Appointment of probation officers

2. (1) The Minister may appoint as many persons as he may deem necessary as probation officers to exercise the powers and to perform the duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act or any other law on a probation officer.

(2) A probation officer shall be an officer of every court established under the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944 (Act No. 32 of 1944). 45

(3) Any person appointed as a probation officer under the Children’s Act, 1960

(Act No. 33 of 1960), shall be deemed to have been appointed as a probation officer under this Act.

(4) The requirements to be complied with by persons for appointment as probation officers shall be prescribed.

(5) (a) The Minister may classify probation officers for different purposes in different categories. 5

(b) Different regulations may be made in respect of different categories of probation officers.

Programmes for the combating of crime and the rendering of probation services

3. The Minister may, in respect of different categories of persons, establish or cause to be established programmes which are aimed at— 10

- (a) the prevention of crime;
- (b) the performance of community service;
- (c) information to and the treatment of offenders and other persons;
- (d) the care and treatment of the victims of crime; 15
- (e) the observation, treatment and supervision of persons who have been released from a prison or a reform school, and who are probationers or who have been placed in the custody of any person in terms of any law;

- (g) the establishment, financing and registration of shelters;
- (h) the compensating of victims of crime;
- (i) the adaptation of persons referred to in paragraph (e) to the community and their families; and
- (j) generally, matters which the Minister considers necessary or expedient 25 for the combating of crime.

Powers and duties of probation officers

4. (1) The powers and duties of probation officers shall include—

- (a) the investigation of the circumstances of an accused with a view to reporting to the court on his treatment and committal to an institution, as well as the rendering of assistance to his family; 30
- (b) the rendering of assistance to a probationer in complying with his probation conditions in order to improve his social functioning;
- (c) the immediate reporting to the court or to the Commissioner when a probationer does not in any manner comply with or in any manner 35 deviates from his probation conditions;
- (d) the reporting to the court or the Commissioner, in such manner and at such time as the court or the Commissioner may determine, on the progress and supervision of, and the compliance with the probation conditions in question by, a probationer; 40
- (e) the planning and implementation of programmes referred to in section 3 in general or in respect of particular persons;
- (f) the recruitment and in-service training of volunteers, and the regulation of their activities;
- (g) the management of committees; 45
- (h) the conducting of information classes.

(2) A person who opposes or wilfully hinders or obstructs a probation officer or a volunteer in the exercise of his powers or the performance of his duties or functions shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R4 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months, or to such imprisonment without the option of a fine or to both such fine and such imprisonment. 50

(3) (a) If a probationer fails to comply with the conditions on which he has been placed under the supervision of a probation officer, a probation officer may in writing apply to a magistrate or justice of the peace for the issue of a warrant for the arrest of such probationer. 55

(b) If a warrant referred to in paragraph (a) is issued, the probationer concerned

may be arrested by a peace officer as defined in section 1 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), and shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 50 of the said Act, and thereupon the provisions of section 276A(4) of the said Act shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Establishment of pre-sentence evaluation committees

5. The Minister may establish pre-sentence evaluation committees in order to advise probation officers on recommendations to a court concerning possible ways in which any person awaiting his sentence can be dealt with.

Constitution and dissolution of committees, and meetings thereof

6. (1) (a) A committee shall consist of not fewer than three and not more than five members. 10

(b) A member of a committee shall be appointed by an authorized probation officer and on such conditions and for such period as the said probation officer may determine, and he may at any time terminate the membership of any member, if in his opinion there are sufficient reasons therefor. 15

(c) The authorized probation officer shall designate one of the members of a committee as chairman.

(d) Administrative work connected with the performance of the functions of a committee shall be performed by an officer of the department designated by the Director-General. 20

(2) If any member of a committee dies or vacates his office before the expiration of the period for which he was appointed, an authorized probation officer may appoint a person to hold office for the unexpired part of the period for which such member was appointed.

(3) Any person whose period of office as a member of a committee has expired by effluxion of time, shall be eligible for reappointment. 25

(4) The Minister may at any time dissolve a committee.

(5) A committee shall meet at such times and places as may be determined by the authorized probation officer.

(6) The quorum for, and procedure at, meetings of a committee shall be as prescribed. 30

Allowances to members of, and payment of costs incurred by, committees

7. (1) A member of a committee who is not an officer in the public service may be paid, while engaged in the business of the committee, such session, subsistence and transport allowances as the Minister may with the concurrence of the Minister of State Expenditure determine. 35

(2) Expenses incurred by a committee in the performance of its functions shall be paid out of money appropriated by Parliament for that purpose.

Establishment, constitution, functions and dissolution of information classes

8. (1) The Minister may establish information classes to give guidance to persons who have been ordered by a court to attend such classes, in regard to the causes of criminal tendencies and deviate behaviour and the consequences thereof and matters incidental thereto. 40

(2) A probation officer may allow persons other than those referred to in subsection (1) to attend any information class, if such person in his opinion will probably benefit thereby. 45

(3) Separate information classes may be established in respect of different categories of persons or different types of crimes or types of deviate behaviour.

(4) The constitution and functioning of information classes shall be as prescribed. 50

(5) The Minister may at any time dissolve an information class.

