Amendment of regulation 13 of the Regulations

3. Regulation 13 of the Regulations is hereby amended-

a. by the insertion after regulation 13 of the following regulation:

“13A. Firearms”-;

- 13A. (1) A security business, which renders a security service requiring the possession of a firearm, must lawfully provide a suitable firearm for that purpose and may not require or permit a security officer employed by the security business to obtain a firearm for that purpose.
- (2) A security officer may, for purposes of rendering a security service in the course of his or her employment, only possess a firearm lawfully provided by his or her employer.
- “(3) Any security business which intends to use firearms, must, in writing inform the Authority of its intention to possess and use firearms for the rendering of security services, along with a copy of its application submitted to the Control Firearms Registrar”.
- “(4) For purposes of keeping records, both new and existing security businesses intending to use or using firearms or any other weapons to render security services must, after being issued with the firearm licence, provide the Authority with the following particulars-
- (a) A copy of the firearm licence issued to the security business in terms of section 20(2)(a) of the Firearms Control Act;
- (b) the total number and type of licenced firearms and ammunition issued to and possessed by the security business;
- (c) the total number of weapons issued to and used by security officers;

- (d) the total number of firearms and ammunition issued to the security officers when on duty or rendering security services;
- (e) full particulars of security officers issued with firearms, ammunition or any other weapon; and
- (f) any additional information that the Authority may require”.

“(5) A security business may only issue a firearm to a security officer employed by it for the rendering of a security service if-

- (a) the issuing of the firearm by the security business and possession by the security officer is in accordance with all applicable laws;
- (b) the security business is in possession of a licence issued in terms of section 20 (2) (a) of the Firearms Control Act;
- (c) the security business’s registration as a security service provider is not suspended, withdrawn or terminated for any reason as contemplated in section 26 of the Act”.
- (d) a security officer carrying and using a firearm issued to him or her by the security business complies with all applicable laws in carrying and using that firearm, and must-
 - (i) return to a responsible official of the security business, when so instructed, any document provided by it in terms of law to authorize the possession of the firearm by the security officer;
 - (ii) return the firearm and ammunition issued to him or her to a responsible official of the security business as soon as reasonably possible after the completion of his or her duties or work shift in the rendering of security services;

- (iii) at all times take reasonable steps to guard against the loss, theft or unauthorized possession or use of the firearm and ammunition issued to him or her;
- (iv) inform the responsible official of the security business of any discharge, loss or theft of the firearm or ammunition as soon as reasonably possible after the incident; and
- (v) inform the responsible official of the security business of any additional information regarding the discharge, loss or theft of the firearm or ammunition, issued to any other security officer by that security business”.

“(6) A security business which renders a security service requiring the possession or use of a handgun or shotgun, must issue such firearm to a security officer as contemplated in sub-regulation (2) only for the rendering of one or more of the following security services-
