PART I

INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or the common law contained—

- (a) a building or buildings comprised in a scheme and the land on which such building or buildings is or are situated, may be divided into sections and common property in accordance with the provisions of this Act: Provided that where a scheme comprises more than one building, any such building may, subject to section 5 (4), be so divided into a single section and common property;
- (b) separate ownership in such sections or an undivided share therein may be acquired in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (c) the owners of such sections shall own such common property in undivided shares in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (d) any real right may be acquired in or over any such section or an undivided share therein or common property in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (e) a registrar may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, register in a deeds registry a title deed whereby ownership in, or any lease of, or any other real right in or over, any such section or an undivided share therein or common property is acquired.

Ownership and real rights in or over parts of buildings, and registration of title to ownership or other real rights in or over such parts.

3. (1) Save as is otherwise provided in this Act or any other law or the context otherwise indicates, the provisions of the Deeds Registries Act shall, in so far as such provisions can be so applied, apply mutatis mutandis in relation to all documents registered or filed or intended to be registered or filed in a deeds registry in terms of this Act.

Application of Deeds Registries Act, reproduction of documents, and units deemed to be land.

(2) The registrar concerned may reproduce or cause to be reproduced any document referred to in subsection (1) by means of microfilming or any other process which in his opinion accurately and durably reproduces any such document, and may preserve or cause to be preserved such reproduction in lieu of such document.

(3) A reproduction referred to in subsection (2) shall, for the purposes of a deeds registry, be deemed to be the original document, and a copy obtained by means of such reproduction and which has been certified by the registrar as a true copy of such reproduction, shall be admissible in evidence and shall have all the effects of the original document concerned.

(4) A unit shall be deemed to be land.

PART II

DEVELOPMENT SCHEMES, SECTIONAL PLANS AND SECTIONAL TITLE REGISTERS

4. (1) A developer who intends to establish a scheme shall make application to the local authority concerned for the approval of the scheme.

(2) A scheme may relate to more than one building situated or to be erected on the same piece of land, or to more than one piece of land as contemplated in section 5 (7).

Approval of development schemes.

(3) If one or more parts of a building which is or are comprised in a proposed scheme and which after a division of the building will constitute a unit or units therein, is or are wholly or partially let for residential purposes, a developer shall not make any application referred to in subsection (1), unless—

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- 5 (a) every lessee of every part which is so leased for residential purposes—
- (i) has been notified in writing by the developer, by letter delivered either personally or despatched by registered post, of a date, at least 14 days after the delivery or despatch of such letter, as the case may be, of a meeting of such lessees to be held in the building in question, or in another building within a reasonable distance from the first-mentioned building, within the area of jurisdiction of the local authority concerned, at which the developer or his agent intends to be available to provide the lessees with—
- 10 (aa) such particulars of the relevant scheme as they may reasonably require from him; and
- 15 (bb) the information regarding their rights as set out in section 10 of this Act; and
- (ii) has at the same time, with the notice referred to in subparagraph (i), been provided by the developer with a certificate containing the prescribed particulars in respect of the relevant building, and parts thereof or units therein, and of the relevant scheme; and
- 20 (b) a meeting contemplated in paragraph (a) (i) has been held and the developer or his agent has been available thereat to provide the particulars contemplated in the said paragraph, and has answered all reasonable questions put to the developer or agent by the lessees present: Provided that a share block company applying for the approval of a development scheme need not comply with the provisions of this subsection if that share block company has, within a period of two years before such application, already complied with the provisions of section 11A of the Share Blocks Control Act, 1980 (Act No. 59 of 1980).

40 (4) An application referred to in subsection (1) shall be made in the prescribed form and be accompanied by such documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) The local authority shall grant the application, if—

- 45 (a) the method and purpose of the proposed division into sections and common property are not contrary to the provisions of any operative town planning scheme at the date of the application for approval of the scheme;
- (b) in regard to any matter other than the proposed use, the building or buildings to which the scheme relates is or are not contrary to the provisions of any operative town planning scheme at the date of approval of the building plans;
- 50 (c) in regard to matters other than buildings, any applicable condition of any operative town planning scheme is complied with;
- 55 (d) the building or buildings to which the scheme relates, was or were erected in accordance with any applicable building by-laws in operation at the date of erection:

60 Provided that in regard to paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) the local authority may in its discretion disregard discrepancies and infringements and may also, in respect of paragraph (d), accept an affidavit from an architect as necessary proof.

(6) At any time after the receipt of an application referred to in subsection (1), the local authority may require the developer to furnish it with such further particulars, information and plans as it may deem necessary: Provided that the local authority shall not concern itself with the question whether or not the draft sectional plan has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act, nor shall the local authority require any information, measurements or data other than those prescribed, to be shown 5 on the draft sectional plan.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(7) The local authority shall not consider an application for the approval of a scheme—

- (a) unless the provisions of subsection (3) have been complied with;
- 10 (b) if the developer has, in the period of two years immediately preceding the date on which the application is submitted to the local authority, committed an act which, were it not for the provisions of subsection (2) of section 9, would have constituted the sale of a unit 15 or an undivided share in a unit or an interest in respect of any building and land comprised in the said scheme, contrary to the provisions of subsection (1) of that section.

(8) The local authority shall make its decision known in writing to the applicant within 60 days of the receipt of the application, or within 60 days after the developer complied with the requirements of the local authority under subsection (6), as the case may be.

(9) When granting an application either in whole or in part, 25 the local authority may impose any registrable condition it may deem fit.

(10) If the applicant feels aggrieved by any decision of the local authority, or if the local authority fails to approve the scheme within any applicable period referred to in subsection 30 (8), the developer may in the prescribed manner appeal to the Administrator of the province concerned, and the Administrator may grant or refuse the application, and if he grants the application either in whole or in part, he may impose any registrable condition he may deem fit.

(11) The decision of the Administrator shall for the purposes 35 of this Act be deemed to be the decision of the local authority.

5. (1) A draft sectional plan shall be prepared and signed by a land surveyor or an architect in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the numerical and other data recorded thereon
40 shall be within the prescribed limits of accuracy: Provided that the part of a draft sectional plan referred to in subsection (3) (a), and any delineation of an exclusive use area of which the boundaries are not represented by physical features of a permanent nature, shall be prepared by a land surveyor and signed by 45 him.

Manner of preparing draft sectional plans.

(2) A draft sectional plan which has been prepared by a land surveyor or architect who has been required by the Chief Director to sit for a prescribed examination in connection with the preparation of draft sectional plans, and which has been submitted to the Surveyor-General as required by section 7, shall 50 not be accepted by the Surveyor-General unless the land surveyor or architect concerned has passed such examination.

(3) A draft sectional plan shall—

- 55 (a) delineate the boundaries of the land in accordance with the relevant diagram or general plan and the location of the relevant building or buildings in relation thereto: Provided that any error in such diagram or general plan in regard to the boundaries of the land shall be rectified in terms of the Land Survey Act, 1927 (Act No. 9 of 60 1927), prior to the preparation of the sectional plan: Provided further that if the Surveyor-General does not require rectification of such diagram or general plan, the land surveyor shall record his own dimensions on that part of the draft sectional plan referred to in this paragraph;
- 65 (b) indicate the name of the building or buildings shown thereon;
- (c) include a plan to scale of each storey in the building or buildings shown thereon;

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- (d) subject to subsections (4) and (5), define the boundaries of each section in the building or buildings, and distinguish each section by a number;
- 5 (e) show the floor area to the median line of the boundary walls of each section, correct to the nearest square metre, and the total of the floor areas of all the sections;
- (f) delineate in the prescribed manner any exclusive use area;
- 10 (g) have endorsed upon or annexed to it a schedule specifying the quota of each section in accordance with section 32 (1) or (2) and the total of the quotas of all sections shown thereon; and
- (h) be drawn in such manner and contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- 15 (4) The common boundary between any section and another section or common property shall be the median line of the dividing floor, wall or ceiling, as the case may be.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) (d) the boundaries of a 20 section shall be defined—
- (a) by reference to the floors, walls and ceilings thereof, or as may be prescribed; and
- (b) in respect of a part of a section (such as a stoep, porch, balcony, atrium or projection) of which the boundaries 25 cannot be defined in terms of paragraph (a) but being appurtenant to a part of that section which can be defined in terms of that paragraph, in the manner prescribed.
- (6) A section may consist of non-contiguous parts of a build-30 ing or buildings.
- (7) A draft sectional plan may comprise one piece of land or two or more contiguous pieces of land or two or more non-contiguous pieces of land: Provided that the building or buildings to be divided into a section or sections shall be situated on only one 35 such piece of land or on two or more such contiguous pieces of land which have been notarially tied.

6. (1) A land surveyor or architect preparing a draft sectional plan shall prepare the draft sectional plan from an actual measurement undertaken by him or under his direction in such manner as will ensure accurate results, and in accordance with this 40 Act.

Duties of land surveyors and architects and non-liability of State.

(2) Neither the State nor any officer or employee in the service of the State shall be liable for any defective measurement or work appertaining thereto performed by any land surveyor or 45 architect, notwithstanding the fact that the sectional plan relating to such measurement or work has been approved by the Surveyor-General.

7. (1) After a local authority has approved a scheme, the land surveyor or architect concerned shall on behalf of the developer
50 submit to the Surveyor-General, for his approval, the prescribed number of copies of the draft sectional plan.

Approval of draft sectional plans by Surveyor-General.

(2) The submission of the draft sectional plan to the Surveyor-General shall be accompanied by—

55 (a) a certificate of the local authority signifying its approval of the scheme as reflected on the draft sectional plan; and

(b) the schedule referred to in section 5 (3) (g).

(3) The manner of submission of the draft sectional plan and of all other documents to the Surveyor-General, shall be as prescribed.
60

(4) A Surveyor-General shall not approve a draft sectional plan, unless it has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(5) On approval of a draft sectional plan by the Surveyor-General, the schedule referred to in section 5 (3) (g) shall be 65 deemed to be incorporated in and to form an integral part of the sectional plan.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

8. A land surveyor or architect shall for the purposes of the Professional Land Surveyors' and Technical Surveyors' Act, 1984 (Act No. 40 of 1984), and the Architects' Act, 1970 (Act No. 35 of 1970), as the case may be, be guilty of improper conduct, if he—

- (a) signs, except as provided in such circumstances as may be prescribed, a draft sectional plan, a sectional plan or any other plan referred to in this Act, required in connection with the registration thereof, and in respect of which he has not carried out or personally supervised the measurements, and has not carefully examined and satisfied himself of the correctness of the entries in any records and of the calculations in connection therewith which may have been made by any other person;
 - (b) signs any defective plan knowing it to be defective;
 - (c) repeatedly performs defective sectional title surveys in respect of which adequate checks have not been applied;
 - (d) makes an entry in a field record, a copy of a field record or other document which purports to have been derived from actual measurement in the field, when it was in fact not so derived;
 - (e) supplies erroneous information to the Surveyor-General in connection with any scheme, knowing it to be erroneous;
 - (f) carries out his duties in terms of this Act in a manner which the Chief Director finds after investigation to be incompetent or unsatisfactory; or
 - (g) contravenes a provision of this Act or fails to comply therewith,
- and the Director General: Public Works and Land Affairs or any other official authorized by him, may refer a complaint in this regard to the relevant Council for investigation and the taking of such steps as the Council may deem fit.

