfer, the executive officer shall notify the licensee in writing of the decision of the Board.

35. (1) No person shall without the prior written approval of the Board acquire a controlling interest in any company or close corporation after a licence has been issued or transferred in terms of this Chapter to that company or close corporation.

Controlling interest in companies and close corporations.

(2) The Board shall grant the approval referred to in subsection (1) only if it is of the opinion—

- (a) that the person concerned or, where that person is a company, any director thereof or, where that person is a close corporation, any member thereof is a suitable person to carry on the activities authorized by the licence in question, or to be involved in such activities; or
- (b) that the acquisition of a controlling interest by that person will be in the interest of the diamond trade in general.

36. (1) A licensee which—

- (a) is a company and is converted into another type or form of company or into a close corporation; or
- (b) is a close corporation and is converted into a company, shall within 14 days after such conversion submit its licence and the amended or new certificate of incorporation or the new founding statement, or a certified copy thereof, to the executive officer.

Conversions of companies and close corporations.

(2) The executive officer shall endorse on the licence such alterations as are necessary as a result of a conversion referred to in subsection (1).

37. (1) If—

- (a) a licensee has furnished information to the Board in or in connection with his application for a licence which is in a material respect untrue;
- (b) a controlling interest was acquired without the written approval of the Board in a licensee which is a company or close corporation;
- (c) any interest, other than an interest referred to in paragraph (b), which in the opinion of the Board is undesirable was acquired in a licensee;
- (d) a licensee has contravened or failed to comply with a condition of the licence;
- (e) a licensee has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of this Act;

Suspension and cancellation of licences.

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

- (f) a licensee is or was at any time involved in the illegal possession of or trade in unpolished diamonds;
- (g) a licensee—
- 5 (i) has at any time been convicted of any offence which in the opinion of the Board renders him unsuitable; or
- (ii) is for any other reason in the opinion of the Board not a suitable person,
- 10 to carry on the activities authorized by the licence, or to be involved in such activities; or
- (h) a licensee has ceased to carry on the activities authorized by the licence,
- 15 the Board may by way of a notice in writing request the licensee to show cause within the period specified in the notice, which period shall not be less than 20 days after the date of the notice, why his licence should not be suspended or cancelled.
- (2) Upon expiry of the period referred to in subsection (1), the Board may—
- 20 (a) suspend the licence in question for such period as it may determine; or
- (b) cancel that licence with effect from such date as it may determine.
- (3) While a licence is suspended under subsection (2) (a), the licensee concerned shall be deemed not to be licensed.
- 25 (4) The Board shall cancel the licence of a licensee if requested to do so by the licensee.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (d), (e), (f) or (g) of subsection (1) "licensee" includes—
- 30 (a) where the licensee is a company, any director of the company; or
- (b) where the licensee is a close corporation, any member of the close corporation.

38. (1) If the Board suspends or cancels a licence under section 37 (2), the executive officer shall notify the licensee in writing of the decision of the Board. Return of licences.

(2) Any licensee who has ceased to carry on the activities authorized by his licence or whose licence has been suspended or cancelled under section 37 (2) shall within 30 days after having ceased to carry on such activities or after becoming aware of such suspension or cancellation return his licence to the Board.

39. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision taken by the Board under a preceding provision of this Chapter may in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period appeal against the decision to the Minister. Appeal to Minister against decisions of Board in respect of licences.

45 (2) The Minister shall consider in the prescribed manner an appeal lodged with him in accordance with subsection (1), and may confirm, set aside or vary the decision appealed against or substitute for that decision any other decision which the Board in the opinion of the Minister ought to have taken.

50 Permits

40. (1) Any person may apply to the Board in writing for a permit authorizing him, subject to any condition contained in the permit— Applications for permits.

- 55 (a) to deliver or sell an unpolished diamond which he has lawfully in his possession;
- (b) to receive or purchase an unpolished diamond; or
- (c) to export an unpolished diamond.

(2) Any producer may apply to the Board in writing for a permit authorizing a natural person, subject to any condition contained in the permit, to sell unpolished diamonds on behalf of that producer.

60

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

(3) The Board may require that an application referred to in paragraph (a) or (c) of subsection (1) be accompanied by a sworn statement by the applicant in which he sets forth how the diamond in question came into his possession.

5 (4) An applicant for a permit under this Act shall furnish such additional particulars in connection with his application as the Board may require.

