APPLICATIONS FOR ACCREDITATION TO PRESENT THE PROGRAMME OF STRUCTURED COURSE WORK FOR PRACTICAL VOCATIONAL TRAINING

MANDATE OF THE LEGAL PRACTICE COUNCIL

VISION

Our vision is of a South Africa in which all South Africans have access to law and justice at an affordable fee, which in turn will contribute to improving the quality of life of all South Africans and the building of a peaceful, prosperous and democratic society where it matters not whether one is rich or poor because the courts are open to all.

MISSION

To provide legal practitioners and candidate legal practitioners in the legal profession with adequate training programmes as contemplated in the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014.

MANDATE

The vision for the transformation of the legal profession is set out in the preamble to the Legal Practice Act. Central to this vision is the building of a legal profession that is broadly representative of the demographics of South Africa and that grasps the intellectual and professional challenges facing South Africans in the 21st century and meets the needs of legal practitioners and the development needs of our society and economy.

The building of such a system necessitates, among other things, the promotion of high standards of legal education and training, compulsory post-qualification professional development, continuing legal education and trial advocacy training not only in public universities, but also in organisations and institutions accredited by the Legal Practice Council: such courses need to be accessible and sustainable training courses for law graduates aspiring to be admitted and enrolled as legal practitioners having due regard to our inherited legacy and the aspirations of the new constitutional dispensation.

The accreditation of training institutions and organisations applies only to those which offer training programmes that contribute to the qualification of legal practitioners and candidate legal practitioners. Accreditation means that an institution or organisation is granted the legal authority to offer duly accredited programmes.

The aim of accrediting training institutions and organisations is to ensure that-

- (a) all accredited institutions and organisations offer a high quality of legal education as determined by the norms and standards applied by the Legal Practice Council;
- (b) all such institutions and organisations provide accessible and sustainable training of law graduates aspiring to be admitted and enrolled as legal practitioners;

- (c) all accredited institutions and organisations have the resources, capacity and expertise to deliver accredited programmes;
- (d) all accredited institutions and organisations will develop programmes in order to empower historically disadvantaged legal practitioners, as well as candidate legal practitioners; and,
- (e) the system continues on a path of transformation in accordance with the design of the Legal Practice Act and complementary government policy and regulation.

Accreditation can be seen as a means of protecting the integrity of the legal system and the interests of the public and the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.

Chapter 2 of the Legal Practice Act deals specifically with training organisations and institutions. The Regulations for the accreditation of such institutions, of which this guide and the application form are an appendix, provide the legal framework within which the Legal Practice Council is required to regulate the accreditation of private institutions.

EXPLANATORY NOTE FOR APPLICATION FOR ACCREDITATION

The Council has considered the comments by the legal profession concerning the Norms and Standards published on 3 April 2020 in Government Gazette 43192. The Norms and Standards are the draft Guidelines for any application for accreditation to be made to the Council to present the practical vocational training.

Accordingly, the Council has adopted the amendments published in this Government Gazette. Applicants are requested to take note of the following three matters in particular.

First, the Council will accept applications for accreditation from natural and juristic persons, trusts, voluntary associations, non-profit organisations and non-governmental organisations.

Second, the Council will accept applications for accrediting a cluster of courses, or for courses dedicated to training candidate legal practitioners as attorneys, or referral advocates or non-referral advocates or for any combination thereof and will also consider applications for training candidate legal practitioners in all three forms of legal practice contemplated in section 34 of the Legal Practice Act. Applicants are requested to modify the Application Form at Tables 01, 02 and 03 to suit their preferred accreditation.

Third, the Council will accept applications for accreditation of courses where the applicant has not developed the course material itself but has obtained course material lawfully from any other relevant training institution.

GUIDELINES

Introduction

1. These are the guidelines for prospective applicants desiring to apply for accreditation to the Legal Practice Council (“the Council”).
2. All interested parties must apply for accreditation to the Council to present the practical vocational training (“PVT”) structured programmes for the year 2021 and thereafter. Those parties who have already received accreditation for the year 2020 must treat such accreditation as valid only for the year 2020. Accreditation henceforth will be valid for three years and must be renewed thereafter. The Council may withdraw accreditation at any time should an applicant fail to abide by the terms of accreditation.