- 35 9. (1) No developer or other person shall offer or advertise for sale, grant an option for the acquisition of, or sell, any unit or any undivided share in a unit in respect of any building and land, or any interest purporting to be a proposed unit or undivided share in a unit in respect of a building and land, unless a sectional title register has been opened in respect of that building and land.
- Prohibition of certain acts before opening of sectional title register.
- 40
- (2) Any agreement granting an option or contract of purchase and sale concluded contrary to the provisions of subsection (1), shall be void.
- 45 (3) A developer and any person or purchaser who has performed partially or fully under an agreement or contract which is void under subsection (2), shall be entitled to reclaim from the other party what he has so performed, and—
- 50 (a) a developer may in addition claim from any such person or purchaser—
- (i) reasonable compensation for the use that the person or purchaser may have had under the agreement or contract of the building and land in question or any part thereof; and
 - (ii) compensation for any damage caused to that building or land or any part thereof by the person or purchaser, or any other person for whose acts or omissions such person or purchaser is delictually liable;
- 55
- 60 (b) a person to whom an option has been granted or a purchaser may in addition claim from the developer—
- (i) interest at the prescribed rate of interest on any payment made under the agreement or contract, from the date of payment to the date of recovery thereof;
- 65

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- 5 (ii) reasonable compensation for any expenses incurred by him with or without the authority of the developer for the preservation of the building or land, or part thereof, or in respect of any improvements which enhance the market value thereof and which were effected by him with the express or implied consent of the developer; and
- 10 (iii) compensation for any damage or loss suffered by him which he would otherwise have been entitled to claim from the developer on the ground of breach of contract had the agreement or contract not been void and had the developer failed to effect any transfer in accordance with the agreement or contract.

15 (4) A developer or any other person who commits an act which, were it not for the provisions of subsection (2), would have constituted the sale of a unit or an undivided share in a unit, or of any interest, or the granting of an option for the acquisition of such unit, undivided share or interest, contrary to 20 the provisions of subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

25 (5) In this section "sell" includes to sell subject to a suspensive condition or to exchange or to dispose of for any consideration whatsoever.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any building which on 25 February 1981 was in the process of being erected, or in respect of any building which has been or is 30 erected after that date.

35 10. (1) A developer shall, notwithstanding that a sectional title register has been opened in respect of a building and land, and subject to subsection (5), not offer for sale or sell any unit in that building which is occupied by a lessee who was entitled to be notified in terms of section 4 (3) (a) (i), to any person other than such lessee, unless the developer has, by letter delivered either personally or by registered post, offered the unit for sale to the lessee and the lessee has refused the offer within a period of 90 days or, in the case of a unit which is controlled premises
40 referred to in the Rent Control Act, 1976 (Act No. 80 of 1976), and is subject to the provisions of that Act, within a period of 365 days, of the date of the offer, or has, on the expiration of any such applicable period, not accepted the offer.

Sale by developers of certain units occupied by certain lessees.

45 (2) If a lessee refuses an offer referred to in subsection (1) within the applicable period mentioned therein, or has at the expiration of such applicable period not accepted the offer, the developer shall not, within a period of 180 days from the date on which the lessee has refused the offer, or on which such applicable period has expired, as the case may be, offer for sale or 50 sell the relevant unit to any person other than the lessee concerned at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale in terms of subsection (1) to the lessee, unless the developer has again offered the unit at that lower price for sale to the lessee and he has refused the offer within a period of 60 days from 55 the date thereof, or has on the expiration of that period not accepted the offer.

(3) A developer—

- 60 (a) shall as from the date on which a lessee has been notified in terms of section 4 (3) (a) (i) by the developer of the meeting referred to in that section—
(i) subject to subparagraph (ii), as long as the lessee continues to occupy the relevant unit and to comply with the conditions of the relevant lease; or

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- (ii) after the unit has been offered for sale in accordance with subsection (1) to the lessee and the lessee has refused the offer or the relevant period referred to in subsection (1) has expired, as the case may be, until the date of expiry of the applicable period of 180 days referred to in subsection (2) or, where applicable, the period of 60 days referred to in the last-mentioned subsection, whichever date occurs last,
- not require the lessee concerned to vacate the unit unless the lessee has been guilty of non-payment of rent, or has inflicted material damage to the unit, or has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance to occupiers of other units in the building concerned; and
- (b) shall in any case contemplated in paragraph (a) (ii), until the date of expiry of the applicable period of 180 days mentioned therein or, where applicable, the period of 60 days mentioned in that paragraph, whichever date occurs last, not require or permit the lessee to pay an amount of rent higher than the amount which was payable by the lessee on the date contemplated in subsection (1) on which the lessee refused the offer referred to in that subsection, or on which the relevant period referred to in that subsection expired, as the case may be:

Provided that the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not derogate from any applicable provision of the Rent Control Act, 1976 (Act No. 80 of 1976).

- (4) If any unit referred to in subsection (1) is controlled premises as contemplated therein and the lessee is 65 years old or older and his monthly income does not exceed the maximum amount of income from time to time mentioned in any proclamation issued under section 52 (1) of the Rent Control Act, 1976 (Act No. 80 of 1976), for lessees of premises in respect of which rent control is in terms of that section established by such proclamation, such unit may as long as such lessee continues to occupy the unit and his income does not exceed such maximum amount, only be offered for sale or sold by a developer to that lessee.

- (5) Any contract of purchase and sale concluded contrary to the provisions of subsection (1), (2) or (4) shall be void, and the provisions of section 9 (3) with regard to a contract referred to therein, shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of any such void contract.

- (6) A developer who—

- (a) commits an act which, were it not for the provisions of subsection (5), would have constituted the sale of a unit contrary to any provision of subsection (1), (2) or (4); or
- (b) contravenes any provision of subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

11. (1) A developer may, after approval of a draft sectional plan by the Surveyor-General, apply to the registrar in charge of the deeds registry in which the land comprised in the scheme is registered, for the opening of a sectional title register in respect of the land and building or buildings in question, and for the registration of the sectional plan.

Applications for opening of sectional title registers.

- (2) When making application for the opening of a sectional title register and the registration of a sectional plan, a developer may in the schedule referred to in subsection (3) (b) impose registrable conditions.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(3) An application in terms of subsection (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) two copies of the sectional plan;
- 5 (b) a schedule certified by a conveyancer setting out the servitudes and conditions of title burdening or benefiting the land and the other registrable conditions imposed by the local authority or the Administrator when approving the scheme, or by the developer in terms of subsection (2);
- 10 (c) the title deed of the land in question;
- (d) any mortgage bond to which the land may be subject, together with the consent of the mortgagee to the opening of the sectional title register and to the endorsement of such bond to the effect that it attaches to the sections and common property shown on the sectional plan;
- 15 (e) a certificate by a conveyancer stating that the rules prescribed in terms of section 35 (2) are applicable, and containing the other rules (if any) substituted by the developer for those rules as contemplated in that section;
- 20 (f) certificates of registered sectional title in the prescribed form in respect of each section and its undivided share in the common property, made out in favour of the developer; and
- 25 (g) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

12. (1) When the requirements of this Act and any other relevant law have been complied with, the registrar shall—

- 30 (a) register the sectional plan and allot a distinctive number to it;
- (b) open a sectional title register in respect of the land and building or buildings thereon in the manner prescribed;
- 35 (c) keep by means of a computer or in any other manner, such registers containing such particulars as are necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act or any other law and of maintaining an efficient system of registration calculated to afford security of title and ready reference to any registered deed;
- 40 (d) simultaneously with the opening of the sectional title register, issue to the developer in the prescribed form a certificate of registered sectional title in respect of each section and its undivided share in the common property, subject to any mortgage bond registered against the title deed of the land;
- 45 (e) issue to the developer, in the prescribed form, a certificate of real right in respect of any reservation made by him in terms of section 25 (1), subject to any mortgage bond registered against the title deed of the land;
- 50 (f) issue to the developer, in the prescribed form, a certificate of real right in respect of a right of exclusive use as contemplated in section 27 (1); and
- 55 (g) make the necessary endorsements on the title deed, any mortgage bond or other document, or in his records.

(2) The registrar shall notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority of the registration of the sectional plan and furnish the local authority with a copy thereof.

60 13. (1) Upon the registration of a sectional plan the building or buildings and the land shown thereon shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be divided into sections and common property as shown on the sectional plan.

65 (2) A sectional plan, together with the schedule of servitudes and conditions referred to in section 11 (3) (b), shall upon the registration of such plan, and a deeds registry's duplicate of a certificate of registered sectional title shall upon the registration of such title deed, be deemed to be embodied in the relevant sectional title register, and an owner's title to his section and his undivided share in the common property shall be subject to or shall be benefited by the servitudes, other real rights or conditions (if any) which burden or benefit the land shown on the sectional plan, and shall also be subject to any registrable condition imposed by the local authority or the Administrator when approving the scheme, or by a developer in terms of section 11 (2).

(3) Upon the registration of a sectional plan, any mortgage bond, lease, other real right or condition then registered against or affecting the land shown on the sectional plan, shall be deemed to be converted into a bond, lease, other real right or condition registered against or affecting the sections and common property shown on the sectional plan.

14. (1) The Surveyor-General may require a land surveyor or architect who has prepared a registered sectional plan to alter or amend, or the developer or the body corporate to cause to be altered or amended, any registered sectional plan found to be incorrect, or to substitute another sectional plan for the incorrect sectional plan.

Amendment and cancellation of sectional plans.

(2) The body corporate may recover the costs incurred as a result of an alteration or amendment to a sectional plan, or the substitution thereof, in terms of subsection (1), from the developer, land surveyor or architect concerned.

(3) If in the opinion of the Surveyor-General any person could be prejudiced by an incorrect sectional plan, he shall advise the registrar as to which sections are affected by any such defect in question, and thereafter no transfer of such section and its undivided share in the common property or the registration of a real right therein shall be registered until the defect in the sectional plan has been rectified, unless the registrar is satisfied that the delay in causing the defective sectional plan to be rectified will cause undue hardship and the person in whose favour transfer of the section and its undivided share in the common property or of a real right therein is to be registered, consents in writing to the transfer or other registration being effected prior to the rectification of the defect.

(4) The formalities for the alteration, amendment or substitution of a sectional plan in terms of subsection (1), shall be as prescribed.

(5) The Surveyor-General shall advise the registrar and the local authority of any alteration, amendment or substitution of a sectional plan in terms of subsection (1) which affects the description or extent of any section, and thereupon the registrar shall make the necessary endorsements reflecting any change of description or extent upon the deeds registry copy of the certificate of registered sectional title and upon any other registered document affected by such change, and shall likewise endorse the owner's or holder's copy of that title or any such other registered document whenever subsequently lodged at the deeds registry for any purpose.

(6) The registrar may on application by a developer, which application shall be accompanied by a certificate by a conveyancer in which he certifies that all the sections of a scheme are registered in the developer's name and that no section is encumbered by a sectional mortgage bond or a lease or in any other way, close the sectional title register, and notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority that the sectional title register has been closed, whereupon the Surveyor-General shall cancel the original sectional plan and the deeds registry copy thereof.