41. The Board may at its discretion grant, on such conditions as it may determine, or refuse an application for a permit under this Act, but the Board shall not grant any application if it is of the opinion that the issue of the permit will be contrary to the public interest.

Consideration of applications for permits.

42. (1) If the Board grants an application for a permit under this Act, the executive officer shall against payment of the prescribed fee issue to the applicant the permit on the prescribed form.

Issue of permits.

(2) The executive officer shall endorse on such permit any condition determined by the Board in terms of section 41.

43. (1) The Board may at any time—

20 (a) cancel or vary any condition to which a permit under this Act is subject; or

(b) impose any condition or any further condition in respect of a permit under this Act.

Cancellation, variation or imposition of conditions.

(2) The executive officer shall endorse on the permit any cancellation, variation or condition referred to in subsection (1).

25

(3) In order to give effect to subsection (2), the executive officer may request the holder of a permit under this Act in writing to submit his permit to the executive officer within the period specified in the request.

30 CHAPTER V

THE DIAMOND TRADE

Diamond exchanges

44. No person shall utilize any premises as a diamond exchange unless those premises are registered as a diamond exchange in terms of this Chapter.

35

Utilization of unregistered premises as diamond exchanges prohibited.

45. (1) Any person who desires to utilize any premises as a diamond exchange shall apply to the Board in writing for the registration of those premises as a diamond exchange.

40

Applications for registration of diamond exchanges.

(2) An applicant for the registration of premises as a diamond exchange shall furnish such additional particulars in connection with his application as the Board may require.

46. (1) Before the Board decides on any application referred to in section 45, it may conduct such investigation regarding the application as it may deem fit.

45

Consideration of applications for registration of diamond exchanges.

(2) The Board may at its discretion grant or refuse an application referred to in section 45, but the Board shall not grant any application if it is of the opinion—

50 (a) that the applicant or, where the applicant is a company, any director thereof or, where the applicant is a close corporation, any member thereof is not a suitable person to utilize the premises as a diamond exchange, or to be involved in such utilization;

(b) that an interest which any person has in the applicant is undesirable;

55 (c) that the premises do not comply with the prescribed requirements;

(d) that the applicant will probably not be able to exercise in a satisfactory manner control over the utilization of the premises as a diamond exchange; or

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

- (e) that the registration of the premises as a diamond exchange will be contrary to the public interest.

47. (1) If the Board grants an application referred to in section 45, the executive officer shall against payment of the prescribed fee register the premises in question as a diamond exchange and issue to the applicant a certificate of registration as a diamond exchange on the prescribed form.

Registration of diamond exchanges.

(2) The registration of any premises as a diamond exchange in terms of subsection (1) shall be subject to the prescribed conditions.

- 15 (a) the business premises of a licensee;
 (b) any premises registered as a diamond exchange in terms of this Chapter;
 (c) the premises referred to in subsection (2) (d); or
 20 (d) such other premises as the Board may approve under section 49 on application in writing by such producer, manufacturer or holder.

(2) No licensee or holder of a permit referred to in section 40 (1) (b) shall receive or purchase any unpolished diamond elsewhere than on—

- 25 (a) the business premises of a licensee;
 (b) any premises registered as a diamond exchange in terms of this Chapter;
 (c) the premises referred to in subsection (1) (d); or
 30 (d) such other premises as the Board may approve under section 49 on application in writing by the licensee.

49. (1) If an application for the approval of premises is made to the Board in terms of section 48 (1) (d) or (2) (d), the Board may conduct such investigation regarding the application as it may deem fit.

Approval of premises.

35 (2) The Board may at its discretion grant, on such conditions as it may determine, or refuse an application for the approval of premises, but the Board shall not grant any application if it is of the opinion—

- 40 (a) that the granting of the application will not be in the interest of the diamond trade in general; or
 (b) that the premises do not comply with the prescribed requirements.

(3) If the Board grants an application for the approval of premises, the executive officer shall against payment of the prescribed fee issue to the applicant concerned a certificate of approval in respect of the premises on the prescribed form.

(4) The executive officer shall endorse on such certificate any condition determined by the Board under subsection (2).

50. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, no cutter, tool-maker or researcher shall polish any diamond or crush or set any unpolished diamond in any tool, implement or other article elsewhere than on his business premises.

Processing of diamonds restricted to approved premises.

(2) A cutter may apply to the Board to polish diamonds on such premises other than his business premises and for such period as the Board may approve.

(3) The provisions of section 49 shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of an application by a cutter in terms of subsection (2).

