The term of office of the members of the Agricultural Produce Agents Council (APAC) expired on 04 March 2021. The Agricultural Produce Agents Act, 1992 (Act No. 12 of 1992) makes provision for the appointment of successor members when members' term of office expires.

The Minister of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development hereby invites nominations of suitable persons to be considered for appointment as members of the APAC.

The objectives of APAC are to regulate the occupations of fresh produce, export and livestock agents, and to maintain and enhance their status and dignity and the integrity of practitioners of those occupations.

Nominations are hereby called for persons to represent the following categories:

- Fresh produce producer (1);
- Fresh produce agent (1);
- Livestock agent (1);
- Export agent (1);
- Consumers (1); and the minister (2).

Members of the APAC will be appointed for a period not exceeding three (3) years. Each nomination must be accompanied by the following:

- A detailed Curriculum Vitae;
- A written acceptance of the nomination by the nominee;
- An indication of the category the nominee is being nominated for;
- certified copies of all educational qualifications; and
- A certified copy of an identity document.
- A declaration that he or she is not disqualified to serve on the APAC, in terms of Section 3(7) of the Agricultural Produce Agents Act, 1992.
- The nomination of candidates should enhance representation in terms of race and gender.
- Members of the APAC shall be paid such remuneration or allowances from the funds of the APAC, as the APAC may determine.
- Suitable candidates will be subjected to a personnel suitability check regarding citizenship, qualification(s) and criminal record verification.

Nominations should reach the following address on or before 14 October 2022.