(7) Whenever a sectional title register has been closed under subsection (6), the registrar shall make all such alterations, amendments, endorsements and entries on the developer's sectional title deeds and in the registers and records kept by him, as may be necessary to record such cancellation and the reversion of the land in question to the applicable land register, and shall in the manner prescribed cause the developer's title deed referred to in section 11 (3) (c) to be revived, or shall issue to the developer a certificate of registered title in the form prescribed under the Deeds Registries Act for the said land, subject or entitled to such servitudes, other real rights and conditions (if any) as are certified by a conveyancer to be still applicable to or in respect of such land.

(8) A registered sectional plan shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (6) and section 17 (6), only be cancelled by an order of the Court, and the registrar shall give effect to any such cancellation by making the necessary endorsements and entries in his records, and shall notify the Surveyor-General, who shall cancel the original sectional plan and the deeds office copy thereof.

(9) The registrar shall notify the local authority of the cancellation of the registration of a sectional plan.

PART III

REGISTRATION AND COMMON PROPERTY

15. (1) When a sectional title register has been opened and the relevant sectional plan has been registered—

Registration of transfer of ownership and other rights.

- 20 (a) ownership in any unit or land held under a sectional title deed shall, subject to the provisions of sections 17 and 22, be transferred by means of an endorsement made by the registrar on such sectional title deed;
- 25 (b) the registrar shall register any notarial lease of a unit or an undivided share in a unit and any notarial cancellation or modification of such a lease by means of an endorsement made by him on the sectional title deed, and he shall register any notarial sub-lease and any notarial cession of such a lease or sub-lease and any notarial cancellation or modification of such a sub-lease by means of an endorsement made by him on the lease in question in the prescribed manner: Provided that if any such lease or sub-lease has lapsed by effluxion of time, the registrar shall cancel the registration on production of proof that the lease or sub-lease has so lapsed;
- 35 (c) the registrar shall register any sectional mortgage bond by which a unit or an undivided share in a unit or land held under a sectional title deed, or a registered lease or sub-lease of a unit or an undivided share in a unit or such land, or any registered real right in or over any such unit or undivided share in a unit or land, is hypothecated, and any cession, cancellation or modification of such bond, by means of an endorsement made by him on the sectional title deed or on the registered lease or sub-lease or bond or other deed; and
- 45 (d) the registrar shall register any other real right (which is embodied in a notarial deed) in or over a unit or an undivided share in a unit or land held under a sectional title deed, and any notarial cancellation or modification of such a real right, by means of an endorsement made by him on the sectional title deed: Provided that in the case of any registered real right which has lapsed for any reason, the registrar shall cancel the registration on production of proof that the real right has lapsed.

55 (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law contained, it shall not be necessary to annex a diagram to any sectional title deed under which a unit or an undivided share in a unit is held, if reference is made in such deed to the registered sectional plan.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(3) When transfer of a unit or an undivided share in a unit is passed in terms of a will by which that unit or undivided share in a unit has been bequeathed to any person subject to a usufruct or other limited interest such as fideicommissum, the endorsement 5 which the registrar is required to make on the relevant sectional title deed shall contain the name of the beneficiary and shall state that the beneficiary takes transfer subject to the terms and conditions of the will.

(4) The registrar shall not register a transfer of a unit or of an undivided share therein, unless there is produced to him a conveyancer's certificate in the prescribed form, certifying—

- (a) the names and marital status of the parties and such particulars required for their identification as prescribed in the Deeds Registries Act;
- 15 (b) that all moneys due to the body corporate by the transferor in respect of the said unit have been paid, or that provision has been made to the satisfaction of the body corporate for the payment thereof;
- 20 (c) that, except in so far as the transfer gives effect to an interdict, attachment, caveat or other such notice, according to a sworn declaration furnished by the transferor, there is no such interdict, attachment, caveat or notice applicable and that, unless the transfer is from an insolvent estate, the transferor is not insolvent;
- 25 (d) that, to the best of his knowledge and belief and after due enquiry has been made, in the case of a church, association, society, close corporation, other body of persons or institution other than a company (except a share block control company as defined in the Share Blocks Control Act, 1980 (Act No. 59 of 1980)), or a trust, being a party to the transaction concerned, the transaction is authorized by the constitution, rules, regulations, statutes, founding statement or deed, as the case may be, of such church, association, society, close corporation, body of persons, institution, share block company or trust, and that any person signing on behalf of such church, association, society, close corporation, body of persons, institution (including a company), share block company or trust, the documents 30 evidencing the transaction, was duly authorized to sign those documents in his representative capacity; and
- 35 (e) such other particulars as may be prescribed by regulation, and unless such certificate is accompanied by or is endorsed with—
- 40

- 45 (i) a certificate by the Receiver of Revenue that the transfer duty has been paid or secured or that no transfer duty is payable, and that the stamp duty has been paid or that no stamp duty is payable;
- 50 (ii) a certificate that no real right of extension of a scheme as contemplated in section 25 is registered in favour of a developer or the body corporate or, if such right is so registered, that it is disclosed in the deed of alienation to the transferee as contemplated in section 25 (14) or, if it is not so disclosed, that the transferee after the conclusion of the deed of alienation has in writing exercised his option in terms of section 25 (15) and that he has elected not to annul the alienation on the ground of the said defect;
- 55 (iii) if by any law provision has been made for the separate rating of units, proof of compliance with any applicable provision of such law regarding the registration of the relevant transfer; and
- 60

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

- (iv) if the transferor is a developer, an affidavit by the developer in which it is declared whether the relevant unit is a unit to which the provisions of section 10 apply or not and, if those provisions so apply, that the transfer is effected in terms of a contract which is not contrary to any provision of that section.
- (5) Unless provision is made by any law for the separate rating of units it shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, not be necessary before transfer of a unit or undivided share therein is registered, other than a transfer which results in the establishment of a body corporate in terms of section 36, to produce to the registrar a clearance certificate to the effect that all rates and taxes due to the local authority in respect of the land and building or buildings comprised in the scheme have been paid.
- (6) A certificate referred to in subsection (4) shall, as far as the registrar is concerned, be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.
- (7) The registrar shall not register a notarial lease, notarial sub-lease, sectional mortgage bond or any other deed unless such lease, sub-lease, bond or other deed is accompanied by a certificate by the Receiver of Revenue, or such certificate is endorsed thereon, that any stamp duty required has been paid, or that no stamp duty is payable.
- (8) A unit shall be capable of being held by two or more persons in joint ownership.
- (9) Any person who is the joint owner of a unit held by such person and one or more other persons under one sectional title deed may, upon application to the registrar in the prescribed manner, obtain a certificate of registered sectional title in the prescribed form in respect of his undivided share in such unit, and no transfer of a fraction only of his undivided share in such unit and no hypothecation or lease of the whole or any fraction of his undivided share in such unit shall be registered in a deeds registry, unless a certificate of registered sectional title in the prescribed form in respect of such undivided share is produced to the registrar.
- (10) The conveyancer who has furnished a certificate in terms of subsection (4) shall retain his file with such documents as may be prescribed relating to the transaction in question for a period of at least six years after the date of the said certificate.
16. (1) The common property shall be owned by owners of sections jointly in undivided shares proportionate to the quotas of their respective sections as specified on the relevant sectional plan.
- (2) A sectional title deed in respect of a section shall, in a separate paragraph, describe the undivided share in the common property of the owner of the section as an undivided share in the common property apportioned to the section in accordance with the quota of the section.
- (3) A section and its undivided share in the common property shall together be deemed to be one unit, and no section shall be disposed of or be otherwise dealt with apart from its appurtenant undivided share in the common property nor, subject to section 17, shall an undivided share in the common property be disposed of or be otherwise dealt with apart from the section to which it is appurtenant.
- (4) Any insurance of a section shall be deemed also to insure the undivided share in the common property of the owner of the section, even if no express reference is made to such share.
17. (1) The owners may by unanimous resolution direct the body corporate on their behalf to alienate common property or any part thereof, or to let common property or any part thereof

under a lease, and thereupon the body corporate shall, notwithstanding any provision of section 20 of the Deeds Registries Act, but subject to compliance with the provisions of any relevant law relating to the subdivision of land or to the letting of a part of 5 land, as the case may be, have power to deal with such common property or such part thereof in accordance with the direction, and to execute any deed required for the purpose.

(2) Any transaction in pursuance of a resolution referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a copy of the relevant
10 resolution, certified by two trustees of the body corporate: Provided that where the transaction in question requires to be notari- ally executed, such resolution so certified shall be produced to the notary public concerned and be retained by him in his proto- col.

15 (3) The registrar shall—

(a) if the holders of bonds over units in the scheme consent in writing thereto, register transfer of land comprised in the common property by issuing to the transferee a certifi-
20 cate of registered sectional title in the prescribed form for the land transferred, and thereupon the land shall revert to the land register and the registrar shall make an appropriate endorsement and entry on such title and in his records to give effect thereto: Provided that if a portion only of the land comprised in the com-
25 mon property is so transferred, no endorsement thereof shall be made on the sectional title deeds of the owners of units: Provided further that in such a case where a portion only of the land comprised in the common property is transferred, a diagram of such portion ap-
30 proved by the Surveyor-General in terms of the Land Survey Act, 1927 (Act No. 9 of 1927), shall be annexed to the said title deed;

(b) notify the Surveyor-General of any reversion of any land to the land register under the provisions of para-
35 graph (a), and upon receipt of such notification the Surveyor-General shall make an appropriate endorse- ment on the original sectional plan and the deeds regis- try copy thereof; and

(c) if the holders of bonds over units in the scheme con-
40 sent in writing thereto, register a notarial lease of land comprising common property by making an appropri- ate endorsement against the schedule of conditions referred to in section 11 (3) (b), and no endorsement thereof shall be made on the sectional title deeds of the 45 units.

(4) (a) Where, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1), it is sought to alienate or to let a portion of the common property on which a section or part of a section is erected, the registrar shall not register the transfer or lease unless the registration of the section in question has been cancelled with the written consent of the own-
50 er.

(b) When the registration of a section is cancelled under paragraph (a), the quota of the section shall lapse and the quotas of the remaining sections shall be propor-
55 tionately adjusted.

(c) The registrar shall notify the Surveyor-General when-
60 ever the registration of a section has been cancelled under paragraph (a), and upon receipt of such notifica- tion the Surveyor-General shall effect the necessary amendments to the original sectional plan, the deeds registry copy of the sectional plan and the schedule thereto specifying the quota of each section.

(5) When the whole of the land comprised in the common
65 property shown on the sectional plan is transferred by the body corporate pursuant to this section, the sectional title deeds of the owners of the common property shall be surrendered to the registrar for cancellation, and the registrar shall close the sectional title register and notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority that the sectional title register has been closed.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- 5 (6) Upon receipt of the notification referred to in subsection (5), the Surveyor-General shall cancel the original sectional plan and the deeds registry copy of the sectional plan.

18. The provisions of sections 56 and 57 of the Deeds Registries Act shall apply mutatis mutandis with reference to the transfer of any mortgaged unit or undivided share in a unit, the cession of any mortgaged lease of a unit or undivided share in a unit, the cession of any mortgaged real right in or over a unit or an undivided share in a unit, and the transfer under section 17 of this Act of any mortgaged common property or land or an undivided share therein.
- Transfer of mortgaged unit, undivided share, common property or land, and cession of mortgaged lease or real right.