51. Every licensee shall display his full name and a description indicating that he is a licensed diamond dealer, diamond cutter, diamond tool-maker or diamond researcher, as the case may be, in a conspicuous position and in characters easily legible on the outside of his business premises.

Licenses to display names and other particulars at business premises.

Authorized representatives

52. No natural person shall sell or purchase any unpolished diamond on behalf of a juristic person unless he is registered as an authorized representative of the juristic person in terms of this Chapter.

Deals in unpolished diamonds on behalf of juristic persons restricted to authorized representatives.

53. (1) Any juristic person may apply to the Board on the prescribed form for the registration of a natural person as its authorized representative.

Applications for registration of authorized representatives.

(2) A juristic person which has applied in terms of subsection (1) for the registration of an authorized representative shall furnish such additional particulars in connection with its application as the Board may require.

54. (1) The Board shall not grant any application referred to in section 53 if it is of the opinion—

Registration of authorized representatives.

(a) that the natural person concerned does not comply with the prescribed requirements; or

(b) that a sufficient number of authorized representatives have already been registered in respect of the juristic person.

(2) If the Board grants an application referred to in section 53, the executive officer shall register the natural person concerned as an authorized representative of the juristic person and issue to the juristic person a certificate of registration as an authorized representative of the juristic person on the prescribed form.

25 Handling of unpolished diamonds

55. No licensee shall receive or purchase any unpolished diamond—

Receipt of unpolished diamonds by licensees.

(a) for any purpose other than the activities authorized by his licence; or

(b) from any person not lawfully in possession of that diamond.

56. (1) Whenever a licensee receives or purchases any unpolished diamond he shall forthwith complete in duplicate a note of receipt or purchase on the prescribed form.

Notes of receipt or purchase in respect of unpolished diamonds.

(2) The original of every note of receipt or purchase completed in terms of subsection (1) shall be handed over to the person who delivered or sold the unpolished diamond, and the copy thereof shall be retained by the licensee for a period of at least two years after the date on which he received or purchased the unpolished diamond.

57. (1) Every producer, manufacturer of synthetic diamonds, dealer, cutter or tool-maker shall keep or cause to be kept the prescribed register, in which shall be entered the prescribed particulars in respect of unpolished diamonds.

Registers in respect of unpolished diamonds.

(2) Every entry referred to in subsection (1) shall be made, in the case of a producer, within 24 hours and, in the case of any other person, within 7 days after the occurrence of the event recorded.

(3) Every person required to keep a register in terms of subsection (1) shall retain the register for a period of at least two years after the date on which the last entry was recorded therein.

58. In order to sell or export any unpolished diamond, other than unpolished diamonds mounted in tools or implements, a cutter, tool-maker or researcher shall obtain a permit referred to in section 40 (1) (a) or (c), as the case may be.

Cutters, tool-makers and researchers to obtain permit to sell or export unpolished diamonds.

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

General

59. (1) In order to ensure that cutters or tool-makers obtain a regular supply of unpolished diamonds, the Board may enter into an agreement with any producer, dealer or any association or organization of producers or dealers in pursuance of which any such producer, dealer, association or organization allocates or offers unpolished diamonds to each of those cutters or tool-makers. Agreements for supply of unpolished diamonds to cutters and tool-makers.
- (2) An agreement entered into under subsection (1) may provide for—
- (a) the determination of the class of unpolished diamonds to be allocated or offered to a cutter or tool-maker;
 - (b) the basis on or manner in which those diamonds are to be allocated or offered;
 - 15 (c) the circumstances under which an allocation or offer may be cancelled or suspended;
 - (d) the terms and conditions of sale applicable to an allocation or offer; and
 - 20 (e) the settlement of disputes in connection with an allocation or offer.
- (3) A cutter or tool-maker shall not acquire any right to an allocation or offer made to him by virtue of this section.