Appointment and register of volunteers

9. (1) An authorized probation officer may appoint any person as a volunteer to exercise such powers or to perform such duties in accordance with a programme referred to in section 3 as may be agreed upon in writing with the said volunteer.
- (2) A volunteer shall not be appointed in terms of subsection (1), unless he— 5
- (a) has a qualification which in the opinion of the authorized probation officer is appropriate; or
 - (b) has successfully completed the prescribed course; and
 - (c) has signed the agreement referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The authorized probation officer shall deliver to each volunteer, on his appointment, a certificate of appointment setting out his powers and duties and shall keep a copy thereof as prescribed. 10
- (4) The authorized probation officer shall keep a register of volunteers in the prescribed manner.

Identification of volunteers

15

10. (1) A volunteer shall not exercise any power or perform any duty unless he is in possession of his certificate of appointment.
- (2) A volunteer shall produce his certificate of appointment at the request of any person having a material interest in the programme in question.

Termination of appointment of volunteer and withdrawal of certificate of appointment

11. An authorized probation officer—
- (a) may terminate the appointment of a volunteer, if he is satisfied that—
 - (i) the volunteer does not perform his duties as set out in his certificate of appointment; 25
 - (ii) the volunteer has made a false statement or has given false information with a view to obtaining his appointment;
 - (iii) the services of the volunteer are no longer required or that circumstances are such that his services can no longer be usefully employed in a programme referred to in section 3; 30
 - (b) shall withdraw the certificate of appointment of a person whose appointment has been terminated under paragraph (a) or to whom the certificate has wrongly been issued or who has died or who has resigned.

Penalty for pretence as volunteer

12. A person who pretends to be a volunteer shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R4 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and such imprisonment. 35

Remuneration of volunteers

13. (1) The Minister may in his discretion out of money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose pay a volunteer the prescribed allowances, and may in addition, subject to subsection (3), out of such money compensate him in part or in full for expenses necessarily incurred by him in order to render services by virtue of this Act. 40
- (2) A volunteer shall in the prescribed manner submit his claim for reimbursement of expenses referred to in subsection (1) to the authorized probation officer within three months after such expenses have been incurred. 45
- (3) A volunteer shall not be entitled to reimbursement of expenses under subsection (1)—
- (a) unless he has been authorized in advance by the authorized probation officer to incur such expenses; 50
 - (b) if he has already been adequately compensated from another source for such expenses.

False statements regarding expenses

14. A volunteer who makes a false statement regarding expenses referred to in section 13 when submitting a claim in terms of the said section, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R4 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to both such fine and such imprisonment. 5

Liability for patrimonial loss arising from performance of service by volunteers

15. (1) Subject to subsection (3), patrimonial loss which may be recovered from a volunteer by virtue of a delict committed by him in the performance of his functions in terms of this Act, may be recovered from the State. 10

(2) Subsection (1) shall not be construed as precluding the State from obtaining indemnification against its liability in terms of the said subsection by means of insurance or otherwise.

(3) Patrimonial loss which may be recovered from the State in terms of subsection (1) shall be reduced by the amount which the harmed person could recover from some person other than the volunteer by reason of the same cause of action. 15

(4) In so far as the State has made a payment by virtue of a right of recovery in terms of subsection (1), all the relevant rights and legal remedies of the harmed person against the volunteer shall pass to the State. 20

(5) If any person as a result of the performance of services by a volunteer in terms of this Act has suffered patrimonial loss which cannot be recovered from the State in terms of subsection (1), the Director-General may, with the concurrence of the Department of State Expenditure, ex gratia pay that person such amount as the Director-General may deem reasonable. 25

Regulations

16. (1) The Minister may make regulations regarding—
 (a) any matter which may or is required to be prescribed in terms of this Act;
 (b) generally, all matters which in his opinion are necessary or expedient to be prescribed in order to attain the objects of this Act. 30

(2) A regulation may prescribe penalties for any contravention of the provisions thereof not exceeding a fine of R4 000 or imprisonment for a period of 12 months or both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Regulations affecting State expenditure shall be made only with the concurrence of the Minister of State Expenditure. 35

Administration of Act

17. (1) The State President may by proclamation in the Gazette assign the administration of the provisions of this Act, either generally or in respect of persons belonging to any specific class or category as defined in the said proclamation, to any Minister or partly to one Minister and partly to another Minister or other Ministers, and may in such proclamation specify the powers and functions which shall be exercised and performed by the several Ministers, and may further specify that any power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act upon the Minister shall be exercised or performed by one Minister acting with the concurrence of another Minister. 40

(2) The State President may vary or amend any such proclamation. 45

Delegation of powers

18. The Minister may delegate to the Director-General or any other officer in the department all or any of the powers conferred upon him by this Act, except the power under section 16 to make regulations. 50

Amendment of section 1 of Act 33 of 1960, as amended by section 1 of Act 50 of 1965, section 15 of Act 62 of 1966, section 16 of Act 102 of 1967, section 1 of Act 74 of 1973 and section 2 of Act 34 of 1986

19. Section 1 of the Children's Act, 1960, is hereby amended by the deletion of the definition of "probation officer". 5

Repeal of section 58 of Act 33 of 1960

20. Subject to the provisions of section 2(3) of this Act, section 58 of the Children's Act, 1960, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Act 98 of 1986

21. The Probation Services Act (House of Assembly), 1986, is hereby repealed. 10

Short title and commencement

22. (1) This Act shall be called the Probation Services Act, 1991, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.

(2) Different dates may be so fixed in respect of different provisions of this Act 15 and different areas.
