GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPENSATION FUND AND ITS MEDICAL SERVICES BENEFITS DIRECTORATETHE EMPLOYEE AND THE MEDICAL SERVICE PROVIDER

Medical Service Providers are advised to take note of the following as it pertains to the treatment of patients in relation to the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act of 1993 (COID Act):

- An employee as defined in the COID Act of 1993, is at liberty to choose their preferred medical service provider and no interference with this is permitted, as long as it is exercised reasonably and without prejudice to the employee or the Compensation Fund.
The only exception to this rule is in case where an employer, with the approval of the Compensation Fund, provides comprehensive medical aid facilities to his employees, i.e. including hospital, nursing and other services — section 78 of the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act refers.
- In terms of section 42 of the COID Act of 1993, the Compensation Fund may refer an injured employee to a specialist medical practitioner designated by the Director General for a medical examination and report. Special fees are payable when this service is requested.
- In terms of section 76,3(b) of the COID Act of 1993, no amount in respect of medical expenses shall be recoverable from the employee.
- In the event of a change of a medical practitioner attending to a case, the first treating doctor in attendance will, except where the case is transferred to a specialist, be regarded as the principal treating doctor.
- To avoid disputes regarding the payment for services rendered, medical practitioners should refrain from treating an employee already under treatment by another doctor without consulting / informing the principal treating doctor. As a general rule, changes of doctor are not favoured by the Compensation Fund, unless sufficient reasons exist for such a change.
- According to the National Health Act no 61 of 2003, Section 5, a health care provider may not refuse a person emergency medical treatment. Such a medical service provider should not request the Compensation Fund to authorise such treatment before the claim has been submitted to and liability for the claim is accepted by the Compensation Fund.
 - Pre-authorisation of treatment is not possible and no medical expense will be approved if liability for the claim has not been accepted by the Compensation Fund.
- An employee seeks medical advice at their own risk. If such an employee presents themselves to a medical practitioner as being entitled to treatment in terms of the COID Act of 1993, whilst having failed to inform their employer and/or the Compensation Fund of any possible grounds for a claim, the Compensation Fund cannot accept responsibility for the settlement of medical expenses incurred.
- The Compensation Fund could also have reasons to repudiate a claim lodged with it, in such circumstances the employee would be in the same position as any other member of the public regarding payment of his medical expenses.

- Proof of identity is required in the form of a copy of a South African Identity document/card, will be required in order for a claim to be registered with the Compensation Fund.
 - In the case of foreign nationals, the proof of identity (passport) must be certified.
- All supporting documentation submitted to the Compensation Fund must reflect the identity and claim number of the employee.
- The completion of medical reports cannot be claimed separately as they are inclusive in all medical tariffs.
- The tariff amounts published in the gazette guides for medical services rendered in terms of the COID Act do not include VAT. All invoices for services will therefore be assessed without VAT.
- VAT will therefore be calculated and applied without rounding off to invoices for service providers that have confirmed their VAT vendor status with the Compensation Fund by the submission of their VAT registration number.

4. In the case sufficient information pertaining to a claim is unavailable after registration thereof, the status of the claim will be rejected until the outstanding information is submitted and liability of the claim can be determined. Depending on the outcome, the invoices from the service provider will be dealt with as set out in 2 and 3. Please note that there are claims on which a decision might never be taken due to the non-submission of outstanding information.