19. (1) Whenever the whole or any part of, or any right in, the common property is expropriated under the provisions of any law, service of a notice of expropriation on the body corporate shall be deemed to be service thereof on the registered owner of every section in the building or buildings concerned, and each such owner shall be deemed to have appointed the trustees of the body corporate concerned as his duly authorized agents and representatives—
- 20 (a) to negotiate and settle the compensation payable to him, and to that end to employ attorneys, advocates and other experts; and
- 25 (b) on his behalf to receive and give valid acquittance for any compensation moneys paid.
- Expropriation of common property or rights therein.

- (2) Any compensation moneys received by the trustees on behalf of the owners in terms of subsection (1), shall be paid to the owners in accordance with their participation quotas after they have received notice of such distribution in writing: Provided that an owner may notify the trustees before such moneys are so distributed that he considers such a distribution inequitable, in which event the compensation moneys shall be distributed—
- 30 (a) in accordance with a division approved by unanimous resolution; or
- 35 (b) in accordance with a division approved by an arbitrator, being a practising advocate of not less than ten years' standing or a practising attorney of not less than
- 40 ten years' standing, nominated by the trustees.

- (3) The provisions of section 17 (3) (a) and (b) of this Act and sections 31 (4) and 32 (4) of the Deeds Registries Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to a transfer pursuant to an expropriation of land or a servitude or other real right in land comprising common property.
- 45

- (4) When land comprising common property on which a section or a part of a section is erected is transferred pursuant to an expropriation, the registrar shall cancel the registration of such section in his records and shall endorse the deeds registry copy of the relevant title and any bond, lease or other registered document affected, to reflect the cancellation of the section, and shall in like manner endorse the owner's copy of the title deed or the holder's copy of the bond, lease or other document whenever subsequently lodged at the deeds registry for any purpose.
- 50

- (5) The provisions of section 17 (4) (b) and (c), and (5), shall apply mutatis mutandis to the cancellation of a section in terms of subsection (4).

Act No. 95, 1986

PART IV

SUBDIVISION, CONSOLIDATION AND EXTENSION OF SECTIONS

20. (1) If an owner of a section proposes to subdivide his section or to consolidate two or more sections registered in his name, he shall with the consent of the trustees of the body corporate, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, make application to the local authority for approval of the proposed subdivision or consolidation, as the case may be.

Approval by local authority for subdivision of section or consolidation of sections.

(2) The provisions of section 4 (4), (5), (6), (8), (9), (10) and (11) shall apply mutatis mutandis to an application referred to in subsection (1).

21. (1) After the local authority has approved the proposed subdivision of a section or the consolidation of two or more sections, the land surveyor or architect concerned may on behalf of the owner submit the draft sectional plan of subdivision or consolidation, as the case may be, to the Surveyor-General for approval.

Approval of plan of subdivision or consolidation by Surveyor-General.

(2) The submission of the draft sectional plan of subdivision or consolidation to the Surveyor-General shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a certificate of the local authority approving the subdivision or consolidation;
- (b) in the case of a subdivision, a schedule specifying, in the manner prescribed, the apportionment of the participation quota of the section between the new sections created;
- (c) in the case of a consolidation, a schedule specifying, in the manner prescribed, the participation quota of the new section created, being the aggregate of the quotas of the sections that are to be consolidated.

(3) The provisions of section 7 (3) and (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the preparation and submission of a draft sectional plan of subdivision or consolidation to the Surveyor-General, and to the approval of such plan by him.

22. (1) An owner may, after approval of a sectional plan of subdivision of a section, apply to the registrar of the deeds registry in which the section is registered, to register the sectional plan of subdivision.

Registration of subdivision of section.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of the sectional plan of subdivision together with a schedule, certified by a conveyancer, of any registrable conditions imposed by the local authority or Administrator when approving the subdivision;
- (b) the certificate of registered sectional title in respect of the section to be subdivided;
- (c) any sectional mortgage bond to which the section may be subject, together with the consent of the mortgagee to the cancellation of the bond or to the release of the section from the bond or to the subdivision and substitution of the new sections in lieu of such section as security under the bond;
- (d) certificates of registered sectional title in the prescribed form for each of the new sections and their undivided shares in the common property created by the subdivision, made out in favour of the owner or, in the case of a partition, in favour of the persons entitled thereto in terms of the partition agreement;
- (e) the partition agreement (if any), if the section is owned by more than one owner; and
- (f) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(3) When the requirements of this section and of any other relevant law have been complied with, the registrar shall register the sectional plan of subdivision referred to in subsection (1), and notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority of the registration of the sectional plan of subdivision, and thereupon the Surveyor-General shall amend the original sectional plan and the deeds office copy of the sectional plan to reflect such subdivision.

(4) Upon registration of the sectional plan of subdivision, the portions in question shall be deemed to be separated from one another and shall each be deemed to be a separate section.

(5) Simultaneously with the registration of the sectional plan of subdivision the registrar shall, in lieu of the sectional title deed referred to in subsection (2) (b), issue the certificates of registered sectional title referred to in subsection (2) (d), and make such endorsements on the superseded and newly issued certificates of registered sectional title, any sectional mortgage bond, lease or other deed embodying any other real right registered against the section at the time of subdivision, and entries in the deeds registry records, as he may deem necessary to give effect to the provisions of this section.

(6) A sectional plan of subdivision shall upon the registration thereof be deemed to be incorporated in the sectional plan registered in terms of section 12 (1) (a), and the provisions of section 13 (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis to such plan and the certificates of registered sectional title issued in terms of subsection (5).

23. (1) An owner may, after approval of a sectional plan of consolidation of two or more sections, apply to the registrar of the deeds registry in which the sections are registered, to register the sectional plan of consolidation.

Registration of consolidation of sections.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of the sectional plan of consolidation, together with a schedule certified by a conveyancer of any registrable conditions imposed by the local authority or the Administrator when approving the consolidation;
- (b) the certificates of registered sectional title of the sections to be consolidated;
- (c) any sectional mortgage bond registered against the sections, together with the consent of the mortgagee to the registration of the sectional plan of consolidation;
- (d) a certificate of registered sectional title in the prescribed form in respect of the new section reflected on the sectional plan of consolidation, and its undivided share in the common property, made out in favour of the owner of the sections to be consolidated; and
- (e) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) When the requirements of this section and any other relevant law have been complied with, the registrar shall register the sectional plan of consolidation referred to in subsection (1), and notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority of the registration of the sectional plan of consolidation, and thereupon the Surveyor-General shall amend the original sectional plan and deeds office copy of the sectional plan to reflect such consolidation.

(4) Upon registration of the sectional plan of consolidation, the sections in question shall be deemed to be consolidated into a single section as depicted on the sectional plan of consolidation.

(5) Simultaneously with the registration of the sectional plan of consolidation, the registrar shall, in lieu of the certificates of registered sectional title referred to in subsection (2) (b), issue the certificate of registered sectional title referred to in subsection (2) (d), and thereupon the provisions of subsection (5) of section 22 relating to the endorsements and entries to be made in the deeds registry records, and of subsection (6) of that section, shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(6) The provisions of section 40 (5) of the Deeds Registries Act shall apply mutatis mutandis with reference to any mortgage bond registered over one or more component sections of the section represented on the sectional plan of consolidation.

24. (1) If an owner of a section proposes to extend the limits of his section, he shall with the approval of the body corporate, authorized by a unanimous resolution of its members, make application to the local authority for approval of the proposed extension of his section.

Extension of sections.

(2) The provisions of section 4 (4), (5), (6), (8), (9), (10) and (11) shall apply mutatis mutandis to an application to the local authority for its approval of a proposed extension of a section.

(3) After the local authority has approved of the proposed extension of a section, the land surveyor or architect concerned may on behalf of the owner submit the draft sectional plan of extension of a section to the Surveyor-General for approval.

(4) The submission of the draft sectional plan of extension of a section to the Surveyor-General, shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a certificate of the local authority approving the draft sectional plan of extension of a section; and
- (b) in the case of the floor area of the section in question being increased by the extension, a revised schedule, in substitution for the schedule referred to in section 7 (2) (b), reflecting the participation quotas of all the sections as modified after taking the increased floor area of the section in question into account.

(5) The provisions of section 7 (3) and (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the preparation and submission of a draft sectional plan of extension of a section to the Surveyor-General, and to the approval of such plan by him.

(6) An application to the registrar for the registration of a sectional plan of extension of a section, shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of the sectional plan of extension of a section;
- (b) a schedule certified by a conveyancer of any registrable conditions imposed by the local authority or Administrator when approving the extension;
- (c) the certificate of registered sectional title in respect of the section to be extended;
- (d) any sectional mortgage bond to which the section may be subject, together with the consent of the mortgagee of each section in the scheme to the registration of the sectional plan of extension of a section; and
- (e) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

(7) When the requirements of this section and of any other relevant law have been complied with, the registrar shall register the sectional plan of extension of a section, and shall make an appropriate endorsement on the title referred to in subsection (6) (c), if the floor area of the section is increased by the extension, and such consequential endorsements against any deed registered against the title deed as may be necessary, and he shall notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority of the registration of the sectional plan of extension, and thereupon the Surveyor-General shall amend the original sectional plan and the deeds office copy of the sectional plan to reflect such extension of a section.

(8) A sectional plan of extension of a section shall upon the registration thereof be deemed to be incorporated in the sectional plan registered in terms of section 12 (1) (a), and the provisions of section 13 (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis to such plan.

Act No. 95, 1986

PART V

EXTENSION OF SCHEMES

25. (1) A developer may, subject to the provisions of section 5 (7), in his application for the registration of a sectional plan, reserve, in a condition imposed in terms of section 11 (2), the right to erect and complete from time to time, but within a period stipulated in such condition, for his personal account—
- Extension of schemes by addition of sections.
- (a) a further building or buildings; or
 - (b) a horizontal extension of an existing building; or
 - (c) a vertical extension of an existing building,
- on a specified part of the common property, and to divide such building or buildings into a section or sections and common property and to confer the right of exclusive use over parts of such common property upon the owner or owners of one or more of such sections.
- (2) In the event of a reservation in terms of subsection (1), the application for the registration of the sectional plan shall, in addition to the documents referred to in section 11 (3), be accompanied by—
- (a) a building plan, approved by the local authority, of the building or buildings to be erected and indicating the part of the common property affected by the reservation;
 - (b) a plan showing the manner in which the building or buildings to be erected are to be divided into a section or sections and any exclusive use areas;
 - (c) a schedule indicating the estimated participation quotas of all the sections in the scheme after such section or sections have been added to the scheme;
 - (d) particulars of any substantial difference between the materials to be used in the construction of the building or buildings to be erected and those used in the construction of the existing building or buildings;
 - (e) particulars of such applicable expenses as are specified in section 37 (1) (a), which will be borne by the developer from the date of establishment of the body corporate until the sectional plan of extension is registered;
 - (f) a prescribed form on which a certificate of real right is to be issued to the developer in terms of section 12 (1) (e); and
 - (g) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.
- (3) The developer shall promptly on demand pay any moneys due in terms of subsection (2) (e) to the body corporate.
- (4) A right reserved in terms of subsection (1) or vested in terms of subsection (6), and in respect of which a certificate of real right has been issued—
- (a) shall for all purposes be deemed to be a right to urban immovable property which admits of being mortgaged; and
 - (b) may be transferred by the registration of a notarial deed of cession.
- (5) A right reserved in terms of subsection (1) may be exercised by the developer or his successor in title thereto, even though the developer or his successor in title, as the case may be, has no other interest in the common property.
- (6) If no reservation was made by a developer in terms of subsection (1), or if such a reservation was made and for any reason has lapsed, the right to extend a scheme shall vest in the body corporate, which shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of this section and after compliance, mutatis mutandis, with the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (g) of subsection (2), to obtain a certificate of real right in the prescribed form in respect thereof: Provided that the body corporate shall only exercise or alienate or transfer such right with the written consent of all the members of the body corporate: Provided further that a member shall not withhold such approval without good cause in law.