The Guidelines

3. The purpose of these guidelines is to assist applicants to apply for accreditation. The guidelines are the following:
  - 3.1. In Part A the application process is set out: this includes the prescribed forms to be completed. Part A commences with the logistical requirements and contains the minimum standards applicants have to meet.
  - 3.2. The logistical requirements stipulated by the Council will be subject to verification and inspection by officials from the Council.
  - 3.3. Applicants must submit their course material for accreditation. The Council provides minimum standards and guidelines for teaching and training methods.
  - 3.4. In Part B the required curriculum and details of the course work are set out. Applicants must comply with the structured course work approved by the Council.
  - 3.5. The Council will approve or reject the applicant’s curriculum and course content. Applicants must comply with the Council’s norms and standards set out below.

PART A

Logistical Requirements

4. All applicants will have to meet the following requirements:
  - 4.1. There must be a comfortable teaching and learning environment;
  - 4.2. There must be a venue capable of accommodating the number of candidates the applicant wishes to train;
  - 4.3. The venue may be used as a moot court; this is not a compulsory requirement.
  - 4.4. The venue may accommodate break-away rooms for candidates to work on case studies. This is not a compulsory requirement;
  - 4.5. There must be reasonable access to basic textbooks and relevant legislation;
  - 4.6. There must be reasonable access to the internet for research purposes;
  - 4.7. The venue may be fitted with data projectors and screens with audio facilities; This is not a compulsory requirement;
  - 4.8. A computer room may be established to assist candidates to use technology;
  - 4.9. There should be access to refreshments;
  - 4.10. Ablution facilities must be provided;
  - 4.11. A rest area may be provided.

Site Visits

5. Applicants are informed that the Council will conduct site visits, upon reasonable notice to the training institution, to verify that minimum standards are met.

Training and Teaching Personnel

6. The Council will require that all teaching and training personnel be drawn from the ranks of experienced legal practitioners, lecturers and trainers. Applicants will be required to provide details of the number of trainers and facilitators to be deployed. All trainers and facilitators are expected to meet the norms and standards published by the Council. Minimum standards for teaching methods are stated below in Part B.

Non-Refundable Fee

7. Applicants will be expected to pay the following fees, in terms of the Rules:
  - 7.1. A non-refundable fee to be paid on application for accreditation; and
  - 7.2. A non-refundable fee to be paid on renewal of accreditation;
  - 7.3. The fee payable on application for accreditation is R 5 000 and must accompany the application. Absent payment, the application will not be processed.
  - 7.4. The fee payable for any renewal is R 2 500 and must accompany applications for renewal of accreditation.
  - 7.5. All fees will be subject to review by the Council.

Application Form

8. Applicants should complete the Application Form after having read these Guidelines. The Application Form is a separate document appended at the end of the Guidelines. See the document entitled APPLICATION FOR ACCREDITATION AS A TRAINING INSTITUTION (In terms of s 6(5)(g) of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014).

PART B

Curriculum and Structured Course Work

9. All applicants are required to provide details of the structured course work to be offered to candidate legal practitioners. The following is expected:
  - 9.1. A full description of every course on offer with details of the course content;
  - 9.2. Applicants must present their course materials and manuals. Course materials may be written by the applicants or lawfully obtained from any other training institution.
  - 9.3. Applicants must present a timetable for their part of the PVT programme, indicating the required hours of study and how those hours are earned. There must be an indication of how many hours of class study, case studies, independent study and on-line study are proposed.
  - 9.4. The applicant is expected to provide a brief and clear statement of what the candidate can expect to achieve on successful completion of each course (outcomes).
  - 9.5. Applicants must satisfy the Council that they can comply with the norms and standards. The Council may assess the teaching methodology.

