CHAPTER 3

LODGING COMPLAINTS

- 3. Complaints which may be investigated by the FPB. – (1) The FPB has the jurisdiction to conduct or cause to be conducted any investigation –
- (a) on receipt of a complaint, into any alleged contravention of the Act;
 - (b) on its own accord, into any alleged contravention of the Act.
- 4. Complaints not dealt with by the FPB. – (1) The FPB has no jurisdiction to deal with complaints regarding any contravention of the Act prior to 1 March 2022.
- (2) The FPB may reject any complaint, which –
- (a) is based on hearsay, rumour or reports disseminated through the media, provided that the FPB may conduct an enquiry to verify any allegation of a contravention of the Act that is reported in the media or obtained from any source and upon verification, such alleged violation must be dealt with in terms of the Act and these Procedures;

- (b) is couched in language that is abusive, insulting, rude or disparaging, provided that the FPB may consider a complaint if such language is removed;
- (c) is the subject of a dispute before a court of law, tribunal, any statutory body, any entity with internal dispute resolution mechanisms, or settled between the parties, or in which there is a judgment on the issues in the complaint or finding of such court of law, tribunal, statutory body or other body;
- (d) is an anonymous complaint, subject to the provisions of clause 8 of these Procedures, provided that the FPB may on its own accord make enquiries to ascertain the alleged contraventions of the Act and, upon verification, the FPB may deal with the complaint in terms of the Act and these Procedures;
- (e) is viewed to be frivolous, misconceived, unwarranted, incomprehensible or does not comply with the provisions of the Act and these Procedures; or
- (f) is lodged after the expiry of a period of three years from the date upon which an alleged contravention of the Act occurred, subject to the provisions of clause 11 of these Procedures.

5. Place of lodging a complaint. – (1) A complaint must be lodged at the Head Office of the FPB and may be –

- (a) Delivered by hand at –

The Film and Publication Board
Eco Glade 2

420 Witch Hazel Street
Eco Park
Centurion
0169

- (b) Addressed by post to –

The Film and Publication Board
Private Bag X31
Highveld Park

- (c) Transmitted by electronic mail to clientsupport@fpb.org.za.

6. Who can lodge a complaint. – (1) Complaints in terms of these Procedures may be lodged by –

- (a) any person acting in their own interest;
- (b) any person acting on behalf of another person who cannot act in their own name;
- (c) any person acting as a member of or in the interests of a group or class of persons;
- (d) any person acting in the public interest; or
- (e) any association or organisation acting in the interest of its members:

- (2) If a child or a person with a mental disability wishes to lodge a complaint, they must be assisted by a parent, an appropriate adult or a guardian who is not the cause of the alleged contraventions of the Act.

7. Information required when lodging a complaint. – (1) In lodging a complaint, the complainant must –

- (a) indicate whether the complaint is lodged personally or on behalf of another person, group or class of persons, association, organisation or organ of state and, if so, provide particulars;
- (b) provide the following personal information –
 - (i) full names of the complainant;
 - (ii) the physical and postal address of the complainant;
 - (iii) the telephone number of the complainant and their e-mail address, if available; and
 - (iv) a copy of their identity document, birth certificate or passport, if available, and if the complainant is not a natural person, any document showing the registration number and/or official stamp of the juristic person, if available;
- (c) provide the following information regarding the alleged contravention of the Act –
 - (i) the date and place of occurrence of the alleged contravention;
 - (ii) the nature of the contravention alleged;

- (iii) particulars of any person, group or class of persons, association, organisation or organ of state who or which is allegedly in contravention, if known;
- (iv) the names and addresses of any person who may provide information relevant to the complaint;
- (v) information regarding other mechanisms which the complainant has employed in an attempt to resolve the complaint, if any;
- (vi) particulars of any person who has been involved in an attempt to resolve the complaint, if any;
- (vii) any other relevant information or supporting documents that can be used during the investigation; and
- (viii) the way in which the alleged contravention should, in the opinion of the complainant, be resolved or the nature of the relief sought.

8. Confidentiality. – (1) A complainant may, when lodging a complaint, or at any stage thereafter, request that their personal particulars be kept confidential and not be disclosed to any person outside the FPB's offices.

- (2) If the complainant is a child or a person with a mental disability, the personal information of the complainant must be kept confidential and not be disclosed to any person outside the FPB's office.
- (3) Any confidentiality request as contemplated in clause 8 (1) of these Procedures, must be supported by a written statement explaining why the information is confidential.