(7) The provisions of section 4 (4), (5), (6), (8), (9), (10) and 5 (11) shall apply mutatis mutandis to an application to a local authority for its approval of an extension of a scheme in terms of this section.

(8) The provisions of sections 5, 6 and 7 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the submission of a draft sectional plan of extension 10 to the Surveyor-General in terms of this section and the approval thereof by him: Provided that the draft sectional plan of extension submitted to the Surveyor-General shall be accompanied by a revised schedule specifying the participation quota of each section in the building or buildings depicted on the sectional 15 plan and the sectional plan of extension, calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 32 as if the plan of extension formed part of the sectional plan when it was registered, and the Surveyor-General shall file such revised schedule with the sectional plan in lieu of the schedule referred to in section 7 (2) (b).

20 (9) A developer or his successor in title to a right reserved in terms of subsection (1), or the body corporate in terms of subsection (6), as the case may be, may, after approval of a sectional plan of extension by the Surveyor-General in terms of this section, apply to the registrar for the registration of such plan of extension 25 and the inclusion of the additional section or sections in the relevant sectional title register.

(10) An application under subsection (9) shall be accompanied by—

- 30 (a) a copy of the sectional plan of extension;
- (b) a schedule, certified by a conveyancer, of any registrable conditions imposed by the local authority or the Administrator when approving the extension of the scheme;
- 35 (c) the certificate of real right by which the reservation in terms of subsection (1) or (6) is held, together with any sectional mortgage bond registered against the certificate of real right and the consent of the mortgagee to the substitution of the sections depicted on the sectional 40 plan of extension and their undivided shares in the common property, as security in lieu of the real right held under the certificate of real right mortgaged under the bond;
- (d) certificates of registered sectional title in the prescribed form in favour of the developer, his successor in title or 45 the body corporate, as the case may be, in respect of each section reflected on the plan of extension;
- (e) the consent of the mortgagee of each section in the scheme to the extension of the scheme; and
- 50 (f) such other documents and particulars as may be prescribed.

(11) When the requirements of this section and of any other law have been complied with, the registrar shall—

- 55 (a) register the sectional plan of extension;
- (b) extend the sectional title register to include the sections depicted on the plan of extension;
- (c) simultaneously with the registration of the sectional plan of extension issue to the developer, his successor in title or the body corporate, as the case may be, a certificate of registered sectional title in respect of each 60 section depicted on the sectional plan of extension and its undivided share in the common property, and notify the local authority and the Surveyor-General of the registration of such plan of extension, and thereupon the Surveyor-General shall amend the original sectional plan and the deeds office copy of the sectional plan to reflect such extension; and
- 65 (d) make such entries in his records and endorsements on the certificates of registered sectional title referred to in paragraphs (c), any certificate of real right referred to in subsection (10) (c), and any sectional mortgage bond registered against the certificate of real right, as are necessary to give effect to this section.

(12) Upon registration of a sectional plan of extension referred to in subsection (11) (a)—

- 5 (a) the owners of sections in the building or buildings in the scheme that is being extended, the mortgagees of sectional mortgage bonds and the holders of any real rights registered over such sections, shall be divested of their share or interest in the common property to the extent that an undivided share in the common property is vested in the developer, his successor in title or the body corporate, as the case may be, by the issue of the certificates of registered sectional title referred to in subsection (11) (c);
- 10
- 15 (b) a sectional mortgage bond whereby a real right held by a certificate of real right referred to in subsection (10) (c) is mortgaged, shall be deemed to be a sectional mortgage bond over the sections depicted on the sectional plan of extension and their undivided share in the common property and registered against the certificates of sectional title issued in terms of subsection (11) (c); and
- 20 (c) the sectional plan of extension shall be deemed to be incorporated in the sectional plan registered in terms of section 12 (1) (a), and thereupon the provisions of section 13 (1) and (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(13) A developer or his successor in title who exercises a reserved right referred to in subsection (1), or a body corporate exercising the right referred to in subsection (6), shall be obliged to erect and divide the building or buildings into sections strictly in accordance with the documents referred to in subsection (2), due regard being had to changed circumstances which would make strict compliance impracticable, and an owner of a unit in the scheme who is prejudiced by his failure to comply in this manner, may apply to the Court, whereupon the Court may order proper compliance with the terms of the reservation, or grant such other relief, including damages, as the Court may deem fit.

(14) In all cases where a developer or a body corporate has a real right to extend a scheme as contemplated in this section, such right shall be disclosed in the deed of alienation to every purchaser of a section in the scheme concerned.

40

- (15) (a) A deed of alienation in which a real right has not been disclosed as contemplated in subsection (14), shall be voidable at the option of the purchaser.
- 45 (b) After notice by any such purchaser to the seller that he annuls the alienation, the alienation shall be void, and thereupon the provisions of section 9 (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

26. (1) A body corporate, authorized thereto in writing by all of its members, may purchase land to extend the common property for the purpose of providing amenities and facilities to its members.

(2) Land purchased by a body corporate in terms of subsection (1) shall be deemed to be owned by the owners of the sections in the building concerned in the same proportion as their participation quota as reflected on the relevant sectional plan.

55

(3) The provisions of section 4 (4), (5), (6), (8), (9), (10) and (11) shall apply mutatis mutandis to an application to a local authority for approval of the extension of a scheme by the incorporation of land purchased in terms of subsection (1).

60

(4) The provisions of section 7 (2) (a), (3) and (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the preparation and submission to the Surveyor-General of a draft plan of extension of the common property, and the approval of such plan by him.

65

(5) The registrar shall register a plan of extension of the common property in terms of this section by making an endorsement on the relevant title deed to reflect that the land concerned has

Extension of schemes by addition of land to common property.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

been incorporated in the sectional plan, make such further endorsements and entries in his records as may be necessary to give effect thereto, and shall notify the local authority and the Surveyor-General of the registration of such plan of extension, 5 and thereupon the Surveyor-General shall amend the original sectional plan and deeds office copy of the sectional plan to reflect such extension.

(6) The registrar shall not register a plan of extension in terms of this section if the additional land to be incorporated as common property is subject to a mortgage bond. 10

(7) Upon the registration of a plan of extension of the common property in terms of this section, such plan shall be deemed to be incorporated in the sectional plan registered in terms of section 12 (1) (a), and the land to which such sectional plan of extension relates shall be deemed to be incorporated as common property in such registered sectional plan. 15

PART VI

EXCLUSIVE USE OF COMMON PROPERTY AND SERVITUDES

- 20 27. (1) (a) If a part or parts of common property is or are delineated on a sectional plan in terms of section 5 (3) (f), the developer shall, when making application for the opening of a sectional title register and the registration of the sectional plan, impose a condition in terms of section 11 (2) in the schedule referred to in section 25 11 (3) (b), by which the right to the exclusive use of such part or parts of the common property delineated for this purpose on the sectional plan, is conferred upon the owner or owners of one or more of the sections, and the registrar shall not accept for registration 30 a sectional plan on which a part or parts of the common property is so delineated, unless the developer imposes any such condition conferring any such right for a specific purpose on the owner or owners of a section or sections.
- 35 (b) A developer shall cede the right to the exclusive use of part or parts of the common property to the owner or owners to whom such rights are allocated, by the registration of a unilateral notarial deed in their favour.
- 40 (2) A body corporate, duly authorized thereto by a unanimous resolution of its members, may, subject to the provisions of section 5 (1), request an architect or land surveyor to apply to the Surveyor-General for the delineation on a sectional plan in the manner prescribed of a part or parts of the common property in terms of section 5 (3) (f) for the exclusive use by the owner or 45 owners of one or more sections: Provided that no such delineation shall be made on the sectional plan in terms of this subsection if such delineation will encroach upon a prior delineation on the sectional plan of a part of the common property for the exclusive use by one or more of the owners.
- 50 (3) The body corporate, duly authorized thereto by a unanimous resolution of its members, shall transfer the right to the exclusive use of a part or parts of the common property delineated on the sectional plan in terms of subsection (2) to the owner or owners on whom such right has been conferred by the 55 body corporate, by the registration of a notarial deed entered into by the parties and in which the body corporate shall represent the owners of all the sections as transferor.
- 60 (4) An owner of a section in whose favour the right to the exclusive use of a part of the common property delineated on the sectional plan is registered, may with the written consent of the mortgagee of the relevant section transfer his interest in such right to the owner of another section in the building by the registration by the registrar of a notarial deed of cession entered into

Rights of exclusive use of parts of common property.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

by the parties: Provided that where such right is enjoyed jointly with the owners of other sections, the consent in writing of such other owners to the transfer shall be produced to the registrar.

(5) A right to the exclusive use of a part of the common property delineated on the sectional plan registered in favour of an owner of a section may with the written consent of the mortgagee of the relevant section be cancelled by the registration by the registrar of a notarial deed of cancellation entered into by the owner of the section entitled to such right and the body corporate, duly authorized by a special resolution of its members, on behalf of all the owners of sections in the building.

(6) A right to the exclusive use of a part of common property registered in favour of an owner of a section, shall for all purposes be deemed to be a right to urban immovable property which admits of being mortgaged.

28. (1) There shall be implied—

Implied
servitudes.

(a) in favour of each section—

(i) a servitude for the subjacent and lateral support of the section by the common property and by any other section capable of affording such support;

(ii) a servitude for the passage or provision of water, sewerage, drainage, gas, electricity, garbage, artificially heated or cooled air and other services, including telephone, radio and television services, through or by means of any pipes, wires, cables or ducts existing on or under the land or in the building, to the extent to which such pipes, wires, cables or ducts are capable of being used in connection with the utilization of the section; and

(b) against each section—

(i) a servitude for the subjacent and lateral support of the common property and of any other section capable of enjoying such support;

(ii) the servitudes referred to in paragraph (a) (ii) through or by means of any pipes, wires, cables or ducts existing within such section, in favour of the common property and in favour of any other section capable of enjoying such servitudes.

(2) The servitudes referred to in subsection (1)—

(a) shall be deemed to be incorporated in the title deeds of the owners affected thereby; and

(b) shall confer on the owners of sections the right, to be exercised by the body corporate, to have access to each section and the exclusive use areas from time to time during reasonable hours to the extent necessary to maintain, repair or renew any part of the building or any pipes, wires, cables or ducts therein, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the common property or any other section or sections.

29. (1) The owners may by special resolution direct the body corporate—

servitudes.

(a) to execute on their behalf a servitude or restrictive agreement burdening the land shown on the relevant sectional plan;

(b) to accept on their behalf a servitude or restrictive agreement benefiting the said land.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(2) Every such servitude or agreement shall be embodied in a notarial deed and shall be registered by the registrar by noting such deed on the schedule of servitudes and conditions referred to in section 11 (3) (b) and on the title deeds of any party to such servitude or restrictive agreement whose title deeds are registered in the land register.

(3) If the land to be burdened by a servitude or restrictive agreement is hypothecated, the written consent of every mortgagee to the registration of such servitude or restrictive agreement shall be lodged with the registrar.