Guidelines for Teaching Methods

10. The following are the basic guidelines for teaching and training candidate legal practitioners (“candidates”) in the PVT programme and optional programmes. This is not an exhaustive list: applicants are encouraged to develop their own training methods. Please note: The Council does not expect applicants to redo the LLB.
  - 10.1. An appropriate and well-managed presentation; reading to candidates from books and legislation serves no practical purpose;
  - 10.2. Instructors must remain relevant to the content being dealt with;
  - 10.3. Instructors must focus on the candidates’ understanding of the concepts and how to apply this in practice;
  - 10.4. Instructors should engage candidates by asking questions and calling for comment: candidates need to be encouraged to ask questions and participate;
  - 10.5. Instructors need to impress upon candidates that any drafting assignments be carried out without assistance and without the use of precedents;
  - 10.6. The course must be subdivided into appropriate units, lessons or modules;
  - 10.7. A sequential exposition is a must, with new material building on previous material;
  - 10.8. The use of a variety of approaches, including summaries, visual material and illustrative examples to illuminate particular concepts is encouraged;
  - 10.9. All instructors are to make candidates aware of recent judgments and amendments to legislation; and
  - 10.10. The inclusion of clear instructions to guide candidates through the material.
  - 10.11. Applicants must produce an assessment questionnaire for candidates who must complete the questionnaire at the end of each course.

Fees for Training the PVT Programme

11. Applicants who intend to charge fees for attendance at PVT programmes must disclose the amount in their application. Proposed fees are subject to Council approval.

Accreditation for Coursework

12. Applicants may apply for accreditation to provide the PVT programme. Applicants may also apply to provide the specialised courses in addition to the PVT programme or one or combination of the specialised courses.

- 12.1. The following is a list of such specialised courses:

- Trial Advocacy
- Legal Writing
- Drafting commercial contracts
- Accounts management
- Business practice and management
- Wills and estates
- Conveyancing
- Notaries

- 12.2. The courses above are typically three to five-day courses and are intensive. The course content and norms and standards are set by the Council. Applicants are expected to provide full details of the curriculum, coursework and outcomes.

- 12.3. Applicants must disclose the fees for such training in the application: the fees are subject to approval by the Council.

Financial Information

- 13.1 The Council must be satisfied, at least for the period that accreditation is sought, that the applicant is financially capable of sustaining the training programme. The Council will apply a flexible and reasonable assessment of the documentation the applicant presents for accreditation.

- 13.2 Applicants are requested to attach a copy of their lease agreement for the training facilities, or a copy of the Service Level Agreement with the hotel/conference venue where the training will take place, in the event that training is taking place in a physical venue. The Legal Practice Council reserves the right to conduct site visits to ensure the training venue is suitable and minimum standards are met at all times.

Quality Control

14. The Council is mandated to carry out oversight regarding the quality of training provided by applicants. Applicants are informed of the following:

- 14.1 A programme of quality control and oversight measures will be determined by the Council and published to all interested parties.
- 14.2 Applicants will be subjected to regular inspection;
- 14.3 Council staff may attend programmes to assess that minimum standards are being met;
- 14.4 Poor or indifferent quality will result in termination of accreditation.
- 14.5 The Council is committed to continuous improvement. Applicants are encouraged actively to improve course contents and training methods. The Council will release regular notices or newsletters to deal with new training materials and how to deal with changes and updates to the law and practice.

NORMS AND STANDARDS

- 15. Regulations 6(11) and 7(10) require the Council to provide training standardised in terms of norms and standards for the structured PVT coursework. The document, setting out the required norms and standards, is annexed to these Guidelines as Annexure B. All applicants for accreditation are expected to meet such standards.
- 16. Applicants are requested to prepare their applications for accreditation based on the norms and standards published by the Council. Applicants may modify Tables 01, 02 and 03 in the Application Form to suit their own accreditation request.

Certificate of Accreditation

- 17. The Council will issue all successful applicants for accreditation with a certificate of accreditation. The certificate will contain the date of issuance of accreditation and the time period during which the certificate remains valid.