CHAPTER VI

EXPORT OF DIAMONDS

25 Unpolished diamonds

60. No exporter shall export any unpolished diamond from the Republic unless that diamond has been registered and released for export in terms of this Chapter. Export of unpolished diamonds.
61. (1) Any exporter who desires to register any unpolished diamond for export shall at a prescribed export centre furnish the registering officer with a return on the prescribed form in respect of that diamond. Registration of unpolished diamonds for export.
- (2) In the return furnished in terms of subsection (1) the exporter shall specify the value of the unpolished diamond and declare that the value so specified is to the best of his knowledge and belief the fair market value of that diamond.
- (3) A return referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the unpolished diamond in question and the prescribed documents.
- 40 (4) If the registering officer is satisfied that an exporter has complied with the provisions of this section and, where applicable, section 77, he shall register the unpolished diamond in question for export.
62. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 63 and 64, the Board shall levy an export duty on every unpolished diamond exported from the Republic. Levying of export duty on unpolished diamonds.
- (2) The export duty shall amount to 15 per cent of the fair market value of an unpolished diamond in the Republic as at the date on which that diamond is registered for export in terms of this Chapter.
63. (1) An unpolished diamond shall be exempted from export duty— Exemption from export duty.
- (a) if the Board is satisfied that—
 - 55 (i) that diamond has been won or recovered in any mine or alluvial digging as defined in section 1 of the Precious Stones Act, 1964 (Act No. 73 of 1964), or in any particular portion of any such alluvial digging, which at the date on which that diamond is registered for export in terms of this Chapter has been approved by the Minister, with the concurrence of
 - 60 the Minister of Finance, as any such mine, digging

Act No. 56, 1986

- or portion which cannot be profitably worked or developed owing to unfavourable economic or other circumstances, but should in the national interest be worked or developed;
- 5 (ii) that diamond has been allocated or offered to a cutter or tool-maker in pursuance of an agreement referred to in section 59 or has in the prescribed manner been offered for sale at a diamond exchange registered in terms of this Act, and that it
- 10 (iii) that diamond has been worn or found outside the Republic;
- (b) if it is a synthetic diamond; or
- 15 (c) if the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determines that it is so exempted.

(2) The registering officer shall in respect of every unpolished diamond exempted from export duty in terms of this section issue to the exporter concerned a certificate of exemption on the prescribed form.

- 20 64. (1) If the Board is satisfied that any unpolished diamond is exported—

Deferment of payment of export duty.

- (a) to be exhibited or displayed;
- (b) to obtain an expert opinion on it;
- 25 (c) in the case where that diamond is of unusual size or value, in an endeavour to find a purchaser for it; or
- (d) in circumstances where that diamond is likely to be returned unsold to the exporter,

the Board may defer payment of export duty on that diamond for such period, but not exceeding six months from the date

30 upon which that diamond was registered for export in terms of this Chapter, as the Board may determine.

(2) If the payment of export duty on an unpolished diamond has been deferred under subsection (1), the registration officer shall in respect of that diamond issue to the exporter concerned

35 a certificate of deferment on the prescribed form.

(3) Export duty specified in a certificate issued in terms of subsection (2) shall, subject to subsection (4), be payable within 30 days from the date upon which the certificate lapses.

(4) No export duty shall be payable on any unpolished diamond in respect of which the payment of export duty has been 40 deferred under this section if that diamond is returned to the Republic to the exporter within the period determined by the Board under subsection (1).

- 45 65. (1) The registering officer may—

Examination and valuation of unpolished diamonds.

- (a) examine any unpolished diamond registered for export in terms of this Chapter and verify any particulars furnished in respect thereof; and
- (b) retain such diamond in order to have the value thereof assessed in the prescribed manner or by any person
- 50 designated by the Board for that particular valuation or for valuations in general.

(2) The person who has assessed the value of an unpolished diamond referred to in subsection (1) (b), shall furnish the registering officer with a certificate in which he specifies the value of 55 that diamond and the name of a person who is prepared to purchase that diamond at the value so specified.

(3) A certificate furnished in terms of subsection (2) shall be deemed to be an offer to the exporter by the person specified therein to purchase the diamond in question at the value

60 specified therein.