30. All ancillary rights and obligations reasonably necessary to make servitudes effective, shall apply in respect of servitudes implied or created under this Act.

Ancillary servitudal rights.

31. The provisions of the Deeds Registries Act shall not apply with reference to servitudes or restrictions as to user implied under this Act, and such servitudes and restrictions shall take effect and be enforceable immediately upon the establishment of the body corporate.

Deeds Registries Act and implied servitudes.

PARTICIPATION QUOTAS AND DEVELOPERS

32. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 48, in the case of a scheme for residential purposes only as defined in any applicable operative town planning scheme, the participation quota of a section shall be a percentage expressed to four decimal places, and arrived at by dividing the floor area, correct to the nearest square metre, of the section by the floor area, correct to the nearest square metre, of all the sections in the building or buildings comprised in the scheme.

Participation quotas.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 48, in the case of a scheme other than a scheme referred to in subsection (1), the participation quota of a section shall be a percentage expressed to four decimal places, as determined by the developer: Provided that—

(a) where a scheme is partly residential as defined in any applicable operative town planning scheme, the total of the quotas allocated by the developer to the residential sections shall be divided among them in proportion to a calculation of their quotas made in terms of subsection (1);

(b) where a developer alienates a unit in such a scheme before the sectional title register is opened, the total of the quotas allocated to the respective sections and the participation quota of that unit must be disclosed in the deed of alienation; and

(c) where such disclosure is not made, the deed of alienation shall be voidable at the option of the purchaser and that the provisions of section 25 (15) (b) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of any such alienation.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, the quota of a section shall determine—

(a) the value of the vote of the owner of the section, in any case where the vote is to be reckoned in value;

(b) the undivided share in the common property of the owner of the section; and

(c) subject to the provisions of section 37 (1) (b), the proportion in which the owner of the section shall make contributions for the purposes of section 37 (1) (a), or may in terms of section 47 (1) be held liable for the payment of a judgment debt of the body corporate of which he is a member.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 37 (1) (b), the developer may, when submitting an application for the opening of a sectional title register, or the members of the body corporate may by special resolution, make rules under section 35 by which a different value is attached to the vote of the owner of any section, or the liability of the owner of any section to make contributions for the purposes of section 37 (1) (a) or 47 (1) is modified: Provided that where an owner is adversely affected by such a decision of the body corporate, his written consent must be obtained: Provided further that no such change may be made by a special resolution of the body corporate until such time as there are owners, other than the developer, of at least 30 per cent of the units in the scheme: Provided further that, in the case where the developer alienates a unit before submitting an application for the opening of a sectional title register, no exercise of power to make a change conferred on the developer by this subsection shall be valid unless the intended change is disclosed in the deed of alienation in question.

(5) The specification in the schedule to a sectional plan of the quota of each section and of the total of the quotas of all the sections in the building or buildings comprised in a scheme, shall for all purposes be deemed to be correct in the absence of proof to the contrary.

33. Nothing in this Act or any other law contained shall be construed as preventing a developer from selling certain sections in a building and letting other sections therein or from letting all sections therein.

Sale or letting of sections.

34. (1) The developer shall be the owner of any section in respect of which the ownership is not held by any other person, and the quota of such section or, if there is more than one such section, the total of the quotas of such sections, shall determine the share of the developer in the common property.

Shares of developers in buildings and land.

(2) When the ownership in every section is held by any person or persons other than the developer, the developer shall, subject to the provisions of section 25 (1), cease to have a share or interest in the common property.

(3) When a developer has, prior to the body corporate being established, in one transaction alienated the whole of his interest in the land and the building or buildings comprised in a scheme, or a share in the whole of such interest, to any other person, the registrar shall register the transaction by endorsing the fact of such alienation and the full name of the successor in title on the developer's sectional title deeds.

(4) The provisions of section 15 (4) (a), (c), (d), (e), (6) and (10) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a transfer pursuant to a transaction referred to in subsection (3): Provided that the registrar shall not register such transfer unless there is produced to him a clearance certificate by the local authority that all rates and levies in respect of the land concerned have been paid up to and including the day of transfer.

PART VIII

RULES AND BODIES CORPORATE

35. (1) A building and the land on which it is situated shall as from the date of the establishment of the body corporate be controlled and managed, subject to the provisions of this Act, by means of rules.

Rules.

(2) The rules shall provide for the control, management, administration, use and enjoyment of the sections and the common property, and shall comprise—

(a) management rules, prescribed by regulation, for which other rules may be substituted by the developer when submitting an application for the opening of a sectional title register, to the extent prescribed by regulation, and which rules may be added to, amended or repealed

from time to time by the body corporate as prescribed by regulation;

5 (b) conduct rules, prescribed by regulation, for which other rules may be substituted by the developer when submitting an application for opening a sectional title register, and which rules may be added to, amended or repealed from time to time by special resolution of the body corporate: Provided that any conduct rule substituted by the developer, or any addition to or amendment of the 10 conduct rules by the body corporate, may not be irreconcilable with any prescribed management rule contemplated in paragraph (a).

(3) Any management or conduct rule made by a developer or a body corporate shall be reasonable, and shall apply equally to 15 all owners of units put to substantially the same purpose.

(4) The rules referred to in subsection (2) shall as from the date of establishment of the body corporate be in force in respect of the building or buildings and land concerned, and shall bind the body corporate and the owners of the sections and any 20 person occupying a section.

(5) If management rules other than management rules prescribed by regulation as contemplated in subsection (2) (a) are added to, amended or repealed, the body corporate shall lodge with the registrar a notification in the prescribed form of such 25 addition to or amendment or repeal of the rules, and no such addition, amendment or repeal shall be of force and effect until noted by the registrar against the certificate referred to in section 11 (3) (e).

(6) The body corporate shall, on the application of any owner
30 or any person having a registered real right in or over a unit, or any person authorized in writing by such owner or person, make any rules then in force available for inspection to such owner, person or authorized person.

35 36. (1) With effect from the date on which any person other than the developer becomes an owner of a unit in a building, there shall be deemed to be established for that building a body corporate of which the developer and such person are members, and every person who thereafter becomes an owner of a unit shall be a member of that body corporate. Bodies corporate.

40 (2) The developer shall cease to be a member of the body corporate when he ceases to have a share in the common property as contemplated in section 34 (2), and any other member of the body corporate shall cease to be a member thereof when he ceases to be the owner of a unit in the building in question: Pro-
45 vided that if a lease of a unit referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of "owner" in section 1 expires, the developer or the person who granted the lease shall again become a member of the body corporate.

(3) The body corporate shall be designated as "the Body Corporate of the (name)
50 Building, No.", such name and number to be inserted being the name and number referred to in sections 5 (3) (b) and 12 (1) (a), respectively.

(4) The body corporate shall, subject to the provisions of this 55 Act, be responsible for the enforcement of the rules referred to in section 35, and for the control, administration and management of the common property for the benefit of all owners.

(5) The provisions of the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), shall not apply in relation to the body corporate.

60 (6) The body corporate shall have perpetual succession and shall be capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name in respect of —

- (a) any contract made by it;
- (b) any damage to the common property;
- 65 (c) any matter in connection with the land or building for which the body corporate is liable or for which the owners are jointly liable; and

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- (d) any matter arising out of the exercise of any of its powers or the performance or non-performance of any of its duties under this Act or any rule.
- 5 (7) (a) A developer shall convene a meeting of the members of the body corporate not later than 60 days after the establishment of the body corporate, the agenda of the meeting to be as prescribed in the management rules, at which meeting he shall furnish the members with—
- 10 (i) a copy of the sectional plan;
- (ii) a certificate from the local authority to the effect that all rates due by the developer up to the date of the establishment of the body corporate have been paid; and

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

38. The body corporate may exercise the powers conferred upon it by or under this Act or the rules, and such powers shall include the power— Powers of bodies corporate.

- 5 (a) to appoint such agents and employees as it may deem fit;
- (b) when essential for the proper fulfilment of its duties, to purchase or otherwise acquire, take transfer of, mortgage, sell, give transfer of, or hire or let units;
- 10 (c) to purchase, hire or otherwise acquire movable property for the use of owners for their enjoyment or protection, or in connection with the enjoyment or protection of the common property;
- (d) where practicable, to establish and maintain on the common property suitable lawns and gardens and recreation facilities;
- 15 (e) to borrow moneys required by it in the performance of its functions or the exercise of its powers;
- (f) to secure the repayment of moneys borrowed by it and the payment of interest thereon, by negotiable instrument or the hypothecation of unpaid contributions (whether levied or not), or by mortgaging any property vested in it;
- 20 (g) to invest any moneys of the fund referred to in section 37 (1) (a);
- 25 (h) to enter into an agreement with the local authority or any other person or body for the supply to the building or buildings and the land of electric current, gas, water, fuel and sanitary and other services;
- 30 (i) to enter into an agreement with any owner or occupier of a section for the provision of amenities or services by it to such section or to the owner or occupier thereof; and
- 35 (j) to do all things reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the rules and for the control, management and administration of the common property.

39. (1) The functions and powers of the body corporate shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, the rules and any restriction imposed or direction given at a general meeting of the owners of sections, be performed and exercised by the trustees of the body corporate holding office in terms of the rules. Functions and powers of bodies corporate to be performed or exercised by trustees.

(2) For the purposes of an agreement in respect of the beacons and boundaries of the common property required in terms of the Land Survey Act, 1927 (Act No. 9 of 1927), the trustees shall be deemed to be the owner of the land.

45 40. (1) Each trustee of a body corporate shall stand in a fiduciary relationship to the body corporate. Fiduciary position of trustees.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the expression "fiduciary relationship", the provisions of subsection (1) shall imply that a trustee—

- 50 (a) shall in relation to the body corporate act honestly and in good faith, and in particular—
- (i) shall exercise such powers as he may have to manage or represent the body corporate in the interest and for the benefit of the body corporate; and
- 55 (ii) shall not act without or exceed the powers aforesaid; and
- (b) shall avoid any material conflict between his own interests and those of the body corporate, and in particular—
- 60 (i) shall not derive any personal economic benefit to which he is not entitled by reason of his office as trustee of the body corporate, from the body cor-

Act No. 95, 1986

- porate or from any other person in circumstances in which that benefit is obtained in conflict with the interests of the body corporate;
- 5 (ii) shall notify every other trustee, at the earliest opportunity practicable in the circumstances, of the nature and extent of any direct or indirect material interest which he may have in any contract of the body corporate.
- 10 (3) (a) A trustee of a body corporate whose mala fide or grossly negligent act or omission has breached any duty arising from his fiduciary relationship, shall be liable to the body corporate for—
- (i) any loss suffered as a result thereof by the body corporate; or
- 15 (ii) any economic benefit derived by the trustee by reason thereof.
- (b) Where a trustee fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (2) (b) (ii) and it becomes known to the body corporate that the trustee has an interest referred to in that subsection in any contract of the body corporate, the contract in question shall, at the option of the body corporate, be voidable: Provided that where the body corporate chooses not to be bound, a Court may on application by any interested person, if the Court is
- 20 of the opinion that in the circumstances it is fair to order that such contract shall nevertheless be binding on the parties, give an order to that effect, and may make any further order in respect thereof which it may deem fit.
- 25 (4) Except as regards his duty referred to in subsection (2) (a) (i), any particular conduct of a trustee shall not constitute a breach of a duty arising from his fiduciary relationship to the body corporate, if such conduct was preceded or followed by the written approval of all the members of the body corporate where
- 30 such members were or are cognizant of all the material facts.