OPTIONAL COURSES

The LPC will have to accredit institutions to provide the two options below. The LPC can anticipate applications for the options below. The structured course work and the norms and standards appear below. These courses will be attended by practitioners as well.

23 Optional courses: a) Advanced Trial Advocacy – 5 days (40 hrs) This is a structured course as contemplated in Section 25 (3) (a) of the LPA and rule 19.2. The programme must satisfy the requirement of 40 hours, minimum. Advocacy is a performance skill. The course is divided into four parts: the first two parts comprise theory: the last two parts are performances in a mock trial situation under supervision as indicated in the third column, notice to trainers. Part one, how to assess facts. Fact analysis. Part two, how to adopt a strategy for trial, aka a trial theory: a candidate will learn the essential difference between a leading question (for use in cross-examination) and a valid question in leading a witness (the who, what, when, where, why, how and how much questions). Part three, performing in the mock trial as counsel for plaintiff and/or defendant: one day a candidate will be counsel for plaintiff, the next counsel for defendant et cetera. Part four, cross-examination in a mock criminal law trial: all candidates will practice this session. The theory and mock trial performances deal with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Opening statement</li> <li>• Examination-in-chief</li> <li>• Cross-examination (civil &amp; criminal)</li> <li>• Re-examination (to be avoided)</li> <li>• Final argument</li> </ul>	Expected Outcomes The trial advocacy training will ensure that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Candidates appreciate and understand how to conduct trials with confidence despite their natural nervousness when performing in court.</li> <li>b) Candidates will be able to assess facts that are in their client’s favour and against their client’s case.</li> <li>c) Equally, candidates will be able to assess facts that favour the other litigant in the case as well as facts that do not favour the other litigant.</li> <li>d) Candidates will have a good grasp of the Good fact – Bad fact assessment. The model assesses good and bad facts for each party independently, first for the plaintiff and then for the defendant.</li> <li>e) Candidates will be able to present an opening statement.</li> <li>f) Candidates will be able to conduct an examination-in-chief using, inter alia, the piggy-back or looping method.</li> <li>g) Candidates will be able to conduct cross-examination in civil cases.</li> <li>h) Candidates will understand that leading questions are permissible ONLY in cross-examination.</li> <li>i) Candidates will be able to conduct cross-examination in criminal cases. The core duty in criminal cases is to put the version of the accused to the witnesses for the State. Failure to do so renders the accused at risk of being found guilty as charged.</li> <li>j) Candidates will understand why re-examination is not advised.</li> <li>k) Finally, candidates will be able to present a</li> </ol>	Note to Trainer The course requires formative assessments while candidates engage in mock trials. The trainer must identify the following six steps during the training and require the candidate to repeat the drill. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Headnote – a catchy phrase to identify only one fault in the candidate’s performance.</li> <li>2. Playback – repeat exactly the phrase the candidate used which requires improvement.</li> <li>3. Rationale – explain the nature of the problem and why the performance needs improvement.</li> <li>4. Prescription – a clear pithy statement of how the performance can be improved.</li> <li>5. Demonstration – the trainer shows the candidate how to perform.</li> <li>6. Replay – then candidates immediately repeat the critical part of their performance to show they have grasped the lesson. The replay must be short and to the point. The method requires all candidates to be present for each performance. Learning is incremental and each candidate learns from other candidates’ performances. Candidates must also be witnesses in the mock trials while they are not performing as counsel in the mock trial. Accordingly, candidates must read the trial exercises carefully and have a thorough recollection of the role each witness plays in the mock trial. NB the trainers will be responsible for both formative and summative assessments of the candidates. The standard of such assessment must be approved by the LPC. </li></ol>