- (4) If a complainant has requested that their particulars be kept confidential and the FPB is of the view that these particulars are necessary in order to resolve the complaint, the FPB must, in writing –
 - (a) inform the complainant within 7 (seven) days of receipt of such request of the particulars, which in the FPB's view, must be disclosed;
 - (b) explain to the complainant the reasons therefor; and
 - (c) request the complainant's written consent to disclose such particulars.
 - (5) The FPB may, if disclosure of the complainant's particulars is in its view necessary to resolve the complaint, decline to investigate the complaint if the complainant refuses the request as contemplated in clause 8 (4)(c) of these Procedures.
 - (6) The FPB must, within 7 (seven) days of its decision as contemplated in clause 8 (6) of these Procedures, inform the complainant, in writing, of its decision, giving full reasons and advising the complainant of their right of judicial review.
- 9. Format of lodging a complaint. – (1) A complaint to the FPB should preferably be in writing but an oral complaint in person or by telephone may be accepted –
- (a) if it is not possible for a person who wishes to report a complaint to reduce it to writing;
 - (b) if it is not possible for a complainant to send a written complaint to the FPB; or

- (c) if the complaint concerns an urgent matter making it inadvisable to insist on a written complaint.
- (2) An oral complaint must be reduced to writing by the member of staff, as duly designated, on a form which substantially corresponds with the form provided for in Annexure A to these Procedures.

CHAPTER 4

PROCESSING OF COMPLAINTS

- 10. Procedure followed after lodging a complaint. – (1) The FPB must, within 7 (seven) days from the date of receipt of the complaint, acknowledge receipt of the complaint via the post, e-mail, facsimile or cellular phone text message, a record of which shall be held by the FPB.
- (2) The notification of acknowledgement of receipt must advise the complainant that their complaint has been registered together with the reference number allocated to the complaint.
 - (3) If the FPB makes a finding that the complaint should be rejected or referred, the complainant must, within 7 (seven) days of the finding, be notified thereof, in writing, provided that they must be provided with full reasons for the rejection or referral and be advised of their right of judicial review.
 - (4) If the FPB makes a finding that the complaint does not fall within the jurisdiction of the FPB, or could be dealt with more effectively or expeditiously by another organisation, institution, statutory body or institution created by the Constitution or any applicable legislation, the complainant must, within 7 (seven) days of the finding:

- (a) be notified thereof, in writing;
 - (b) be provided with the contact details of the said organisation, institution or body in order to pursue the alternative option themselves (indirect referral); and
 - (c) be advised that they may contact the FPB again should they not be provided with a response from the said organisation, institution or body.
- (5) If the FPB makes a finding that the complaint constitutes a prima facie contravention of the Act, the complainant must, within 7 (seven) days of the finding, be notified that the complaint is accepted, in writing.
- (6) The timeframes provided for in this clause must be complied with unless special circumstances warrant an extension of the prescribed timeframes and where special circumstances warrant an extension of the prescribed timeframes, the FPB must, within 3 (three) days of the expiry of the prescribed timeframes, inform the complainant of the extension and the special circumstances warranting a longer period, in any manner they deem fit but by keeping written record thereof.

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION OF COMPLAINTS

11. Conclusion of complaints. – (1) A complaint is concluded under the following circumstances –

- (a) after conclusion of an assessment if the complaint is rejected or in the case of an indirect referral, if no further action is required;

- (b) after conclusion of an investigation where it is found that –
 - (i) there was no contravention of the Act; or
 - (ii) there was a contravention of the Act and the said contravention is remedied;
- (c) if a complaint is withdrawn by the complainant and the FPB is satisfied that there are no compelling reasons to proceed with the investigation;
- (d) after resolution of a matter subsequent to the institution of proceedings before the Enforcement Committee as contemplated in clause 12 of these Procedures.

12. Institution of legal proceedings before the Enforcement Committee. – (1) The FPB may institute proceedings before the Enforcement Committee, as contemplated in section 6B (1)(b) of the Act, in its own name, or on behalf of a person or a group or class of persons at any stage after a complaint contemplated in clause 3 of these Procedures is received.

13. Repeal or amendment of Procedures. – (1) These Procedures remain in force until repealed or amended by the FPB by publication in the Gazette.

14. Short title and commencement. – (1) These Procedures are called the Film and Publication Board Complaints Handling Procedures and come into operation on the date of publication hereof in the Gazette.