41. (1) When an owner is of the opinion that he and the body corporate have suffered damages or loss or have been deprived of any benefit in respect of a matter mentioned in section 36 (6), and the body corporate has not instituted proceedings for the recovery of such damages, loss or benefit, or where the body corporate does not take steps against an owner who does not comply with the rules, the owner may initiate proceedings on behalf of the body corporate in the manner prescribed in this section.

Proceedings on behalf of bodies corporate.

- 45 (2) (a) Any such owner shall serve a written notice on the body corporate calling on the body corporate to institute such proceedings within one month from the date of service of the notice, and stating that if the body corporate fails to do so, an application to the Court under paragraph (b) will be made.
- 50 (b) If the body corporate fails to institute such proceedings within the said period of one month, the owner may make application to the Court for an order appointing a curator ad litem for the body corporate for the purposes of instituting and conducting proceedings on behalf of the body corporate.
- 55 (3) The court may on such application, if it is satisfied—
- (a) that the body corporate has not instituted such proceedings;
- (b) that there are prima facie grounds for such proceedings; and
- 60 (c) that an investigation into such grounds and into the desirability of the institution of such proceedings is justified, appoint a provisional curator ad litem and direct him to conduct

65 such investigation and to report to the Court on the return day of the provisional order.

(4) The Court may on the return day discharge the provisional order referred to in subsection (3), or confirm the appointment of the curator ad litem for the body corporate, and issue such directions as it may deem necessary as to the institution of proceedings in the name of the body corporate and the conduct of such proceedings on behalf of the body corporate by the curator ad litem.

42. (1) A provisional curator ad litem appointed by the Court under section 41 (3) and a curator ad litem whose appointment is confirmed by the Court under section 41 (4) shall, in addition to the powers expressly granted by the Court in connection with the investigation, proceedings and enforcement of a judgment, have such powers as may be prescribed by regulation. Powers of curatores ad litem.
- 10 (2) If the disclosure of any information about the affairs of a body corporate to a provisional curator ad litem or a curator ad litem would in the opinion of the body corporate be harmful to the interests of the body corporate, the Court may on an application for relief by that body corporate, and if it is satisfied that 15 the said information is not relevant to the investigation, grant such relief.
43. The Court may, if it appears that there is reason to believe that an applicant in respect of an application under section 41 (2) will be unable to pay the costs of the respondent body corporate 20 if successful in its opposition, require sufficient security to be given for those costs and the costs of the provisional curator ad litem before a provisional order is made. Security for costs by applicants for appointment of curatores ad litem.

PART IX

OWNERS, ADMINISTRATORS AND BUILDINGS

- 25 44. (1) An owner shall— Duties of owners.
- (a) permit any person authorized in writing by the body corporate, at all reasonable hours on notice (except in case of emergency, when no notice shall be required), to enter his section or exclusive use area for the purposes of inspecting it and maintaining, repairing or renewing pipes, wires, cables and ducts existing in the section and capable of being used in connection with the enjoyment of any other section or common property, or for the purposes of ensuring that the provisions of this Act and the rules are being observed;
- 30 (b) forthwith carry out all work that may be ordered by any competent public or local authority in respect of his section, other than such work as may be for the benefit of the building generally, and pay all charges, expenses and assessments that may be payable in respect of his section;
- 35 (c) repair and maintain his section in a state of good repair and, in respect of an exclusive use area, keep it in a clean and neat condition;
- 45 (d) use and enjoy the common property in such a manner as not unreasonably to interfere with the use and enjoyment thereof by other owners or other persons lawfully on the premises;
- 50 (e) not use his section or exclusive use area, or permit it to be used, in such a manner or for such purpose as shall cause a nuisance to any occupier of a section;
- (f) notify the body corporate forthwith of any change of ownership in his section and of any mortgage or other dealing in connection with his section; and
- 55 (g) when the purpose for which a section is intended to be used is shown expressly or by implication on or by a registered sectional plan, not use nor permit such section to be used for any other purpose: Provided that with the written consent of all owners such section may be used for another purpose.
- 60 (2) (a) Any owner who is of the opinion that any refusal of consent of another owner in terms of the proviso to subsection (1) (g) is unfairly prejudicial, unjust or inequitable to him, may within six weeks after the date of such a refusal make an application in terms of this subsection to the Court.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

- 5 (b) If on any such application it appears to the Court that the refusal in question is unfairly prejudicial, unjust or inequitable to the applicant, and if the Court considers it just and equitable, the Court may with a view to bringing the dispute to an end make such order as it deems fit, including an order that it shall be deemed that the requirement stated in the proviso to subsection 10 (1) (g) is met, an order that the provisions of section 14 of this Act which the Court deems appropriate, shall be applied with reference to the amendment of the registered sectional plan in question, any other supplementary order as the Court deems fit, and an order concerning costs as it deems appropriate.

45. (1) Notwithstanding the existence of a valid policy of insurance effected by the body corporate pursuant to the provisions of section 37 (1) (f), an owner may effect a policy of insurance in respect of any damage to his section arising from risks covered by the policy effected by the body corporate. Insurance by owners.

(2) Where a policy of insurance contemplated in subsection (1) is in force, and—

- 25 (a) where the damage to the section is made good by the body corporate pursuant to the provisions of section 37 (1) (h), the insurer shall not be liable in terms of the policy of insurance effected by the owner;
- 30 (b) where the damage to the section is covered by the policy of insurance effected by the body corporate pursuant to the provisions of section 37 (1) (f), but is not made good by the body corporate, the insurer shall be liable in terms of the policy of insurance effected by the owner; and
- 35 (c) where the damage to the section is not covered by the policy of insurance effected by the body corporate as aforesaid, the terms and conditions of the policy of insurance effected by the owner shall apply.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall limit the rights of an owner to insure against risks other than damage to his section.

40 46. (1) A body corporate, a local authority, a judgment creditor of the body corporate for an amount of not less than R500, or any owner or any person having a registered real right in or over a unit, may apply to the Court for the appointment of an administrator. Appointment of administrators.

45 (2) (a) The Court may in its discretion appoint an administrator for an indefinite or a fixed period on such terms and conditions as to remuneration as it deems fit.

(b) The remuneration and expenses of the administrator shall be administrative expenses within the meaning of 50 section 37 (1) (a).

(3) The administrator shall, to the exclusion of the body corporate, have the powers and duties of the body corporate or such of those powers and duties as the Court may direct.

(4) The Court may in its discretion and on the application of 55 any person or body referred to in subsection (1) remove from office or replace the administrator or, on the application of the administrator, replace the administrator.

(5) The Court may, with regard to any application under this section, make such order for the payment of costs as it deems fit.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

47. (1) If a creditor of a body corporate has obtained judgment against the body corporate, and such judgment, notwithstanding the issue of a writ, remains unsatisfied, the judgment creditor may, without prejudice to any other remedy he may have, apply to the court which gave the judgment, for the joinder of the members of the body corporate in their personal capacities as joint judgment debtors in respect of the judgment debt and, upon such joinder, the judgment creditor may recover the amount of the judgment debt still outstanding from the said members on a pro rata basis in proportion to their respective quotas or a determination made in terms of section 32 (4): Provided that any member who is so required to make a payment to a judgment creditor after he has paid to the body corporate any contribution which he was required to pay to that body corporate in respect of the same debt, shall be entitled to obtain a refund from the body corporate of the amount of the payment so made to the said creditor.

(2) No debt or obligation arising from any agreement between the developer and any other person shall be enforceable against the body corporate.

Recovery from owners of unsatisfied judgment against bodies corporate, and non-liability of bodies corporate for debts and obligations of developers.

48. (1) The building or buildings comprised in a scheme shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be destroyed—

- (a) upon the physical destruction of the building or buildings;
- (b) when the owners by unanimous resolution so determine and all holders of registered sectional mortgage bonds and the persons with registered real rights concerned, agree thereto in writing; or
- (c) when the Court is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances, it is just and equitable that the building or buildings shall be deemed to have been destroyed, and makes an order to that effect.

(2) In any case where an order is made under subsection (1) (c), the Court may impose such conditions and give such directions as it deems fit for the purpose of adjusting the effect of the order between the body corporate and the owners and mutually among the owners, the holders of registered sectional mortgage bonds and persons with registered real rights.

(3) (a) Where the building or buildings is or are damaged or is or are destroyed within the meaning of subsection (1), the owners may by unanimous resolution, or the Court may by order, authorize a scheme—

- (i) for the rebuilding and reinstatement in whole or in part of the building or buildings;
- (ii) for the transfer of the interests of owners of sections which have been wholly or partially destroyed, to the other owners.

(b) In the exercise of their powers under this subsection, the owners may pass such resolution or the Court may make such order as they or it may deem necessary or expedient to give effect to the scheme, in connection with inter alia—

- (i) the application of insurance moneys received by the body corporate in respect of damage to or the destruction of the building or buildings;
- (ii) the payment of money by or to the body corporate or by or to the owners or by or to one or more of them;
- (iii) an amendment of the sectional plan so as to include in the common property an addition thereto or subtraction therefrom;
- (iv) the variation of the quota of any section; or
- (v) the imposition of conditions.

(4) An application may, for the purposes of this section, be made to the Court by the body corporate or by any owner or by any holder of a registered sectional mortgage bond or a registered lease or by any insurer who has effected insurance on the building or buildings or any section therein, or by the local authority.

(5) Any insurer who has effected insurance on the building or buildings or any part thereof (being insurance against destruction of sections or damage to the building or buildings) shall, on any application to the Court under this section, have the right to intervene in the proceedings.

5 (6) (a) The Court may, on the application of a body corporate or any member thereof or any holder of a registered real right concerned, or any judgment creditor, by order make provision for the winding-up of the affairs of the body corporate.

10 (b) The Court may, by the same or any subsequent order, declare the body corporate dissolved as from a date specified in the order.

(7) The Court may, with regard to any application under this section, make such order for the payment of costs as it deems fit.

15 (8) Where two or more buildings are comprised in a scheme, and only one or part of one of the said buildings is damaged or destroyed, the provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis as if the said buildings were one building and part of such building has been damaged or destroyed.

20 49. (1) When in terms of section 48 the building or buildings comprised in a scheme is or are deemed to be destroyed and the owners have by unanimous resolution resolved not to rebuild the building or buildings, the body corporate shall lodge with the registrar a notification in the prescribed form of such destruction and a copy of the relevant resolution of the owners as certified
25 by two trustees of the body corporate.

(2) Upon receipt of such notification the registrar shall make an entry thereof in the relevant sectional title register.

(3) When such entry has been made in the relevant sectional title register—

30 (a) the owners shall cease to be separate owners of sections but shall, subject to the provisions of section 48 (2), remain co-owners of the land in undivided shares proportionate to the quotas of the respective sections previously owned by them;

35 (b) any sectional mortgage bond, lease or other real right or condition then registered against or affecting a unit, shall be deemed to be converted into a mortgage bond, lease or other real right or condition registered against or affecting the undivided share in the land which formed part of such unit;

40 (c) the land shall revert to the land register; and
(d) the sectional title deeds of the co-owners of the land shall be surrendered to the registrar for cancellation.