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

66. For the purposes of levying export duty on any unpolished diamond in terms of this Chapter— Market value.
- (a) the value of that diamond as specified in the return referred to in section 61 (2); or
- 5 (b) the value of that diamond as specified in the certificate referred to in section 65 (2),
- whichever is the higher value, shall be deemed to be the fair market value of that diamond.
67. (1) If the value of an unpolished diamond as specified in 10 the certificate referred to in section 65 (2) exceeds the value of that diamond as specified in the return referred to in section 61 (2) by 20 per cent or more, the Board shall impose upon the exporter concerned a fine equal to 20 per cent of such difference in value. Fine in case of difference in values.
- 15 (2) The imposition of a fine in terms of subsection (1) shall not be affected by the decision of the exporter concerned to accept the offer referred to in section 65 (3) in respect of the unpolished diamond or not to export it any longer.
- (3) A fine imposed in terms of subsection (1) shall be payable 20 within 30 days from the date upon which it was imposed.
68. (1) Any export duty levied or any fine imposed in terms of this Chapter shall be paid by the exporter concerned to the Board for the benefit of the State Revenue Fund. Payment of export duty and fine.
- (2) The Board shall issue to the exporter a receipt in respect 25 of any export duty or fine paid by the exporter.
- (3) Any money paid to the Board in terms of this section shall be paid into the State Revenue Fund within seven days after receipt thereof.
69. (1) The registering officer shall not release any unpolished 30 diamond for export unless— Release of unpolished diamonds for export.
- (a) that diamond was registered for export in terms of this Chapter;
- (b) either a certificate of exemption, a certificate of deferment or a receipt for the payment of export duty has 35 been issued to the exporter in respect of that diamond in terms of this Chapter;
- (c) the exporter has paid any fine imposed upon him in terms of section 67;
- 40 (d) the registering officer is satisfied that the provisions of any other law relating to the export of that diamond have been complied with; and
- (e) that diamond has been made up in a packet in such manner as the registering officer may determine.
- (2) The registering officer shall release an unpolished diamond 45 for export by sealing the packet referred to in subsection (1) (e) with the seal of the Board.

Polished diamonds

70. No person shall export any polished diamond, irrespective 50 of whether it is set in jewellery or not, from the Republic unless that diamond has been registered and released for export in terms of this Chapter. Export of polished diamonds.
71. (1) Any person who desires to register any polished diamond for export shall at a prescribed export centre furnish the registering officer with a return on the prescribed form in respect 55 of that diamond. Registration of polished diamonds for export.
- (2) A return referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the polished diamond in question and the prescribed documents.
- (3) If the registering officer is satisfied that the provisions of 60 this section have been complied with, he shall register the polished diamond in question for export.

DIAMONDS ACT, 1986

Act No. 56, 1986

72. The registering officer may—
- (a) examine any polished diamond registered for export in terms of this Chapter and verify any particulars furnished in respect thereof; and
- 5 (b) retain such diamond in order to—
- (i) have the value thereof assessed in the prescribed manner or by any person designated by the Board for that particular valuation or for valuations in general; or
- 10 (ii) determine whether it is in fact a polished diamond.
73. (1) The registering officer shall not release any polished diamond for export unless—
- (a) that diamond was registered for export in terms of this Chapter;
- 15 (b) the registering officer is satisfied that the provisions of any other law relating to the export of that diamond have been complied with; and
- (c) that diamond has been made up in a packet in such manner as the registering officer may determine.
- 20 (2) The registering officer shall release a polished diamond for export by sealing the packet referred to in subsection (1) (c) with the seal of the Board.
74. The Minister may by notice in the Gazette exempt any person or category of persons from the provisions of section 60 or
- 25 70 on such conditions as may be specified in the notice.

Examination and retention of polished diamonds.

Release of polished diamonds for export.

Exemption from provisions relating to registration of polished diamonds.

General

75. If in connection with the export of diamonds the question arises whether any diamond is an unpolished or a polished diamond the Board's decision thereon shall be final.
- 30 76. For the purposes of this Chapter, the value of any unpolished or polished diamond shall be assessed—
- (a) by assessing jointly the value of all diamonds indicated on the return referred to in section 61 (1) or 71 (1), as the case may be; and
- 35 (b) on such further basis as may be prescribed.

Board's decision on unpolished or polished diamonds.

Assessment of value of unpolished and polished diamonds.

CHAPTER VII

CONTROL MEASURES

77. (1) The Minister may at any time on the recommendation of the Board and by notice in the Gazette—
- 40 (a) determine the maximum quantity in value of unpolished diamonds which may during the period specified in the notice be disposed of or exported by any producer or a producer so specified;
- 45 (b) direct that the value of all unpolished diamonds, or of a class of unpolished diamonds specified in the notice, won or recovered by any producer or a producer so specified be assessed in the manner specified in the notice, and prohibit any such producer or specified producer to sell such diamonds, or class of diamonds, without the approval of the Minister at a price below the value so assessed;
- 50 (c) prohibit any producer or a producer specified in the notice to dispose of any unpolished diamond to, or export it through the agency of, any person other than a person specified in the notice;
- 55 (d) declare that—
- (i) from the date specified in the notice no agreement entered into by any producer or a producer so specified for the disposal of unpolished diamonds
