

No. 7, 1942.]

PRIVATE ACT

To amend the law relating to the Diocesan College,
Rondebosch.

(Signed by the Governor-General in English.)
(Assented to 13th March, 1942.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Act No. 11 of 1891 (Cape of Good Hope) the Diocesan College Council, Rondebosch, was incorporated under the name or style of the "Council of the Diocesan College" (hereinafter called "the Council") for the management and direction of the affairs of the Diocesan College subject to the provisions of a trust deed set forth in the Schedule of the said Act (hereinafter called "the trust deed");

AND WHEREAS the Council was empowered to appoint the Principal for the said college, subject to the provisions of the trust deed;

AND WHEREAS by the third clause of the trust deed it was provided:

"(3) That the Principal of the College be always as heretofore a clergyman in priest's orders, and hold the licence of the Bishop of the Diocese."

AND WHEREAS it is desirable that in the choice of a Principal the Council be not limited to a clergyman in priest's orders, but be entitled, if the Council so deem fit, to appoint a layman;

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Union of South Africa, as follows:—

Amended reading of clause 3 of trust deed.

1. The third clause of the trust deed shall be read as if the words "as heretofore" had been deleted therefrom and the words "or a layman who shall hold a licence as reader from the said Bishop", had been added at the end thereof.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Diocesan College Rondebosch (Private) Act, 1942.

- (j) as to the procedure to be adopted in reporting to the Society, and the examination and investigation by the Council of complaints and charges against members of the Society and the method and procedure of dealing therewith;
- (k) as to the establishment, maintenance, control and regulation of a benevolent fund or other funds in the interest of the Society, its members or the profession generally;
- (l) generally, as to the attainment and carrying out of the objects of the Society, the protection of its members, the preservation, maintenance and advancement of the integrity, status and interests of the profession.

All bye-laws, rules and regulations, framed under the terms of this section, shall, when approved of by the Minister of Justice, after consultation with the Judge-President of the Orange Free State Provincial Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa and published in the Union Gazette and in the Gazette of the Province of the Orange Free State, have the force of law in so far as the same are not in conflict with the terms of this Ordinance or any amendment thereof or of any other law."

2. Die volgende nuwe artikel word hiermee in genoemde Ordonnansie ingevoeg om op artikel agt-en-twintig te volg:—

„28bis. The president, vice-president, other officials, and members of the Council shall not be subject or liable to any action or proceedings for damages on the ground of defamation, slander, or otherwise in the bona fide execution of their duties and the taking of any steps or the institution of any proceedings under or purporting to be under the provisions of this Ordinance, or of any other law."

Invoeging van nuwe artikel 28bis in Ordonnansie No. 9 van 1903.

3. Hierdie Wet heet die Ingelyfde Wetsgenootskap van die Kort titel. Oranje-Vrystaat Verdere Wysigings (Private) Wet, 1942."
