“(4)(a) Upon the receipt of a notice referred to in subregulation (1) the Chief Electoral Officer must consider the application and, if satisfied that [ascertain whether] the person is registered as a voter on the voters’ roll certified for the election, approve the application and, if not, reject it.

(b) The applicant must be notified of the outcome of the application by the most convenient method available, including short message system (SMS) or electronic mail as soon as possible but not later than two days before voting day.

*(c) [and if the person is so registered t]The Chief Electoral Officer must [notify] provide the special voting officer [head] of the embassy, high commission or consulate abroad [where it has been indicated as the place where the person wants to vote, that such person may apply for a special vote, and if eligible to do so,] with a list of voters whose applications to cast a special vote at that mission have been approved.

6.4. the substitution for sub-regulation (5) of the following sub-regulation –

“(5) The [C]commanding officer of units of security personnel serving in that capacity outside the Republic may notify the Chief Electoral Officer of the persons attached to that unit’s intention to apply for and cast special votes outside the Republic.”

6.5. the insertion of the following sub-regulations after sub-regulation (5) –

“(6) The head of each South African embassy, high commission, or consulate abroad shall in consultation with the chief electoral officer designate in writing an employee to be the special voting officer.

(7) If the application contemplated in subregulation (1) has been approved as contemplated in subregulation (4)(a) and-

(a) the applicant produces his or her identity document and valid South African passport to the special voting officer; and

(b) the special voting officer is satisfied that the applicant is the person described in that identity document and valid South African passport, the applicant’s hand is marked in the manner described in regulation 18 and he or she is handed a ballot paper, marked on the back for that election.

(8) The applicant must be allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret and to place and seal it in an unmarked envelope identified for this purpose which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope which is marked on the outside with the applicant’s name, identity number and the name of the South African embassy, high commission, consulate or other location contemplated in subregulation (3) where the vote was cast.

(9) The special voting officer must, as soon as the last applicant has voted, package and securely seal all the marked envelopes together with a record of all persons who have cast votes at the mission or location concerned, and send the package as promptly and securely as possible to the Chief Electoral Officer.

(10) The Chief Electoral Officer must, upon receipt of the packages, keep them in safe custody until the close of voting stations on voting day when-

(a) the packages are opened in the presence of party agents;

(b) each envelope is scrutinized against the list of approved special voters generated by the Chief Electoral Officer in conjunction with the voters’ roll;

(c) the votes that are accepted as regularly cast, must be counted; and

(d) the total number of votes counted for each party are added to the total numbers of votes counted for that party.

(11) Votes and packages received after 21h00 on voting day are listed and kept in safe custody but are not counted, except upon the order of a competent authority.”

Insertion of Regulation 18A and 18B

13. Chapter 4 is amended by inserting the following regulations immediately after regulation 18 –

“Voting procedure for a voter in an election for a provincial legislature whose address is not recorded on the voters’ roll

18A(1) If a voter intends to vote in an election for a provincial legislature and the voter’s name appears in the segment of the voters’ roll for the relevant voting district, but the voter has no address recorded on the voters’ roll or the voter’s address appearing on the voter’s roll is incomplete or inadequate, the voter concerned shall be entitled to vote at that voting station provided that –

- (a) the voter provides his or her address, or the details of his or her place of ordinary residence, to the presiding officer or voting officer; and
 - (b) the presiding officer or voting officer determines, in the presence of party agents, that the voter’s address or place of ordinary residence as provided in terms of sub-regulation (1)(a) is located within the province in respect of which the voter intends to cast a provincial ballot.
- (2) If the presiding officer or voting officer determines that the voter’s address or place of ordinary residence as provided in terms of sub-regulation (1)(a) is located within the province in respect of which the voter intends to cast a provincial ballot, the voter concerned shall be allowed to cast a provincial ballot in terms of section 38 of the Act.
- (3) If a party agent objects to a voter contemplated in sub-regulation (2) being entitled to vote in an election for a provincial legislature in terms of section 41(1A), the voter concerned must be handed and allowed to mark the ballot paper in secret as if it is a special vote contemplated in sub-regulation 15(6), provided that –
- (a) the outer envelope as contemplated in regulation 15(6) is marked on the outside with the voter’s name, identity number, voting district number and the address or place of ordinary residence provided by that voter in terms of sub-regulation (1)(a);
 - (b) the outer envelope is marked “DISPUTED”; and
 - (c) the marked envelope is placed in the ballot box but is not counted until the Commission decides the objections.

(4) Once the Commission decides the objections contemplated in sub-regulation (3), the disputed votes are opened in the presence of party agents and–

(a) the ballot papers must be scrutinized to ascertain whether any of them must be rejected for a reason mentioned in section 47(3) of the Act;

(b) the rejected ballot papers, if any, are filed separately;

(c) the ballot papers cast by voters who the Commission has determined to be ordinarily resident in the province concerned are counted, and the total number of votes for each party are recorded in that election; and

(c) the designated official must keep a separate record of the results of the votes counted and rejected in terms of sub-regulation (5)(a) and (b).

Number of times that voter may be issued a new ballot paper

18B The presiding officer may in terms of section 40(4) issue a new ballot paper to a voter contemplated in section 40(1) no more than two times after the issue of the initial ballot paper in terms of section 38(5)(d)."

Amendment of Regulation 19

14. Regulation 19 is hereby amended by –

14.1. the substitution for sub-regulation (1) of the following sub-regulation

"(1) An agent or a voter wishing to object in terms of section 41(1), or (3) of the Act-

(a) [to a voter being entitled to vote;]

(b) to voter being refused a ballot paper; or

(c) to any other conduct of an officer, an agent, or any other persons present at a voting station, must do so by handing to the presiding officer at the time of the occurrence a written objection in a form substantially similar to Appendix 5."

14.2. the insertion of the following sub-regulation after sub-regulation (4) –

"(4) An agent wishing to object in terms of section 41(1) to a voter being entitled to vote on the grounds contemplated in section 41(1A) must do so by handing to the presiding officer at the time of the occurrence a written objection in a form substantially similar to Appendix 5A, which must-

(a) contain detailed reasons for the objection; and

(b) attach such documents as are necessary to substantiate the basis of such objection.”

Appendixes

15. Appendixes 1, 5, 10 and 11 are hereby substituted by the corresponding appendixes in Annexures A, B, C and D.
16. Appendixes 2 and 3 are hereby deleted.
17. Annexure E is inserted as a new Appendix 5A immediately after Appendix 5.
