was issued or to a member of the South African Police or the South African Railway Police Force; or
 (c) without lawful authority or excuse manufactures or sells, or has in his possession for sale, any die, seal or stamp referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (1),
 5 shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to the penalties prescribed in subsection (1).

6. Any person who obstructs, knowingly misleads or otherwise interferes with any person engaged on guard, sentry, patrol or 10 other similar duty in relation to any prohibited place shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Obstructing persons on guard at prohibited places.

7. Any person who—

15 (a) knowingly harbours or conceals any person whom he knows or has reason to believe to be a person who is about to commit or who has committed an offence under this Act, or knowingly permits any such persons to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control;

Harbouring or concealing certain persons and failing to report information relating to agents.

20 (b) having harboured or concealed any such person, or permitted such persons to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control, wilfully omits or refuses to disclose to any member of the South African Police or the South African Railway Police Force any information it is in his power to give in relation to any such person; or

25 (c) knowing that any agent or any person who has been or is in communication with an agent, whether in the Republic or elsewhere, is in the Republic, fails forthwith to report to any member of the South African Police or the South African Railway Police Force the presence of or any information it is in his power to give in relation to any such agent or person,

30 shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

8. (1) If in any prosecution upon a charge under section 3, or upon a charge under section 4 (1) in connection with the publi-
 40 cation or disclosure of a secret official code or password or a document, model, article or information as referred to in that section, it is proved that the accused—

Communication with agent proof of certain facts.

45 (a) has been in communication, or has attempted to communicate, with an agent in the Republic or elsewhere; or

50 (b) is an agent or is being or has been or is reasonably suspected of being or having been directly or indirectly used by a foreign or international body or institution, or has entered or is within the Republic in contravention of any law, it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed that the document, model, article or information referred to in section 3 has been prepared, compiled, made, obtained or received, or the secret official code or password or the model, article, docu-

 55 ment or information referred to in section 4 (1) has been published or disclosed, as the case may be, for purposes of the disclosure thereof to a foreign State or to a hostile organization.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

60 (a) a person shall, unless he proves the contrary, be presumed to have been in communication with an agent if—

(i) he has, in the Republic or elsewhere, visited the address of an agent or associated with an agent; or

PROTECTION OF INFORMATION ACT, 1982

Act No. 84, 1982

- (ii) in the Republic or elsewhere, the name or address of or any other information regarding an agent has been found in his possession or under his control, or has been supplied by him to any other person or has been obtained by him from any other person;
- (b) any address, in the Republic or elsewhere, reasonably suspected to be an address used for the receipt of communications intended for an agent, or at which an agent resides, or to which he resorts for the purpose of giving or receiving communications, or at which he carries on any business, shall be deemed to be the address of an agent, and any person who addresses communications to such address shall be deemed to have been in communication with an agent.

9. If in any prosecution against any person for an offence under section 3 it is proved that he is an agent or that he is or has been or is reasonably suspected of being or having been directly or indirectly used by or on behalf of any foreign or international body or institution or that he has entered or is within the Republic in contravention of any law and that he has prepared, compiled, made, obtained or received any document, model, article or information other than that referred to in section 3 (a), or any document, model, article or information relating to a place, article or matter other than that referred to in section 3 (b) (i) or (ii), it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed that such document, model, article or information may directly or indirectly be of use to a foreign State or a hostile organization.

Proof that certain information may directly or indirectly be of use to foreign State or hostile organization.

10. (1) In any prosecution under this Act upon a charge of committing an act for a purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic, it shall, if, from the circumstances of the case or the conduct of the accused, it appears that his purpose was a purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic, be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the purpose for which that act has been committed, is a purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic.

Proof of purpose prejudicial to security or interests of Republic.

- (2) If in any prosecution under this Act upon a charge of publishing or disclosing any secret official code or password or any document, model, article or information for a purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic, it is proved that it was published or disclosed by any person other than a person acting under lawful authority, or by an agent or by a person who is or has been or is reasonably suspected of being or having been directly or indirectly used by any foreign or international body or institution or who has entered or is within the Republic in contravention of any law, it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed that the purpose for which it was published or disclosed is a purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic.

11. (1) Any act constituting an offence under this Act and which is committed outside the Republic by any South African citizen or any person domiciled in the Republic shall be deemed to have been committed also in the Republic.

Extra-territorial application of Act, and jurisdiction.

- (2) Any offence under this Act shall, for the purposes of determining the jurisdiction of a court to try the offence, be deemed to have been committed at the place where it actually was committed and also at any place where the accused happens to be.

12. No trial or preparatory examination in respect of any offence under this Act, except any contravention of section 6, shall be instituted without the written authority of the attorney-general having jurisdiction in the area concerned.

Authority of attorney-general required for institution of criminal proceedings.

PROTECTION OF INFORMATION ACT, 1982

Act No. 84, 1982

13. Any court may, if it appears to that court to be necessary for considerations of the security or the other interests of the Republic, direct that any trial or preparatory examination in respect of an offence under this Act, shall take place behind closed doors or that the general public or any section thereof shall not be present thereat, and if the court issues any such direction, the court shall have the same powers as those conferred upon a court by section 154 (1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), and the provisions of subsections (1), (4) and (5) of the said section 154 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Criminal proceedings may take place behind closed doors.

14. The State President may, for the purposes of this Act, by proclamation in the Gazette declare—

(a) any place or area to be a prohibited place if he is satisfied that information with respect to that place or area, or the loss, damage, disruption or immobilization thereof could be of use to a foreign State or a hostile organization; or

(b) any association of persons, movement or institution outside the Republic to be a hostile organization if he is satisfied that that association of persons, movement or institution incites, instigates, commands, aids, advises, encourages or procures any person in the Republic or elsewhere to commit in the Republic an act of violence for any purpose prejudicial to the security or interests of the Republic, and may in like manner at any time repeal or amend any such proclamation.

Prohibited places and hostile organizations.

15. The laws specified in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the third column of the Schedule.

Repeal of laws.

16. This Act shall be called the Protection of Information Act, 1982.