NB: it is assumed that the candidates have an adequate knowledge of the rules of court, the rules of evidence, how to draft pleadings and heads of argument, and a good grasp of ethics. It is also assumed that candidates will read the trial exercises properly before attending the trial advocacy course.	coherent final argument at the end of the trial.	At the end of the training a candidate must receive a certificate of competence in terms of Rule 19.2.4.
b) Advanced drafting course – 5 days Content: Candidates must receive practical training in the following skills: Drafting Pleadings Candidates must receive training in the following disciplines: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>How to obtain the facts and documents;</li> <li>How to sequence the facts and documents;</li> <li>How to contextualise the matter in law;</li> <li>Where to find the applicable law;</li> <li>How to apply the law to the facts of the case;</li> <li>How to work out the cause of action or defence.</li> </ol> Drafting skills With the use of case studies, candidates must draft the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Be able to write down the material facts of the case;</li> <li>Be able to recognise the material elements of the cause of action or defence;</li> <li>Be able to use this to prepare a rough draft of particulars of claim;</li> <li>Draft particulars of claim with reference to the Uniform Rules and practice directives;</li> <li>Draft particulars of claim with reference to the</li> </ol>	The Expected Outcomes Candidates are expected to have a working knowledge of how to draft. An assessment must be made using an open book format of examination combined with the assignments completed during the course. This course must be done after the candidate completed the course on plain English writing. The candidate must also be part of the literacy programme which requires the candidate to read and complete one book per month.	Note to Trainers This module is an intensive course. Encourage candidates to write on their own from day one. We encourage the use of case studies. Give candidates a statement of fact and require them to draft particulars of claim on their own and without the assistance of precedents. Candidates are expected to draft particulars of claim in Contract and Delict. Each effort must be assessed by a trainer and candidates must be encouraged to repeat the draft until they get it right. This is time consuming and trainers are to impress upon candidates that they are expected to work long hours and at home to complete case studies. The trainer for this module must have more than 10 years' experience or a comparable level of expertise in drafting for litigation.

peculiar facts of the case; Draft particulars of claim without reference to precedents. Be able to draft a plea with reference to the Uniform Rules and practice directives; Be able to draft a version setting out a defence to plaintiff's claim. Candidates must be introduced into drafting statements of claim and statements of defence.
Motion Court Candidates must learn the following skills: a) To assess the facts and the law to decide whether a matter may be dealt with in an application rather than an action. When is a dispute of fact not capable of being adjudicated on the papers? b) To draft notices of motion; including long and short form notices as well as two-part notices of motion. A notice of motion in search and seizure applications (Anton Pillar Order). c) To draft a founding affidavit. This must include the recommended layout in the Uniform Rules and practice directives. ## ANNEXURE C: LEGAL PRACTITIONERS ACCOUNTS MANAGEMENT

CURRENT CURRICULUM CONTENT	RELEVANT SECTION IN LEGAL PRACTICE ACT	RECOMMENDATIONS
Chapter 1 – Introduction
Bookkeeping and Accounting	Rule 54.6 – A Legal Practitioner shall have and keep Business and Trust Account transactions as are necessary to enable the firm to satisfy its obligations in terms of the Act, these rules and any other law with respect to the preparation of financial statements that present fairly and in accordance with Acceptable financial reporting framework in South Africa. Rule 54.6.1. Records showing all assets and liabilities as required in terms of Section 87. Rule 54.6.2 Records containing entries from day to day of all moneys received and paid by it on its own account.	In light of Rule 54 it seems as if the Legislature envisioned that an attorney's firm should go further than to do the mere bookkeeping of transactions (as described by Rule 54.6.2) they should further have accounting records which is in line with IFRS and IFRS for SME's (Rule 54.6) and Records showing all assets and liabilities (Rule 54.6.1). Practitioners need an understanding that there is a reporting standard; but are not expected to actually comply themselves. An accountant will prepare the books accordingly.
What is a Business?	Section 34(5)	This is still relevant and explains that a Legal Practitioner can act on their own account, as part of a juristic entity, Law Clinic, Legal Aid, State. It also gives the forms of business enterprise for the previously known "Advocates".
Difference between owner and Business		In this section take the opportunity to introduce the Personal Finance Management , and include budgets, cash flow forecasts on a personal finance level. This will also reduce the risks associated with maintaining Trust Accounts.
The Bookkeeping Process		This is still very relevant and must be included in the curriculum as it explains the double entry bookkeeping system.
The Cash Book	Rule 54.6.2 for recording Day to day transactions; Rule 54.8 Keeping Trust and Business accounts separate	This is the starting point of all Cash transactions and must be explained to students.
Balances Brought Down		This is the balancing of T-Accounts and will have to be explained to students to get an understanding of what is the balance of an account at the end of the month.