45 (4) Upon the reversion of the land to the land register, the registrar shall—

(a) make such endorsements as are necessary to reflect such reversion;

50 (b) issue to the co-owners of the land a certificate of registered title in the form prescribed under the Deeds Registries Act for such land, subject or entitled to such servitudes, other real rights and conditions (if any), as are certified by a conveyancer as being still applicable to or in respect of such land; and 55 (c) notify the Surveyor-General and the local authority of such reversion.

(5) Upon receipt of the notification that the whole of the land has reverted to the land register, the Surveyor-General shall cancel the relevant sectional plan.

Disposal on destruction of buildings.

60 50. (1) Where the State or a local authority is the owner of a section in a building which is not encumbered by a mortgage, lease or real right, and such section has been destroyed to give effect to a project or scheme for the benefit of the public, the Unencumbered sections destroyed by State or local authority.

SECTIONAL TITLES ACT, 1986

Act No. 95, 1986

State or local authority, as the case may be, may, after advising the body corporate of its intention to do so, notify the registrar to this effect and apply for the cancellation of the relevant certificate of registered sectional title.

5 (2) An application in terms of subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the owner's copy of the relevant certificate of registered sectional title.

(3) On receipt of such application, the registrar shall cancel the deeds office's and owner's copy of the relevant certificate of registered sectional title and shall make the necessary consequential entries in his records and notify the Surveyor-General accordingly, and thereupon the undivided share in the common property that was held under that certificate of registered sectional title shall vest in the owners of the remaining sections in 10 the building proportionately to their respective participation quotas.

(4) On receipt of a notification referred to in subsection (3) and an amended schedule referred to in section 5 (3) (g), prepared by an architect or land surveyor and to be furnished by 20 the State or local authority, as the case may be, the Surveyor-General shall amend the original plan and the deeds office copy of the sectional plan to give effect to the cancellation of the certificate of registered sectional title referred to in the notification.

25 51. (1) (a) When a local authority causes land and buildings comprised in a scheme to be valued for any lawful purposes, the land and buildings thereon shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), be valued as if they were owned by a single owner, and for the purposes of such valuation and all purposes incidental thereto (including an objection to a valuation), the land and buildings thereon shall be deemed to be owned by the 30 body corporate.

(b) A separate valuation shall be made of—

35 (i) the land; and
(ii) the building or buildings.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, and section 47, the local authority may recover any rates and taxes levied by it, from the body corporate.

40 (3) When by law provision has been made for the separate rating of units, each relevant unit shall for the purposes of valuation and the levying and recovery of rates by a local authority be deemed to be a separate entity.

Valuation of land and buildings and recovery of rates by local authorities.

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS

45 52. A local authority may delegate any or all of the powers, functions or duties conferred upon or entrusted to it by sections 4, 20, 24, 25, 26 and 27 to a committee, or an officer in the service, of that local authority.

Delegation of powers, functions and duties by local authorities.

50 53. The provisions of section 37 of the Rent Control Act, 1976 (Act No. 80 of 1976), shall not be construed as prohibiting the grant of a lease of a unit upon conditions which involve the payment of a lump sum as consideration for the grant of the lease and the payment thereafter of a proportionate share of the expenses of maintaining the building.

Section 37 of Rent Control Act, 1976, not applicable to certain leases of sections.

55 54. (1) There is hereby established a sectional titles regulation board (in this section referred to as the regulation board), which shall—

Sectional titles regulation board.

60 (a) make recommendations to the Minister concerning any matter specified in section 55 in regard to which the Minister may make regulations;

(b) keep the working and implementation of this Act and the regulations under regular review and which may make recommendations to the Minister in regard to any amendments or other action which may be advisable; and 5 (c) advise the Minister on any matter referred to it by the Minister.

(2) The regulation board shall consist of the following members—

10 (a) the Chief Registrar of Deeds appointed in terms of section 2 of the Deeds Registries Act, who shall act as chairman at the proceedings of the regulation board;

(b) the Chief Director; and

(c) seven members appointed by the Minister, who shall consist of the following persons—

15 (i) a conveyancer nominated by the Executive Council of the Association of Law Societies of the Republic of South Africa;

(ii) a professional land surveyor nominated by the relevant Council;

(iii) an architect nominated by the relevant Council;

20 (iv) an officer in the employ of a local authority in the Republic of South Africa nominated by the United Municipal Executive of South Africa;

(v) two persons having special knowledge of sectional title development schemes; and

25 (vi) an official of the Department of Public Works and Land Affairs.

(3) For every member of the regulation board appointed in terms of subsection (2) (c) there shall be an alternate member appointed in the same manner as such member, and any alternate member so appointed shall act in the place of the member in respect of whom he has been appointed as alternate member, during such member's absence or inability to act as a member of the regulation board.

(4) The Chief Registrar of Deeds and the Chief Director may 35 each designate a person from their respective offices to act in their place at meetings which they are unable to attend.

(5) When any nomination in terms of subsection (2) (c) (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) becomes necessary, the body concerned shall at the request of the Director-General: Public Works and Land 40 Affairs furnish the nomination required for appointment to the regulation board, within a period of 60 days from the date of such request, failing which the Minister may appoint, subject to the provisions of that subsection, any suitable person as a member in place of the person he would have appointed if the said 45 body had not so failed to nominate a person.

(6) A member of the regulation board appointed by the Minister shall hold office for the period determined by the Minister, but the Minister may, if in his opinion there is good reason for doing so, terminate the appointment of such a member at any 50 time before the expiration of his period of office.

(7) If a member of the regulation board dies or vacates his office before the expiration of his period of office, the Minister may, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) (c), appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired portion of the period 55 for which such member was appointed.

(8) A member of the regulation board whose period of office has expired, may be reappointed.

(9) A member of the regulation board, excluding a member in the fulltime service of the State, shall, while he is engaged in the 60 business of the regulation board, be paid such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, may determine.

(10) In the absence of the chairman, the Chief Director shall act as chairman of the regulation board.

65 (11) (a) The regulation board shall from time to time meet at such times and places as are determined by the chairman.

(b) The Minister may at any time direct the chairman of the regulation board to convene a meeting of the board at a time and place specified by the Minister.

Act No. 95, 1986

- the costs of such taxation and by whom they shall be borne;
- 5 (j) the fees and charges of local authorities in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers, functions or duties in terms of sections 4, 20, 24, 25, 26 and 27;
- (k) the procedure to be followed in arbitration proceedings under this Act and the powers and duties of arbitrators appointed under this Act;
- 10 (l) the syllabus for the examination referred to in section 5 (2), and in regard to all matters incidental to conducting such examination;
- (m) the conditions under which copies of sectional plans may be issued by the Surveyor-General for judicial, information or other purposes;
- 15 (n) any matter required or permitted to be prescribed by regulation under this Act; and
- (o) generally, any matter which he considers necessary or expedient to prescribe in order that the purposes of this
- 20 Act may be achieved.

56. Before any application is made to the Court for an order affecting the performance of any act in a deeds registry or office of a Surveyor-General, the applicant shall give notice in writing to the registrar or Surveyor-General concerned at least 21 days before the hearing of such application, and such registrar or Surveyor-General may submit to the Court such report thereon as he may deem fit.

Notice of applications to Court.

57. No act or omission of a registrar, Surveyor-General or any local authority, or of an official who is employed in a deeds registry or office of the Surveyor-General or local authority, in the course of the administration of this Act, shall make the State or that registrar, Surveyor-General, local authority or official liable for damages suffered by anyone in consequence of such act or omission: Provided that if a Court finds that such act or omission was mala fide, the State or local authority, as the case may be, shall be liable for such damages.

Exemption from liability.

58. The Surveyor-General may perform any act in relation to a sectional plan registered by a registrar in terms of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971 (Act No. 66 of 1971), that he would be empowered to perform if such sectional plan had been approved by him in terms of this Act, and he shall in collaboration with the registrar cause copies of such sectional plans to be made for filing of record in his office.

Powers of Surveyor-General regarding sectional plans registered in terms of Sectional Titles Act, 1971.

59. The laws specified in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the third column of the Schedule.

Repeal of laws.

60. (1) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971 (Act No. 66 of 1971), by section 59 of this Act—

Savings and transitional provisions.

- 50 (a) the registration of a sectional plan and the opening of a sectional title register in respect of a development scheme which was prior to the date of coming into operation of this Act (in this section referred to as the commencement date) already approved by a local authority under the provisions of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971; or
- 55 (b) a right of extension of a building acquired in terms of section 18 of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, shall be completed or exercised in terms of the provisions of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, as if it has not been so repealed: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent—
- 60 (a) the registration of a sectional plan and the opening of a sectional title register;

Act No. 95, 1986

(b) the acquisition of a real right of extension; or
(c) the exercising of a right of extension,
in terms of the provisions of this Act;

5 (2) The provisions of section 32 (1) and (2) shall not affect the participation quota of any section as reflected on any relevant sectional plan which was registered in terms of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, prior to the commencement date.

10 (3) Where an owner has in terms of rules made under the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, been granted the right to the exclusive use of a part or parts of common property, the body corporate concerned shall, if so requested after the commencement date by the owner, and if any mortgagee of the owner's section consents in writing thereto, transfer such right to the owner by the registration of a notarial deed entered into by the parties, 15 in which the body corporate shall represent the owners of all relevant sections as transferor.

(4) No provision of this Act shall affect any vested right in respect of any exclusive use by an owner of a part or parts of common property conferred before the commencement date by rules
20 made under the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, or any other vested right granted or obtained in terms of that Act, or arising from any agreement concluded before the commencement date.

(5) Any reference in any law or document to a body corporate established in terms of the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, as a "Controlling Body" referred to in section 28 (3) of that Act, shall 25 after the commencement date be construed as a reference to a "Body Corporate" referred to in section 36 (3) of this Act.

(6) Rules decided on by unanimous resolution under the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, before the commencement date replacing
30 rules contained in Schedule 1 to that Act, and at the said date not yet lodged with the registrar as contemplated in section 27 (3) of that Act, may be lodged within a period of six months after that date in terms of the said section as if that Act had not been repealed by section 59 of this Act, and shall, where not so 35 lodged within the said period, lapse and be deemed in any such case to have been replaced, subject to addition, amendment or repeal as contemplated in section 35 (2) (a) of this Act, by prescribed management rules contemplated in the last-mentioned section.

40 (7) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section—
(a) unaltered rules contained in Schedule 1 to the Sectional Titles Act, 1971, and applying immediately prior to the commencement date in respect of any scheme, shall 45 lapse on that date, and such rules shall be deemed to be replaced, subject to addition, amendment or repeal as contemplated in section 35 (2) (a) of this Act, by prescribed management rules contemplated in the last-mentioned section; and
(b) unaltered rules contained in Schedule 2 to the Sectional
50 Titles Act, 1971, and so applying in respect of any scheme, shall lapse on that date, and such rules shall be deemed to be replaced, subject to addition, amendment or repeal as contemplated in section 35 (2) (b) of this Act, by prescribed conduct rules contemplated in 55 the last-mentioned section.

(8) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, any rules other than rules referred to in subsection (7) of this section, applying in respect of a scheme immediately prior to the commencement date, shall, subject to addition, amendment or
60 repeal as contemplated in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 35 (2) of this Act, as the case may be, remain in force after the said date, except to the extent that any such rule may be irreconcilable with any prescribed management rule contemplated in section 35 (2) (a): Provided that any such rules shall as from the 65 commencement date be deemed to be supplemented by any rule for which it does not make provision but for which provision is made in the prescribed rules.