Debit and Credits		This also needs to be explained as students will have to complete the double entry bookkeeping system which started with the Cash book.
Chapter 2 – Cash Book	Rule 54.6.2 ; Rule 54.14.13, Rule 54.14.14
Basic cashbook principles, recording transactions		This is still very relevant as this is the first leg of the double entry bookkeeping system and the starting point of writing up transactions where movement of money is involved. Look at different types of deposits that we get, for example credit cards, perhaps discuss the do's and don'ts for cell phone banking, electronic payments and banking apps etc. Instead of cheques.
Balancing of cash books		Still relevant
Bank reconciliation statements and Supplementary Cash books		Still relevant for purposes of understanding why one needs to do this.
Extracting a list of Trust Creditors	Rule 54.15.1, Rule 54.14.8	This is very important to ensure that you always have enough money in your Trust Account to cover your liabilities towards clients.
Chapter 3 – Petty Cash
How to record petty cash		This is still being used in practice and students should know how to implement internal controls to manage petty cash correctly. They require the theory.
Chapter 4 – Journals Chapter 6 – Transfer Journal and Transfer Procedures
Transfer journals	Rule 54.14 Internal Controls- Rule 54.14.12	This is an important aspect of attorneys bookkeeping as the Trust moneys will now be transferred into your Business account and could create a Trust deficit if you are not careful.
Trust Journals		How to deal with Trust errors and with transactions where money should be transferred from one client to another within the practice

Fee Journals	Section 35	Fees will become even more important as we move forward under the LPA. Section 35 (which is not in effect yet) will prescribe tariffs for attorneys. Further we need to also include contingency fees and the practical working thereof under this heading. (Section 35(12)) We would also like to see a section on time management and the recording of time as a Legal Practitioner as well as how to deal with your time on Pro-Bono matters.
Chapter 5 - Ledgers		As these are the books of secondary entry, the practitioners need to understand this process to give effect to the double entry bookkeeping system and therefore this should also be kept in the curriculum.
Chapter 6 – Transfer Journals (as discussed under Chapter 4)
Chapter 7 – Value Added Tax		This is still a very relevant topic and should be included in the curriculum as it also goes hand-in-hand with fees as well.
Chapter 8 - Investments	Section 86(3); section 86(4) and Section 55	Investments on behalf of the LPFF and for the client's benefit should still be discussed in detail and we would put a little more emphasis on the theory aspect thereof as well. Further with regards to Section 55 Investment Practices, I think we should discuss this in more detail in the notes and especially the FAIS requirements thereof.
Chapter 9 - Conveyancing		This is still a very relevant and important part of attorneys' practices and also the area where there is a lot of risk involved. The practical writing up of the accounts are still relevant as well as the theoretical aspect thereof. We intend to include due diligence for purposes of transferring funds and making payments to client. Avoids fraud.
Chapter 10 – Correspondent	Code of Conduct; Part III Conduct	In particular Practitioners need an

Transactions	of Attorneys; Rule 12 Sharing of fees; Rule 14 Payment of commission; Rule 19	understanding of how fees and disbursements are managed when a correspondent is engaged. Fee sharing and payment of commission as well as pro-bono work should be dealt with under this heading.
Chapter 11 - Theory		This chapter in the current curriculum discusses the theory surrounding all of the above, however we find that students hardly ever go through this chapter in preparation for the exam. We would prefer if the theory is included in the relevant sections before the practical writing up of the books are done for the specific topic.
